

GOVERNMENT CROP REPORT.

Average Condition of Wheat, Corn and Oats. Washington, July 11.—Preliminary returns to the statistician of the department of agriculture, on the acreage of corn planted, indicate an increase of about 3,520,000 acres, or 3.9 per cent on the area harvested last year. Of the twenty-five states and territories with a million acres or upward in corn harvested last year, Iowa and Nebraska report an increase of 1 per cent, Missouri 3 per cent, Kansas 5 per cent, South Dakota and Oklahoma 11 per cent. The average condition of the growing crop on July 1 was 87.5, as compared with 81.3 on July 1, 1901, and a ten-year average of 89.2. The condition in Iowa and Nebraska was 90, in Kansas and Oklahoma 93, in Missouri 102. The average condition of winter wheat improved during June nine-tenths of one point, standing on July 1 at 77, or 11.3 points below the condition on July 1, 1901. It fell off during July four points in Kansas and improved during the same period seven points in Nebraska and three in Missouri. The average condition of spring wheat declined three points during June, standing at 92.4 on July 1, as compared with 95.6 on July 1, 1901. The decline during June amounted to six points in South Dakota and three in Iowa. On the other hand, there was an improvement of nine points in Nebraska. The average condition of the oats crop on July 1 was 92.1, as compared with 90.6 last month.

TRACY IS WELL ARMED.

Has Plentiful Supply of Both Ammunition and Provisions. Kent, Wash., July 11.—Harry Tracy, the Oregon convict, was at the home of E. M. Johnson, two miles southeast of this place, Wednesday night. When he left the house he was armed with a new revolver and his Winchester, and had a plentiful supply of both ammunition and provisions. Tracy sent Johnson to Tacoma to purchase the revolver and ammunition. He threatened to exterminate Johnson's family on the least sign of treachery. The murderer seemed fagged out, and talked very little about himself or his plans. While at the house he spent nearly all the time watching for his pursuers. He left the house after dark, taking Johnson's horse, headed either for Seattle or the Palmer cutoff. Not only did Tracy force Johnson to buy the revolver, but he made him borrow the necessary money in Kent. Johnson went to Tacoma and secured the weapon without sounding any kind of warning to the authorities. He was badly frightened.

Mrs. O'Malley Held for Trial.

Philadelphia, July 11.—Mrs. Allene Ellis O'Malley, wife of Professor Austin O'Malley of South Bend, Ind., and William J. Hearlin of New York were yesterday held to bail in the sum of $1,200 for trial on the charge of stealing jewelry valued at more than $1,000 from Dr. Joseph O'Malley of this city. Mrs. O'Malley's brother-in-law.

Wasn't His Hat, Anyway.

Mr. Weddle, visiting his wife's relatives up in Maine, fairly had to go to church that Sunday. He didn't want to go, but his wife thought it would do him good and would be apt to preserve the harmony of the family. The sermon was long and powder dry, and Weddle stole off into the arms of Morpheus gently and serenely. As he did not snore, his wife did not suspect that he had gone to sleep alongside of her and gave herself up fully to inspecting the bonnet of the woman in the pew in front. Like all things, good and bad, the sermon came to an end at last, but Weddle slumbered on like a baby even after a deacon began taking up the collection in a hat. When the derby was passed to Weddle, Mrs. Weddle was surprised to see that he did not respond. She nudged him violently to bring him back to his senses, and Weddle, awakening with a start, sat upright and, bewildered, gazed at the hat in the hand of the deacon. Then he shook his head sleepily and said: "No; that isn't mine. Mine is a gray one."—New York Tribune.

Had Nerve.

"Well, ain't that a lovely customer? I just dote on waiting on that kind. Did you see her, though?" The shop-girl was bubbling over with rage. A woman and her daughter had looked at not fewer than twenty-five silk waists. At last they took up one, and the woman brought forth a tape measure. "I think we might get it out of three and a half yards or three and two-thirds anyhow. Just wait—twenty-three inches down the front, three-quarters for the sleeves, allow a quarter for collar and cuffs. Yes, that'll do it." As she talked she ran the tape over the waist, the clerk standing by almost bursting with indignation. "Three yards of lace, one and a quarter of insertion," she went on, measuring the trimming. "Put that down, Amy. Now let's go. We can get up a waist exactly like that for $7.50, and they ask $14.98. They've got their nerve, haven't they?"—New York Press.

From the Theater Gallery.

Mr. W. Pett Ridge tells in the English Illustrated that the best repartee he ever encountered was in the gallery of a theater. An extremely stout, good tempered woman contrived to wedge herself into a space that would have accommodated a person of ordinary size, to the unconcealed annoyance of a smartly dressed youth next to her. She began to peel an orange, and the youth, with a gesture of complaint, removed his silk hat fustily to a safer position. "I suppose," said the good tempered woman, "that you'd rather have had a gentleman sitting by the side of you, sir, wouldn't you?" The youth replied snappishly in the affirmative. "Ah," said the woman thoughtfully, "so would I!"

Presence of Mind.

During a performance at one of the London theaters a man and his wife had to quarrel on the stage, the woman in a rage of jealousy, the man trying to persuade her that she was too suspicious and too passionate. Both were acting with great spirit when the wife moved her arm too near the candle, and her muslin dress was in flames in an instant. Both actors kept their heads, however. The husband extinguished the fire and, proceeding with his part, intercalated: "You see, my dear, I was right. You are ready to flare up at the least thing."

"Eating Crow."

The term "eating crow" comes from an ante Revolutionary story. A soldier of an English regiment stationed in Virginia shot a pet crow belonging to a farmer. The latter entered a complaint with the colonel, who sentenced the soldier to eat the crow. The farmer was left alone with the soldier to see that he did it. After the soldier had consumed a portion of the bird he took his gun, presented it at the farmer and told him to eat the remainder of the crow or he would shoot him. This was the origin of the eating crow story.

Carving.

A genteel carver always sits when he carves, says a work on etiquette. Perhaps he does, but it is pretty certain that there are times when he yearningly yearns to put one foot on the table and the other on the bird while struggling with the fowl.—London Answers.

The Same Old Story.

J. A. Kelley relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and retold by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelley is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Kiesau Drug Co.

I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine. A. H. Kiesau.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The crutch is a poor substitute for legs, and affords a very inconvenient and tiresome mode of locomotion—there is no more pathetic sight than a person slowly and painfully moving along the street supported by these artificial limbs.

When Rheumatism settles in the bones and muscles of the legs, it is safe to predict that the victim will eventually become helpless and crutch-bound. The corrosive, irritating matter that is deposited in the joints and muscles causes the most intense pain, the knees and ankles swell, and when the natural oils and fluids that lubricate these parts are completely destroyed the joints become locked and the muscles drawn and stiff, and crutches a necessity.

The acid poisons that produce rheumatic pains form in the blood, and are distributed through the system, and lodged in the arms, shoulders, hands, back and feet, or other parts of the body—resulting often in total disability. A permanent cure of Rheumatism can be effected only by a complete cleansing of the blood, and no other remedy so surely accomplishes this as S. S. S. It neutralizes the acid effects, purifies and invigorates the stagnant blood, and the gritty particles are washed out or dislodged by the new rich blood, and relief comes to the pain-racked sufferer. S. S. S. leaves no morbid, irritating matter in the blood to reunite and produce another attack, but expels every atom of it from the system. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, and does not impair the digestion or general health like alkali or potash remedies.

Write for our special free book on Rheumatism, and if any medical advice or other information is wanted, our physicians will gladly furnish it without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constiveness, palpitation of the heart, heartburn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. If a Man Lie to You, And say some other salve, ointment, lotion, oil or alleged healer is as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve, tell him thirty years of marvelous cures of piles, burns, boils, corns, felons, ulcers, cuts, scalds, bruises and skin eruptions prove it's the best and cheapest. 25c at The Kiesau Drug Co.

Poisoning The System. It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps these poisons in the system, causing headache, dizziness and melancholia at first then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. Dewitt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and promote easy, healthy action of the bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress. The Kiesau Drug Co.
