A Science for the Analysis of the Causes of Human Ills and How to Abolish Them.

TO WOMEN! Are you well? If not, ask yourself these questions.

- How long have I suffered?
- How much have I suffered?
- How have I been treated?
- How much did it cost?
- How much benefit did I receive?
- Why did the doctors fail?
- Were they treating the cause, or were they treating the symptoms?
- Have I consulted an ophthalmologist?

FRIDAY FACTS.

Memorial day is one of the occasions observed by The News, and there will be no paper published from this office tomorrow.

Owing to the disagreeable weather there will be no special meeting of the Royal Highlanders tonight, as previously announced.

H. H. Harned and Mrs. Andrews, of South Norfolk, were married yesterday by Rev. J. F. Poucher, in this city. They will make their home here.

The seventh grade planned to enjoy a picnic at Taft's grove today, but it has been wisely decided that the school room is a far more comfortable place in which to picnic than the grove would be.

The graduation exercises of the eighth grade will be held at the high school room tonight. An excellent program has been prepared and it is hoped that all who can will brave the weather and attend, a general invitation being extended to all. An admission fee of ten cents will be asked to defray the expenses.

Gus Marquardt, whose condition was reported a few days since, has been taken to a hospital in Kansas where it is hoped by his family and friends that treatment may restore her mind. Rudolph, his brother, is at his home in Kansas, taking care of business details. C. F. W. Marquardt, father of the unfortunate man, is expected to arrive home during the early part of the week.

Reports on the condition of Miss Grace Spear, who has been sick so long with typhoid fever and accompanying complaints, are quite hopeful and her physician considers that she is gradually but certainly gaining in strength. The condition of her head, where some of the trouble has located, is causing some uneasiness, but it is believed that this may be remedied with her increasing strength.

NEW SYSTEM FOR "HELLO" GIRLS

The Eight Pretty Maids Will All Be Changed Around Monday.

On Monday morning a new system will be inaugurated in the exchange of the Nebraska telephone company of this city. The new two-position toll board is now in working order and is a very great improvement, with its many late scientific adjustments, over anything that has been before known in Norfolk. An extra switchboard has been wired and will be used as the chief operator's desk.

Eight pretty telephone girls will be required to say "hello" and to connect the wires for other people to talk over (no pun.) Miss Mabel Harrison will be chief of the set; Miss May Barrett will be assistant chief; Miss Fay Watts will be at the toll board, and the four who will answer you when you ring a local 'phone in the daytime are Misses Olive Nightingale, Grace Carrick, Nellie Howard and Mabel Rouse. Miss Rose Fox will take care of the calls that come in at night. The day shift will work until 10 p. m.

We have several first class Wayne county farms for sale. Good improvements and prices right. Call and see us. City property for sale.

SCHOOL HOUSE DOORS ARE SHUT

The Last Bell For This Year Has Called the Children to Work.

The school houses in Norfolk are closed. At 4 o'clock this afternoon the doors of all the buildings, from the Washington school to the Grant, were locked up tight and not a soul, except the janitors, will enter again for work until a Monday morning in the far away, distant September. This afternoon flocks of children who go to school, from the tiny tots of preliminary grades to the pretty nearly young ladies with skirts covering their shoe tops and almost young men who are learning to shave, gathered around their teachers' desks in an informal way and were given collections of report cards which have recorded what they did and what they didn't do throughout the term. They drew out the rulers and books and notes that their own desks have concealed during the many months just gone, and went away. The little fellows who have dropped marbles on the floor in school hours, were given back their "commies" and carnations, which they really never expected to see again, and the girls were allowed to take home the dolls and toys that they wanted to play with when they should have been working.

Last night the juniors of the high school closed their year with a nifty program as follows:
Instrumental Solo—Jessie Drebert.
Recitation—Ella Hauptli.
Instrumental Solo—Eva Carpenter.
Quartet.
Recitation—Fae Widaman.
Instrumental Solo—Jennie Schwenk.
Class History—Ravina Adams.
Vocal Solo—Glen Ogden.
Instrumental Solo—Florence Estabrook.
Farewell to Seniors—Louise Whipp.
Response—Paul Sisson.
Piano Duet—Kathryn Shaw, Clara Bruggeman.
Faroe—Glen Ogden, Ralph Birchard.
Florence O'Connor, Lou Taylor, Bessie McFarland.
Class Song—Class.

This evening will bring a close to festivities at the high school building, in the commencement exercises of the eighth grades of the city.
