

NORFOLK DRAWS $20,000

House Committee Favors a Further Appropriation.

TO COMPLETE PUBLIC BUILDING

Washington Dispatch Gives it Out That Congress will Again Favor This City—Business Men Enthusiastic for Firemen's Tournament.

From Tuesday's Daily.

An appropriation of $20,000 with which to complete the public building is another good thing that is about to come Norfolk's way according to Washington advices.

The house committee on appropriations yesterday favorably reported the sundry civil appropriation bill, in which Nebraska is represented to the extent of $280,000, of which Norfolk is to receive $20,000 for the completion of the government building here providing the bill passes and becomes a law.

This additional appropriation should permit Norfolk to present one of the finest public buildings in the state outside of Omaha and Lincoln, when the work is completed. The object of the appropriation is undoubtedly to prevent any delay when it comes to completing the building and getting it ready for occupancy after the firm of contractors have completed their work.

The body of a boy has been found, but the fate of the remainder of the crew is not known.

Omaha, Feb. 4.—With the exception of those employed by the Burkle Printing company and a number of the smaller job offices, every job printer in Omaha is idle, the order to quit work having been given out yesterday morning upon the refusal of the employers to concede the scale of $18 per week, and 40 cents per 1,000 for hand composition.

Dr. Licog, president of the board of health, states that he has every reason to believe that the plague was brought into Mazatlan from San Francisco by a small steamer called the Curacao. The Mexican government is now carefully investigating this point in order to determine whether this fact can be proven beyond a reasonable doubt. It is probable that the foreign relations department here may make representations to the United States in view of the great loss inflicted upon the leading west coast port.

House Naval Committee Reports on Bribery Case.

SENATE PASSES TRUST BILL.

Elkins Measure to Regulate Railroad Transportation is Adopted Without Discussion—Army Appropriation Bill is Passed With Amendments.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The house committee on naval affairs yesterday reported to the house its findings in the matter of the investigation of the Lessler bribery charges. A minority report, signed by Representatives Vandiver, Kitchen and Roberts, declaring the charges not sustained, also was submitted.

The majority report says: "At a meeting of the committee on naval affairs held Jan. 20, during the consideration of the naval appropriation bill, Mr. Lessler, a member of the committee, charged that he had been corruptly approached for the purpose of influencing his action respecting proposed legislation providing for the purchase of Holland submarine boats. The following day Philip Doblin of New York appeared before the subcommittee and confessed that he had so approached Mr. Lessler. In conclusion, the report says:

Your committee has most carefully heard and considered the testimony taken before it and has come to the following conclusions:

That the charge made by Mr. Lessler is sustained by the evidence, such attempt, in the opinion of the committee, having been made by one Philip Doblin, on his own initiative and responsibility, with the idea of making money for himself, if he should find Mr. Lessler corruptly approachable; that there is no evidence to sustain the charge of an attempt by Lemuel E. Quigg or the Holland Submarine Boat company to corruptly influence a member of the committee.

The committee, having concluded its report, resumed consideration of the naval appropriation bill. A vote was taken on the proposition to authorize the purchase of five submarine boats, six voting in the affirmative and nine in the negative. The committee practically completed its work on the bill.

SENATE PASSES ARMY BILL.

Provision is Made That Chief of Staff Shall Be Directly Under President.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The senate passed without objection or discussion the Elkins bill to further regulate railroad transportation. It is one of a number of measures presented in this congress concerning corporations and has particular reference to railroads. The army appropriation bill was passed. The provision establishing a general staff was eliminated. Later the independent measure, identical in its provisions with the general staff section of the general army bill, was passed, after having been reconsidered to permit the incorporation of an amendment by Berry, placing the chief of staff exclusively under the direction of the president. The bill now goes to conference. Quarles continued his remarks in opposition to the statehood bill.

More Talk of a Compromise.

Washington, Feb. 4.—There was again talk about the senate of the possibility of a compromise on the statehood proposition. A suggestion, which appears to meet with some favor on both sides of the controversy, is that the two territories of Oklahoma and New Mexico be admitted as states and that Arizona be united with New Mexico until the area now covered by that territory includes 300,000 people, when it shall become a state; that Oklahoma be admitted as it now stands, but that at some definite time in the future Indian territory should be added to it.

Department of Commerce Bill.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The senate and house conferees on the bill creating the department of commerce held their first conference yesterday. The house provision conferring on the president authority to place the interstate commerce commission under the control of the proposed department proved to be the principal feature of difference, the representatives of the house standing out stiffly for the house provision and the senate's representatives contending as firmly for its elimination from the bill.

House Disposes of Claim Bills.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The house spent practically the whole day on claim bills coming over from last week. Payne, the floor leader of the majority, fought them all, but succeeded in defeating only three bills. After the claim measures were disposed of, general debate on the post-office appropriation bill was resumed and Robb (Mo.) addressed the house on the trust question.

Steeleville Bank Robber Expresses Dread of Angry Farmers. St. Louis, Feb. 2.—Jerry Richtmyer, who was arrested here several days ago, was taken to Chester, Ill., by Sheriff Avers of Randolph county, to answer to the charge of robbing the Steeleville bank. As he left the Four Courts he said he feared lynching. "I know there is no use to resist going back," said the prisoner, "because they would get a requisition for me, and I would have to go anyway, but there's no telling what those farmers will do. I'm glad Steeleville is not the county seat. It is not far, though, from there to Chester, where I will be jailed, and I do feel uneasy."

The officials have already begun an investigation.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News to All who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on rheumatism ever published.

No matter what your form of rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how mother was cured.

I am neither a doctor nor a professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a cure for rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however, apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely, if you have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove for yourself these claims I make.

Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with rheumatism no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is Victor Rainbolt, Bloomfield, Ind.
