

HOLD THEM TO THE RECORD

Fusion Sham Reform as Found on the Records.

MICKEY TALKS TO STUDENTS.

The Republican State Officers Show Good Records—Institutions Carefully and Economically Managed. The State Treasury in Comparison.

Lincoln, Oct. 21.—Nebraska, with her free schools and fertile soil, one of the most productive states in the union, noted for having the smallest per cent of illiteracy of any state in the union, is compelled to carry a burden of $2,000,000 of debt. In their platform the fusionists charge this debt to Republican misrule. Let us refer to the records and place the indebtedness of the state where it justly belongs. From Jan. 1, 1899, to Jan. 1, 1901, or the last two years of fusion rule in Nebraska the debt was increased over $435,534.93, or within $85,000 of being one-fourth of the entire indebtedness of the state. A platform promise of revenue reform, coming from a party noted for its reckless extravagance of money should have but little influence with the voters of Nebraska. The record of the present state officials, noted for economy, stands out in bold contrast with the record of extravagance made by the fusionists. Under the fusion rule almost every department was confronted with a large deficiency long before the commissions of the treasury looters expired.

It is years since Nebraska has had such an able, honest and business like administration of its affairs as it has had for the past two years by the present Republican officials, who are asking reelection. In fact, in not a single office is there a deficiency and in many of them money appropriated will be turned back into the treasury when the new appropriations become available. Such a record was never before heard of in Nebraska, such economy was never before practiced. This record for economy should meet a rousing indorsement at the polls.

The State Institutions.

At the state institutions there has been absolutely no friction. The inmates have been cared for with the same kindness and patience as though they were directly in charge of parents. No father or mother has felt called upon to make complaint to higher authority than those directly in charge of the institutions, but on the contrary letters of commendation are being constantly received. The inmates are fed the same wholesome food that is provided for the officials and employes, and everything possible is done that will promote the health and happiness of the inmates—the unfortunate wards of the state. Such a record stands out in marked contrast to the extravagant management and shameful mistreatment of the inmates by the last fusion administration when the institutions seemed always in a state of turmoil and where the inmates of many of them were compelled to eat food absolutely unfit for the human body, while the officials, their families and the employes were living on the best that money could buy and at the expense of the state.

The State Treasury.

The taxpayers have come to regard the state treasury as the exponent of the party in power, they have been taught by experience to look with considerable interest after the manner in which their funds are being handled. State Treasurer Meserve was the fusion ideal, but here is a comparison of the records made by Meserve and the present state treasurer. Which has best guarded your interest, the fusionists with Meserve or the Republicans with Stuefer? Note the comparison:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Rows include Collections Stuefer more than Meserve, Disbursements Stuefer more than Meserve, Interest collected Stuefer more than Meserve, etc.

Mickey on Record.

J. H. Mickey delivered the following address at the State university last week, which speaks for itself. Mr. Mickey spoke as follows: "Dean Davis, Members of the Faculty and Students of the University of Nebraska: I am truly glad to be with you at this convocation hour. I am grateful to Chancellor Andrews for his very kind invitation to meet with you and address you, the faculty and students of this great university."

"The work of this university is of the greatest importance to the development of this commonwealth. Thirty-four years ago it was my privilege to become a citizen of our state. My homestead entry was the first business transacted in the Lincoln United States land office. Thirty-four years ago, our state was admitted into the union. I am gratified to be in touch with and to share with others the benefits and blessings of the high standard of education we have reached in the thirty-five years of statehood. "Nebraska has been liberal in her appropriations for this university. Her liberality in these appropriations must continue commensurate with twentieth century demands. Nebraska, measured by her financial resources, is excelled by no other state in the liberality of her appropriations for higher education. This splendid record must be maintained. The money appropriated and with prudence expended for this university is not extravagance, it is commonsense economy for the general welfare of the people. This also applies with equal force to the state normal school at Peru, as well as to every public institution in the state. While the state must be wisely liberal in its appropriations and prudent in its expenditures for public institutions, it must not discourage private enterprise fraught with public good. There are private and parochial schools, academies, colleges and universities in this great commonwealth, which the state should encourage, not by public taxation or appropriations, but by the good will of the public in wishing them God speed. I am quite sure I voice the sentiments and views of your honorable and worthy chancellor and this great university, when I say all these are essential to the good citizenship of our great and growing commonwealth.

"Having lived the greater part of my life on the farm, permit me to say that I regard the work of the agricultural department of this and other state universities of equal importance with other departments. The farm and the interests connected therewith feed the world. The rapid increase of population will in the future make greater demands for food to sustain life and the comfort of the teeming millions than the past has ever required. What could methods and skill in farming used fifty years ago do now to supply the needs of the increased population? They would fail. The demand of our day is for much brain power and intelligence on the farm, the raising of stock and the handling of these vast interests as in any other avocation of life."

Hold Them to Their Record.

No matter how hard the fusionists may try to veer away from the issues of the campaign on the state ticket, they will be tried at the ballot box on these issues.

It so happens that one of the principal issues in the record of the last fusion administration. That is something the fusionists would like very much to turn their backs on, and for the reason that it is a record of incompetency, dishonesty and nepotism such as would make the expert plunderers of Tammany Hall turn pale with anger. Here is the record. In part and it is no wonder that fusion politicians should want to keep the people's attention from it: Two hundred and twenty-seven relatives and friends of fusion officials and leaders given bed and board and often clothing in the state institutions at the state's expense.

The Entire Appropriation Expended and Unpaid Bills Amounting to $149,000.

Pigs bought from "Your Uncle Jake" Wolfe by the fusion superintendent of the hospital for the insane at Lincoln out of state funds at $124 per pig.

A substitute hired for an incompetent physician at the soldiers' home at Grand Island and money paid him clandestinely from the drug fund.

Laces, linens and fancy underwear purchased for the daughters and daughters-in-law of the commandant of the soldiers' home at Milford and charged as groceries to the state.

More than $1,500 worth of timber cut from the state land at Milford and the money embezzled.

Private home rent and office rent paid in groceries stolen from the state by a fusion physician at the soldiers' home.

A fusion newspaper occupying three rooms and furnished light, power, fuel and rent free in the normal school at Peru at the expense of the state. The record destroyed, the funds plundered and much state property stolen in the institute of feeble minded youth at Beatrice.

Bogus clothing and butter deals in the asylum for the insane at Hastings, which robbed the state treasury of more than $15,000.

Chemicals purchased for experimental purposes in the laboratory of the institute for the blind at Nebraska City with that department closed.

Text books changed with the seasons of the year in the Peru normal and large commissions fled from the students.

Drugs, cattle, hogs, and farm products belonging to the state sold at the institute at Beatrice and the money stolen.

A man appointed superintendent of the fish hatchery at South Bend who accentuated his incompetency and utter unfitness by evicting the funny inhabitants of the aquarium through the medium of exotic vegetation.

This is only part of the very bad and very vulnerable records of the fusion administration, but it is enough to cause even fusionists to stop and reflect before they undertake to vote this same element of treasury looters back into power.

The last fusion administration went into office on the promise of honesty and economy. If they didn't keep the promise it was because it was not worth keeping. They kept everything else they got their hands on and if they let that promise go it was because it was a liability instead of an asset. Seriously speaking, the return of the fusionists to power would be a public misfortune. To again place them in position where they could loot the treasury, prey upon public interests and make lodging houses out of state institutions for a multitude of political hangers-on, to the shameful neglect of the unfortunate inmates, would be to exercise the right of franchise to public detriment.

French Caneer (name or nosevert).

Paris, Oct. 24.—President Roosevelt's name was enthusiastically cheered in the chamber of deputies yesterday, when M. Jaures, socialist, urged the government to follow the example of the American president's conciliatory attitude in dealing with strikes.

Two Vessels Lost.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 24.—The steamer Centennial, from Alaska, reports the loss of two vessels, the schooner Courtney Ford and the ship Louis Walsh, both of San Francisco, and the death of four men.

He Had a Conscience.

"Wonderful fellow, that Herlock Solmes," remarked the captain a few evenings ago in the smokeroom. "I remember the occasion when I was introduced to him. It was at a crush at the Van Astor bills. There was an awful crowd, and we were standing up in a corner talking, when all at once I missed my watch.

"What's the matter? queried the detective when he noticed that I was upset, and I told him.

"Looking at the time, he observed, speaking so as to be heard for a yard or two around, 'Gentlemen, my friend here has lost his watch, but fortunately it is a striking repeater, and as it is now fifty-eight minutes to 10 when it strikes the hour we shall be sure to hear it and can so detect the thief if you will kindly listen for it.'

"Two or three fellows laughed, but all took it good naturedly except an ugly looking foreigner, who colored up under his dirt and tried to shuffle away.

"That's our man," said Solmes. "And so it was, for my watch was found on him.

"Was it a repeater? Oh, no! There's where the talent came in!"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Hanged and Buried and Lived.

It is not given to many men to be hanged and buried and yet be able to tell the tale, but such was the experience of one John Bartendale, who was executed at York in 1834 for felony. After his body had hung for nearly an hour it was buried. A gentleman passing by the grave, which had not been filled up, thought he saw the earth move, and with the help of his servant he disinterred the convict, who was still alive.

It was the custom in those days to bury suicides and executed criminals without any coffin. The man was carefully treated and entirely recovered. He became hostler at the coaching house in York and lived a most exemplary life. When asked what he could tell in relation to hanging, as having experienced it, he replied, "That when I was turned off flashes of fire seemed to dart from my eyes, from which I fell into a state of darkness and insensibility."

Not Superstitious, But—

"No, I am not a believer in the supernatural," said the hard headed woman. Nevertheless, she went on to tell how some oriental personage she had met had declared that if you lost anything it is no good to look about for it, but to visualize it. Last week this woman lost a valuable hatpin. She searched high and low for it in vain. Then all of a sudden she remembered the words of the native and she sat down and closed her eyes tightly and thought of nothing but her loss. A few minutes passed, and upon a disk of darkness there appeared the bright outline of a hatpin. Immediately afterward my friend was startled by her maid's voice: "I have found the pin, ma'am. It was lying in the folds of a blanket on your bed!"—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Ring Sickness.

Unfortunate passengers aboard steamers are not the only ones to endure the agonies of nausea. Any circus man will tell you that it is a most difficult thing to overcome the miserable sensation caused by constantly circling round a small ring. Clowns even and ringmasters suffer from it, merely from seeing the horses go round and round, and one well known ringmaster, even after years of experience, still finds that if a horse balks a little or gets behind time, compelling him to follow close upon it, he will probably undergo a painful fit of sickness after leaving the ring.

Women in Command.

In several villages of Finland the woman has authority, for a religious sect exists there whose disciples are forced to marry and to take a vow to submit to the wife in all things. The women choose one of their number for governing head, whose duty it is to see that the men behave themselves and to punish them if they transgress. Similar are the "Purificants" of Liberia, who also recognize the supremacy of women.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 4, A. D. 1902.

A Joint Resolution proposing to amend section one of Article fifteen, of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, relative to the manner of submitting and adopting amendments to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Be It Resolved and Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

SECTION 1. That section one of Article fifteen of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Either branch of the legislature may propose amendments to this Constitution, and if the same be agreed to by three-fifths of the members elected to each house, such proposed amendments shall be entered on the Journals with the yeas and nays, and published at least once each week in at least one newspaper in each county where a newspaper is published, for thirty days immediately preceding the next election of senators and representatives, at which election the same shall be submitted to the electors for approval or rejection, and if a majority of the electors voting at such election on such proposed amendment, shall vote to adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of this Constitution. When more than one amendment is submitted at the same election, they shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each amendment separately.

All ballots used at such election on such amendment or amendments shall have written or printed thereon the following: For proposed amendment to the Constitution relating to (here insert the subject of the amendment) and, against proposed amendment to the Constitution relating to (here insert the subject of the amendment) and the vote of each elector voting on such amendment or amendments shall be designated by the elector by making a cross with a pen or pencil in a circle or square to be placed at the right of the lines the words "For or Against" the proposed amendments, as he shall desire to vote thereon, or by indicating his preference on a voting machine when such machine is in use.

I, Geo. W. Marsh, secretary of state of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the Twenty-seventh session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the 4th day of November, A. D. 1902.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the State of Nebraska.

Done at Lincoln this 23d day of July, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Two, of the Independence of the United States, the One Hundred and Twenty-seventh, and of this state the Thirty-sixth.

GEO. W. MARSH,

[Seal.] Secretary of State.

A Typical South African Store.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be record." For sale by Kiesau Drug Co.

A Word to Travelers.

The excitement incident to traveling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea, and for this reason no one should leave home without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Kiesau Drug Co.

Goos Like Hot Cakes.

"The fastest selling article I have in my store," writes Druggist C. T. Smith, of Davis, Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, because it always cures. In my six years of sales it has never failed. I have known it to save sufferers from throat and lung diseases, who could get no help from doctors or any other remedy." Mothers rely on it, best physicians prescribe it, and the Kiesau Drug Co. guarantee satisfaction or refund price. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes, 50 cents and $1.

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. Its attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often before human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquefies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. Mahon, Hampton, Ga.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal." A. H. Kiesau.

It isn't popular, if it wasn't loved by the people, why do dealers say: "We have something just as good as the Madison Medicine Co's Rocky Mountain Tea." Think it over. 35 cents.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill, of Troy, I. T., writes: "For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat." A. H. Kiesau.

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and reaches the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. Druggists sell the 50c. size; Trial size by mail, 10 cents. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.

It fills the arteries with rich, red blood, makes new flesh, makes sick people well. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents. A. H. Kiesau.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Grimmett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured. —Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by Kiesau Drug Co.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia. Take no substitutes. A. H. Kiesau.

"Watch the Kidneys."

"When they are affected life is in danger," says Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys. A. H. Kiesau.

She is a fine girl, quite brilliant I hear. I understand she has just completed a course of Rocky Mountain Tea. That accounts for her brilliancy. A. H. Kiesau.

Look Out For Fever.

Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. A. H. Kiesau.

Forty Years Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well, what the gratitude of anyone. This is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve did for C. Haney, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. A. H. Kiesau.

America's Famous Beauties.

Look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores, pimples. They don't leave them, nor will any one, who use Bucklen's Arnica salve. It glorifies the face. Eczema or salt rheum vanish before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains. Infallible for plics 25 cents at Kiesau's drug store.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at A. H. Kiesau's drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25 cents per box.

Danger in Fall Colds.

Fall colds are liable to hang on all winter leaving the seeds of pneumonia, bronchitis or consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures quickly and prevents serious results. It is old and reliable, tried and tested, safe and sure, contains no opiates and will not constipate. A. H. Kiesau.

No danger of consumption if you use Foley's Honey and Tar to cure the stubborn cough. A. H. Kiesau.

Bronchitis For 30 Years.

Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Danville, Ill., writes: "I had bronchitis for twenty years and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar which is a sure cure." Contains no opiates. A. H. Kiesau.

Never Ask Advice.

When you have a cough or cold don't ask what is good for it and get some medicine with little or no merit and perhaps dangerous. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy. It cures coughs and colds quickly. A. H. Kiesau.

Spent More than $1,000.

W. W. Baker of Plainview, Neb., writes: "My wife suffered from lung trouble for fifteen years. She tried a number of doctors and spent over $1,000 without relief. She became very low and lost all hope. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and thanks to this great remedy, it saved her life. She enjoys better health than she has known in ten years." Refuse substitutes. A. H. Kiesau.

His Life in Peril.

"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Texas, "biliousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run-down people. Try them. Only 50 cents at Kiesau's drug store.

A Dozen Times a Night.

Mr. Owen Dunn, of Benton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles I am cured." A. H. Kiesau.

The Children's Friend.

There is no use trying to persuade American mothers that a substitute exists for Perry Davis' Painkiller. They know how it relieves the troubles of childhood, from sprained arms and legs to stomachaches. Other preparations may do good. Painkiller is certain to. A big difference, and one that has been recognized for sixty years. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

Out of Death's Jaws.

"When death seemed very near from a severe stomach and liver trouble, that I had suffered with for years," writes P. Muse Durham, N. C., "Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave perfect health." Best pills on earth and only 25 cents at Kiesau's drug store.

Worse Than A Blow.

From a hard fist is the buffet of cold wind upon a pair of improperly protected lungs. A few minutes exposure to cold may be the beginning of consumption. Lose neither time nor courage. Fortify yourself against pulmonary troubles, including consumption, with Allen's Lung Balm. A few doses will loosen the cough and enable you to get rid of the phlegm that produces it. Cure soon follows.
