Nebraska Telephone, Western Union and Postal Telegraph Men Called Out . This Morning-Want Better Pay and Shorter Hours.

Omaha, April 16 - Special to The the shot. Cecil says he declined. Gov- News: All of the linemen employed by the Nebraska Telephone company, the Western Union Telegraph company and the Postal Telegraph company were this morning called out on a strike. They demand $2.75 per day, an eight DR. hour service after September 1, and recognition of the union by the companies. Seventy-five men in Omaha are involved and 130 throughout the Western Union company have been paying a rate of $2.75 per day and the Postal company $2.50. The eight hour service has never been granted, however, and the union has not heretofore been recognized.

Th re are a number of line men employed by the Nebraska Telephone company in Norfolk. This city is one of the most important centers of exchange session of the arms of the fugitives in the state and probably contains as large a force of the linemen as any other place. Just how they are affected by the movement is not yet known. When asked in regard to the matter this afternoon, Manager Sprecher stated that he was unable to tell how his gangs would be affected by the strike. He is not sure, he said, whether the men belong to the union or not.

It would seem likely, from the facts, however, that at least some of the men here would stop work on account of the Latter Day Saints Gain Converts. Kansas City, April 13.-Joseph Smith, president of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, preached an Easter sermon at the church at Independence.
