A Brilliant Proposition!

The People's Store will make this proposition to the Norfolk people, that for 30 days it will sell the entire stock of merchandise at a small margin of 10% on $1.00, and furthermore, it will divide the profits with their customers for one month as a test, so that any man, woman or child, by purchasing $1.00 worth of goods, will be given 5 cents credit, and after 30 days you can come in and get your 5% profit.

We just give an instance of the numerous articles in the store which are impossible to get on this page.

- Our prices will be as follows:
- Best coal oil, per gal.15c
 - Eggs, as long as they last, per doz.10c
 - Oranberries, per quart10c
 - Sugar, 21 pounds for $1.00
 - Can corn, per can07 1/2c

Everything sold in proportion to meet the competition.

Yours truly,
B. MEYERS & CO.
The People's Store.

A Tramp Stole a Bunch of Our Diamonds

But we GOT THEM ALL BACK and have them on exhibition, with a lot of other goods, where you may look at them and buy them cheaply.

Besides these things, we have in our Music Department a large stock of Sheet Music, Pianos and Organs, which are going just now at Special Prices.

We still have a few of those Fine Swiss Watch Movements, which came into our stock from railroad men, on exchanges, and which we are offering at about half their value.

First-class repairing goes in with the business—and it is promptly done.

HAZEN NAMED FOR MAYOR

Nominated Unanimously by Republicans.

WILL DO HIS BEST FOR CITY.

Platform Short and Sharp—Better Lighted Streets—Better Sidewalks—Sunday Closing of Saloons—Suppression of Gambling.

M. C. Hazen is the republican nominee for mayor. He was the choice of the convention which met in the city hall last night. He did not accept the nomination; he did not decline it; therefore he was declared the candidate.

The platform set forth by the republicans is short and concise. It reads: We favor an economical government, better lighted streets and better sidewalks.

We favor closing the saloons at 12 o'clock at night, and on Sundays. We favor the suppression of gambling and prostitution.

Other candidates nominated by the convention were:

- For city clerk, S. R. McFarland.
- For city treasurer, Robert Utter.
- For city engineer, W. H. Lowe.

For two members of board of education, W. H. Johnson and J. S. McClary.

The central committee consists of Al Johnson, S. R. McFarland, R. H. Reynolds and W. H. Livingstone. They were authorized to fill any vacancies that might occur.

The convention was called to order promptly at 8 o'clock, by Chairman Hazen. Nearly every delegate was present and ready for the work of the evening at that time. The call was read and W. H. Buehler was made temporary chairman. W. N. Huse was elected temporary secretary.

A committee of three on credentials was appointed by the chair.

They were M. C. Hazen, H. G. Brueggeman and R. H. Reynolds.

The committee reported that the list of delegates as published in yesterday's News, was entitled to remain.

On motion the temporary organization was made permanent.

A motion to appoint a committee of three on resolutions and platform was carried by a rising vote of 14 to 11. C. O. Gow, J. F. Poucher and W. R. Hoffman were placed on this committee. They reported the resolutions as adopted.

The chair announced that nominations were in order for the office of mayor.

A motion to take an informal ballot was substituted by one to take ballot on call of wards. The first ballot resulted: R. H. Reynolds 6, M. C. Hazen 29, and W. H. Bridge 1.

On motion of R. H. Reynolds, the informal ballot was made formal and M. C. Hazen was declared the nominee. A speech was demanded by the convention. Mr. Hazen simply said:

"Gentlemen of the convention—I hardly feel like accepting this nomination. However, if it is your will that I take it, I shall not decline. If elected I shall do the best I can, always keeping in view the best interests of all the citizens. Gentlemen, I thank you."

On a ballot for city clerk, S. R. McFarland received 35, W. M. Rainbolt 1. On motion, McFarland was made the nominee by acclamation.

For city treasurer Robert Utter was unanimously nominated, on a suspension of the rules.

For city engineer, W. H. Lowe was unanimously nominated on a suspension of the rules.

For the board of education the names of W. H. Johnson, G. E. Moore, W. L. Kern and J. S. McClary were presented. On a rising vote it was determined to put but one man in the field, allowing the democrats to select another.

Four ballots were taken with no choice, Johnson leading and McClary second. Then the former motion was reconsidered and it was decided to nominate two members. The next ballot stood: Johnson 31, McClary 33, Kern 11 and Moore 7.

Then the convention adjourned. Perfect harmony prevailed throughout the proceedings and every republican present was enthusiastic over the ticket that had been placed before the voters.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

"Teachers should have no sense of humor."

The seniors have taken up civil government.

Again the school is to be blessed with vacation.

Cora Luikart and Sam Erskin have entered the contest.

The juniors need not be in such a hurry to select class pins.

The time is present for the annual contest for senior class honors.

Prof. McCoy is conducting a number of interesting experiments in light.

The senior class is going to review the common branches again this year.

It was not necessary for the freshmen to wear colors on St. Patrick's day.

A "small" St. Bernard dog (only three feet high) having taken his abode in the lower hall, worried the members of the faculty Wednesday.

About the only sad thing pupils are looking forward to in connection with vacation is the fact that they have to endure another program before they get the real thing.

A member of the physics class has figured out that if the power attached to one of the senior girls' talking machines was to be applied to some practical machine the actual horse power developed would be about 1250.

FOR SALE—The best southeast corner lot in Norfolk. For quick sale will take $500 spot cash for the lot and a half-sidewalk, trees and splendid location.
