TO PROTECT THE AMERICANS. United States Cruiser Topeka Arrives at Port au Prince, Hayti. Port au Prince, Hayti, May 23.—The United States cruiser Topeka arrived here from Port Royal, S. C., to protect American interests. The presence of the warship in these waters has had an excellent effect. The situation of affairs is improving.

Cumberland Presbyterians Adjourn. Springfield, Mo., May 23.—At 9 o'clock last night the 72nd general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church adjourned. Fine fraternal spirit pervaded the closing session. The assembly's last act was to unanimously agree to self-entertainment hereafter and to meet next May in Nashville, Tenn.

Juvenile Erudition. Here are a few extracts from compositions written by boys in a high school of Vienna: "Many a man lies down in good health and gets up dead." "In Rome the bones of the martyrs were collected and torn by wild beasts."

The Chimney Swift. Occasionally a bird is strong minded enough to break away from old traditions. Before this country was settled the swift nested in hollow trees, but after trees began to be cut down and chimneys arose above the roofs of houses everywhere the birds were quick to perceive that fires are generally out by the time their nesting season arrives. Therefore why not take advantage of the innovation? So completely did they forsake their old nesting sites to build in chimneys that the name chimney swift is now universally applied to them.—Ladies' Home Journal.

A Troublesome Trio. "The most troublesome member of my flock," said the parson, "is a young woman who wants a husband." "My most troublesome client," said the lawyer, "is a middle aged woman who wants a divorce."

The Part He Played. Mr. Stalate—So your sister keeps you well supplied with pocket money, does she? Tommy—Yes. Stalate—I presume you have to render some little equivalent? Tommy (yawning)—Oh, yes; I have to come in and yawn when visitors are staying too late.

Useless Expense. Drug Clerk—We don't happen to have the drugs named in this prescription, but we have others just as good. Customer—I suppose that's all right; but what a fool I was to pay the doctor $3 for that prescription! That's what bothers me.—Boston Transcript.

not given to praising that action and may scarcely be depended upon to cheer and throw up their hats if a scuttling policy in regard to the Philippines is attempted. The minority senators on the Philippine investigating committee boldly assert that their purpose in probing all testimony presented to the bottom is solely for the benefit of the army, and yet they only exercise their ability as cross questioners in getting at the worst possible side of the story from an army or administration point of view the witnesses are willing to tell. In an ordinary court it would appear that they are endeavoring to make the worst case possible against the army.

Printers' Ink is an authority on all kinds of advertising. It makes that its business and can be as much relied on to give valuable pointers on how to reach the people an advertiser may desire to reach as Dan's or Bradstreet's reviews can be depended upon to give statements concerning the financial condition of the country or the financial concerns of the country. It knows what it is talking about when it says: "There is some good in all advertising and all advertising does some good, but the best advertising and the advertising that does the greatest good is newspaper advertising."

The Iowa state Grand Army veterans at their recent annual meeting adopted resolutions commending the course of the administration in the Philippines and denouncing as uncalled for and unjust the attack being made upon the soldiers fighting the country's battles. The people generally will give the veterans of the civil war credit for knowing more about war in a minute than some anti critics do in a month, and their resolutions will have more weight than all the efforts to blacken the good name of the army and the attempt to make the people believe that the flag of this great country stands for tyranny and torture.

Republican Congressional Convention. The republicans of the Third Congressional district of Nebraska are hereby called to meet in delegate convention at the opera house in the city of Fremont, Nebraska, on Tuesday, June 10, 1902, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for congress from the Third Congressional district, to be voted for at the general election to be held in the state of Nebraska on November 4, 1902, and for the transaction of such other business as may regularly come before said convention.

A Complete Statement. Editor THE NEWS—Dear Sir: Regarding the suit filed by myself against the Union Pacific Railway company and referred to in last evening's NEWS, I would like to have the matter stated complete, which is as follows: The suit was forced upon me by the arbitrary rulings of the company. Just claims dating as far back as July, 1890, for damages, breakage and shortages on consignments delivered being as yet unsettled and payment refused.

Last week I was charged on several shipments 30 cents per hundred more than the legal published rates for the service rendered and they refused to refund the overcharges. Yesterday morning on another shipment they refused to accept payment according to the regularly published tariffs, refused to accept payment according to the locals such as would accrue if the goods had been shipped from Philadelphia to Chicago, then rebilled to Omaha, and thence rebilled to Norfolk, and even refused to accept a tender of a "higher rate" than the sum of the locals, refused to deliver the goods unless I paid at the rate of 32 cents per hundred higher than the sum of the locals, or 35 cents higher than the published tariff for such service, and 35 cents per hundred higher than is charged by the Elkhorn, hence I was compelled to bring suit to recover the value of the goods thus illegally confiscated, damaged, etc.

Under sections 9 and 10 of the Act to Regulate Commerce a corporation or agent guilty of such action is liable to the party injured for damages, attorney's fees, a fine of $5,000.00 and two years in the pen. CHAS. H. JOHNSON.
