Condition of Little Fellow is Serious.

SON OF MR. AND MRS. THURBER

While the Family Was Moving the Little one Got Hold of a Can of Lye and Took Som of the Strong Stuff. Father Has Been Telegraphed.

[From Saturday's Daily 1 The baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. William Thurber of South Norfolk got hold of a can of lye this morning and drank a quantity, with the result that he is in a very serious condition and may die,

The child is 18 months old. Mr. and Mrs. Thurber are moving into the house varated recently by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Viele and in the bustle attending upon the exchange of residence the boy was permitted to play about with the result that he managed to get hold of the concentrated lye and before his mother was aware of what was transpiring the little one had taken a considerable quantity of the strong stuff. His face and mouth are badly swollen, but it is hoped that the little fellow may not have succeeded in swallowing enough of the stuff to prove fatal.

Mr. Thurber, who is an engineer for the Northwestern and is out on his run, has been notified of the distressing accident by telegraph and is expected home at an early hour.

LYE WATER KILLED A BABY BOY

Little Son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thurber Died Last Night.

[From Monday's Daily.] The little eighteen-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thurber, of South Norfolk, who drank lye water Saturday morning, died from the poisonous effects at 8 o'clock that evening. The funeral was held this afternoon, interment being made in Prospect Hill cemetery. Rev. J. J. Jefferies, formerly pastor of the Second Congregational church, arrived from Milford at noon to conduct the service.

The little fellow found a can of lye water while playing about the house on Saturday morning and drank it. Medical attention was given immediately, but he had had too much of the poison to live. The father, William Thurber, is an engineer on the Northwestern line lost," he said, "the silly horse on the and was cut on his run at the time. Relatives of Mrs. Thurber arrived from Pierce this morning.
