W. T. Campbell, Formerly of Norfolk, in Trouble.

DECREE OF DIVORCE SET ASIDE.

Deserted Wife Had Objections to the Proceedings-Wife No. 2 Was a Wealthy Wisconsin Widow-Campbell Again Disappears.

From Saturday's Daily The Sioux City Journal of yesterday publishes, under a Monroe, Wisconsin, date line, a special relating to the matrimonial ventures of W. T. Campbell, formerly engaged in the cigar manufacturing business here in partnership with Michael Stone, having their factory in the old Norfolk National bank building at the corner of Second and Main streets. He was formerly a resident of Ponca. and married the daughter of John M. Davey, a wealthy land owner of that place, while working as baggage man at the union depot in Sioux City in 1893. At one time he was a member of the fore commencing business under Sioux City police force, was advanced to sergeant and detective, was a fireman in the Sioux City department and before coming here was engaged in the fish and poultry business with H. H. ness and when he recovered he disappeared, finally turning up at Monroe, Wisconsin, from which place this story

"By the setting aside of a decree of divorce which was granted last June by Circuit Judge Dinwiddle to W. T. finds himself with two wives on his city. hands, or at least one unlawful marriage ceremony and the possibility of having to face the charge of bigamy.

"Mr. Campbell came to this city two years ago. He had separated from his first wife at Norfolk, Neb. Last June he began proceedings here to procure a divorce. He made affidavit at the time that he did not know where his wife was and that she had left him. On the day after the decree of divorce was granted, he was married to Mrs. Fred Hefty, a well-to-do widow of this city, and lived with her until the proceedings were begun against him by the attorneys for his first wife. When the decree of divorce was set aside he disappeared in the middle of the night and it is not known now where he is.

"The ground on which the decree of divorce was set aside is that it was procured without the knowledge of the wife against whom the suit was brought. It was set up that Campbell knew perfectly well where she was, that she was in Ponca, Neb., all the time and could have been notified of the action so that she might appear and defend herself. She claims that she knew nothing of the complaint, that no summons was Centre and Second streets will be square served on her and that the publication of the notice of the suit in a newspaper was not sufficient. It was furthermore charged that the complainant was guilty of fraud and perjury in stating that he did not know where his wife

"These facts were so well established that the court set aside the decree of divorce granted.

'Mrs. Hefty was quite wealthy when Campbell married her, and she had a lucrative business in a hotel and saloon here. Since she became Mrs. Campbell No. 2, however, her worldly goods have been diminishing fast."

A New Bank Building. Plans for the new Elkhorn Valley bank building have been prepared by Architect Stitt of Norfolk. They cal for a handsome two-story brick structure, trimmed with stone, substantial in fact and appearance but with ornamentation enough to justify its being styled graceful and pretty. The corner on and the entrance to the bank proper will be towards the east of the front on Second street. Two marble steps will lead from the sidewalk to a tile-floored vestibule, separated by ground glass swinging doors from the counting room. The opening for windows and doors will be circular at top, finished with sculptured stone, the windows being of plate with leaded stained glass at top. The lower ceiling is to be thirteen feet in the clear and abundance of light will be furnished both from west and south. The vault will be separated from the walls of the building, of the most modern style, fireproof, and as near burglar proof as human ingenuity can make it. The ground floor will also contain directors' room in the rear. The upper story will be eleven feet high, divided into two suites of offices, with a toilet room in the northeast corner. The whole building is to be heated by hot water and lighted with acetylene gas.

This very desirable improvement has been long in coming but will be none the less welcome for that. For nearly ing business in the present band box of the period has been an eyesore to the (the) streets, alleys and public grounds town and a disgrace to the directors of the institution. But the prospect of Provided, first, That the said company the new elegant building looming up ing publis has felt towards the bank officers for their apparent lack of enterprise as shown by their indifference to enss blocks in town.-Tilden Citizen.

Davenport-Seymour.

From Wednesday's Daily. George Arthur Davenport and Miss Nelle Seymour were united in marriage this morning at a pretty home wedding at the residence of the bride's sister, the immediate relatives and a very few of the intimate friends of the bride and groom. It was a pink and white wedding and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maylard had been made more than ordinarily attractive by the use of beautiful cut flowers and potted plants. Promptly at 10 o'clock Mrs. E. O. Mount, who had been playing soft and melodious airs on the piano while the guests were assembling, struck the notes of the wedding march and the bridal party was ushered into the presence of Rev. S. F. Sharpless who stood in front of the large window, which had been banked with flowers. Miss Anne Seymour, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and preceded the bride and groom to their station. She was gowned in pink and carried pink roses. The bride was attired in a very dainty and becoming white dress and carried white roses. The impressive ring ceremony was used and after the congratulations of friends present had been received, the guests were seated at small tables and arose, dainty packages of wedding cake | Portland, $25. were passed. Four young ladies, intimate friends of the bride, dressed in pink and white, assisted in serving the the guests.
