SPEECH FAILS TO SATISFY

Balfour Fires First Gun in English Political Campaign

TALKS OF FISCAL REFORM ALONE

Entire Address is Devoted to the Tariff Issue and Against Free Trade—Falls to Touch on the Ministerial Crisis.

London, Oct. 2.—Addressing a mass meeting at Sheffield in connection with the conference of the National Union of Conservative association, Premier Balfour delivered the speech which has long been heralded as the first heavy gun to be fired in the fiscal reform campaign, which is absorbing the attention of the United Kingdom. He criticized, and indeed the whole world and which has caused the present cabinet crisis, the result of which it is impossible to forecast. Mr. Balfour, in the course of his speech, which was devoted entirely to the tariff issue and against free trade, did not even hint at the successors in the cabinet to Chamberlain, Ritchie and Hamilton.

The meeting was held in the artillery drill hall, which was the largest auditorium available. Fully 5,000 persons gathered in the hall long before the hour at which Mr. Balfour was announced to speak, and perhaps as many more who were unable to get in attended an overflow meeting in Albert hall. In addition thousands who could not be accommodated at either meeting stood outside in the rain, joining those inside the hall in patriotic songs and cheering the names of party leaders.

London, Oct. 2.—It is evident that Mr. Balfour's speech at Sheffield has quite failed to satisfy the press of either party. The burden of all the editorial comments this morning is that in spite of the enthusiasm evoked at Sheffield, the speech leaves the question exactly where it was left by the premier's recent pamphlet. The greatest disappointment is expressed on all sides at his failure to touch on the cabinet crisis or explain the outlines of his proposed policy. The conservative organs concur in the view that Mr. Balfour's position is impossible and that while Mr. Chamberlain had adopted a leaderlike standpoint Mr. Balfour has no defined policy. The Standard wants his proposals thrown into the shape of a working scheme. It says that his plans may be innocent or extremely dangerous while it is still impossible to say whether his repudiates Mr. Chamberlain's proposal to tax food or not.

The Morning Post says that a policy of "negotiation" from which the colonies are excluded is simply reaction. Great Britain cannot retaliate without reorganizing her tariff, and that is impossible without considering the question of colonial preference.

While the government organs thus represent Premier Balfour as waffling upon the constitutionality and feasibility to go to the logical length of a protective policy, the radical papers accuse him of having now thrown off his mask and declared for protection pure and simple.

The Daily Mail gives a rumor that Mr. Chamberlain is adopting a compromise under which a portion of the revenues from the taxation of foreign manufactured imports will be used to reduce the existing taxation on articles of food. In return for this he will demand permission to readjust the incidents of the taxation upon food stuffs so as to confer the greatest possible benefit upon the colonies while not unduly diminishing the total cost to the British consumer.

PULGARIA CALLS OUT RECRUITS

War Minister Asks for Men Regularly Due in January

Sofia, Oct. 2.—The war minister has ordered out the military contingent of recruits for Oct. 10 instead of at the beginning of the year, as is usual. This step, though quite constitutional, has occasioned some surprise, an account of the reported better condition of affairs. While conditions are more hopeful, there is a strong belief in many quarters that the Macedonian question is very threatening and can only be settled by war. The Bulgarian government, therefore, continues preparations for eventualities. In the meantime the Turkish diplomatic agent is conferring with the ministers here, and the new Bulgarian diplomatic agent at Constantinople, M. Natchevich, goes to that city today.

COLUMBIAN ELECTION.

Railroads are a Factor in the Politics of Canada.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 2.—Special to The News: The provincial campaign which, though short has been one of the most interesting in the political history of British Columbia, closes and the people are looking forward eagerly to the election which takes place tomorrow. A careful canvass of the situation leads to the conclusion that the present liberal-conservative government will probably be sustained by a small majority over its liberal opponents. The socialists and the labor party may return five or six members to parliament, between them, leaving a small working majority for the McBride conservative government. The latter's railway policy, which is an important issue of the campaign, is understood to be distinctly favorable to the Great Northern extension by way of com-teropside to the Canadian Pacific quasi-monopoly.

BRITISH ANCIENTS IN AMERICA.

Oldest Military Organization in the World Takes Boston and is the Guest of Its Namesake.

Boston, Oct. 2.—Special to The News: In striking contrast to the scene witnessed in Boston somewhat more than a hundred years ago, when the British evacuated the city and the citizens flouted them as they went, was the right royal welcome given today to the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company of London, the oldest military organization in the world and the pride of all Britishers. The Ancients, under the command of the Earl of Denbigh, come to Boston as guests of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company of this city. The trip is in return for the fraternal visit paid by the Boston organization to London several years ago.

The visitors reached Boston aboard the steamship Mayflower shortly before noon today. The arrival of the Mayflower in Boston harbor was hailed by salutes from the United States cruiser Chicago and the British cruiser Redoubt and a similar courtesy was paid by the land fortifications. With bands playing alternately the patriotic airs of Great Britain and of the United States the visiting soldiers disembarked and were received by the Boston Ancients who turned out for the occasion in full force. A parade was formed and the visitors were escorted to Faneuil Hall, the armory of the Ancient and Honorables. Here the first engagement is to be fought this evening at an informal reception and smoker. It will be merely a preliminary skirmish, however, as compared to the heavy engagement to take place later in accordance with the long program of entertainment. After several days spent in Boston the visitors will take a trip to New York, West Point, Washington and Mont Vernon. Later they will proceed to Niagara Falls, returning to Boston by way of Toronto and Montreal.

At Providence Tomorrow.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 2.—Special to The News: Elaborate preparations have been made in military circles here in anticipation of the visit tomorrow of the Honorable Artillery company of London, and the namesake organization of Boston. Both companies will be the guests of the First Light Infantry of this city. A squad from the Marine artillery will fire a salute of 21 guns as a welcome to the British visitors and the line of march through the city will be lavishly decorated in their honor. State and city officials will review the paraders from the city hall. The chief feature of the day, aside from the parade, will be a Rhode Island shore dinner at Crescent park.

GASTON NAMED FOR GOVERNOR.

Boston, Oct. 2.—In a most harmonious state convention and with an enthusiasm greater than has been displayed in a gathering of the party in Massachusetts in many years, the Democrats of this state nominated their leaders for the campaign of 1903. The sentiment of the convention sounded both in the address of the permanent chairman and in the platform adopted, seemed to be a general condemnation of the policy of the opposite party, both with reference to national and state administrations. The candidates, all of whom were nominated by acclamation, follow: For Governor—William A. Gaston, Boston.

For Lieutenant Governor—Richard Olney II of Leicester.

For Secretary of State—Ezekiel M. Ezkielel of Springfield.

MOB HANGS KENTUCKI IN

Before Death Comes Officers Arrive and Cut Him Down

FIVE MEN ARE SHOT DOWN

Some of the Victims Are Expected to Die—Desperate Shooting Affray and Riot at Oxford, O.—Texas Mob Hangs Negro.

Oxford, O., Oct. 2.—A mob last night broke upon the jail and securing a negro, Spivey, a Kentuckian who, with his brother John, and several strangers, had been shooting his revolver in the street during a fair, took him to an elm tree on which Henry Corbin was lynched in 1892. He was strung up, and then let down to pray. A second time he was strung up and let down, and while he was pleading for time to write to his wife Deputy Sheriff Brannan and a few assistants rushed forward, cut the rope and dashed down the street with the prisoner. He was rushed to the jail and has been spirited out of town.

Five p. sons were shot and dangerously wounded in the fight between officers and the Kentuckians. Marshal Woodruff and Deputy Jacob Marrod endeavored to arrest the Kentuckians, and were shot, Marshal Woodruff in the right breast and Deputy Marrod in the left wrist. A crowd started in pursuit of the Spivey brothers and overtook them. John Spivey was shot in the head and is dying. His brother was knocked unconscious with a stone thrown by someone in the crowd of pursuers. During the fight a stranger, who refused to give his name, was shot in the abdomen and will die. The marshal and deputy will recover.

Negro Lynched in Texas.

Marshall, Tex., Oct. 2.—A mob of several hundred men forced their way through the brick wall of the city jail with the aid of a telephone pole and with hammers and crowbars, took out Walter Davis, a negro, and marched him to the west side of town, where he was hanged to a tree. The lynching was the result of the killing of Constable Hayes while he was taking a negro to jail. Hayes was shot from ambush, being literally riddled with bullets. Shortly after the killing of the constable, Walter Davis and two other negroes were arrested and lodged in jail at Marshall. A mob soon formed and attacked the jail. The Marshall Musketeers were ordered out and arrived at the jail after the mob had secured the negro.

POSTOFFICE INDICTMENTS.

Grand Jury Brings in True Bills Against Green and Towers.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The grand jury of the supreme court of the District of Columbia today brought in three more indictments in connection with the postoffice department investigation. One was the joint indictment against George W. Beavers, formerly chief of the salary and allowance division of the postoffice department, and State Senator George A. Green of Huntington, N. Y. This indictment is on the general ground that they entered into a conspiracy to defraud the government. This, it is alleged, they accomplished in the sale of time clocks, from which sale they were enabled to reap a reward because of Mr. Beavers' connection with the department by which the clocks were purchased. The former indictment against Green and Beavers was under another section of the statutes and charged conspiracy against the United States. The other two indictments were against Scott Towers, who is in charge of one of the principal postoffice stations in this city. He is accused of having received a commission on the sale of book typewriting machines to the government.

The present grand jury will adjourn finally next Monday and the expectation is that a number of other postoffice indictments will be returned on that day.

Immediately after receiving information of the indictment of Towers the postmaster general issued an order to Postmaster Merritt of Washington dismissing Towers from office.

Says America is Best for Negro

Paris, Oct. 2.—Booker Washington said there was no foundation for the report that he was in Europe in the interest of a scheme for the emigration of the American negro. He said: "I believe the best place for the negro is America. My belief is based on the fact that he has there better industrial opportunities and is better off than people in their walk of life in Europe."

Indian Wants State Trial.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 1.—The arguments in the case of Frank Earle, the Tama Indian, charged with the murder of John Seepo, were held before Judge McPherson on the question of jurisdiction. Major Smith argued that Earle was amenable only to the state law and must be tried in the state courts. District Attorney McMillan contended the crime was punishable under the federal laws, as it was committed on a reservation over which the government had control. Judge McPherson took the matter under advisement and will announce his opinion on Oct. 12, when the case is set for trial.

Says Pulpit is Losing Power.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 2.—A belief that the pulpit is losing its power among men and that there is need of intellectual as well as spiritual among ministers was expressed in a paper read before the Iowa Evangelical conference by Judge F. C. Platt. The conference began its session with a good attendance. President Nash of Lombard university made an eloquent appeal for faith and zeal among ministers.
