BURTON GOES TO JAIL

SENTENCED TO SIX MONTHS AND A FINE BY JUDGE ADAMS.

BURTON HAS NOTHING TO SAY.

ROUNDLY LECTURED BY THE COURT IN PRONOUNCING.

FIRST SENATOR'S CONVICTION.

Summoned to Stand up, He Trembles and Suppresses Emotion With Evident Effort—Regardless of Station, the Laws are Equal to Case.

Kansas City, April 6.—A special to the Star from St. Louis says that United States Senator James R. Burton was today given sentence of six months in jail and fined $2,500 by Judge Adams in the United States district court here.

St. Louis, April 6.—The Judge summoned Burton to stand up and then spoke of the motions that had been filed for a new trial. The court after briefly reviewing the motions overruled them both and then said to the defendant:

"Have you anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon you?"

Trembling and evidently suppressing his emotions with strong effort, Burton said:

"Your honor will please allow me to respectfully decline to say anything."

To which the court replied: "I am satisfied that the jury in this case is just and true, in the result of the trial. Your exalted station in life, and the character of your offending give an unusual significance to your conviction. It demonstrates that the law of the land is equal to, any emergency and that it can be administered regardless of the personality or station of accused. It also demonstrates to all the people that public office cannot be prostituted to self-serving purposes and that public office is not a sure or safe passport to private thrift."

"The humility attending your conviction and the statutory disqualifications resulting therefrom which forever incapacitates you from holding any office of honor, trust or profit under the government of the United States are in themselves heavy punishment for your offense and leave but little in the way of severity which could be added. It is not my pleasure nor my purpose to impose any unnecessary punishment. I think the majesty of the law will be sufficiently vindicated and the public welfare sufficiently safeguarded by imposing such sentence warranted as it is on any one of the six counts indictment on which you were convicted."

At the conclusion of the sentence Burton, who had not taken his eyes from the court and who had scarcely moved, sat down with his head bowed and his eyes on the floor.

Files New Brief. Attorney Krum immediately filed a bill of exceptions and offered bond in the sum of $10,000, which was accepted. Senator Burton and Attorney Krum then hurriedly departed from the court room.

Burton declined to discuss the sentence with the reporters.

MRS. S. W. HAYES IS WEAKER

Although She Passed a Fairly Comfortable Night, She is Gradually Losing Strength.

Mrs. S. W. Hayes is very weak today and is gradually growing weaker, although she passed a fairly comfortable night. Friends have been amazed at the wonderful manner in which she has held her own during the past week by sheer determination and an iron will. It is feared, however, that she can not withstand the illness.

YOUNG REIMERS IS DEAD

TELEGRAM FROM SIOUX FALLS TELLS OF SAD EVENT.

WAS TO HAVE BEEN OUT SOON.

The Story of the Reimers is Well Known—Became Interested in Ne-ligh Bank and Alleged Fraud Skipped the Country.

A telegram received in Pierre late Thursday morning from Sioux Falls, S. D., announces the death of Ed Reimers, the well known Nebraska banker who was serving a term there in the United States penitentiary.

The message came from the penitentiary authorities. It will be a great shock to the many friends of both the dead man and his father, A. E. Reimers.

The story of the Reimers trouble is well known. They lived at Pierce where the elder was a blacksmith. Charles R. Alder got them interested in the First National bank at Neligh. A. E. Reimers was elected president and the young man, assistant cashier. During the last week of the Omaha exposition the doors were closed by Examiner Whitmore. Alder fled to Mexico and the Reimers suffered from the shortage. It was alleged Alder had taken the funds. N. D. Jackson of Neligh was their attorney and every effort was made to secure their pardon from the president, but with no effect. Their term was five years and on good behavior they were expected home during the latter part of last month.

TO BE A GRAND CONCERT

TWENTY-FIFTH INFANTRY PLAYERS ARE COMING.

WILL GIVE DANCE ARBOR NIGHT.

To Furnish Music for the Sale Which A. J. Durland is Planning. This Organization Will be on Hand for That Occasion—Big Doings.

A. J. Durland has engaged the Twenty-fifth infantry band from Fort Niobrara to be present during his enormous sale of city property at auction sale. The band, under the lead of George Thomas, will consist of thirty pieces. They will be here for April 22 and 23 and will give a grand concert and ball at Marquardt hall on the evening of April 22, Arbor day.

This band will be remembered by people of Norfolk and by those northern Nebraska from this city west, as the aggregation which appeared at almost every town last season when the soldiers marched through from Fort Niobrara to Norfolk. The organization is made up of thirty first-class artists and the pleasure that they gave to the people of their respective sections during that trip is enough said as to their ability.

Mr. Thompson, the leader, has rounded out the band into what he terms the best west of the Mississippi river, bar none. He gave a concert here at the Auditorium.

The concert on Arbor day will be something well worth the while of lovers of music and the grand ball following it in Marquardt hall will afford pleasure to scores of persons who would take advantage of the occasion.

The sale for which this is planned will begin on April 22 and continue into April 23. Col. F. H. Wood, the well known auctioneer, has been secured for that date and will be here to take care of the bidding. There will be carriages and cabs to transport the purchasers from lot to lot, and the property will be sold in turn, each lot by its number.
