FRIDAY FACTS.

The front of C. P. Parish's grocery and bakery is being repainted.

The Zische cigar store is undergoing the process of having its inside walls repapered.

Wm. Schwertfeger is moving into a cottage on South Fourth street.

Another light shower this morning added its contribution to the mud.

E. B. Kauffmann has had a set of large electric fans placed in his bakery and ice cream parlors.

Stapenhorst & Co. are having the interior of the Palace shoe store decorated with a handsome new dress of wall paper.

Miss Mamie Matrau entertained the teachers of the Lincoln building at tea last evening complimentary to Miss Lucy Williams.

Dr. H. J. Cole, who has been attending the state dental association meeting at Lincoln was honored by being chosen as president of the state organization.

Rev. L. W. Scudder has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Laurel and will preach his farewell sermon to his Norfolk congregation next Sunday.

The Madison board of education has raised the wages of teachers in the city schools $500 a year. R. B. Mossman was re-elected superintendent and Miss Catharine Woods of Plattsmouth was chosen principal.

Rev. H. E. Ryder, who has been pastor of the Baptist church for something more than a year, has given up the work here and left for St. Paul, Minn. The pulpit of that church here will be supplied by a new minister next Sunday.

The Senior class and others interested were somewhat disappointed this morning by the absence of County Superintendent Crum who was to have conducted an examination for the purpose of giving the class county teachers' certificates.

The Eugene Field social given last night in the parlors of the First Congregational church was a success in every respect. The program was well planned and the other enjoyments furnished those who attended were highly pleasing. The social netted the ladies society $18.

The work of putting the base ball park in condition for the season's games is under way. The same grounds used last year will be used this season. They are being graded and the grand stand will again be built, using what lumber is available in the one that was recently blown down.

Superintendent O'Connor entertained all the teachers of the city schools last night. A historical guessing contest afforded much pleasure and Mrs. A. N. Gerecke, proving the most apt in giving fitting answers, was presented with the prize. Delicious refreshments were served and the time was passed most enjoyably.

News of the death of M. K. Turner of Columbus was received in Norfolk last night. He has been seriously ill for several days preceding his death. Mr. Turner has been editor of the Journal of that city for many years, the paper having been established in May, 1870. He was the father of Mrs. H. A. Rowe of this city.

The Richardson girls, who are rooming on Fifth street and attending the High school, hung their washing on the line yesterday and had scarcely finished the work when some sneak thief came along and appropriated the clothes. The girls reported their loss to the police officers but they have not thus far been successful in locating the persons who did the stealing.

John Otis, the one-year-old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Birchard, died this morning at the home of the parents after a short illness from pneumonia. Other complications set in with the pneumonia, and although a vigorous and healthy baby, his constitution could not withstand the combined attack. The funeral will be from the house tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 and will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Turner of the First Congregational church.

Attend the commencement exercises of the conservatory at the Auditorium this and Saturday evenings and hear Norfolk's favorite violinist, Mr. Julius Hulst; also the "boy pianist" Master Oscar Schavland of Madison. Curtain rises at 8:30.

BURGLAR IS ARRESTED.

Taken Shortly After a Daring Daylight Robbery.

CASE GOES TO DISTRICT COURT

Gives the Name of William Howell and Enters a Plea of Not Guilty—Six Witnesses Examined by Justice C. E. Eiseley.

The home of Mrs. Louise Uckerman on Second street, four blocks south of Main, was entered by burglars yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock and two gold rings were stolen. The burglar gained admission by cutting through the wire that covered one of the windows. He turned things topsy turvy in his search for valuables but as far as could be ascertained nothing but the rings were taken. Mrs. Uckerman was away from home at the time and entered the back door just as the thief was departing by the front way. She immediately saw that the house had been broken into and followed the man, who was leaving, up town and secured the service of Chief of Police Kane who made the arrest at the corner of Fourth and Main.

The man was put in jail over night and this morning was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace C. F. Eiseley. He entered a plea of not guilty and six witnesses were called and examined, County Attorney Mapes being present to prosecute. The man gave his name as William Howell and his age as 29 years. He is a man of medium height and wears a sandy beard and mustache. The value of the rings stolen was given at $20. The prisoner stated that he was drunk but had not entered the house as charged. Justice Eiseley concluded after the evidence was all in that there was sufficient grounds on which to hold the prisoner and bound him over for appearance at the district court and in default of bail he will be committed to the county jail.

It is thought that the prisoner may decide to plead guilty when court meets in June as he can then receive a sentence immediately. If he decides to make a fight the case will not come up until the October term of court when there will be a jury, and in the meantime the prisoner will probably have to be kept in the county jail. It is believed that he will prefer to receive a sentence at the June sitting than to lay in the county jail until October with the probability of receiving a sentence to the penitentiary at the end of that time.

Conservatory Commencement.

Music is language. The composer takes familiar sights and sounds such as the rippling of the water, the rustling of the leaves, the gentle whisper of the summer breeze, the flitting of bird and insect, and translates them into tone. Our enjoyment and understanding of any subject depend upon age and experience. The musical is so elastic that it bears its message alike to the happy child, the ambitious youth, and the matured intellect. For each it is the epitome of individual experience. One likes the dreamy and tender, another the bold and spirited. One is moved by the bright and sparkling, another by the broad and serious. Each may find their favorite style at the Auditorium tonight and tomorrow night, and much to interest besides, as music is something to be enjoyed by all.

CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.

Committee Appointed at Last Night's Meeting to Solicit Funds.

At the meeting of business men and citizens of Norfolk held at the city hall last evening on the call of G. A. Luikart, president of the Commercial club, the sentiment prevailed that, inasmuch as Norfolk has not held a Fourth of July celebration for the past six years, this is her year to celebrate and the following committee was appointed to see how much money could be raised for such a celebration:

W. H. Johnson, E. B. Kauffman, C. E. Hartford and Chas. Rice.

This committee is expected to have quite effectively accomplished the work for which it was appointed by next Tuesday evening and at that time another meeting will be held to make further arrangements. At this meeting it is important that every business house in the city should be represented as, if Norfolk is to celebrate at all, it should be done right.

Hear the primer class at the Eugene Field social tonight. No admission fee charged.

The celebrated duo by von Wilm will be heard for the first time in Norfolk at the Auditorium this evening. It will be played by Misses Lota Blakely and Kathryn Shaw who will interpret it in the broad spirited manner that characterizes the composition.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Closing Exercises of the Norfolk Public Schools.

The closing exercises of the city schools began this afternoon when the grade schools gave patriotic programs, consisting of speaking and singing. The programs rendered were listened to by a large number of visitors including a detail of veterans from the G. A. R. post.

The baccalaureate sermon of the graduates will be by Rev. J. F. Poucher at the Methodist church on Sunday evening, next.

The graduating exercises of the Eighth grade will be held on Monday evening.

Junior day exercises will be Thursday evening, the 29th.

The alumni association's reception to the graduating class will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McClary on June 3.

The 30th being Memorial day and a legal holiday, the schools will close for the year on Thursday afternoon, the 29th.

The commencement exercises will be at the Auditorium on the evening of Memorial day, next Friday, and the following program of exercises has been arranged for that event:

Overture—L'Italiana in Algeri (Rossini)—Florence Gaylord, Clara Berner.

Invocation—Rev. Franklin Baker.

Midsommer Night's Dream (Mendelssohn-Smith)—Kathryn Shaw.

Salutatory—Elva E. Masters.

Address—Supt. D. C. O'Connor.

Polonaise in E (Liszt)—Eva Mohrman.

Valedictory—John D. Read.

Presentation of Diplomas—Dr. P. H. Salter.

Quartet—Come Where the Lilies Bloom—Mrs. S. H. Imlay, Miss Nellie Dingman, Preston Ogden, Mason Fraser.

Benediction—Rev. J. W. Turner.

Lace Curtains would sicken the heart of any conscientious housekeeper. Fortunately such a state of affairs is not necessary. We undertake to thoroughly wash and Iron any lace curtain, no matter how delicate, entrusted to our care and to return it as whole and sound as when brought to us. Anybody can launder a sock or a handkerchief—it takes art to "do up" a lace curtain.
