

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

J. J. Ludeman is home for over Sunday.
 Jas. Nichols was over from Madison yesterday.
 Al. Lemonds of Stanton was a visitor in Norfolk yesterday.
 Miss Esther Mason returned yesterday from a visit to Omaha.
 D. W. Hanlon, a teacher in the Tilden schools, was a city visitor yesterday.
 Mrs. W. A. Homleben went to Madison yesterday to visit with relatives and friends.
 Geo. Sprague, a McCormick expert from Chicago, will make Norfolk his headquarters during the season.
 M. D. Tyler has gone to his old home in Indiana, being called by a message announcing that his mother is seriously sick.
 Mrs. Lewis Hirschy of Pipestone, Minn., is visiting at the homes of her daughters, Mrs. James and Mrs. John Gilden.
 Jos. Patton, who has been in the city for a few days in the interests of Bellevue college, is the guest of his friend, Frank Osborne.
 Stanton has had some of the clay from that locality burned into brick at Hastings and the results were so satisfactory that a brick yard may be established there in the near future.
 The Clearwater fishing party came home last night, having enjoyed a delightful outing, but not reporting a large amount of success in landing specimens of the finny tribe of which Clearwater boasts.
 Dr. Lewis, president of Morning Side college of Sioux City is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hazen in The Heights and Mr. and Mrs. Hazen entertained a number of friends at dinner today in his honor.

The republican traveling men making Norfolk their headquarters are meeting this afternoon in the parlors of the Pacific hotel and it is expected that the meeting will result in the organization of a traveling men's republican club.
 Battle Creek Republican: Since Norfolk has not had a celebration for half a dozen years, the DAILY NEWS thinks it has one coming this time and the whole country ought to turn out and make it a hummer. We are of that same opinion.
 Stanton Picket: A vast number of people were out last Friday morning to listen to the memorial address by Hon. W. M. Robertson, of Norfolk, many more in fact than the large M. E. church could accommodate. The address was a lengthy one and contained many good thoughts.
 About thirty of the young friends of Miss Evelyn Roland of South Norfolk participated in an enjoyable surprise on the young lady at her home on South Second street last night. The evening was pleasantly spent at games and amusements and refreshments of ice cream and cake went to round out the enjoyment of the occasion.
 Other portions of Nebraska have been receiving more rain than has Norfolk and vicinity and there has been plenty here during the past day or two. Eleven inches of water fell at Cortland in six hours Thursday, at least seven inches of the fall occurring during one hour. A flood of serious proportions is the consequence, property of that and nearby towns being destroyed. No estimate of the damage has yet been made.
 The supervisor of the rain department opened the faucets again at an early hour this morning and during the forenoon there was a considerable fall of moisture. Up to 8 o'clock .18 of an inch had fallen but before noon enough had fallen to bring the precipitation for the first seven days of the month above three inches. The ground is thoroughly soaked and growing crops are looking splendid with every prospect of a bumper yield.
 The owner of one of the finest kept homes in the city complains that vandals entered his yard last night and broke off and carried away some of his choice peonies, not neglecting to strip the plants of some promising buds. He threatens that if he can locate the thieves he will make it exceedingly interesting for them. Another property owner states that someone raided a window box at his place and robbed it of some fine carnations.
 If the weather permits there will undoubtedly be a large attendance at the base ball games on the home grounds Monday and Tuesday, when the Norfolk team will meet the team from Rock Rapids, Iowa. It is anticipated that it will be a fast, warmly contested game, and it is desired that the visiting team be given a fine reception as on the results of their impression may depend other games with the Tri-State league to which they belong.
 G. T. Sprecher, Rev. W. J. Turner, grand chaplain, and Col. S. W. Hayes, past grand master, have returned from Omaha where they attended the meeting of the Masonic grand lodge which closed Thursday. Madison county was honored at the session by the selection of C. E. Burnham, cashier of the Elk-horn Valley bank at Tilden as grand junior warden. This places Mr. Burnham in line for promotion to the head office in the grand lodge, that of grand master, and his friends hope to see him occupy that position within a few years.

 The Norfolk boys who went to Stanton Wednesday to play ball with the boys of that town put up a good game but were hardly strong enough to "do" the Stanton kids. The Picket says: "In the first three innings the Norfolk team made 8 scores and in the other six innings they got nothing but goose eggs. The Stanton team crossed the home plate three times in the first six innings, and six times in the last three. At the close of the ninth inning the score stood 9 to 8 in favor of Stanton.
 Mrs. G. B. Salter most agreeably entertained a large company of south side lady friends at her pleasant home on North Tenth street yesterday afternoon. As on the preceding afternoon tables were laid in tents on the beautiful lawn and luscious strawberries of strictly home growth were served at a delicious supper. The afternoon was pleasant, the company congenial and the entertainment provided by the hostess excellent—qualities that went toward making the afternoon one of the most enjoyable of the season to those favored with invitations.
 A runaway team cut some mad capers about 10:30 last night on West Norfolk avenue. It got onto the lawns of J. S. McClary and Herman Gerecke and tore up holes in the sod and did other damage that could scarcely be equalled by a small sized cyclone. The horses came in contact with a number of the trees in the McClary yard and knocked the bark off and broke the doubletrees to which they were attached. In the Gerecke yard they ran into a fine large apple tree that was loaded with finely developed fruit and broke it off close to the ground. It is not likely that $25 would replace the damage done in both yards.
 T. S. Baker of Ewing purchased a fine looking horse from a Neligh firm recently and while leading the animal home behind a buggy he attacked the new owner, biting him seriously and breaking his new buggy into kindling wood. But for the fact that Mr. Baker was accompanied by an assistant the horse would have killed him. The men succeeded in tying the brute behind a farmer's wagon and when the sandhills northwest of Clearwater were reached the new owner concluded that he had owned the horse long enough and pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot him dead. The animal weighed 1900 pounds, was a fine specimen of the Percheron-Norman breed and cost the owner $800, but he considered that life and limb were of more value than the horse.
 The advertising committee for the Norfolk Fourth of July celebration today started a force of boys out with bills announcing the celebration and they are expected to cover neighboring towns thoroughly. They go as far north as Creighton; west to Tilden; south to Humphrey; east to Stanton, and northeast to Wayne. They are expected to bill the towns named and all intervening points. The bills now being distributed are more in the form of a notice of intention and convey but scant information of the program that the city hopes to provide for its guests. More complete information of what is in store for the people will be furnished as soon as the committees have advanced further with their work. The funds at the disposal of the committees is constantly growing and much that would call for cash ordinarily is being contributed by patriotic citizens. There is a better spirit back of Norfolk's celebration this year than has ever been the case before and those who visit here on the Fourth will enjoy the full fruits of that spirit. The people are determined that visitors shall have a good time and have capable committees to support that desire.

The omnibus building bill had signed the omnibus building bill yesterday afternoon, making into a law the bill appropriating $100,000 to Norfolk for a public building was received here with manifestations of joy, and the fact that Norfolk is assured of a fine public building is most welcome to the people. Money for the work will be immediately available and the work may commence as soon as the supervising architect arranges the plans and completes other preliminaries. It is confidently expected that the lot at the corner of Fourth street and Madison avenue will be the scene of unusual activity in a short time and that the building will be the pride of the city and a credit to those responsible for the appropriation. About the first work to be done will be the moving of the buildings off the government lot that at present occupy it, including the Baptist church and the Macy residence, and then there will be excavating for the foundation and basement, and the placing on the ground of the material. It is not improbable that the city will have something to do in connection with the preliminary work. The government will undoubtedly require the establishment of a grade on both Fourth street and Madison avenue and the city may be required to fill the streets concerned to a level with Norfolk avenue. Norfolk people will now favor an early commencement of the work, and will hope that material progress will have been made by fall.

Now is the time to bring in repairs to Paul Nordwig's harness shop.

 Geo. A. Brooks, of Bazile Mills, candidate for the republican nomination for congress from this district, was in the city yesterday enroute to Fremont, where he will attend the convention tomorrow.
 Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Cole and children leave tomorrow for a visit to the doctor's old home at Morgantown, West Virginia. They expect to be absent until the middle of July and during that time Dr. Cole's dental office will be closed.
 The preliminary work of raising the Bear and Rainbolt buildings at the corner of Fourth street and Norfolk avenue is under way. The buildings, five in number, will be raised to grade so that a permanent walk may be laid along Norfolk avenue.
 The Peterson vaudeville troupe is here for a week's engagement at the Auditorium. They carry a large amount of baggage which is taken to indicate that their entertainments will be above the average. The first performance will be tonight.
 Mrs. Cora A. Beels has been selected as one of the judges of the diamond medal contest at the Morning Side conservatory by the pupils of that institution tomorrow evening, and departed on the Sioux City train this afternoon, accompanied by Master Oscar Schavland of Madison.
 D. W. Forbes, manager of the Forbes Locating agency of Bonesteel, S. D., was in the city Saturday in the interest of his business. His agency has issued a comprehensive Homeseekers' Guide and map of Rosebud reservation, which will be opened for settlement soon, both of which will prove of advantage to the prospective land seeker.
 The annual Madison County Teachers' institute opens at Madison, North Side school today, and will continue in session until Saturday. The institute is under the direction of County Superintendent C. W. Crum and some good instructors will be in attendance. A number of Norfolk teachers and pupils went to the county seat this morning to take the course.
 J. M. Pile, president of the Wayne Normal, has been successful in securing reduced rates for those who will attend the summer school there. The rate is on the certificate plan and is good over the F. E. & M. V., U. P. and C. St. P. M. & O. from all points north of the Platte river. Tickets must be purchased before August 14, and the certificate must be presented before August 17 to secure the return at one-third fare.
 Children's day was observed in the Congregational and Methodist churches yesterday with appropriate exercises. In the first mentioned church they were held in the morning and in the latter in the evening. The children had been well drilled in their parts and the programs were a delight to the large audiences that attended. The churches had been nicely decorated and everything combined to make them among the most appreciable services of the church year.
 About 1 o'clock yesterday morning the sea lion whistle and the fire bell combined to make the night hideous with a very effective fire alarm. The department responded and the blaze was found to be in the home of Art Hillis on South Third street. It is believed in the Ellis home that the fire was started by the cat who in chasing millers around a lighted lamp, overturned the lamp and set the fire. The damage was largely in the front room where the fire, smoke and water combined to work considerable injury to house and furniture.

 The base ball games at Creighton Saturday and Sunday between the Creighton and Norfolk teams were exceedingly close and interesting. Both resulting in a score of 3 to 2 in favor of the Creighton team. The last game required ten innings to decide and it is claimed that the result was not then obtained satisfactorily. A member of the Creighton team knocked a fly over the fence, the ball was fielded and the umpire declared the runner out at the home plate. The Creighton boys then claimed that a ball over the fence entitled the batter to a home run and threatened to quit unless the point was conceded and although the Norfolk boys were not informed of such a rule before the game commenced, rather than have the people disappointed they allowed the point to pass. Fred Spaulding umpired both games. The batteries yesterday were: Creighton, Steele and Carroll; Norfolk, Galaski and Wilkins. During the game Steele struck out 10 and Galaski 9. The Rock Rapids, Iowa, team arrived this morning and an interesting contest with a large attendance is on this afternoon. The band was out to furnish music and C. A. Smith is down from Tilden to umpire. The same teams will meet on the home grounds tomorrow. Creighton will play return games next Saturday and Sunday.

Yesterday was devoted by several fraternal orders of the city in bestowing memorial tributes to the memory of deceased members, and the services were impressive to all who beheld them. The members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Tribe of Ben Hur met at their hall in the morning and proceeded in a body to the M. E. church where memorial services were held, a sermon appropriate to the occasion being preached by the pastor, Rev. J. P. Poucher, who took his text from the 10th chapter of Proverbs, seventh verse: "The memory of the just is blessed; but the name of the wicked shall rot." From this he gave a very fine and impressive address with particular reference to the memorial features of the occasion. The church had been nicely decorated for the double purpose of Children's Day and these memorial services. In the afternoon members of the orders went to the cemetery and decorated the graves of those brothers and sisters who were buried there. In the evening members of the Knights of Pythias lodge attended memorial services in the First Congregational church, Rev. W. J. Turner, the pastor, having prepared a special sermon for the occasion. His discourse was largely inspired by the charity, benevolence and brotherhood of the order and was a most instructive and interesting sermon. The members of the order met at their hall and proceeded to the church in a body.

A fine line of fly nets and dusters at Nordwig's. Come and make a selection while the stock is complete.

 Emma, the little daughter of J. H. Morrow, who has been sick since Friday with congestion of the stomach, is somewhat better today.
 Judge and Mrs. Isaac Powers went to Lincoln today to attend the university commencement exercises, their son, Carroll, being one of the graduates.
 The committee on sports for the Fourth of July celebration will meet this evening at 8 o'clock sharp in the city hall. By order of the chairman.
 Rev. J. Hofman of Battle Creek was in the city yesterday enroute home from Carroll, where he preached during the German Lutheran mission festival held there.
 Rev. F. P. Wigton is here from Osmond visiting Norfolk friends and looking after the construction of his new house at the corner of Ninth street and Koenigstein avenue.
 Dr. H. O. Munson, son of O. D. Munson of Warnerville, has located in Norfolk for the practice of medicine and surgery. He has taken office rooms over the Fair store and will room with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Austin. Dr. Munson has been practicing medicine for the past eight years, during a portion of which time he was assistant county physician of Douglas county.
 The Rock Rapids, Iowa, team, which played here yesterday and today will give a repeater game tomorrow afternoon against the Norfolk team, which will try a new pitcher in the box. The large number of enthusiasts attracted to the games of yesterday and today will be pleased with this announcement as the Iowa boys have been very gentlemanly during their stay in Norfolk and have put up a good quality of ball.
 J. B. Barnes, Jr., who has served as principal of the Norfolk High school for something more than two years, has been elected to the superintendency of the city schools at Tekamah and has accepted the promotion. He gets a substantial increase of salary as the result of the promotion. Mr. Barnes has served the Norfolk schools most acceptably and there will be many, particularly among the school pupils, who will be extremely sorry to have him leave but they have nothing but congratulations to offer for his deserved promotion in his chosen work.

Bonesteel, South Dakota, on the line of the new F. E. & M. V. extension from Verdigris, is still very much of a wild and woolly western town and is likely to remain so until the railroad comes with its civilizing influences. The Pilot tells of a visit to that town on Decoration day of a gang of 200 cowboys who, after six months on the range proceeded to hold an impromptu cow boy tournament and took complete possession of the place, but did little damage although they rode their horses about where they pleased onto sidewalks and through all open doors and all that would come open. The cowboys came from three camps—from the White river, Cheyenne river and Bad river territory. They were in the neighborhood looking for strays and took occasion to show the people of Bonesteel an interesting time.
 The Peterson vaudeville entertainment at the Auditorium last night did not call out the attendance that the performance deserved. It was really a meritorious entertainment, and given at popular prices that should be successful in filling the house during the balance of their engagement in Norfolk. The Weston children, Max and Baby, were particular favorites with the audience and cleverly performed their stunts. The one-act comedy with which the program opened was good. Varo, the contortionist, was exceedingly limber and snake-like in his movements. Frosto and Arnolds were successful in producing a sensational novelty sketch, and the evening was replete with wonderful balancing feats, juggling, trials of strength, dancing, singing and other amusements that received the unqualified approval of the audience. There was nothing suggestive or objectional in the entire program and it is one of the few vaudeville entertainments on the road deserving of a liberal patronage.

 Card of Thanks.
 We desire to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends who did what they could during the sickness and death of our dearly loved little daughter, Frances.

Caution!
 This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung trouble without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap?
 A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but always inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Asa K. Leonard.
