

WAKEFIELD BOY SHOT.

Found Dead With Horrible Wound in the Head.

SHERIFF TO HOLD INQUEST.

Ralo Compton, Seventeen Years Old, Met His Death Mysteriously—Supposed to Have Been an Accident as He Carried a Gun.

Wakefield, Neb., Nov. 6.—Special to The News: The body of Ralo Compton, seventeen years of age, whose parents live near this place, was found at noon yesterday, with a horrible gunshot wound through his head, and it is supposed that his death was accidental as he had been hunting and carried a gun.

Young Compton left his home Wednesday evening for a neighbor's house, where he expected to spend the night, and his folks were not alarmed about him, as he was not expected home. Yesterday at noon his body was found lying stiff and cold in a pool of his own blood where it had evidently lain since the evening before.

An effort was made to get the coroner from Wayne, but he was absent from home on other business and the sheriff went to the scene of the mysterious tragedy and will probably hold an inquest today.

Every appearance indicates that the gun was accidentally discharged in some manner when the muzzle was under the young man's jaw, but it may have been done purposely, or there is a possibility that a murder was committed. It is hoped that the coroner's inquest will develop what facts in the case are obtainable that the mystery surrounding the case may be cleared away.

SHERIFFS AID BANK ROBBERS.

Such is Allegation Made by Officers of United States.

Junction City, Kan., Nov. 6.—F. W. Whiting was bound over to the grand jury on the charge of complicity in the recent postoffice robbery at Morrill, Kan. Whiting is charged by officers with being the active officer of the gang of robbers which has been making things interesting for the banks of the smaller towns in Kansas and Nebraska for some years past. Evidence is alleged to be in the hands of the United States district attorney to the effect that proceeds of the robberies were turned over to Whiting, who divided the money among the members of the gang. A number of the members are in penitentiaries in Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska, and it is charged that they received their regular share of the stolen money by means of postoffice money orders sent to them by Whiting. Several sheriffs are said to be implicated in helping the gang along, according to disclosures made by the United States authorities.

FARRIS EVIDENCE IS ALL IN.

Defense Weakens Case Made by the Prosecution.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 6.—The evidence has been completed in the Farris bribery trial. The feature of the trial was the reading of letters sent by former Lieutenant Governor John A. Lee to D. J. Kelley. Only one of these seemed to have much direct bearing on the case, and this was one where he said he had drawn out $7,000 from the bank on March 19, 1901, and sent it to Kelley. This was the date when Lee said he drew $7,000 and paid it to Senator Farris. Lee denied writing the letter, but the defense had it identified by Paying Teller Hettel of the American Exchange bank, St. Louis, as being in Lee's handwriting. The defense introduced several witnesses in an endeavor to impeach Lee's testimony on a number of points. It is believed the defense weakened the case made by the state.

ERNST FLEECED THE PRIESTS.

Capitalist Charged with Embezzlement Surrendered by Bondsmen.

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—Casper J. Ernst, capitalist and promoter, who has been out on bail pending a hearing on charges of embezzlement and forgery preferred by Father Metzler, a Catholic priest of Chippewa Falls, was surrendered by his bondsmen and is now in the custody of a deputy sheriff. The action of his bondsmen is said to be due to sensational developments in the case. Ernst is said to have received large sums from people throughout Minnesota, Wisconsin and eastern states, to be invested for them at a high rate of interest. Many of his clients were Catholic priests, who sent on their private fortunes for investment. The total amount so received is said to be in the neighborhood of $200,000.

ALLEN TALKS ABOUT ELECTION.

Former Senator From Madison Thinks There Will be a Populist Ticket Next Fall.

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 6.—Former Senator William V. Allen passed through here on his way to Madison from Lincoln. He was interviewed upon the election results.

Mr. Allen does not regard the result of the election in Nebraska as a defeat for the populist party. He stated that it was purely and simply a democratic setback. The populists, he thought, had no intention of abandoning their organization, but would have a separate national ticket in the field next year.

"Our ranks have been thinned out to some extent, it is true," he said, "by the return of some members to the republican and democratic parties, from which they came, but there are enough left to compose a good working organization. There is no question but that the populists will have their own presidential ticket next year, and their nominees will not be those of the democratic or the republican parties. Locally, it is not improbable that there will continue to be fusion."

"Mr. Bryan is too sagacious, I think, to indicate in advance what his position will be if Cleveland gets the nomination. It is possible, but hardly probable, that he will support Cleveland."

Wisconsin Village Wiped Out.

Ashland, Wis., Nov. 6.—Bibon, a little village on the Omaha twenty miles south of here, was destroyed by fire last night. The village, which is without fire protection, wired this city for help and engines were sent out on a special train. The fire started in a mill of the Chicago Coal and Lumber company, which it completely destroyed, and spreading up to the houses of the village consumed the entire village. The mill is owned by J. H. Kreuger of this city, who is in Minneapolis. The loss will easily reach $75,000. Communication between here and Bibon has been broken by the burning of both telegraph and telephone wires.

TROOPS LEAVE ISTHMIJS

Revolutionary Party is Now in Full Control.

GEN. TORRES AND STAFF SAIL.

Commander Hubbard of the Nashville Helps Departure—Instructed to Prevent Bloodshed and Keep Railway Clear.

Colon, Nov. 6.—The Royal Mail steamer Orinoco, with twenty-eight officers, 435 men and thirty women, has sailed. The United States auxiliary cruiser Dixie has just arrived.

Colonel Torres, commander of the Colombian troops here, seeing that the situation was hopeless, agreed to embark his soldiers on the Orinoco, sailing for Cartagena. A special train from Panama brought General Tovar, who also sailed on the Orinoco.

The people of Colon are now jubilant. The flag of the new republic flies from the railway stations at Gatun and Bolfo Solidad, near Colon. Troops from Panama will doubtless take charge of the city today.

The municipal council of Colon has just notified the provisional government at Panama of its adherence to the new republic.

Panama, Nov. 6.—General Tovar and his staff have at last been convinced of the uselessness of their resistance to the provisional government and have accepted the terms offered by the junta. They embarked for Colon on an express train and will leave immediately on the Orinoco for Cartagena. The arrangement to this end was made through the efforts of Commander Hubbard of the United States gunboat Nashville.

There is great rejoicing all over the city because the stability of the republic now seems assured.

The revolution has been practically bloodless, as only two Chinamen were killed during the bombardment of the city by the government gunboat Bogota. The fire of the warship unroofed one house, a shell hit the tower of the cathedral and another fell on the house of Frederico Bonif, a member of the revolutionary junta.

General H. O. Jeffries, a graduate of West Point, has been appointed commander of the Pacific flotilla by the provisional government.

BUSY AT WASHINGTON.

United States to Have Free Hand in Isthmus.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The Associated Press is informed that the president probably will make a statement today regarding the provisional government of the republic of Panama, of the establishment of which this government was officially informed. In view of the latest advices from Colon to the effect that the junta has succeeded in gaining control of the situation, it is currently expected that this government will recognize the newly organized government, but it was impossible to secure official information on this point.

A cablegram was received from the American consul at Colon saying that the 400 Colombian troops which arrived there Monday on the Cartagena had sailed away.

The Associated Press is enabled to state that this government will conduct affairs with a firm hand in the execution of the treaty of 1846. Orders have been sent to the various naval commanders in the Caribbean that the isthmus is to be policed, the traffic kept open and that bloodshed must be prevented at any cost. This is further than the United States has ever gone before, and in the opinion of officials here, indicates that the establishment of the new government of Panama, if it proves stable and orderly, will have the good wishes of the United States and our ultimate recognition and co-operation in conducting an orderly and permanent government on the isthmus. Advocates of the construction of the Panama canal say this assures the execution of that project.

The dispatch received from the executive board of the new government announcing the establishment of the provisional government of the republic of Panama, stated that its action was in response to a popular demand on the part of the isthmian people, and that the board was assured of the necessary military strength to carry out its determination.

The departure of the troops from Colon greatly relieves the seriousness of the situation and the arrival of the Dixie relieved the general apprehension here regarding the safety of American lives and property.

This government, it was said, is interested, but not surprised, to note the European approval of its policy, as shown in the Associated Press dispatches from London, Berlin and Paris, but it was added by a high official that the restoration of order on the isthmus and its maintenance had been long desired by the European powers, and that the United States was in reality doing them and their interests a service.

In the meantime Horn is lying in his cell in the county jail, anxiously awaiting the action of the governor on his last appeal, which action will either send him to the penitentiary for life or to the gallows.

The governor has advised the prosecution that he will postpone the date of hearing his arguments against Horn's appeal until Monday.

Draw Pay for Sixty Days.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—The supreme court dismissed the suit attacking the constitutionality of the amendment passed in 1887, providing for a sixty instead of a forty-day session of the legislature, and increasing the salaries of members from $5 to $5 a day. The court declares the amendment legally adopted and properly canvassed. Just before the close of last winter's legislative session the state auditor was enjoined from paying members salaries for the last twenty days of the session, and it was sought to declare that all acts of the last twenty days were illegal. The district court upheld the injunction, but the supreme court overruled and dismissed it.

Wins Out in Clash With Federal Authorities.

BRAVES TAKEN TO DOUGLAS.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 6.—The request of Governor Chatterton on the federal government for the return of nine Indians who were captured near Edgemont, S. D., was complied with and the prisoners were turned over to Sheriff Jack McDermott and posse at Crawford. They will be charged with murdering Sheriff Miller and Deputy Falkenberg.

United States Marshal Hadsel has received orders from Washington to proceed at once to Douglas and take the necessary steps to protect the Sioux prisoners from meeting with unavailing vengeance at the hands of a hostile mob. Governor Chatterton denies that any danger exists, but will protect the prisoners at all hazards, even to the extent of calling out the militia. District Attorney Burke has been ordered by the attorney general of the United States to proceed at once to Douglas to prepare for the legal defense of the Indians, who have been lodged in the Converse county jail at Douglas. The Indians confess that they were in the party that killed the sheriff and deputy. It is feared that it will be difficult to get an unprejudiced jury to try the case.
