DATE OF DEDICATION.

Presbyterians to Consecrate Church on 29th.

EMINENT MINISTERS EXPECTED.

Services to be Held Two Weeks from Sunday—Dr. Wheeler of South Omaha and Dr. Sexton of Lincoln Invited to be Present and Take Part.

The Presbyterians of Norfolk have named Sunday, November 29 as the day on which they will dedicate their handsome new church at the corner of Philip avenue and Ninth street to christian service.

They are preparing a program of interesting services and will announce them in detail soon. Dr. R. L. Wheeler, of South Omaha, one of the prominent divines of the state, has been invited to be present and preach, but has not yet positively given assurance that he will be here. Dr. T. L. Sexton, synodical missionary, of Lincoln, has also been asked to attend and deliver a sermon, while prominent Presbyterians from other sections of the state will undoubtedly be present.

The church has been used for worship during the several Sundays that have passed since its completion, but it has not yet been formally dedicated.

WEDDING AT FOSTER.

T. W. Wainig and Miss Idabel McWhorter Married Wednesday.

Rev. F. P. Wigton is home from Foster where he united in marriage Mr. T. W. Wainig and Miss Idabel McWhorter Wednesday at noon at the home of the bride's parents south of that place.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the relatives of the bride and groom being in attendance. After the ceremony a splendid dinner was served.

The bride and groom are among the most popular young people of Foster, and their marriage has been the occasion for congratulation on the part of their many friends. Mr. Wainig is a prosperous stockman and farmer, with a home in Foster that has been prepared for the reception of his bride, and they will at once begin housekeeping. The bride is one of the fairest daughters of Foster and vicinity and has scores of friends to wish her happiness in her new relation.

The Ladies guild of Trinity church will hold their sale and dinner on Thursday, December third.

OLD ARKANSAW.

Fun is What Theatre-Goers Like and the Big Fun Show is Coming.

There are many writers of melodramas and comedy-dramas who conceive plots as mystifying and as clever as that of "Old Arkansaw" but the playwrights are few indeed who can equal Fred Raymond, the author of this tremendous success, in introducing clean, refined comedy into a play. Those who have seen "Old Arkansaw" are well aware that fun predominates in the performance and by the way, fun is what most people desire when they go to a theatre. Strong dramatic situations and thrilling hair breadth escapes appeal to critics and to some theatre-goers but a good hearty laugh makes everyone feel better and the laugh producing qualities of "Old Arkansaw" are what enable it to visit the same section year after year and each time play to a larger audience. "Old Arkansaw" abounds with pure, clean, refined humor and at the same time possesses many good dramatic situations and it has especially fine scenery and effects.

It is a play dealing with common folks and apparently the characters are the acme of naturalness, still a wonderful fund of comedy is introduced through the action of the play and you remember it as one long laugh. "Old Arkansaw" will be seen at the Auditorium Friday night.

Dr. F. G. Walters succeeds to the practice of Dr. Kiesau. "Phone, office and residence 18.
