

BOLD DAYLIGHT BURGLARY

ROBBERS GET VALUABLE JEWELS IN NORFOLK.

AT HOME OF MYRON COLLAMER

A Diamond, a Watch, a Gold Chain and Two Gold Rings, All Dear Because of Associations, Were Taken by the Thief.

Burglars entering northern Nebraska have not passed by Norfolk without taking a little time to work at their line of business. The residence of Myron Collamer, between Fourth and Fifth on Madison avenue, was entered in broad daylight, it is thought, and a large amount of jewelry secured. Police are working on the case and may yet land the thief.

Among things stolen were a handsome diamond, the property of Mrs. Collamer, and especially prized because it was a gift; a gold watch, which had belonged to Mr. Collamer's father and which, consequently, was of more than the intrinsic value to him; a little gold chain which had been given to their little daughter; and two gold rings, one of which had formerly been worn by Mr. Collamer's father and the other by his mother.

Just when the burglary was effected is not known. Nothing was missed until this morning, when a small jewel was noted to be on top of a dresser instead of inside, as it should have been. A search followed and there was consternation as one by one the several articles, all valuable in themselves, and much more valuable to Mr. and Mrs. Collamer, because of associations, were discovered to be missing.

No screen in the house was touched in any way. No window was cut and no door was broken. It is thought that the thief entered the home in broad daylight and worked at pleasure while people were passing by the place.

THURSDAY TIDINGS.

J. A. DeWolf and Peter Michaelson, two of the substantial citizens of Tilden, were in the city this morning enroute to Madison.

Editor J. B. Donovan of the Madison Star-Mail is in the city today on business. He has just returned from a trip in the western part of the country.

Mrs. E. M. Sisson and son Horace are home from their trip to California. Dr. Sisson is returning by way of the Canadian Pacific and will arrive in a day or two.

Dr. S. W. Vallier, osteopath, for mercy of Madison, has come to Norfolk to locate in the practice of his profession. He is now in the city and is arranging for office rooms.

The cooperative association of the Omaha Revere home will meet at 3 o'clock Friday at the home of Mrs. Chas. Stimms, 406 South Eighth street.

The season for picnics and camping outings is at hand, but the weather clerk appears to have placed a veto against this kind of enjoyment at the start of the season.

Miss Mary Covert of this city, daughter of J. M. Covert, has been promoted to the head of the college at Bellevue, Neb. The president resigned and Miss Covert was given charge of the institution by the board of directors.

Platte Center is to be a new contestant for honors at the coming fishermen's tournament, the local committee having just been notified that there is an organization of high steps at practice there with the intention of taking any and all honors that may not be captured by those of swifter gait.

Ex-Superintendent H. C. Mahanna of the South Platte section of the Northwestern, and his wife, leave Fremont today for Reading, Pa., where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Mahanna has been succeeded by Superintendent C. H. Reynolds of this city under the recent consolidations of divisions effected by the Northwestern company.

At the recent meeting of the committee on the coming fishermen's tournament it was unanimously voted as the sentiment of the committee that a fraternal day should be held here later in the summer and not on the Friday following the tournament. It is expected that the matter will again be brought up at the Sunday meeting of the committee and perhaps something definite will be done toward arranging for a fraternal day, and perhaps a race meeting on the day following.

Battle Creek.

The ten days' old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Preese died Sunday morning and the funeral was held Monday morning from their residence, and the little body was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery. A quartette sang several fine selections. Rev. Father Walsh, of Norfolk, was in attendance.

Monday the remains of Carl Schulz were laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery and the attendance was very large. Mr. Schulz was one of our early settlers. After interment the ceremonies were held in the Lutheran church by Rev. J. Hoffman.

E. P. Hans is on the sick list this week and not able to attend to business.

In the case of P. H. Ingoldisby, applicant for a saloon license, the majority of our village board says: "Aber Nil!" They verily believe sweet are plenty.

There was a very nice gathering at Fred Newerk's place five miles south of town. The crowd consisted of young people mostly and the occasion was the eighteenth birthday of his oldest son, the first child.

GOOD FINANCIAL SHOWING

NORFOLK BANKS HAVE MUCH MONEY ON DEPOSIT.

FINANCES PROSPEROUS HERE.

Total Business Crowds Close to a Million and Deposits are Above Six Hundred Thousand Dollars—Another Bank to Start Soon.

The bank statements given publicly at the close of business June 9 indicate that Norfolk's finances are most excellent and on the up grade. Never before was there so much money on deposit in the banks of this city; never before did the statements flirt with such high figures, and never before did the people of Norfolk as a class, and the business men of the city in particular show so much evidence of commercial stability and financial integrity. It is safe to say that there is not a business man in the town today who is not making good money and if he is careful in his expenditures is on a solid footing and cannot be easily overthrown. Even the "common people"—the laboring man, the mechanic, the railroad employe and the working girl of those employed in the stores and offices—have money on deposit, which they are adding to from time to time. And the farmer—he is the most independent of them all. His figures are represented in the hundreds and the thousands and he is constantly adding to them. With the prospect for a bumper crop now in sight and developing rapidly, he can afford to snap his fingers at the balance of the world.

The statements show total transactions lacking but a few thousand dollars of the million mark and make a notable increase during the past few years. In deposits the statements show $627,695.67. Six months ago the amounts on deposit in the two institutions totaled $393,871.53, showing a gratifying gain during a season of the year when there is not expected to be a large income, as the greater amount of business in a farming country is done during the latter half of the year, when the farmers are putting their grain and stock on the markets and the merchants are disposing of winter goods. All prospects are that the statements issued at the end of this six months will show material gain over the present, and one that will be an honor to the country and people doing business here.

In addition to this showing of sound financial interests there is about to be started another banking house which speaks emphatically for the faith of the stockholders in the future of Norfolk, and it is expected that this new financial institution will start in with a business running into the hundreds of thousands of dollars and will further strengthen the finances of one of the most promising cities in the state.

A DAY OF JUNE WEDDINGS

NUMBER OF PROMINENT MARRIAGES IN NORTH NEBRASKA.

FAIN - LUIKART EVENT HERE

Miss Lillian Mae Luikart is Married to James Rhea Fain at the Home of the Bride's Mother, 1401 Norfolk Avenue—Other Ceremonies.

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna M. Luikart, 1401 Norfolk avenue, Miss Lillian Mae Luikart was married last evening at 8:30 o'clock to Mr. James Rhea Fain, both prominent in Norfolk social circles. The wedding was a very quiet one, merely the immediate relatives and families being present for the ceremony. Rev. J. E. Poucher of the Methodist Episcopal church officiated.

Following the marriage, a wedding supper was served in the home. On the early morning train today, Mr. and Mrs. Fain, amid the showers of rice and best wishes from a number of friends, departed for a brief trip to Omaha and Lincoln. Returning within a few days, they will be at home at the residence of Mrs. Elsie Desmond, corner Nebraska avenue and Tenth street after the first of July.

Among those present were Mrs. Metta Braasch of Tilden, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Luikart of Tilden, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Witzigman of Meadow Grove, John Witzigman of Battle Creek, Miss Hazel Hogrefe of Stella, Neb., and John Fain, of Knoxville, Tenn., a brother of the groom.

Miss Luikart is the eldest daughter of one of the prominent families of Norfolk and Mr. Fain, as superintendent of construction on the United States government building now nearing completion, has been a resident of the city for more than a year. His home is in Knoxville, Tenn. About the latter part of August Mr. and Mrs. Fain will leave for a new home, which has not yet been determined as the next building over which Mr. Fain will have supervision has not been designated by the government.

Thompson-Lindsay.

Rev. S. F. Sharpless returned from Niobrara this morning where he last night officiated at the marriage of Miss Jessie H. Lindsay, of that place, to George L. Thompson, a merchant at Creighton. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lindsay, and the entire wedding party which was large, stayed up until the 3:45 train this morning, on which they departed. The bride and groom passed through Norfolk enroute to the world's fair at St. Louis, where they will spend a couple of weeks.

Invitations Issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker G. Baker have issued invitations for the marriage of their sister, Winifred Hartley, to Mr. Burton Leo French, on Tuesday, June 28, at 10 o'clock, at the residence, 204 South Eleventh street, in this city. Miss Hartley for a number of years made her home in Norfolk and for two years past she has held a high school position as teacher in Bliss, Idaho. Mr. French is congressman from Idaho, and the youngest representative in the national house of law makers.

A. H. Backhaus.

The marriage of A. H. Backhaus, publisher of the Pierce Leader, took place at Lindsay, Neb., last night. Further information has not yet been received.

REPORTS ON CROP CONDITIONS

Wheat Has Been Cold, But Favorable to Grasses and Small Grains. Northeastern Counties.

Lincoln, Neb., June 15.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by Section Director Laveland of the government crop and climate service, indicates a cool season that has been favorable to the growth of grass and small grains, but not so favorable to corn. Winter wheat and rye are mostly headed, while oats are just beginning to show heads. Grass in pastures and meadows is in excellent condition. The first cutting of alfalfa has commenced. Corn fields are somewhat weedy. Strawberries and cherries are ripening and are a good crop. If conditions in this section of the state the following is the report:

Antelope—Rather cool for corn, cultivation of corn first time about finished small grain doing well alfalfa ready to cut.

Boyd—Small grain doing nicely; rye good; corn cultivation retarded by rain.

Burt—Corn about cultivated first time, many fields a poor stand; small grain much improved; strawberries ripening, good crop.

Collax—Small grain doing well; corn growing nicely, some fields are weedy but cultivation progressing rapidly; potatoes fine.

Cuming—Corn growing slowly, cultivation in progress; small grain doing well; pastures good.

Dakota—Corn a little backward, too cold, but other crops look well.

Dixon—Small grain in excellent condition; corn generally in fair condition but needs more sunshine.

Knox—Grain crops of all kinds doing finely; corn growing slowly.

Madison—Rye headed; small grain doing well; corn making slow headway; cultivation progressing finely; pastures and meadows in good condition.
