

MEET IN FREMONT JUNE 28

CONGRESSIONAL MEETING HELD BY DEMOCRATS AND POPS.

THEY WILL NAME M'KILLUP

Biggest Attended Committee Meeting in History—Fifteen Out of Nineteen Were Present—Ought to Have Chosen Norfolk—Reasons Why.

The congressional committees of the democratic and populist parties for the Third district of Nebraska met in Norfolk last night and decided to hold their conventions in Fremont on the afternoon of June 28 at 4 o'clock. Waldo Wintersteen of Fremont came up to ask for the convention and it was through his work that the committee selected Fremont.

Fifteen of the eighteen committee-men were present. It was the best attended meeting ever held. Among those present were Judge Edgar Howard, the prominent Columbus leader; P. E. McKillup of Humphrey, one of the well known bankers, and the probable nominee of the conventions; I. Connor of Ponca; H. D. Miller of Stanton; Douglas Cones from Pierce; Mr. Vitte from Wisner; T. F. Monning of Norfolk; J. H. Bohannon of Columbus; E. R. Bladen of Coleridge; J. G. Beste of Hartington; and others.

McKillup to be Named.

Mr. McKillup will likely be the nominee of the conventions. He is well known, influential and popular. "He will probably be named," said Judge Edgar Howard, "if the nomination goes to a democrat."

Norfolk Should Have Got.

Norfolk ought to have the convention. That's the way the members of the committee felt about it. "We felt kindly toward it," said several, "but where were your representatives to ask for it? Why didn't you tell us you would take it? Fremont asked and so did Douglas Cones of Pierce. No one from Norfolk showed spirit enough in the affair to even come to the meeting, except Mr. Monning, the committeeman."

J. H. Bohannon, editor of the German paper at Columbus, was in attendance.

Howard for Chairman.

Judge Howard was selected for temporary chairman and H. D. Miller of Stanton for secretary of the convention.

Mr. Witte was chairman of the populist meeting and Mr. Bohannon secretary. Others were represented through them. Mr. Monning is chairman of the committee.

ATKINSON BALL SEASON OPENS

Ewing Boys Go up for a Match on the Diamond There—Number Attend From Away.

Atkinson, Neb., May 25.—Special to The News: The Ewing baseball team arrived in Atkinson on the afternoon train and crossed bars with the Atkinson Reds. The score card showed Atkinson to be in the lead, standing as it did 12 to 3. Charlie Green, druggist of Ewing, Mr. Spitzer, Mr. Fisher and others of Ewing people came along to encourage the boys. This was the opening game of the season.

W. H. Allen of Newport, the great bay man, witnessed the game of yesterday. Dan Gaines of Bassett was also a visitor and remained for the grand ball last night. A number of people came down from Stuart to watch the game of ball with the Ewing boys. Roy Hunt of Stuart was among the visitors.

Atkinson Baccalaureate.

Atkinson, Neb., May 25.—Special to The News: Rev. Mr. Brown, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of O'Neill and also of the First Presbyterian church of Atkinson, preached the baccalaureate sermon to the class of 1904 and to a large audience of 300. His subject was "The Chief Thing in Life," and it showed a great deal of thought and work.

OMAHA DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES

Count John A. Creighton Says He Won't Become Candidate—Slams Democratic League.

Omaha, Neb., May 25.—Democratic primary elections are being held in Douglas county today. Count John A. Creighton this morning announced that he would not become a candidate for delegate-at-large for the reformers, who are successfully working the name of the democratic league.

Creighton says he will not have his name paraded before the primaries as anybody's candidate. The polls opened at noon and both factions are working hard to secure the election of their delegation.

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES.

W. C. Elley is in the city today from Madison.

E. S. Blair was over from Wayne yesterday.

A. J. Jones was down from O'Neill yesterday.

J. F. Bone of Bonesteel was a city visitor over night.

Geo. H. Price was a city visitor yesterday from Leigh.

Peter Narland was a city visitor from Newman Grove.

R. M. Holland of Meadow Grove had business in the city this morning.

A. L. Butler and George Bremer were city visitors yesterday from Plattsmouth.

Mrs. G. P. Kline of Pierce came down on the morning train to visit Nappin Droule.

Lee Lohmeyer is visiting in Atkinson. He is now living in Oakland but many years ago was a resident of Atkinson. He is a druggist of long years' experience.

A boating party had been arranged by a number of young people for last night, but had to be given up on account of the weather.

This is the time when the city officials can observe just what effect the new Park avenue ditch is having on the drainage situation.

A contrast in temperatures was afforded by the last twenty-four hours when the mercury dropped from ninety in the shade to fifty. Yesterday noon it was hot and sultry; this morning it is chilly.

A tin-smasher was perpetrated upon Miss Blakeman by members of the Trinity social guild. Miss Blakeman is to be married early in June to R. A. Tateman, formerly of this city but now of Lincoln.

The rains have started after the farmers and gardeners have had opportunity quite ample to get their crops in the ground, which is a decided improvement over the conditions of last season.

The Junior day program to be carried out at the high school tomorrow night promises to attract a large crowd of friends. It will be in the nature of a farce, entitled "Box of Monkeys."

The gulch at the west end and the Northfork are still within their proper confines but a few more "showers" such as that of yesterday and last night will undoubtedly start them to raving and encroaching their waters on the outlying territory.

Tilden Citizen: This week the household effects of C. E. Burnham were shipped to Norfolk and the family moved permanently to that city. Mrs. Burnham and her daughter will be greatly missed in Tilden where the affability of the former and the vivacity of the latter have made them extremely popular.

The rain last night was a strenuous affair. Water to the amount of 1.34 had fallen up until 8 this morning and since then the gauge has been run up a little more. Much electricity accompanied the storm and people were kept wide awake all night by the thunder. Rivers will probably be raised considerably in northern Nebraska by the rainfall.

John R. Hays has been selected to act as toastmaster at the banquet of the high school alumni next Saturday night. W. H. Johnson of the board of education will respond to a toast, as will also D. C. O'Connor, R. C. Powers and Mrs. C. S. Parker. The banquet is to be held in Marquardt hall. It is anticipated that all of the former graduates in the city and as many as possible from out of town will be present. There will probably be no less than 100 at the banquet.

Sioux City Tribune: Willard E. Bailey of Alden, Neb., was in Sioux City last evening en route to Chicago, where he is to accept a position on Werner's magazine. Mr. Bailey, two years ago, started a very creditable magazine called "Ideals" at Alden, but there were so many publications covering the same field that the Nebraska magazine was unable to get in and the stockholders decided to discontinue. The magazine was on the order of "Success," which was started and is now published by a former Nebraska man.

Oakdale Sentinel: The commencement exercises of the Oakdale high school will be held Thursday evening, May 26, at the M. E. church. The graduates this year are Fred Dvorak, Lynn Minton and Mamie Dvorak. Fred and Mamie Dvorak are son and daughter of Chas. Dvorak, a prominent citizen and old soldier of Oakdale and well known throughout the county. Lynn Minton is the son of Dr. E. W. Minton, our popular physician, also well known in Antelope and adjoining counties. All three of the young people have grown up in Oakdale and have attended the Oakdale schools all their lives.

Tilden Citizen: Tuesday evening the opera house was packed with an audience gathered to hear the graduating exercises of the Tilden high school class of 1904. The graduates were Misses May Waterbury, Grace Beckley, Maud Whitehorn, Bertha Stewart and Daisy Kierstead. The room was prettily decorated with red and white—the class colors—while the class motto "Peg Away," hung in festoons in front of the stage. The essays of the graduates showed careful preparation and were rendered in a manner highly creditable to the girls and to Mrs. Perdue who had been their elocutionary instructress.

FINGERS MASHED IN A FEEDER

Atkinson, Neb., May 25.—Special to The News: George Reese, a farmer living four miles from town had the misfortune to catch two fingers of his right hand in the feed grinder and they were badly smashed. He was quickly driven to town and Dr. Douglas dressed the injured member and will try to have the same. As yet it seems impossible to do so.

"THE WAY TO REVIVE."

Concerning the Commercial Club as Judge Edgar Howard Saw It.

While in The News office on his first visit to Norfolk, Judge Edgar Howard sat down and wrote the following editorial, giving the situation as it looked to him:

"Norfolk lost a good thing last night, and all because the Commercial club has neglected to revive itself, as requested by The News. The democratic and populist congressional committee were in session in the Oxnard parlors, but no representative of Norfolk appeared to offer a word of welcome, and so when it came to choosing a place for the two conventions the honor went readily to Fremont, whose commercial club sent Editor Waldo Wintersteen here with authority to invite the conventions to Fremont, and he did it so pleasantly that the invitation was readily accepted. Norfolk might have had both conventions. It ought to have had them. Several hundred delegates will attend the two conventions, which means that a large sum of money will be added to the volume of circulation in Fremont. John Sherman made himself famous, and accomplished great good for his country by his declaration that "the way to resume is to resume," and The News is now looking for some member of the Commercial club with courage to say to his fellow members that "the way to revive is to revive."

Wanted—Two young men for light work. Country boys preferred. Address O. S. Trigg, general delivery, Norfolk, Neb.

Not Till June 30. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hays will not be at home to their friends in Norfolk until after June 30. It was announced that they would be home after the 13th.

THURSDAY TIDINGS. Joseph Forsyth has been appointed regular and Arthur Ockley substitute carrier on the new rural route at Pierce.

Norfolk lodge No. 46, I. O. O. F., will meet in regular session tonight for degree work, and a good attendance of members is desired.

Winside Tribune: The Mrs. Editor remained at home while we were skylarking around for a year and now she is off for a time and chooses St. Louis as the place to enjoy herself. She left Monday morning and expects to be gone a couple of weeks. Well, here's hoping she will have half as good a time as we did, but we awfully doubt it.

Emerson Crescent: Robbers broke into H. O. Armour's drug store, H. H. Jensen's butcher shop and attempted to get in Geo. McPherran's barber shop Wednesday night. At Armour's the burglars made their entrance by battering down the back door, securing about $25 worth of rings and a few cigars. At Jensen's butcher shop they secured about $2 in small change. Valuable papers that were in the safe were scattered over the floor, entrance being effected by taking off a screen and going through a window. No clue to the robbers.

Operation Performed. An operation was performed this morning at the Salter sanitarium on B. B. Kinney, who has a chair in the Hartford barber shop.
