

LAST BILL IS NOW SIGNED

Governor Mickey Has Attached His Signature to Fund.

APPROPRIATES MAINTENANCE.

Next Step Will be Advertising for Bids On Plans—It is in Hands of Board of Public Lands and Buildings—Begin in Three Months.

[From Monday's Daily.] Governor Mickey has now signed the appropriation bill for maintenance and salaries of officers and employees at the Norfolk hospital for the insane during the next two years. The amount appropriated is $51,850. The bill was signed Saturday and now the entire amount for the rebuilding of the institution and its maintenance is completely provided for.

The first step to be taken by way of active operations in the rebuilding will be the advertising for bids on plans. After that will come the bids for construction and it may be safely estimated that men will be on the ground within ninety days, putting up the new buildings. The plan now, it is thought, will be to build on the dormitory scheme, although nothing definite has been arranged.

MONDAY MENTION.

Four tough tramps laid in the city jail over Sunday.

George W. Losey and W. V. Allen drove up from Madison this morning.

Richard Zeche of Pierce spent Sunday with Norfolk friends.

C. J. Rouse was a passenger for Madison today to play for a dance.

A. K. Barnes was in the city from Lincoln to spend Easter Sunday at home.

Roy Road is here from Chicago for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Juneman were in the city from Madison to spend Easter Sunday.

County Superintendent O. W. Crum and Sheriff Clements were over from Madison today.

Miss Mabel Honsh returned this noon from a visit over Sunday with her parents at N. High.

Rev. J. O. S. Wells conducted services in St. Peter's Episcopal church at N. High Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Schavland o Madison visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson over Sunday.

Mrs. F. W. Jenal, who has been visiting Norfolk friends the past week, returned to her home in Bloomfield today.

The ladies missionary society of the Congregational church will meet with Miss Durland tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

A new front is being built over the old Grant building occupied as a saloon by Emil Koehn. The old front was severely dealt with by a storm some time ago and the improvement was almost necessary.

H. L. Snyder returned from Chicago Saturday, where he had accompanied Mrs. Snyder on her way to Ohio. Mr. Snyder is state agent for the Practical Gas Construction company of Chicago and will likely move to Omaha shortly.

H. L. Spaulding will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Moline, Canton and Abingdon, Illinois. During his absence the A. O. U. W. books will be at Moore's hardware store and will be taken care of by Fred Spaulding.

J. F. Redman has sold his farm near Norfolk and has purchased the property at the corner of Eighth street and Madison avenue, at present occupied by W. J. Freeman and family. There are two lots, and on the south one Mr. Redman proposes to build a new house for his own use, work on which is to be undertaken at once. The house occupying the corner lot will be improved and rented.

There has been a generous demand for tickets to the firemen's dance to be given at the Marquardt hall tonight, and a good time is anticipated by those who will attend the first public dance following the Lenten season. Good music has been provided and other things will be in keeping with the good time the firemen usually provide for their guests. The proceeds will go into the tournament fund.

The painters and paper hangers are kept unusually busy this spring at the work of giving the residences and business houses the fresh and neat appearance desired by the owners. The Norfolk housewife, perhaps more than the men, is particular about the interior appearance of her home and there are few who do not insist on new paper and fresh styles every year or two. This makes the business of paper hanging and painting a constant and profitable one.

The Easter weather furnished was not exactly of the quality to be desired for the occasion. The wind blew chilly from the north all day, making overcoats and fur wraps rather more desirable than spring suits. It grew colder as the day advanced and before this morning the thermometer had registered at a point but three degrees removed from freezing. The same quality of weather prevailed during today and a freeze-up may be the order tonight. Warmer is promised for tomorrow.

The railroad companies have been very generous to the firemen in granting rates for the tournament, and besides giving a passenger rate of one fare for the round trip, have offered to convey to Norfolk, freight free, the hose carts, hook and ladder trucks, and other paraphernalia that the firemen will use in making the races. The local committees are getting the preliminary work of the tournament well in hand, and the outlook is very bright for one of the best tournaments ever given by the association.

They are telling it on Scott Holbrook that his Easter dinner was not a magnificent success. He purchased what were said to be pure and unadulterated spring chickens for the occasion, but when dressed they were found to contain eggs as large as turkey or goose eggs, and the elastic and tenacious quality of the flesh gave every excuse for the belief that the birds were of the vintage of not later than 1898. It is likewise asserted that he paid a fancy price and secured them from a distance, two facts that speak boldly for the patronage of home industries in the future.

FOR SALE.—Barré Plymouth Rock eggs, $1 per setting.

The question of putting in waterworks was submitted to the voters at Tilden during the recent village election and they spoke in favor of it with their votes, by the tune of 85 to 49.

The members of the N. G. A. R. post have appointed a committee to confer with the citizens of that town regarding the advisability of attempting to secure the location of the next state reunion at Neligh.

The new seed elevator at the Salter yards is pretty nearly finished. It is much too late, however, to fill its purpose this year and the company has lost considerably on account of the bad building weather during the winter.

A new plank sidewalk is being laid along South Fourth street in front of the former site of the Press building, which was destroyed by fire some weeks ago. At the same time the walk was destroyed and there have since been no conveniences for pedestrians.

R. H. Reynolds is wearing a handsome new five dollar Stetson hat today as a little token from the victorious republican candidates in the recent city election. Mr. Reynolds was chairman of the central committee which conducted the campaign and the men who went to a sweeping victory at the polls wished in some way to let him know that his effort was appreciated.

No instructions have as yet been received at the post office regarding any new service for the Sunday morning mails, and there is no definite prospect that patrons of the office will be given their morning matter until night. Last Sunday evening the office was nearly swamped with the surplus papers, letters, etc., that came in on the evening trains. There is some slight prospect that No. 5 on the Northwestern may be run, but nothing at all certain.

Mrs. J. M. Covert has had a patent pending for a year in the government patent office on a cover for frying pans and has recently been notified that the patent was granted the latter part of February, but that final papers would not be made out for about six months. The cover is planned to admit of the escape of steam from a covered frying pan, and is likewise corrugated to catch the spattering grease and return it to the meat. It is a convenience that should be in demand by housewives generally. Her attorneys in New York, who secured the patent, are negotiating for its sale and hope to secure for her a nice sum, besides a royalty.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP.

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by the Kiesau Drug Co.

THINGS ARE MOVING SOME

Evidence of Life at Government Building Site.

TWO BUILDINGS ON ROLLERS.

Powers Building to go South Two Feet and Baptist Church Enroute to New Site—Macy May Build a Two-Story Brick Block.

[From Tuesday's Daily.] While the work on the government building is not yet under way, not even the excavating having yet been undertaken, things in that direction are beginning to assume a lively appearance in preparation for the work of excavation and construction. Great piles of sand and gravel are forming on the lot ready to be used by the builders as soon as the work has progressed that far and when the excavating is finished there will be a hum of industry there during all hours of the day.

The Powers building, just north of the government lots and facing Fourth street is being moved two feet to the south, so that it will be on the line, and I. M. Macy seriously contemplates moving his present photograph gallery to the rear end of his lot and putting up a neat two-story brick block on the site, with all the conveniences for his photograph business. He is having plans drawn for the proposed building, but will not decide definitely as to whether he will build or not until he has ascertained the cost.

The Baptist church is proceeding toward its new location at the corner of Philip avenue and Fourth street, this being the first day that the force of movers could work since the recent rain. The progress is slow owing to the size of the building and the obstacles in the way. Owing to the height of the church and its steeple, it is required that all the wires and cables should be moved out of the way, making work for the linemen of the telephone company and other companies having wires in along the route. This will clear for the Madison avenue front of the public building so that the work of excavating will not be hampered.

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES.

Elmer Fox returned to Cheyenne, Wyo., yesterday.

The ladies of the Second Congregational church will meet with Mrs. W. G. Roland tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid society Congregational church meet with Mrs. Turner at 2:30 tomorrow (Thursday.) Bring your thimbles.

Mast hall was comfortably filled last night with members of the O. R. N. club, who danced to the music of the waltz until late.

The 6 o'clock dinner given last evening in the parlors of the First Congregational church was well attended and much enjoyed. The dinner was given by the ladies' society and about $30 was netted.

Norfolk lodge, No. 97, A. O. U. W., last night elected the following named as delegates to the grand lodge which meets in Grand Island on May 12: F. W. Koerber, F. F. Miller and H. L. Spaulding. The alternates selected are M. L. Ogden, W. R. Hoffman and W. N. Huse.

The pipe that is used to fill the street sprinkler was placed in position yesterday at the corner of Norfolk avenue and fourth street, and it is likely that if the dust again shows an inclination to rise up and smother things the wagon will be on hand to turn it into mud before it has a chance to rise.

The executive committee of the firemen's tournament will meet tonight for the purpose of advancing the work preliminary to the tournament. The committee have received some samples of large advertising bills and will order them at once so that they may be posted throughout the state at an early date. The dance given the other night will add something like sixty dollars to the funds for the use of the committee.

C. W. Braasch has purchased the Durland property at the corner of Tenth street and Koenigstein avenue, at present occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Some time during the summer he expects to move the house to lots two blocks north of the present site and will erect on the corner a handsome modern residence, which will be occupied by himself and family, and their home on South Fifth street will be for sale or for rent.

The soda fountains were due to start today, but Jack Frost has made it certain that the opening is not likely to be a magnificent success in the way of demand for the icy drinks. If they could be made to give up hot coffee and sandwiches the demand might be more reasonable. Tomorrow, however, may be all that could be asked for ice cream and soda water weather, as winter is likely to come to a sudden jumping off place at an early date, owing to the lateness of the season.

BRIDGE GOING UP FAST.

Gangs of Men and Engines are at it Constantly Making Spans.

[From Thursday's Daily.] The Union Pacific bridge which has for several weeks past been in course of construction across the Elkhorn south of the city, is going up rapidly and within a very few days the stream will be spanned by an entire new bridge of steel. The gang has been at work during the last few days on the spans, themselves, and machinery is kept constantly going at the site. No longer is it necessary for the donkey engine to run into the city every time a train wants to pass, because the new side track is now laid and used at all times. It is expected that the bridge will be one of the best on the entire line.

Wells-McBride.

[From Thursday's Daily.] At 10:30 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a few intimate friends, the Rev. J. C. S. Wells and Mrs. Helen McBride were married at Trinity church. Bishop Williams of Omaha performed the ceremony. The couple left on the noon train for Kansas City, Mo., where they will visit for a week or more. Returning, they will be at home in the rectory of Trinity church on South Ninth street.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Reynolds in the Heights.

Arranging for Tournament on July 21, 22 and 23.

[From Thursday's Daily.] The executive committee of firemen, having in charge the arrangements for the state tournament, held a meeting at firemen's hall last night and transacted business of some importance to the approaching event. A movement was put on foot to see what arrangements could be made toward fixing up one of the streets on which to hold the tournament races, and learn something as to the probable cost.

The music committee has entered into correspondence with a number of bands throughout the state, with a view to securing their attendance and proposes to have plenty of good music.

The executive committee will meet again Monday night when it is hoped to have more of general interest to announce.

"If I Could Get Rid of this abominable cold," exclaimed the sufferer, when the end of a spasm of coughing gave him a chance to talk. The way out of the trouble is plain. Take Allen's Lung Balm before the merciless grip of the cold has fastened upon throat and lungs. After a few doses the cough is easier and less frequent, and a complete cure is but the question of a little time.

CONTEST IS ON WITH RUSH

Began Voting With Spirit Early This Morning.

MISS LUCY SHAFFER LEADS.

Popular Young Lady in South Norfolk Heads the List—Mrs. Elsie Desmond is Second—Others Who are Started in the Race.

[From Monday's Daily.] The contest advertised by THE NEWS for the first time Saturday night for the giving away of a fine young horse, a handsome rubber tired runabout and a complete set of harness, to the most popular lady, married or single, within fifty miles of Norfolk, began this morning with a rush and shows signs of developing into a spirited race.

The leading lady at noon today was Miss Lucy Shaffer, daughter of Matt Shaffer of South Norfolk, who already has a showing of 210. Mrs. Elsie Desmond is second with 27 and a number of others have sprang into the contest on the very first day, which shows that they have friends.

There will undoubtedly be more names added to the list soon and the voting will without question be watched with interest. As may be seen from the advertisement, anyone may enter and they start today with practically even chances.

The prize of a complete driving outfit, very swell and up-to-date in every particular, speaks for itself, and the honor of winning it will be well worth trying for.

[From Tuesday's Daily.] In the voting contest today, Mrs. Elsie Desmond has taken a jump, having at present 475 votes. Miss Shaffer, of South Norfolk, still has a large number and a new candidate has come into the race with a nice start, Miss Opal Madison, who enters with eight.

A slight change has been made in the system, so that every payment on THE DAILY NEWS will entitle a person to six votes for each week, instead, as started, twenty-six for each month.

[From Thursday's Daily.] Intense interest in THE NEWS popular voting contest, in which are to be given away free a horse, buggy and harness, has been developed by today's balloting.

Miss Shaffer has taken a decided lead with an addition of 642 votes. Mrs. Elsie Desmond has gained fifty-eight, Mrs. Joseph Schwartz thirty-eight and Miss Opal Madison seventeen by the voting since noon yesterday.

The contest now stands:

Miss Lucy Shaffer, South Norfolk 1086

Mrs. Elsie Desmond, Norfolk 585

Mrs. Joseph Schwartz, South Norfolk 173

Miss Opal Madison, Norfolk 78

Miss Anna Tannehill, Warnerville 1

Miss Anna Zuelow, Norfolk 1

Miss Emma Mueller, Norfolk 1

Miss Mary Horisky, Norfolk 1

Miss Kathryn Sisson, Norfolk 1

Miss Nellie Schwenk, Norfolk 1
