ARCHITECT IS AT WORK.

Making Drawings for the Norfolk Hospital.

BUILDING TO START THIS FALL.

State Treasurer Mortenson Visits the Property this Morning—Says Contract Will be Let in Time to Get Work Under Way Before Winter.

State Treasurer Mortenson, who has been at Alnsworth and Long Pine with the state board of education, of which he is a member, was induced to stop off here this morning by W. H. Bucholz. Mr. Mortenson had never seen the Norfolk hospital for insane, either before or since the fire, and Mr. Bucholz was anxious to have him give it a personal inspection. They came from the west on the early train, and after they had breakfasted drove out to the hospital, where Mr. Mortenson remained to give the premises a thorough inspection, returning to the city in time to take the noon train for Lincoln.

Mr. Mortenson could not be seen after he had viewed the property, but before he went out he said that the state architect is now engaged in the preparation of plans for the rebuilding of the hospital. The board has decided on the cottage plan, and it is figured that the $100,000 appropriation will be sufficient to put up an administration building and two or three cottages, each cottage capable of accommodating fifty or sixty patients. The plans will be completed in time to let the contract and get the work nicely started this fall. The board believes the state can get more for its money by having the work done during the winter than in the building season, as many men are glad to work at less than schedule prices during the closed season.

Mr. Mortenson explained that in the transaction of state business of the magnitude of rebuilding the hospital, much valuable time is lost in what would seem needless red tape to the uninitiated. During the whole of the early part of the season the board was powerless to make a start because there was no state architect. Then it was necessary to select an assistant, and this consumed more valuable time. Then there was the trip to the east to inspect the different styles of hospital plants, requiring more time. Now the board has decided that it will adopt the cottage plan and the architect is at work on the drawings.

Mr. Mortenson promised to do all he could to further the interests of the institution and get the actual work started as soon as possible.

PLANS FOR NEW EXCHANGE.

Manager Sprecher Doesn't Want the Hello Girls Quite so Close to the Street.

The new exchange which is to be this fall installed in the local office of the Nebraska Telephone company, has now reached the blue print stage and Manager Sprecher has just received charts which point to the manner in which the new arrangement will be fixed. The plan as mapped out on the chart calls for an even dozen operators, besides the chief operator, who occupies a desk of her own. The scheme places the switchboard room in the apartment on the corner of Norfolk Avenue and Fourth Street, where the operators can look out upon either street. In the next room south is planned the booth, the waiting rooms and the like, while on beyond that is the office of the manager.

As outlined, the new arrangement does not exactly suit the manager and he has submitted a drawing of his own, offering changes. He wants the manager's office, for one thing, to be in the center, between the operators and the waiting room. For another, he wants the operators away from both streets so that when you lift off the phone (there will be no ringing) the girl will wake up in time to say hello before you are so very, very angry. If she were seated near the window a runaway on the street or even other things, together with the constant noise, naturally would take her attention, and the service would be worse than it is now hoped to have it.

JUDGE BARNES IN DEMAND.

Addressed the Old Settlers' Picnic at Wayne Yesterday and Has Two More for Next Week.

Judge Barnes is in demand just now as a speaker at public meetings which are not political in their nature. Later the demand will be for political addresses. Yesterday he spoke before the old settlers' picnic at Wayne, and next week will speak at the old settlers' picnic of Dixon county, of which he is a member by virtue of having lived for seventeen years in that county previous to coming to Norfolk, and on the 28th of the month he is invited to address the old settlers of Webster county. Judge Barnes is a forceful and interesting speaker and public gatherings are always glad to hear him. His duties as commissioner of the supreme court will not give him as much time for this kind of work as he would like, but he will respond to as many invitations as possible.

Nearly all traveling concerns of a circus nature claim to have water proof tents. In almost every instance their claim is only a myth. Gollmar Bros.' tents are strictly water proof and should the elements prove unfavorable during their performances their patrons will be as safe as though they were in their own homes. Gollmar Bros.' big new railroad shows and double menagerie will exhibit here August 22.

Swindlers, short-change men and hangers-on steer clear of Gollmar Bros.' shows. Most circuses carry them to eke out a dishonest living. It is known that Gollmar Bros. do not allow fakirs with their moral shows. Don't forget the parade and date of the big show.

BATTLE CREEK.

John Wade was up from Norfolk to visit relatives Sunday.

Fred Houston was down from Meadow Grove Saturday.

George Pratt had his dwelling treated to a new coat of paint this week.

T. S. Cook went to Long Pine, Saturday, on business, returning Wednesday.

An enjoyable party was given at the O'Neill home Friday evening in honor of visiting friends.

Miss Christine Hansen of Tilden visited relatives and friends here the latter part of the week.

Howard Miller and A. A. Hedman went to Lincoln Monday to attend the republican state convention.

Oscar Marsh, who is in the regular army at Fort Riley, Kansas, is here on a twenty-days' furlough.

Commissioners H. W. Winter and S. J. Finnegan were inspecting bridges in this neighborhood Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Krbel and two youngest daughters, Misses Mary and Hattie, have moved to Omaha.

There was a large crowd at the base ball ground Sunday afternoon when Battle Creek beat an Emerick team by 8 to 4.

Rev. J. Hofman, Prof. M. G. Doering and Albert Mantey went to Hampton Tuesday to attend the Lutheran conference.

Mrs. Wm. Dittrick went to Verdigre Tuesday for a visit with her son, Fred. She was accompanied by her son-in-law, John Hall.

Grandpa Neuwirk was seriously sick this week. He is 84 years of age, but stands good chances of recovery at the present writing.

Fred Bierman and son, Charles, and Fred Schmidt of Dakota City were visiting here the fore part of the week with Wm. Bierman, a brother, and other relatives.

Miss Ottilie Wienck, who is employed in one of the Omaha department stores, arrived Saturday for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wienck.

The 5-year-old son of S. R. Hill, who lives ten miles north, died Sunday morning and was buried Sunday afternoon in the union cemetery. The little boy was a cripple and had been a sufferer for a long time.

Fred Kleiderer, who lost his house in the tornado last Friday, has commenced the erection of a new one. Liberal donations were made to him by members of the Lutheran church and others in this locality.

Robert Zohner, who recently graduated from the Lutheran teachers' seminary at Addison, Ill., and who had contemplated teaching a colored school at Charlotte, N. C., received and has accepted a call to teach at Prosser, this state.

DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES.

Ward and Precinct Primaries Held Last Evening.

CONVENTION IS TOMORROW.

Probable that County Candidates Will Not be Named, But That an Adjournment Will be Taken Until Later—Populists Meet Also.

Tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock the delegates representing the democratic voters of Madison county will assemble at Battle Creek for the purpose of naming candidates to attend the state and judicial conventions of that party.

It was at first contemplated by the call that a full county ticket should also be placed in the field at the same meeting, but it is understood that party leaders considered that the campaign for the county positions would be too long drawn out and it has been agreed that after the delegations to the two approaching conventions are named an adjournment will be taken to a later date, at which time nominations will be made for the various county offices which are to be filled at the election in November.

The populists have likewise issued a call for a convention at the same time and place and for the same purpose. It is evident that they have been taking time to decide which horn of the dilemma that presents itself they would grasp—whether to follow the brethren who met at Denver out of the democratic camp, or to follow whither Mr. Bryan would have them go if it left them permanently in the democratic organization—but they have evidently decided to play in the democratic game at least once more and have issued a call for a convention of all that remain steadfast. The call for the Norfolk caucus came pretty nearly being missed entirely but it is now out and the faithful will meet tonight to select a delegation to the convention tomorrow.

The democratic primaries were held last night, according to call, and the results are given below:

First Ward.

The first ward caucus was presided over by H. W. Winter as chairman and Dr. J. H. Mackay officiated as secretary. The following named were chosen as delegates: J. H. Mackay, C. F. W. Marquardt, Carl Korth, August Brummund, E. B. Kauffman.

Second Ward.

The meeting was held at the hardware store of Albert Degner. Carl Zuelow was chairman and Carl Wilde secretary. The following named were chosen as delegates: H. C. Matrau, Carl Zuelow, Carl Wilde, W. F. Ahlman, Albert Degner, Carl Laubsch, I. G. Westervelt.

Third Ward.

The third ward electors met at the Anzeiger office and with S. G. Dean as chairman and J. C. Stitt as secretary, named the following as delegates: G. A. Lulkart, John Hulff, A. Bear, Herman Gerecke, S. G. Dean, J. C. Stitt.

J. C. Stitt was named as permanent ward chairman and Julius Hulff secretary.

Fourth Ward.

The delegation chosen by the Fourth ward democrats is composed of M. J. Kennedy, Matt. Shaffer, sr., O. B. Walker and W. C. Roland.

Outside Precinct.

The primary for the outside precinct was presided over by F. D. Krantz as chairman, and J. H. Conley acted as secretary. The following named were chosen as delegates: C. F. Haase, J. H. Conley, F. D. Krantz, Wm. Brummund, C. F. Winter, John Wade, Herman Buettow.

FISHING AND HUNTING

Colorado possesses some of the finest fishing grounds on earth, the dense forests being the natural covert for elk, deer, and other game. Its myriads of streams teem with mountain trout; its lakes, while also full of attractions for the angler, are also the haunt of millions of geese, ducks, and other wild fowls.
