TOOK HIS OWN CHILD.

Charles Nordwig Places His Little Girl in His Mother's Care.

Charles Nordwig was in town yesterday from Sioux City. He brought with him his little 3-years-old daughter, and when he returned to Sioux City the little girl was left in the care of her father's mother, who lives here. It seems that the child was kidnapped by the father from her mother in Sioux City and brought to this city Wednesday. Nordwig and his wife had agreed to part and by agreement the wife and child were staying at the home of a brother of Nordwig living in Sioux City. Tuesday evening Charles called at the house and asked to see the child. Taking the little girl in his arms he made a dash for the street where a hack was in waiting, in which he was hurriedly driven away. The next heard of him was when he brought the little girl to his mother in this city.

Charles maintains that his wife is not a fit person to have charge of the little girl, that she is not kind to it, and that there are other reasons why she should not have the custody of the child.

At the instance of the mother, the police force of Sioux City have been searching for the father and daughter since they disappeared Tuesday evening. Nordwig went back to Sioux City this morning with the determination to find the chief of police and explain the situation to him, claiming that he can prove the truth of his assertions by the neighbors who are somewhat familiar with their family affairs.

He has no fear of trouble from a legal source at this time, because he can set up as good a right to the child as can the mother.

Resolutions of Condolence. Headquarters, Mathewson post, G. A. R., Department of Nebraska, at Norfolk—Resolutions of condolence passed at a meeting of said post on April 14, 1903:

Whereas, It has pleased the Great Commander to remove from our ranks our comrade, Thomas J. Harter, an old and faithful member of this post to the eternal bivouac of our comrades gone before; therefore be it

Resolved, That by the death of Comrade Harter this post has lost a faithful friend and comrade, whose absence will be keenly felt by each one of the surviving members, his comrades. For many years, on each annually recurring Memorial Day Comrade Harter has placed marks at the graves of our deceased comrades and has been the guide of our decorating committee in their patriotic task of strewing flowers on the lowly mounds that sheltered the mortal remains of our country's defenders. We will sadly miss his assistance and direction, always cheerfully given on each Memorial day.

Resolved, That the usual emblems of mourning be displayed in our post hall for the period of thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of our late deceased comrade. Official:

W. H. WIDAMAN, Adjutant. Post Commander.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Miss Nellie Handley left this morning for South Omaha to win new honors for herself and the school.

The time of the senior class for the next four weeks will be devoted chiefly to reviews of the common branches.

The high school glee club is making excellent progress under the skillful management of Miss Kathryn Sisson.

Thirty out of a class of seventy pupils of the class in English of the Omaha high school failed to make a passing grade.

May 8 is fixed for the state high school athletic meet. Several high schools of the state will send their high jumpers, fast runners, hammer throwers, shot putters and low hurdlers.

Mr. McCoy has been appointed teacher of science in the junior normal, ten weeks session, to be held at Alliance beginning June 8. Mr. McCoy will uphold the reputation of the Norfolk high school in the science work.

Cyrus Brownlee Newton's entertainment was among the brightest and cleverest rendered in Norfolk. The unfavorable weather, cards and dances combined to diminish the attendance. Receipts, $24.90; expenses, $45.

There is a tendency on the part of many pupils to withdraw from school a few weeks before its close and expect credit equal to that earned by those who remain in regular attendance. Such will be disappointed in their expectations.

The eighth grade county examinations of this section of the county was held in the high school building Wednesday, Superintendent Crum conducting the examination. Including those from rural schools, sixty pupils were examined. The Norfolk class has suffered many disadvantages the past year, due to changes in teachers and quarantine. It is hoped, however, that the class will not fall below the average of its predecessors.
