AUDITORIUM OPENING.

An Interested and Enthusiastic Audience Saw Sweet's Comedy-Drama, "A Messenger Boy."

It was a large and enthusiastic audience that went to see G. D. Sweet open the theatrical season at the Auditorium last evening with his comedy-drama, "A Messenger Boy." The occasion gave assurance of good audiences during the season and pleasing attractions.

While "A Messenger Boy" does not rank with the highest class of dramatic productions, it is one that is pleasing to the average audience, with its tilts between the leading man and the villain, the latter's final overthrow, and the consequent happiness of the heroine and all concerned.

Mr. Sweet carried the lead in a very worthy manner, was ably supported by Miss Terry as "Rosy" and the balance of the company was above the average.

The orchestra music and specialties between acts were good, and interesting, especially the singing of Paul Hudson, and the dances and songs by Baby Spoonie and Little Marjorie.

In the trip around the world, to be taken from Trinity church next Tuesday evening, a number of the important cities of this country will be visited, and refreshments served that have acquired fame therefrom. Among these is Boston.

WARNEVILLE.

Henry Carson, who has been on the sick list, is reported better.

Miss Gerlie Wade of Battle Creek was the guest of P. H. Carbery and family from Wednesday until Monday.

Mrs. C. J. Lodge and children returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Fairfield, Iowa, and St. Joe, Mo.

The swarm of bees that took possession of the school house in district No. 16 last week, were hived by Ed. Cropper, who also secured a goodly amount of honey.

Freeman Squirrel has four hundred good sized water melons on a quarter acre of land, which will net the owner a neat sum.

School will open in district No. 25 next Monday with Miss Maude Tannehill in charge; also in district No. 16, where Miss Marie Anderson will wield the rod.

Charlie Lodge lost one leg of his trousers and a small amount of cuticle one day last week while calling on a neighbor. The dog is still alive, but his life is in danger.

Mrs. C. E. Gibbs had a stack of oats struck by lightning during the thunder storm Wednesday of last week. The grain was set on fire, but the flames were extinguished by her sons before any large amount of damage was done. The grain was insured in the Madison county farmers' insurance company.

Many unique specimens of the lobo fraternity arrived in town Tuesday evening to compete for the prizes offered by the ladies of the Warnerville church, at the poverty social given by them in the hall. After long deliberation the committee appointed to decide the contest awarded the prizes to Miss Lulu Gibbs and Mr. Myron Farley. The prizes consisted of a cut glass water pitcher and a "mere sham" pipe. The receipts were satisfactory to the ladies having the affair in charge.

THE REGULAR CITY CRIST

Meeting of the Council Last Evening.

BIG BATCH OF BILLS ALLOWED.

Many Routine Matters of Interest to Citizens and Tax Payers are Attended to—New Sidewalk Ordinance Under Way.

The city council met in regular session last evening. There were present Mayor Hazen, Councilmen Brummund, Pasewalk, Tyler, Wilkinson, Zuelow, Walker, Absent, Kiesau, Spellman.

The auditing committee reported back as correct the treasurer's report for the months of May, June, July and August.

The street and alley committee reported that they had received only two bids for the making of the Park avenue ditch, but had not as yet awarded the contract.

The street and alley committee was instructed to put a 10 inch tile in the ditch just dur on Fourth street, from Braasch avenue south to the alley.

The street commissioner was instructed to require Mr. Koenigstein or the proper authorities to protect the elevator recently put in the sidewalk at the Pacific hotel, by a railing or gate.

The street and alley committee was authorized to have the city engineer run levels on South Seventh street and north from the cold storage building to see if it is practicable to run water off that way.

The city attorney reported regarding the claim of the N. W. Publishing company. There was some question as to who were the proper parties to pay the claim but that the claim was barred by the statute of limitations. Also regarding claim of J. S. Morrow for appraising the Bryant building, he thought the city was liable and should pay the amount.

The police judge's, clerk's and treasurer's reports for August were read and referred to the auditing committee.

The city engineer's report concerning work done was read and ordered filed.

The following claims against the city were read as having been approved by the auditing committee and were allowed:

  - B. C. Walter, repairing tools, $1.00.
- STREET LIGHT FUND.
- Norfolk Electric Light and Power

Co., street lighting $60.00.

The following bills were read as having been referred by the committee to the council:

E. E. Hartman, labor and material, $144.00.

J. Krantz, team and man at hose house, $3.00.

Norfolk Electric Light and Power Co., $32.50.

The claim of J. Krantz was referred to the chief of the fire department for explanation.

It was decided to purchase the electric meter and the bill of the Norfolk Electric Light and Power Co., was allowed at $32.50.

The bill of E. E. Hartman was allowed at $14.00.

The bill of the Norfolk Light Co., which was referred back for correction, was explained by Mr. Fulton and corrected, and was allowed at $82.00.

Mr. Craven stated to the council that he had been compelled to put in his own water plant at the laundry and had ceased to use city water, but had paid the rent for two months in advance and requested the council to allow him credit on the meter rate at his dwelling for the amount.

The water commissioner was instructed to allow Mr. Craven a credit of $10.00 on his meter reading.

Ordinance No. 275, an ordinance concerning sidewalks, was read the second time, and passed the second reading.

Wilkinson, Tyler and Brummund were appointed a special committee to investigate the report on the grades of the various streets.

Mr. Walker stated that the property owners in the Fourth ward near several streets were putting in one whole block of cement walk, and asked for a cement or stone crossing and he recommended that a good substantial crossing be put in as the one in use there is worn out. The matter was left with the committee for action.

Household furniture for sale—Furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Room 2, Bishop block.

Anyone and everyone in Norfolk can take a trip around the world... Be at Trinity church when the train starts Tuesday evening.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Dwyer Celebrate This Conspicuous Event at Fairfield, Iowa.

Many there are whose allotment of life does not extend to two score years and ten; few there are who are privileged to enjoy fifty years of conjugal happiness; so when two people are thus rarely blessed, it certainly is an appropriate occasion for thanksgiving and rejoicing. Fifty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Dwyer of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. To golden wedding anniversary was devoted to a family reunion, attendance at mass and family festivities. Eight children and twenty-five grandchildren graced the family home on West Kirkwood street on this auspicious occasion.

In the procession to the church, which was beautifully decorated in yellow, the venerable bridal couple were preceded by six little granddaughters—Helen Dwyer, Margaret Dwyer, Genevieve Lodge, Hazel Conley and Margaret Conley, dressed in white and yellow.

Geneva Holland and Nellie Dorsey acted as ushers. The choir for the occasion was composed of Mrs. C. J. Lodge, Mrs. John Conley, Mr. Stephen Dwyer, jr., and Anthony Dwyer, children of the aged couple, while mass was served by Robert and Forest Dorsey, two grandsons. It was an impressive ceremony, a joyful, yet solemn and magnificent occasion. At 4 o'clock an elaborate dinner was served at the home, the table being daintily decorated with yellow. At the wedding feast the Rev. Father Nodder responded with a pretty sonnet composed by himself and appropriate to the event.

Stephen Dwyer and Miss Honora Gooley were joined in wedlock at Bramford, Canada, August 21, 1853. They moved to Iowa thirty-seven years ago and have resided in the state ever since, most of the time in this city. To them were born ten children, eight of whom are now living. These children are: Robert Dwyer of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. M. Dorsey of St. Joseph, Mo.; Mrs. Jerry Holland of Chicago, Ill.; Stephen Dwyer of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Henry Bettendorf of this city; Anthony Dwyer of Hot Springs, S. D.; Mrs. C. J. Lodge of Norfolk, Neb.; and Mrs. John Conley of Alliance, Neb. They have twenty-five grand children, all of them, as well as all of Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer's children, being here to attend the golden wedding and to join in the family reunion. Two sons-in-law, M. Dorsey and H. Bettendorf, and two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Stephen Dwyer, jr., and Mrs. Anthony Dwyer were also present. Three sons-in-law, Jerry Holland, C. J. Lodge and J. M. Conley were unable to attend.

While both Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer are far advanced in age, he being seventy years of age and she but two years his junior, they are still robust of health and sound of body and mind. They are a noble old couple, esteemed by scores of friends and neighbors, and pointed to with pride in our community. May the venerable twin live for many more years and with each successive year be able to celebrate the anniversary of the happy event that made them one fifty years ago.—Fairfield (Iowa) Tribune, August 26.

REDEEMED THE DIAMOND.

Shield, the Medicine Man Receives His Ring.

GAVE UP TWO FARMERS NOTES.

The Gem Was Left With a Norfolk Bank for Security—A Missouri Man Thought it Was One Stolen From Him.

The handsome diamond ring, containing a stone of especial purity and brilliance, which has been decorating the finger of an officer of the Citizens' National bank and which was taken from the swindler, Shields, as security for his personal check, has finally left Norfolk. Although there were two papers of retention against it, the little ring rolled away and did not get into the hands of either of the farmers who wanted it.

The reason why neither of the farmers who served notice against the gem is now wearing the band, is that their notes were sent back to them and they are just $128 to the good, instead.

Shields was a smooth medicineswilder who operated about Norfolk. He took notes from farmers for high amounts and never intended to send the medicine. He was stopped at the bank and gave this ring as security on a personal check. Meanwhile two farmers who had been taken in for $63 and $55 served papers against the ring. Shields ordered it sent to Sioux City. Then a telegram came from a town in Missouri. "Hold the diamond," it read. "It was stolen from me."

A letter later revealed the fact that this was not the stolen diamond. "Send ring to First National, Sioux City, and notes will be returned," said the foxy fellow and the ring was sent. The two pieces of paper were sent back and cancelled so that the farmers who trusted the impostor are now satisfied.
