

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES.

Burt Mapes returned yesterday from a trip to Omaha.

A. J. Durland made a business trip into Pierce county today.

Father Walsh returned last night from a trip to West Point.

Mrs. H. L. Stewart and daughter of Tilden were shopping in the city yesterday.

Rev. L. W. Scudder conducted services in the Presbyterian church at Laurel Sunday.

It is stated that Mr. James Davey and Miss Emma Kettill have gone to Sioux City to be united in marriage.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Koenigstein on North Seventh street is being improved by a new dressing of paint.

Grand Island has been selected as the place for holding the state high school declamatory contest and the date has been set for Friday, May 23.

The residence of Judge and Mrs. Isaac Powers at the corner of Ninth street and Koenigstein avenue, is being improved with a fresh coat of paint.

Mrs. Phillips and two daughters who have been living in rooms opposite the Oxnard hotel, left yesterday for Tilden, where they will make their home in the future.

Mr. Al. Hallam, at one time employed as pharmacist in the Leonard drug store; but now holding a responsible position with the Richardson Drug company of Omaha, is to be married at Plattsmouth tonight at 8 o'clock, the bride being Miss Oliver of that city.

F. M. Long, living in the corner of Stanton county, northeast of Norfolk, took the scalp from 14 wolves or coyotes in one day recently. He shot an old wolf and took 13 cubs from two nests. At $2 apiece for the scalp it will be recognized that Mr. Long made pretty fair wages that day.

The promised frost came last night with an energy and effect that might well entitle it to be designated as a freeze. The minimum temperature was 24 degrees, which is eight degrees below the freezing point. Although the weather conditions are much improved today the bureau promises that there will be frost again tonight and all interested should take the proper precautions.

About 25 members of the high school have expressed themselves as wishing to join the high school orchestra, soon to be organized. Mr. Julius Hulff desires to meet with all who expect to unite with the organization at the high school room Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, to consult with them regarding instruments and other matters of importance. Mr. Julius Altschuler, who is well informed on musical subjects, has also expressed a willingness to assist the orchestra in any way he can.

The Johnson Dry Goods company is abreast with the times and has purchased two of the best Singer carpet sewing machines, one to sew ingrain and one heavy Brussels carpets. The company's business in the carpet department has grown until it was often found impossible to get out made carpet as promptly as customers wanted, besides the increased amount of work could not be handled in busy times. The improved facilities will enable the company to make and deliver carpets to out-of-town customers on the same day they are bought.

"Lady Audley's Secret" was not disclosed last night by Harry Webber's company. In the first place the audience was discouraging, then at least one member of the company had acquired a condition through indulgence in intemperance that would not make a creditable appearance on the stage. To the credit of the manager it is understood that the offending member was pre-emptorily discharged. The audience that attended the performance of "Nip and Tuck" the night before was not such as to require the "standing room only" sign, and altogether the company had a very discouraging visit.

Rev. M. W. Smith of Sioux City, representing the association for Home Missionary and Rescue work, is in the city soliciting funds for his association. The branch with which he is connected operates in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, Minnesota, Missouri, Illinois and Wisconsin, and its mission is to reclaim fallen women and criminals. In many places rescue homes are established and the work is being extended as rapidly as funds can be secured. Mr. Smith is fortified with credentials showing authority to collect money for the purposes specified, which proves a satisfaction to those who contribute, as many solicitors of this character have turned out to be fakes.

Judge Barnes has received word from John E. Jordan, clerk of the circuit court of appeals at St. Louis, that the judgments obtained in favor of his clients, laborers and material men on the west wing of the asylum, have been affirmed. These judgments were obtained in the United States court at Omaha last June against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company and many local parties are interested in amounts ranging from $10.00 to $500.00, the total amount involved being $2,500.00 to $3,000.00. The controversy arose over the failure of the Omaha Building and Construction company to complete its contract for the erection of the west wing of the Norfolk hospital for the insane, and for which company the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company furnished bond. After work on the new wing had progressed some time the construction company quit and the state was obliged to carry the work to completion. It was while the construction company was still at work that these claims were made. After judgments had been secured in the United States court at Omaha, the bond company appealed to the circuit court at St. Louis and the argument was had about the middle of January. The brief in this case was the last that Judge Barnes wrote before he went on the supreme bench, and it was the last case submitted by him. Naturally he was very much interested in the decision and is elated over the outcome. His clients will now receive their money in from 40 to 60 days, or as soon as the time for motion for rehearing expires, a rehearing being the only method by which the case could be opened again, there being no further appeal.

The Sioux City Short-Horn Sale.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in this issue of the Short-horn cattle sale to be held at the Sioux City stock yards, Sioux City, Iowa, May 3, under the management of Geo. E. Ward, of that place. In sending in his order for advertising Mr. Ward writes:

"In pursuing these well known breeders to consign their cattle to this sale I did not hold out to them any inducement in the way of high prices. In fact I intimated that they would probably find it necessary to accept lower prices than they had been getting for the same kind of cattle at their home farms. I think, however, that it is time the people of the Dakotas and of the territory tributary to Sioux City should be informed of the class of cattle to be had from Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Missouri breeders. He believes that with this sale as an entering wedge the cattle trade in the territory mentioned will receive a new impetus. We trust that in this he will not be disappointed and these breeders who are sending forward some of their good cattle will not be called upon to let them go at too great a sacrifice. We trust that our readers will rise to their opportunity and attend the sale. Catalogues can be obtained by writing to Geo. E. Ward, Morningside, Sioux City, Iowa.

John W. Murdock, known among his friends as "Brick," died in the Clarkson hospital at Omaha Monday night, after an illness of about two months from paralysis. Murdock was a famous faro dealer, and spent a great deal of his time in Norfolk several years ago. The Omaha papers are giving him a great deal of praise. He is designated as a king among gamblers. It is said of him that he never turned away anyone asking for money and that he never failed to pay back the money that he himself borrowed. He wore nothing but the finest clothes made in the latest style and his linen was always spotless.

The Columbus Telegram has the following to say concerning the achievements of Master Oscar Schavland, son of Clerk of the District Court Chr. Schavland of Madison and one of the music pupils of Mrs. Cora A. Beels of this city, during the recent concert given by the Columbus band in that city: "Master Schavland is twelve years old, a boy still in knickerbockers, yet his performance on the piano forte is superior to that of many who have made the instrument a study for years. The finish and taste with which he plays the standard classics shows the attributes of a genius, and the Telegram believes he has a prominent future in the musical world."

Genoa Times: While digging a well on Chas. R. Wright's property, at a depth of fifty-five feet the head of a buffalo was unearthed. How many years have passed since the bones were buried is problematical. There is a tradition among the Indians, handed down from father to son, that in the dim and distant past all that part of the country extending from the bluffs north of town to the bluffs on the south side of the Platte was covered with water. It was probably during this period in the geological history of this part of the continent that the buffalo, whose bones were unearthed the other day, grazed around the borders of a great inland ocean, became mired in the quicksand and found a grave which remained undisturbed until well diggers threw the bones to the surface.

The hope of George Davenport and beside to escape the too enthusiastic demonstrations of their friends yesterday on their departure for a wedding tour was rudely shattered. Mr. Davenport had secured a monopoly on the hack business to begin with, and while he directed those containing his friends to be driven to the Junction his own hack was ordered driven to Hope Siding, about a mile northeast of town, having previously made arrangements to have the train stop there. By riding the springs at the back end of the hack Mr. Maylard succeeded in getting there to courteously open the door for the bridal party. Those who had been sent to the Junction soon became aware that they had been duped and after an unsuccessful effort to induce the hackmen to disobeys orders and follow the hack containing Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, they came to the conclusion that no other place than Hope Siding was the destination of the couple. From this point it was not difficult to decide that by boarding the M. & O. train at the Junction they could yet win and the 30 people of the crowd were soon on the train and concealed to properly receive the bride and groom when they entered. Showers of rice and confetti soon apprised them of the fact that their friends were present to see them off, and the leaving-taking was continued all the way to Hoskins, from which town the party was brought home in busses. After they left the train no doubt could remain in the minds of passengers, trainmen and spectators that there was a newly-married couple aboard.

Now is the time to bring in repairs to Paul Nordwig's harness shop.

WILL BUILD NOVEL VILLAGE.

Walter Vrooman Announces Plans for Co-Operative Community.

Kansas City, April 21.—Walter Vrooman, the social reformer, announced that he had purchased the land and completed plans for building a model village, or co-operative community, within a short distance of Kansas City.

The village, Mr. Vrooman says, will finally have a dozen factories for the manufacture of as many different kinds of articles, churches, schools, dwellings, stores and places of amusement, all built at his expense.

"I have already purchased the land," said Mr. Vrooman, "and will announce the location next week. The village will be built and conducted along the lines suggested in a book written by Professor John Dewey of the University of Chicago. The village will be built more for the welfare of children than for grown persons. The factories will be a source of employment for many persons."

Mr. Vrooman also announced that he would, within a few weeks, open 25 co-operative stores in Kansas City. The factories in the model village will produce articles that will be sold in the stores.

WOMAN REVEALS OLD CRIME.

Informa Officers Her Husband Killed a Little Girl Two Years Ago.

Wellington, Kan., April 21.—John Cummings, a farmer living near Portland, in this county, was arrested yesterday, charged with the murder of Anna Dishman, aged 13 years, of Arkansas City, Kan., who worked in his family as a domestic. The crime was committed Aug. 18, 1899, and it was witnessed by Cummings' wife and two sons, who have been compelled to maintain secrecy in regard to the matter.

The girl in some way angered Cummings, who struck her on the head with a broomstick. She was without medical attention and died at the end of five days from the effects of the blow. Cummings concealed the body in a strawstack and later buried it. Conscience-stricken for her part in the affair, Mrs. Cummings recently told the county attorney the details of the murder, and Cummings confessed. He will plead guilty to manslaughter in the second degree. Cummings is 45 years old, prosperous and has borne a good reputation up to this time.

WOMAN BURNS SPONTANEOUSLY.

Back Hair and Waist of Mrs. Wittenberg Burst Into Flames.

Kansas City, April 21.—A remarkable case of spontaneous combustion of the human body took place at the home of W. C. Wittenberg, in Dickson park. Mrs. Wittenberg was busy in the kitchen preparing dinner. Mr. Wittenberg and a relative, John Muir of Kansas City, Kan., who were seated in the same room, were both looking at her, when, like a flash, her back hair and the clothing on her shoulders were on fire. The men succeeded in extinguishing the flames with their hands. The only injury the woman suffered was a severely blistered neck and the loss of her hair. The strange part of it was that Mrs. Wittenberg was two feet away from the gasoline stove, on which the meal was preparing, and was facing the stove when the sheet of flame broke over her back with an explosive sound, such as a small rocket gives forth. Both men were looking at Mrs. Wittenberg at the time. They are positive that she did not come in contact with any fire.

NEGRO HIGHWAYMAN KILLED.

Graders Pursue Pair of Bandits, Kill One and Capture Another.

Omaha, April 21.—Word was received here of a battle between Union Pacific railroad graders and two colored highwaymen near Sherman, Wyo., in which one of the negroes was killed and several graders injured. The other negro was placed under arrest and turned over to the authorities at Sherman. He gives the name of Will Diamond, and says his companion, who was killed, was Will Harris.

The highwaymen had robbed a grader, and he gathered a dozen mounted men and started in pursuit. A fight ensued, in which guns were freely used, and one of the negroes was killed. The other surrendered.

Wilhelmina is Improving.

The Hague, April 23.—A favorable change occurred in the queen's illness yesterday, which made it possible that the affairs of state will soon resume their normal course. The rumors of the intention of the government to take steps looking to the establishment of a regency will, therefore, probably not materialize.

Queen Wilhelmina's Condition.

The Hague, April 21.—The condition of Queen Wilhelmina remains practically unchanged. She does not lose consciousness and has taken a little more nourishment.

Caution!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung trouble without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world.

CHICAGO LUMBER CO.

NORFOLK, NEB.

SUMMARY OF CROP CONDITIONS.

High Temperature Intensifies Existing Drought Conditions.

Washington, April 23.—The weather bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions is as follows:

The week ending April 21 was warmer than the average on the Pacific coast and Rocky mountain regions, in the Missouri valley and the northern districts to the eastward. It was too cool in the middle Atlantic and southern states and decidedly dry over the greater part of the central valleys and middle Atlantic states.

Rain is badly needed throughout the Rocky mountain district and central valley and would prove beneficial in the middle Atlantic states, while excessive moisture has hindered farm work in portions of the central gulf states.

The latter part of the week was marked by abnormally high temperatures in Kansas and Nebraska, intensifying the drought conditions in those states.

The general weather conditions, although not conducive to rapid advance of vegetation, were very favorable for farming operations in nearly all parts of the country.

Four Killed at a Crossing.

Bolivar, Tenn., April 21.—At Loone, seven miles north of here, yesterday, four persons were killed and a fifth fatally hurt by an Illinois Central Dallas Confederate reunion excursion train. The dead: Dolph Irwin, Mrs. Dolph Irwin, George Hurley and Mrs. George Hurley. Sarah Irwin was fatally injured. The party were in a wagon and attempted to cross the tracks when the second section of the special struck the vehicle.

Politician Shoots Saloonkeeper.

St. Louis, April 21.—In a quarrel over a baseball that was said to have been thrown into his yard by neighbor's children, Abe Slupsky, a prominent local politician, yesterday shot and fatally wounded Charles Pinckard, a saloonkeeper, with the latter's revolver. Slupsky, who is under arrest, says he shot in self defense, after securing possession of Pinckard's revolver.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

Collinsville, I. T., April 21.—In a shooting affray here yesterday a farm hand named Phillips was killed, Edward Heddey and William Mayfield, farmers, were mortally wounded, and O. Skidmore, a farmer, was dangerously wounded. The trouble arose over the renting of some land. Heddey was a tenant of Skidmore and in the fight Heddey and Phillips were opposing Skidmore and Mayfield.

Work on the Great Northern.

St. Cloud, Minn., April 21.—The Great Northern flyer, westbound, collided with an eastbound freight train yesterday near Watab, a few miles from her. Both engines and several cars in the freight train were demolished. One lady passenger on the flyer and four of the train crew were injured, but none of them seriously.
