The Norfolk carnival is not the only one to meet with disaster. The inability of President Roosevelt to keep his appointments with western cities having carnivals and fairs on is a more grievous disappointment than the equinox that interfered with Norfolk's event.

A Gage county man has sued that county for damages in the amount of $100 for the death of his daughter, who was thrown off a bridge and killed because of a defective railing.

Employers and employees met in national convention at Minneapolis Monday for the purpose of discussing questions of interest to capital and labor. Such a convention may result in much good to the classes concerned and it is to be hoped that the delegates may find neutral ground on which they may stand and adjust their differences.

The people of the Sixth congressional district are becoming convinced that General Barry, fusion candidate for congressman, is too old and feeble to give them the kind of service they want in congress and the fusion bosses, fearing the effect that the campaign is having, are endeavoring to nullify by circulating the story that Kinkaid is also old and feeble.

The fusionists are to make strenuous efforts to swing Nebraska back into the fusion column. They have already planned their organization for election day. One of the plans is to have enough workers out so that if a voter is too busy and does not care to leave his work to vote another may take a hand and do his work during his absence.

If there is one thing more than another that appeals to the people in the case of President Roosevelt's disability, news of which startled the country Wednesday and disappointed numerous western people, it was the grit of the man. News of the trolley accident at Pittsfield reviewed the fact that the president's face was scratched and bruised, but there was not an intimation that he received a hurt of the leg, making it apparent that the reporters told what they saw of his injuries but the president said not a word of his hurts.

Following the accident Mr. Roosevelt has been almost constantly on the move, making speeches to his countrymen at widely divergent points, being up early and late to attend banquets and shake hands with his people, but not a word of complaint. No eager reporter was permitted to anticipate that the trolley accident was serious enough to necessitate an operation. The president was making his appointments, smilingly and cheerfully until it was seen that he could not complete his itinerary and the required operation was performed almost before the people were aware that there was any trouble resultant from the accident. It was undoubtedly the president's intention to complete his trip, but the physicians would not permit it and many people were disappointed through no fault of his. It was characteristic of Roosevelt. Others would have given up for slighter hurts but the president was not of that kind. The people were expecting him, and they should not be disappointed, if he could help it, and anyway the hurt was not of an importance worthy of mention in his estimation. But his doctors did not want him to become a cripple, or at least an invalid for months. There was work for him in the future as well as at the present, and he must be in condition to meet it. Therefore an operation was performed and rest insisted upon. It will be surprising if he will rest as long as he should.

BATTLE CREEK. T. D. Preece was in Norfolk Wednesday. Judge Newerk was on the sick list last week.

E. H. Luikart returned Thursday to attend to legal business. Howell Avery of Tilden, formerly of this place, came down Monday to visit his mother.

About 25 Battle Creek people went to Norfolk Friday night to see the play, "Human Hearts."

Elmer Marsh, who is a regular soldier at Fort Riley, Kansas, has been away for a week visiting. Wm Boeck of Norfolk paid a three-weeks' visit to his uncle, Chas. Schroeder, returning Wednesday.

Lambert Kardel has moved into the John Dennis house. The house vacated by him will be occupied by its owner, Mrs. Horn.

The south side of Main street is being improved by the building of new brick walks. One is also being built west of the Battle Creek Valley bank.

Phil Beck, who is employed in Sam Schneider's saloon at Meadow Grove, came over Sunday and moved his family to Meadow Grove Tuesday.

The German Lutheran picnic which should of been held in Tomhagen's grove Sunday, failed because of the rain and instead the picnicers retired to their church and listened to a very efficient sermon by Rev. Mr. Hofman regarding the obligations of children to their parents and vice versa.

Joseph Dufphy, who has been suffering from burns received six months ago, was taken to St. Joseph hospital at Omaha by Dr. I. J. Daniel, one of his attending physicians, last Tuesday. He stood the trip very well. Everything that could be done by friends here has been done. About 70 of them submitted to operations for the removal of patches of skin which were grafted on the patient, but all has thus far proven unavailing and it was decided he should go to the hospital. If the change converts Mr. Dufphy into a well and hearty man his friends will be well pleased.

"Midnight in Chinatown." The big sensational melodrama which plays Monday, September 29 at the Auditorium "Midnight in Chinatown" contains every element that is demanded in melodrama of to-day; and numerous exciting situations are vigorously expressed by the company selected to play it. The plot is clearly outlined and the execution is rapid. No tiresome diversions while the story is being interpreted except, in one scene which demands a break for the perfection of the plot.

The big production will be staged with all magnificent paraphernalia necessary for the proper presentation of sumptuous "smoking parlors; as well as a picture of the tough side of the opium fiend. Especial care has been employed to portray the various classes of opium smokers: from the tough girl to the villain in high life and the climax to the play occurs in his apartments where he was lured the heroine and from which she is rescued by her lover and a squad of police. Magnificent settings are promised for the office of Bonanza Mine; the Frisco Bay; and Mountain Top resort. A large cast of able actors and actresses are employed in the cast.

The Steckelberg Concert company is to appear here for a violin, voice, cello and piano recital at the Auditorium next Tuesday night, September 30. Of Mr. Steckelberg the renowned Hans Albert is quoted as saying: "He has a broad, musical tone, poetical interpretation, and perfect purity in intonation." Of Madame Alice Myron, the contralto, the Omaha Bee says: "Madame Alice Myron was easily the distinguished feature of the evening, and her magnificent contralto was heard to good advantage in the role assigned to her. She is a musician of much emotion, and she uses her voice with skill."

Surgeon is the piano man.

The basis of representation shall be one delegate from each county and one for every 100 votes or major fraction thereof cast for Rufus A. Tawney for state senator in 1900. The several counties are entitled to representation as follows: Madison 17, Pierce 9, Stanton 7, Wayne 10. ALEX BEAR, Chairman. H. D. MILLER, Secretary.

LEAPS FROM MOVING TRAIN

Syrian Girl Prefers Death to Deportation.

ALL FOR LOVE OF AN IOWA MAN.

Joseph Abodeedy of Cedar Rapids Exhausts His Funds for Old World Sweetheart, but Immigration Bureau Says She Must Return to Syria.

Detroit, Sept. 25.—Driven to desperation by the prospect of being forever separated from the man she loved and had nearly circled the globe in order to come to him and wed him, Alexandra Joseph, a young Syrian girl, in a supreme effort to escape from the United States immigration agent, who was about to deport her, threw herself from the window of a Michigan Central passenger train, running fifty miles an hour, yesterday and was instantly killed. The tragedy occurred two miles north of Newport and was the culmination of years of efforts of Joseph Abodeedy of Cedar Rapids, Ia., to lead his old world sweetheart to the altar.

But when he had saved money enough to pay the girl's passage to the United States and she had come as far as Montreal, it appeared that the troubles of the young couple had just begun. In Montreal the United States immigration bureau refused to admit the girl to the United States on the ground that she was afflicted with trachoma, but Abodeedy thought this difficulty could be removed by medical treatment, so he had the girl's eyes treated at the Montreal marine hospital for three months. In August, however, his funds having run low, he attempted to run the gauntlet of the inspectors at Detroit and was caught. From that time the girl's fate hung in the balance, until yesterday Agent Miller took her in custody for the trip to New York with a warrant from the secretary of the treasury to have the girl deported to her home in Syria.

The officer had allowed his charge to go to the toilet room and in a moment was horrified to see the door fly open, revealing an empty room and an open window. The train was run back as soon as it could be stopped and the young woman was found dead beside the track.

TROOPS ARE KEPT BUSY.

Strikers in Anthracite Region Require Vigilant Guard Duty.

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—While there was considerable disorder and many acts of violence in sections of the hard coal regions yesterday, the lawlessness was not so general as it was earlier in the week. The presence of additional troops and a drizzling rain assisted greatly in the preservation of peace. Reports from many parts of the region show that petty cases of violence continue. The lower anthracite region continues quiet, most of the lawlessness occurring in the vicinity of Scranton and Wilkesbarre.

Company G, Thirteenth regiment, was called and attempted to disperse a crowd which was tearing up tracks at the Pancoast colliery in Throop. Last evening a crowd of strikers threw stones at nonunion men who were being escorted home from work in Forest City. The soldiers loaded their guns and the commander said he would give the word to fire if another stone was thrown. The crowd melted away.

ADJOURN IN HARMONY.

Connecticut Democrats Name Melbert B. Cary for Governor.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 25.—The Democratic state convention adjourned last night, after a session lasting all day. A full state ticket, headed by Melbert B. Cary for governor, was nominated, a platform was adopted and the convention, which had promised to be one of the most bitter in the history of the party in this state, closed in harmony. A strenuous struggle had been made in committee for endorsement of the Kansas City platform and one delegate left the committee in anger because his views were not those of the majority. The committee refused to mention the Kansas City doctrine and the fight ended there. The platform reaffirms allegiance to the Democracy of the nation and reasserts faith in its principles. It demands the repeal of all tariffs on trust produced articles.

Nonunion Man Clubbed to Death.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 25.—James Winston, aged forty-eight years, was killed and his son-in-law, S. J. Lewis, was severely injured by a gang of Hungarian strikers, who waylaid them on their way to work at Grassy Island colliery. The affair took place almost within sight of the camp of the Thirteenth regiment, at Olyphant. Lewis got away, but Winston's skull was crushed with a club, and he fell unconscious. While he lay prostrate and dying the crowd jumped on him, kicked him in the face and beat him with clubs. After dancing about their victim, clapping their hands and singing, the crowd left him.

Joke Results in a Tragedy.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 25.—John Davis was shot and instantly killed by William Norvel at Hinsdale. The men had been drinking and from joking arose the quarrel. Both men pulled guns. Norvel shot twice, one of the bullets severing the jugular vein. Davis' gun was found cocked and undischarged, having failed to go off. Norvel mounted a horse and rode off, but subsequently returned.
