The city council meets in regular session tonight, and it is probable that the city lighting question will again be taken up and may be settled.

Considerable petty stealing is reported from the residence neighborhood west of the tracks, and there is a desire that the person or persons responsible may soon be brought to justice.

Revival meetings will commence next Sunday, January 4, in the Evangelical church. Preaching every evening. Rev. H. Soli from Fremont comes next Friday to stay a few days. Everyone is cordially invited.

John Dingman fell on the ice while skating Wednesday and injured his knee. This is the second or third time the same knee has been injured and it is not improbable that he will suffer the inconvenience of a stiff joint for some time.

The preliminary hearing of the chicken thieves arrested in this city Wednesday after having sold the chickens to the Armour plant, will take place at Stanton tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and the sheriff of that county is here today to subpoena witnesses.

F. K. Fulton has accepted the position as manager of the gas plant of the Norfolk Light and Fuel company and assumed the duties of that position with the beginning of the year. Mr. Fulton has the confidence of all the people of Norfolk who know him and it is not doubted but that the plant will be capably managed.

M. J. Robb, brakeman on the F. E. & M. V., suffered a stroke of paralysis yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and it is reported that he suffered a subsequent stroke later in the day. He has been ailing for some days, but the result of his ailment was not strongly apparent until yesterday. His friends hope for his speedy recovery from the attack.

Alva Crooks, in the employ of W. H. Butterfield & Son, had the misfortune to upset with a load of straw yesterday while making a short turn, and was thrown to the ground with considerable violence. He fell on his side, and while it is believed that none of his ribs were broken he received some painful bruises. His injuries were not serious and he hopes to return to work again tomorrow.

A case was tried on Wednesday before Judge Boyd in chambers, wherein W. W. Roberts asked for a temporary injunction restraining C. W. LeMont from re-engaging in the insurance business. The evidence showed that in May, 1901, Roberts bought Mr. LeMont's insurance business, and recently the latter decided to re-engage in the same line. The temporary order was issued, which holds good until the next term of district court, when a hearing will be held on a motion for a permanent injunction.

Hon. Wm. P. Warner of Dakota City, state senator from the eighth district, was here Wednesday and in company with M. D. Tyler went out and looked over the hospital buildings and grounds, leaving for Lincoln yesterday morning with his family. Mr. Warner is one of the strong and vigorous young men of the incoming senate and it is believed by his friends that he will be a leader in that body. His magnificent endorsement by the people of his district at the polls is evidence of his popularity at home, and expressive of confidence that his constituents will receive faithful service at his hands.

NEW YEAR OF 1903 BORN

Dame Nature and Norfolk people Celebrated.

WHISTLES AND BELLS SOUNDED

Guns Were Exploded and the Year Was Ushered in—Numerous Society Events and New Year's Observances.

Out upon the chilly air of midnight, December 31, 1902, the deafening shrieks of a half hundred whistles, the music of a half hundred chimes, the bangs of a thousand guns and greetings from the throats of awakened Norfolk rang, "A Happy New Year!"—sharp, and clear, and long. For a moment the city was swallowed up in noise. When it stopped, the date had changed, people looked out at the first day of January, 1903, and went to bed.

The morning dawned like a day in Fairyland. Under a clear, cold sky, and with smoke running straight up into the heavens, the city awoke beneath a thick, white covering of frost. The sombre colored branches of freedom that had sunk into the darkness of the old year, came out under the light of the new, gowned in dazzling, filmy creations of whiteness that sparkled in the early sun and converted the avenues into dreamy lanes of some fantastic foreign nowhere.

It was a great day for the kodak fiend, and very early in the day you met him on the streets, by the river, everywhere throughout the city.

It was a happy New Year's day in Norfolk, and a holiday complete. Business houses were closed after noon, banks did not open at all, and the post-office kept only partial hours. Many business men used a portion of the day for closing up the books, and many more took a rest. There were dinner parties at many homes, a few New Year's calls, and dances for finishers at night.

New Year Society Events.

Miss Hildreth Sisson entertained a few friends at a chaffing dish party Wednesday night.

A merry dancing party was enjoyed at Mast hall last night by members of the O. N. R. club and their friends.

A party of neighbors and friends were agreeably entertained last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Raasch north of the city.

A New Year's party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Weatherby at their home on Koenigstein avenue last evening, cards being the feature of the event. Nice refreshments were served and an enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

Mrs. Sol G. Mayer entertained a company of 35 ladies at six-handed euchre Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Simon Mayer of Lincoln being the guest of honor. The first prize was won by Mrs. A. J. Durand, while Mrs. Darius Mathewson secured the booby. Delicious refreshments rounded out a full afternoon of enjoyment.

The West Side whist club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Baum at their home on Norfolk avenue New Year's eve. The membership was well represented, the games were closely contested, and the refreshments were unusually fine. The early hour rule was broken and all remained until after midnight to welcome the new year.

Ladies Entertain Elks.

Fourteen ladies whose husbands are members of the Elks lodge gave a social session at the club rooms last evening, which was one of the most successful of the many pleasant entertainments held in the club rooms. About 80 persons were present and all had a jolly time. The ladies had taken possession of the rooms during the afternoon and prepared them for the festivities. Card tables were arranged in the lodge room, ping pong in the card room, and the billiard and reception rooms were used in the regular way. After the guests had all arrived progressive high five was started and played with a vim until 10:30. In the meantime other games were going in the other rooms. The prize winners on the card games were: Mrs. Desmond, first prize for ladies, bouquet of carnations; Dr. C. S. Parker, first for gentlemen, set medallions; Mrs. Leonard, second prize for ladies, handsome pack of cards; Dr. P. H. Salter, second prize for gentlemen, pack of cards. After the card games were finished, Miss Mae Durand sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Laura Durand on the piano, and Miss Hildreth Sisson sang, accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Greene. Then the tables were spread with pretty lunch cloths and delicious refreshments were served. The ladies who planned and executed the function are: Mesdames A. J. Durand, C. B. Durand, N. A. Rainbolt, W. H. Bucholz, W. G. Baker, C. H. Reynolds, O. F. Tappert, E. H. Tracy, Sol G. Mayer, G. D. Butterfield, J. N. Bundick, P. H. Salter, J. B. Mayland, W. N. Husk.

A New Year Memory.

New Year's is a day when there are few Norfolk people who do not recall the fatal accident with the city saluting cannon at the dawn of the year of 1901 when Peter L. Buhmann, a barber in the employ of C. E. Hartford, lost his life. In company with L. L. McKim and some other young men, the saluting cannon was being loaded and fired near the foundry when a premature discharge while Buhmann was leaning over the mouth of the cannon blew his mangled form a distance of several feet and killed him instantly. Since that accident it is believed that the saluting cannon has not once been fired, but is kept in the city hall where it is permitted to rust.

New Year's Skating.

The skating on various ponds and sloughs and along the Elkhorn river was fairly good yesterday, and from the number who were enjoying the sport it is judged that about every boy and girl in the city who could muster a pair of skates and know how to use them put in at least a portion of the day at the exhilarating exercise. The majority of them who cared to walk so far, were on the Elkhorn, but the sloughs and ponds were likewise used, especially the small pond north of the M. & O. tracks.
