FRIDAY FACTS.

Wm. R. Vredenburg of Springfield, Illinois, a nephew of Superintendent C. H. Reynolds, is here for a week's visit.

Mrs. Rainbolt entertained a small company of lady friends at a 1 o'clock luncheon this afternoon in honor of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Kingsbury.

Prof. Chambers will entertain the juveniles at a May day dancing party tonight at Marquardt's hall, a feature of which will be a May pole dance. Those favored with invitations anticipa-pate a great deal of pleasure from the entertainment.

James Reed, proprietor of the steam riding gallery, has decided to make Norfolk his headquarters for the summer and will be here with his machinery off and on during the season.

H. A. Rowe has purchased the Ed. Marple house in Hillside Terrace, South Fifteenth street, and will move it to his lot on South Fifth street. The house is at present occupied by G. T. Sprecher and family.

Providing no serious frost interferes there is every prospect for a bountiful fruit crop this season. The trees are loaded with blooms that are apparently vigorous and healthy, and from all appearances the people have every encouragement to cultivate a fruit appetite with the expectation that it will receive satisfaction in proper season.

The will of the late J. Sterling Morton of Nebraska City was opened in court yesterday. The estate is estimated to be worth in the neighborhood of $100,000. The will provides for an annuity to be paid to Miss Emma Morton, sister of the deceased, after which the estate is divided into four equal parts, one share for each of the sons, Arbor Lodge goes to the oldest son, Jay Morton.

Mrs. Nelson, wife of Franz Nelson, president of the First National bank of Hartington, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon. She had returned from a drive and in alighting from her carriage approached rather close to the heels of one of the horses that became frightened and kicked her viciously in the stomach and ran away, breaking the carriage to pieces. Mrs. Nelson was taken to the house in an unconscious condition and a doctor summoned who reported later that she was not seriously injured.

The West Side Whist club held a business meeting last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bucholz. It was voted that no other regular meetings of the club should be held this season as it is getting late in the year and it was decided that the season should conclude with a banquet to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Huse two weeks from tonight. This banquet will be given by the half of the club members having the lowest scores for the season to the half having the highest scores, a record having been kept for the winter in anticipation of the event.

The News has received a new newspaper folding machine. This is not published particularly as a matter of news but more as a record of persistency, it being an exceedingly old and shelf worn story to those who have taken an active part in installing new machines and removing those that have been tried and found wanting. The News started out some time ago to secure a machine that would do the work laid out for it to do, and has tried something less than a dozen recommended by the manufacturers as being the particular machines that would hold the job, but they have all developed weaknesses and been discarded. The arrival of this new machine is therefore merely another chapter in a long drawn out and somewhat tedious story. It is to be hoped that this is the final chapter but from previous experience there is no warrant in assuming that it is. Time will tell.

The story of an interesting battle comes down from Rushville, in which C. L. Harum and wife were the combatants on one side and James, John and Henry Sweeney on the other. The trouble started in a dispute over land and took place on Tuesday. James Sweeney struck Harum over the head with his fist and Harum knocked Sweeney down. The other two Sweeneys then took a hand and Mrs. Harum rushed into the melee to aid her husband. The elder Sweeney was struggling with Mrs. Harum for possession of a shot gun when the weapon was discharged, the load narrowly missing Harum's head. Then Sweeney shot at Harum with a rifle and Harum returned the fire, killing a horse for Sweeney. The Sweeney's then made a get-away but were afterwards brought into court. James Sweeney was fined $75 and costs for assault on Harum, $50 and costs for his attack on Mrs. Harum and John and Henry Sweeney were fined $25 and costs each.

How is Your Typewriter?

Fred McBride, an expert typewriter repair man, is stopping at the Pacific hotel where he will be located for a few days. He makes a business of repairing, cleaning, aligning, general overhauling or remodeling of all the standard or leading makes of typewriters, carrying all tools and parts for doing the work here in Norfolk, saving the expressage and delay necessary in sending them to headquarters for repairs.

If your machine is not working just right, better send for him at the Pacific hotel. He will call, examine your machine without charge, state what it needs, the cost of the work, and if you have it done, will guarantee satisfaction.
