SHOOTS WIFE AND DAUGHTER. Brook'yn Police With Great Difficulty Prevent a Lynching.

New York, July 21 .- Only by drawing their revolvers and threatening to shoot to kill did several Brooklyn policemen prevent a mob from wreaking vengeance on Frederick Kriselmeyer, after he had shot his wife and his stepdaughter.

Up to the doors of the Hemburg avenue police station the clamering mob went crying "Lynch him!" and it was necessary to call out the reserves. Kriselmeyer was so badly beaten before the policemen rescued him that it was necessary to call an ambulance. Although he is sixty years old Kriselmeyer was driven to the shooting by jealousy of his wife, whom he married three years ago and who is fifty-four years of age. She owns the house in which they lived, and in the station house he asserted that she had been receiving the attentions of a wealthy butcher for some months and that he saw her and her daughter with this man just before the shooting. In the hospital, suffering from three bullet wounds, his wife said in reply to his assertions that he was crazy. The shooting followed a quarrel, during which Kriselmeyer was reminded that he did not own the house. The wife will probably recover, but it is thought the daughter is fatally Returning from the house after the shooting, Kriselmeyer was surrounded by neighbors, who beat him down. He escaped, but was again surrounded. A policeman finally reached his side, revolver in hand, held the mob back until aid was secured.

PROSPECTS FOR TENNIS TOURNEY

Local Wielders of the Racquet Think the Chances for a Meet in Norfolk are Pretty Good.

[From Tuesday's Daily.] Prospects just now are pretty good for the execution of plans made last fall for the holding of a northeast Nebraska tourney in Norfolk soon With two clubs in the game, playing upon two excellent clay courts which cannot be surpassed in Nebraska. there seems to be no real reason why the assembly of racquet wielders from the section tributary to Norfolk could not be made a success In speaking with enthusiasts through out the towns around this city, Frank H. Beels has learned that a large number could be expected from Albion, Humphrey, Wayne and other points. There was formerly a good brand of tennis throughout northeast Nebraska and there is no drawback to a superior type of the game now. Norfolk will remember the cournaments that were held in days past, when Rainbolt won so many medals at singles and he and Reels at doubles.

A local tournament between play ers of the two clubs for this month and the bigger round for next month would not be so bad.

Brooklyn, July 22.-Special to The News: An automobile occupied by a couple of women, became unmanageable on the streets this morning and after gaining a high rate of speed and travelling an erratic course, was overturned.
