VERMONT FAILS TO ELECT. High License Candidate for Governor Splits the Vote.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 3.-There is no election by the people Vermont yesterday. Returns are not complete, but they indicated that Percival W. Clement, high license option candidate, was running very close to General John G. McCullough (Rep.) of Bennington. The returns from 200 cities and towns out of 246 give the Percival W. Clement (high license), the first Wednesday in October. David J. Foster of Burlington (Rep.) is reelected to congress in the First district and Kittredge Haskins of Brattlebero is re-elected in the Second

The election will go down in history as the most interesting ever known in the Green Mountain state, there having been a spirited contest from the time the conventions were held until the last ballots were deposited. This was brought about by the bolting of many of the delegates to the state Republican convention, headed by Percival W. Clement, after an attempt to place in the platform a plank favoring high license local option had falled.

Roosevelt took notice of his return visit to Massachusetis by delivering at Fitchburg another speech on the trust question, in order that he might more fully answer his critics and define his attitude on that subject. He declared that he had not changed his mind concerning trusts and that his views are the same as when gover for. He still thought that the great corporations should be regulated by law and favored an amendment to the constltution. He also launched into a defense of the army in the Philippines during his speech at Springfield. The impression had gone forth that any views he might express regarding the acquisition of territory by the United States would be coldly received, but the demonstrations of approval which greeted his utterance dispelled this Frequent stops were made during the day, and at each place the president delivered a speech. Fitchburg's reception was notable for the size of the crowd and the enthusiasm. While was given a shower bath of roses. A canopy of bunting had been erected. From the center was suspended a huge bell. As the president passed beneath it, an unseen hand unfastened the covering and an avalanche of loose roses fell over him. At Springfield, another hearty greeting was given the president.

PRESIDENT REPLIES TO CRITICS. ONE THOUSAND ARE KILLED | Gung Plants

Every farmer knows that me plants grow better than thers. Soil may be the same ad seed may seem the same out some plants are weak and thers strong.

And that's the way with hildren. They are like young skants. Same food, same home, ame care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means tarvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food loes not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing trength.

Whatever the cause of weakless and failure to growacott's Emulsion seems to find t and set the matter right.
