

NEW TRAINS FOR NORFOLK

Radical Change in the Passenger Service For This City.

TWO TRAINS DAILY GO WEST.

Bonesteel Passenger Train Will Run on Sundays—Will Solve the Question of Sunday Noon Mail—Will Run into Omaha Union Station.

[From Monday's Daily.] What is without doubt the most radical change ever made in the passenger service of the Northwestern railroad leading into Norfolk, will very likely be executed next Sunday morning when a new time card that has been drawn up in the office of Superintendent Reynolds and is now awaiting the approval of Omaha officers of the company, is planned to take effect.

With the new service that is planned, Norfolk will get one more train west to Long Pine and return, every day except Sunday and a Sunday train on the Bonesteel road, which has never been run before and which will solve the Sunday noon mail proposition.

For years there has been a desire among the traveling public and business men of this city that a midway train to the west might be run. The new schedule completely fills this long felt want. The train will leave Norfolk Junction every day except Sunday at 12:20 p. m. and arrive at Long Pine at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Returning, it will leave Long Pine at 1:45 in the morning and reach this city at 6:05, in time to connect with the Omaha passenger from Bonesteel. On this train passengers arriving from Sioux City on the C. St. P. & O. at 10:45 may go on west within an hour and a half. It will also make it possible for persons west to come into Norfolk early in the morning and return either at noon or night, as they choose.

The Bonesteel Sunday train will run on the same schedule as the week day time card. It will give persons on that line a chance to get to Norfolk Sunday mornings where before they have had to come Saturday afternoons or not at all. It will also bring in the Sunday noon mail that has been missing for several weeks.

Another alteration contemplated by the new card is the change of track which the Bonesteel passenger into Omaha will use from Irvington on. Hereafter this train will run into the union station at Omaha, instead of the Webster street depot. It will go in by way of South Omaha, in order to make close connections with the C. & N. W. trains for Chicago. This is an experiment and later it is possible that all trains will run in by this route.

The figures for the new schedule have been submitted to the Omaha offices and now awaits their approval or rejection.

BABY GIRL'S FATHER IS HAPPY.

Began Work Today and Will Live for Little Child.

[From Monday's Daily.] Charles Nordwig, who came to this city last week with his child in order to get away from the unworthy mother, began work this morning in the tailoring shop of F. P. Fuesler. From Sioux City reports, the woman has decided to drop any radical measures to secure the little girl and will try a process by law. It is also said that she will sue for divorce.

Mr. Nordwig has a large number of friends in Norfolk and all of them sympathize with him in his trouble. He has always been a hard worker and a man deserving the highest esteem of his fellows and in his misfortune they feel that he has been given the worst end of a bad bargain. In being able to work and live for his baby girl he will be, he said this morning, the happiest man in the world.

IMPROVE THE CITY.

Committee Offers Suggestions for Continuance of the Work.

[From Saturday's Daily.] Norfolk, May 2.—Last summer there was a strong effort made to improve the appearance of our little city. The movement was headed by a joint committee from the Commercial club and Women's club, very ably assisted by the merchants and citizens.

The result was most gratifying to all concerned. Our lawns were never so well kept; our alleys were as a rule free from the unsightly tin can and rubbish heap; the flower beds and gardens showed great care and good taste, and a half dozen of our vegetable gardens were works of art.

This year our mayor commenced this good work by his Arbor Day proclamation requesting merchants and all citizens to clean up about their premises. The school board gave a half holiday on the same day in order that the children might do some work of this nature.

There is much to be done if our city looks even as well as it did last summer. There are too many papers blowing through the streets; too many alleys unrelieved of the rubbish which accumulated through the winter; the vacant lots are very unsightly if weeds are allowed to grow upon them and the neighbors throw all of their rubbish over there instead of having it drawn away to the dumping ground.

In some cases the effect of a well kept lawn was spoiled last year by the park outside of the walks being neglected. It is hoped that all of these suggestions will be received in the kindly spirit in which they are given and acted upon now as it is a time of year to begin such work.

Last year representative committees called upon the merchants, but if any feel inclined to take prizes again they will gladly offer charge of them, and the awarding of them. There is no doubt that the prizes were an incentive to the boys last year and would be again this. If the merchants wish to offer any prizes they may communicate with any member of the Civic committee from the Woman's club: Mrs. A. J. Dorland, Mrs. C. H. Reynolds, Mrs. Robert Utter, or with Mayor Koenigstein, Mr. Turner or C. O. Gow of the Commercial club.

AMATEUR THEATRICAL.

"Our Boys" Will be Presented Saturday Night With Added Features.

[From Monday's Daily.] "Our Boys" is the title of the comedy drama to be given by the pupils of the high school Saturday night for the benefit of the manual training department. This is a refined entertainment and has the reputation of being played 1,500 nights in the Strand theatre, London. The cast is headed by Miss Nellie Handley and Clyde Bullock, is of the best material that the school affords and those who are in a position to know are confident that the people who attend will be thoroughly entertained. In addition to the play there will be other features that, alone, will be worth the price of admission. The glee club, composed of forty voices will sing, and there will be vocal and instrumental solos of rare merit. The object of the play is a worthy one and patrons of the school will encourage the young folks in their efforts, beyond a doubt, if for no other reason than to be well entertained by them.

THE CAUSE OF IT ALL.

Little Daughter is Blissfully Ignorant of Her Worth.

[From Saturday's Daily.] Up on North Tenth street, a block from Norfolk avenue, a little 3-year-old girl is playing and laughing and running about, happily unconscious of the troubles and worry and bitterness that center about her little self and her father and mother. Charles Nordwig, who brought the baby from Sioux City to Norfolk that she might be safely out of reach of the woman whom he had tried in vain to live happily with, and placed the child under the kindly care of his parental roof, will not return to Sioux City but remain in Norfolk, that he may be near his little daughter.

He is expecting on every train that the woman from whom he was forced to flee, will arrive with an attorney and try by some means to secure the child. He thinks there is now in the city a detective who will try to steal the little one away.

Paul Nordwig, a brother in this city, went to Sioux City early in the week and was wretchedly treated. An attempt to arrest him was made, though he was simply in Sioux City because he was anxious to help his brother. The grandfather of the baby girl declares that she shall not leave his home and is determined to resist efforts to get her.

The father will begin work Monday in a Norfolk tailoring house.

THREE BAD BOYS IN COURT.

They Said Things That Ought Not to Have Been Said.

[From Saturday's Daily.] Three bad boys were brought up before Judge Hayes in police court yesterday on the charge of disorderly conduct and assault. Their names are Gustav Nitz, William Craig and Christian Emil Speiring was the complaining witness and the trouble all happened last Sunday night.

The trio taken, together with a gang of other lads about fifteen years young, followed Speiring and his sister and a young lady accompanying, for a long way on South Fourth street and made things unpleasant. They called Speiring unpretty names and said things they ought not to have said and even went so far as to take hold of Speiring's coat, which is assault.

In police court yesterday the boys admitted that they had done all of this but said they were urged to do it by an older individual who was looking for a fist encounter with Speiring and thought this might be a good way to work it up. One of the little fellows said yes, he had sworn at Speiring once, without a doubt.

The case was continued until the older one, who is claimed to have caused the trouble, may be arrested. The boys are considered by the court as good subjects for the reform school on general principles.

OXNARD WILL BE REFURNISHED.

[From Monday's Daily.] J. L. Bartholomew, proprietor of the Oxnard, is expected to arrive in the city tonight from Moorehead, Ia., to inspect his house. This week a force of men will begin to refurnish and repair a number of rooms throughout the hotel. The tile floor in the office will also be raised. The building was well filled over Sunday.
