If Kearney continues to blab about it, the people will soon be under the impression that the normal is an abnormally rich find.

With the approach of autumn, no diminution is apparent in the columns of the daily papers, headed "help wanted." There is a constant and steady demand for reliable men and women.

If Kearney is as slow at securing the establishing of that new normal as Norfolk is at getting the re-establishment of the hospital for the insane, that city will do well to reserve some of its celebration enthusiasm until the buildings are actually up and occupied.

Horse races and fairs are all the go this week and the managements are being favored with some of the choicest varieties of weather on the calendar of the weather man, for which they should be extremely grateful in this season of strenuous departures from the normal.

This weather is calculated to make anticipation course through the veins of the football crank and make him want to yell at something. The season for the game is certainly approaching and there is concealed impatience for it to open in the eyes of many of the strenuous sports.

With Mr. Bryan supporting and ex-cusing a man who turned down that sacred free silver monetary policy, it should be easy for populists to detect the direction of the wind regarding the future policy of the democratic party regarding populist theories.

A corn doctor was recently robbed of $1,500 at Marshalltown, Iowa, which may be taken as circumstantial evidence that the people of that state put in a good deal of their time in developing corns. They should come to Nebraska where the big crop of corn is on mother Earth's cuts, and a specialty doctor is not required to remove it.

That lunatic at Sagamore Hill must have had more than a bargain counter remnant of sense left. He at least understood that it was quite the popular thing to call upon President Roosevelt and was persistent in his efforts to pay a visit, even though he lacked that portion of his mind that would have told him to leave his gun at home.

Aguinaldo is now not only an enthusiastic supporter of the American government in the Philippines, but he is urging the people to quickly acquire the American spirit, quit the betting sin, gambling, and develop the agricultural and other resources of the island. Aggie appears to be more clever at grasping a situation and approaching that which he knows to be good than some of his American admirers, who hope to make an issue out of argument for turning back the hands of progress, enlightenment and civilization in the Philippines.

There were but 150 delegates in attendance upon the recent state convention of the populist party, which must be conceded quite a come down for a party that formerly rolled them in to the tune of a thousand or two, all loaded to the brim with plans and ways and means and theories and words, favoring the elevation of the down-trodden common people to an equality with the most lordly plute who ever trod his native land, and who fired their war at the old corporation ridden parties—both republican and democratic—and went home, happy in the conviction of a noble duty well done.

With the holding of the republican county convention on the 29th, the campaign will be about wide open, and the pre-convention gossip gives every indication of an interesting one. In these days of republican prosperity it would seem that it would be difficult to find patriots to fill the ofices at the salaries paid, but there appears to be no particular dearth of candidates, the honors accruing being deemed sufficient by some, while others can afford to hold office as a side issue, depending on other sources of revenue for their principal income. That brand of prosperity has never yet been experienced that would keep politicians from seeking office.

The democrats—or some of them—have a great deal of fault to find with the amount of money paid out for pensions to the old soldiers by the government. The statement that during the past year $133,813,379.78 has been disbursed in this manner is to them an astounding piece of information. This is a large amount of money, to be sure, but it is not only the greatest work of philanthropy in the country if not in the entire world. Besides it gives a more general distribution of government money throughout the country than is given through any other channel. Almost every community has one or more pensioners and the money they receive goes into circulation there to the benefit of the town and the country.

The Ulysses Dispatch speaks of the republican convention as a mere "perfunctory gathering to register and endorse a program previously arranged." It was entirely conceded from one end of the state to the other, that Judge Barnes would be nominated for the supreme bench without opposition. And what of the convention at Columbus and the other one at Grand Island? Were these not also perfunctory gatherings to register and endorse a program previously arranged? Isn't it to the credit rather than the discredit of a candidate when he is the unanimous choice of his party even before the delegates have been elected? Let us rejoice that Nebraska has two candidates for the supreme bench this fall who are men of such irreproachable character, that they were nominated by acclamation. Would it were ever thus.—Bixby in the State Journal.

ATCHISON GLOBE SIGHTS.

Herd your troubles; don't let them run wild.

Don't wear a baseball suit unless you can play.

When you have fried chicken at your house, is there any left over?

The homlier a woman, the more liable she is to wear a fascinator.

"I am afraid of a banker," a man said today, "even when I do not want to borrow money."

When we have things our way, elderly men will become gray headed instead of bald headed.

A little Atchison bridegroom is calling for help. His wife, a big fat woman, has entertained eight of her out of town kin during the six weeks of their married life.

A "favor" is seldom worth what it costs. The man granting it usually says you are not as grateful as you should be, and that you "took it as a matter of course." Don't accept favors, if you can avoid it.

The average man who "gets along," has as much as he can attend to. The neighbors insist that he send his children away to school, and he sends them, although usually against his judgment. His wife has her clubs to entertain, and sometimes her kin, and, altogether, he is as busy as is good for him. Still, every day he is approached by men who want him to devote a portion of his time to their schemes. It isn't a fair deal, but there is no way out of it.

People are always coming to Globe reporters and asking that "hints" be printed about their neighbors. The neighbors always know that they are referred to, and hate the editor, thinking that he is responsible. As a matter of fact, the editor never writes these hints; he has had too much experience. When people have a complaint to make against their neighbor, why is it not made to the sheriff, or chief of police? We will gladly print the items, if people will permit us to print them in this way: "Thos. Coulter, of the Nine Mile neighborhood, says that Bill Guilty whips his wife nearly every night, and that the White Caps are organizing. But usually it is printed in this way: "A man in the Nine Mile neighborhood whips his wife, according to his neighbors, and he must stop it." Bill may not be guilty, but in any event, he hates the editor of the Globe cordially, although the editor knows nothing about it. Therefore items of this kind will be cut out.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life. With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, W. H. Brown of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, colds, coughs and grip prove its matchless merit for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Asa K. Leonard's drug store.

CUP TO STAY IN AMERICA

Reliance Wins Third Race of Series With Shamrock III.

CHALLENGER GETS LOST IN FOG.

Misses Finish Line and Comes in from Other Side—American Yacht Out-sails and Outpoints British Boat from Start to Finish.

New York, Sept. 4.—The Reliance, the American cup defender, won the third and final race and the series for that famous sea trophy, the America's cup. In a dense fog, which prevented vision beyond 200 yards, she finished the race at 5:30:02 amid the acclamations of the assembled fleet. Shamrock III, after running for more than an hour in the fog, missed the finish line, passed by it, and then returned to it from the opposite direction. As the Reliance was then being towed through the fleet, the yacht's ensign fluttering from her truck and spreaders in celebration of her victory, the Shamrock did not cross the finish line. As often said of the historic race when the America won the cup, there was no second.

This successful race was achieved only after four futile attempts to sail off the final race, and after the outcome had been admitted by even Sir Thomas Lipton to be a foregone conclusion. It was the eighth attempt to sail a race. After one fluke the Reliance won the two following races, one by seven minutes and three seconds and the other by one minute and nineteen seconds. A week ago the first attempt to sail the third race failed and attempts have been made every day this week. On these occasions the Reliance led the Shamrock to the finish line by two miles, but failed to reach it before the expiration of the time limit of five and a half hours. The Reliance's victory means that the cup is destined to remain in America until England is able to produce a genius equal to Herreshoff in yacht designing.

Finiah in Dense Fog. Rarely, if ever, has there been a more spectacular finish than the Reliance's. After racing for more than an hour at terrific speed through a blinding fog, the Reliance burst through the wall of mist upon the vision of the spectators on the fleet assembled at the finish line and, heeling under a great bellying balloon jib topsail, until her lee rail was awash, flew across the finish line almost before the spectators could determine for a certainty that it was she.

The duel between the skippers began at the sound of the preparatory gun and continued through a series of brilliant maneuvers, in which Captain Barr again proved his splendid seamanship by outgeneraling Captain Wrings, until the boats went across the line. They went off at a swift pace in a freshening breeze. Captain Wrings attempted to outtail the defender by giving his boat a good full and letting her romp away at a fast clip, while Captain Barr pinched the Reliance close to the wind and cleverly nursed her toward the turning mark. The Shamrock III at first footed faster, but the Reliance more than made it good by outpointing her.

Shamrock Hopelessly Outclassed. For more than an hour they sailed on that tack and during all that time the Reliance steadily worked up to the windward of the beaten challenger, outpointing and outfooting her. When they tacked off Seabright, heading seaward, the American boat had gained a quarter of a mile straight to windward of the British craft. On this new tack Captain Wrings again gave his boat a good full and she cut through the Reliance's lead at an alarming gait, but all to no purpose. Pinched into the wind or with a good full, the Shamrock was hopelessly outclassed. After half an hour's turn off shore they sailed toward Long Branch for half an hour. Meanwhile the Reliance had steadily gained and when at 3:10 both boats headed off to the mark six miles away the Reliance was a good mile ahead and gaining. Heeling to a freshening wind and jumping into a rising sea, which at times threw their long bows high out of water, to come down with a splash that sent miniature clouds of foam flying from under their powerful shoulders, the boats were making a pretty spectacle of it. The boats were gaining in speed with every mile and the Shamrock III was a long mile astern when the Reliance whirled about the mark and lowering stretches of canvas broke and belled out from her spinnaker pole and over her lee bow. The homeward stretch had begun. The Reliance had gained eleven minutes and three seconds in the stretch to windward, and, barring accidents, the victory was hers.

As the boats started to run homeward under spinnaker and balloon jib topsails a split about three feet long appeared in the foot of the Reliance's spinnaker, but as it drew well Captain Barr continued to carry it. For three quarters of an hour the only variation was a slow gain by Reliance. The sky was clear and the slanting rays of the yellow western sun were painting a beautiful marine picture, with the two yachts as center figures, when, at 4:20, with almost half the course to be sailed, a thick bank of fog came rolling in before a southeast wind and enveloped the racers in a gray mist that shut them out from the fleet. All was a wall of fog. Then the Reliance burst through the fog upon the vision of the expectant watchers on the little excursion fleet.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surface.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Has world-wide fame for marvellous cures. It surpasses any other salve, lotion, ointment or balm for cuts, corns, burns, boils, sores, felons, ulcers, tetter, salt rheum, fever sores, chapped hands, skin eruptions; infallible for piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c at Asa K. Leonard's, druggist.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs. "Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several then stated to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Kiesau Drug Co.

Feet Swollen to Immense Size. "I had kidney trouble so bad that I could not work," says J. J. Cox of Valley View, Ky., "my feet were swollen to immense size and I was confined to my bed and physicians were unable to give me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney Cure which made a well man of me." Kiesau Drug Co.

Distress After Eating Cured. Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so, and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect. Sold by Kiesau Drug Co."

A Purgative Pleasure. If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Texas says "no better pill can be used than DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache, etc." Sold by Kiesau Drug Co.

What of Life? In the last analysis nobody knows but we do know what it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in constipation, headache, or liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly readjust this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Asa K. Leonard's drug store.

Used for Pneumonia. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., says: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Refuse substitutes. Kiesau Drug Co.

Fearful Odds Against Him. Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such in brief was the condition of an old soldier by the name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for liver and kidney troubles and all forms of stomach and bowel complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Asa K. Leonard, druggist.

Foley's Kidney Cure makes the diseased kidneys so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. Kiesau Drug Co.

A New Jersey Editor's Testimonial. M. T. Lynch, editor of the Philadelphia, N. J. Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it." Kiesau Drug Co.

Telephone Conditions at Fremont. Following is an extract from the proceedings of the city council of Fremont published in the Herald-Leader: The report of a committee appointed by the Commercial club to investigate the books and affairs of the Fremont Telephone company was submitted for the consideration of the council. It showed the following:

Table with financial data: Paid up capital $34,850; Unpaid bills and notes 9,176; Cash on hand 412; Material on hand 2,489; Net cost of plant 41,125; Receipts per year 7,578. Yearly Expense: Manager's salary 720; Electrician's salary 900; Collector's salary 150; One man 660; Six girls 1,284; Fuel, light, power, printing, janitor, postage, taxes, insurance 890; Interest on debt 692; Incidentals 501; 5 per cent annual depreciation 2,053.

Total expense $7,764. The "5 per cent annual depreciation" the report said, is the lowest estimate given by managers and experts. The entire situation had been gone over carefully and it appeared utterly impossible for the company to continue to operate its system on the present basis without incurring a positive loss. "There is no doubt in the minds of your committee but that it is the imperative duty of the city council to lift this ban to prosperity from the shoulders of the company to an extent that will profit the stockholders, by careful management to realize a reasonable profit on their investment. We find that nearly all of the stockholders are residents of Fremont. They have invested their money in an enterprise that has resulted in a direct benefit to the public and in that sense it has become a public question, and to that extent of more importance than an ordinary business venture. "In their present condition they are unable to add to their switch board capacity and they are unable to make very desirable farm connections." Continuing, the petition said that Fremont is surrounded by towns that have farm connections, which they are increasing. The Bell company opposes farm connections and will drive this class of trade away from the city. It is a foreign concern and its only interest in Fremont is to derive as large a revenue as possible. It makes no difference to it whether farmers trade in Fremont or elsewhere.

"Do the citizens of Fremont want the Fremont company to save themselves from further loss by transferring its property to the Bell company under these conditions? That such a course is inevitable is plain to all unrelieved by the city council. We do not presume to suggest a rate yet we are satisfied that a rate to be asked for by the Fremont company is very much under the scale of rates in vogue here one year ago."

The communication was signed by the members of the committee. After it had been read Mr. Marr addressed the council, stating that he, nor any other member of the committee are interested in the Fremont company.

further than that they are citizens of Fremont. He called attention to the several "wrecks" Fremont has had, citing the hemp factory, the canning factory and several others. He believes that Fremont has had enough of these failures and recommended that the council appoint a committee to investigate the affairs of the company and take immediate action.

On motion of Forman the communication was received and placed on file. Lee then moved and the motion prevailed, that the mayor appoint a committee of three as asked for, and that a special meeting of the council be held next Tuesday evening to hear the committee's report and to take action on it. Herre suggested that he was satisfied that the report furnished by the Commercial club was an accurate one and that it was unnecessary for a council committee to investigate further, but the suggestion was not acted upon.

Mayor Wols named Lee, Franklin and Murphy to compose an investigating committee.

Telephone Notice. The same issue of the paper contains the following notice: Commencing August 16, the Fremont Telephone company will charge a toll of 15c to Hooper.

This company is about to issue bonds secured by first mortgage to pay its liabilities and offers the bonds for sale here in any amount. Investors please call on the president. Fremont Telephone Co.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for chronic throat troubles and will positively cure bronchitis, hoarseness and all bronchial diseases. Refuse substitutes. Kiesau Drug Co.

Avoid serious results of kidney or bladder disorder by taking Foley's Kidney Cure. Kiesau Drug Co.

If you want to know how about Mag, ask ex-Sheriff George W. Losey. Mag is to be given away by The News on October 16 to the lady receiving the highest vote, and Mr. Losey is the man who picked her out as the best bit of horse flesh in the county for all round driving.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits. The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Kiesau Drug Co.

Doctors Could Not Help Her. "I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure. Kiesau Drug Co."

MALARIA Germ Infected Air. Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of damp cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin. When the poison is left to ferment and the microbes and germs to multiply in the blood, Liver and Kidney troubles and other serious complications often arise. As Malaria begins and develops in the blood, the treatment to be effective must begin there too. S. S. S. destroys the germs and poisons and purifies the polluted blood, and under its tonic effect the debilitated constitution rapidly recuperates and the system is soon clear of all signs of this depressing disease. S. S. S. is a guaranteed purely vegetable remedy, mild, pleasant and harmless. Write us if you want medical advice or any special information about your case. This will cost you nothing.
