

INDIANS MAKE PROTEST

CLAIM STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA HAS EXCEEDED RIGHTS.

TAKE TOO MUCH SCHOOL LAND

Original Owners Appeal to President Roosevelt, Claiming State Has Taken 6,600 Acres More Than it is Entitled to—Town Sites Affected.

Bonesteel, S. D., July 13.—Charging the state of South Dakota with attempting to take 6,600 acres of school lands in the Rosebud reservation, in excess of what the state is entitled to, the Indians of the reservation have sent a telegram to President Roosevelt protesting against this action.

At the rate of $1 an acre which the Indians would receive if the lands were taken up by homestead settlement, they would receive about $36,000, as school lands the Indians will receive only half this amount. In addition, the homesteader will be robbed of over 6,000 acres which they might otherwise take up. It is the purpose of Commissioner of Lands and Education Bach to sell these school lands for town site purposes on August 27.

The Indians have engaged the services of J. W. Lindsay of Goddard, one of the best posted attorneys in the northwest on lands pertaining to the Indians and Indian reservations, to prosecute their protest, and it promises to upset all the well laid town site plans that have been made. Mr. Lindsay is confident his protest will make good, and that the action of the state of South Dakota is a violation of the statutes, setting aside certain lands in each township for school purposes.

With this idea in mind, the Indians have forwarded by wire, the following protest, to the "Great White Father":

The Protest.

"Bonesteel, S. D., July 13, 1904.—To the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, Washington, D. C.—Sir: We, the undersigned, members of the Sioux tribe on the Rosebud reservation, South Dakota, respectfully protest against the State of South Dakota, selecting more than enough land for school purposes to make two sections in each township.

"The state has selected besides the unallotted land in section 16 and 36 and east 1/2, nw 1/4, 6, 9, 39, 80 acres; N. section 5, 9, 39, 640 acres; N 1/2 section, 21, 35, 39, 320 acres; section 1, 9, 39, 640 acres; section 12, 9, 39, 640 acres; section 26, 9, 39, 640 acres; section 12, 9, 39, 640 acres; section 13, 9, 39, 640 acres; s 1/2, 25, 97, 72, 40 acres; nw 1/4, 25, 97, 72, 40 acres; s 1/2, nw 1/4, 25, 97, 72, 80 acres; total 6,600 acres.

"The taking of so much land for school purposes in one township is contrary to the provisions of article 2, section 4, of article 5, of U. S. statute, April 23, 1904.

"Signed by Crow Dog, Yellow Face, Standing Buffalo, James Thompson, Bull Dog, Cheyenne Butcher, Dog Nation, Livealone, Shorty Thigh, James Primrose, Rain Water, Circle Fool, Rabbit, Joe Bad Bear, Changing Seal, Yellow Breast, James Looking Eagle, Daniel Milk, Uria Cane, Goodcane, Charles Antoine, Francis Slowarrow."

Article 2 of the act of congress, opening the Rosebud to the homestead entry, provides that the government "agrees to dispose of the same to settlers under the provisions of the homestead and townsite laws, except sections 16 and 36 or an equivalent of two sections in each township" and section 3, of article 5, of the same act, provides that if sections 16 and 36 have been allotted to the Indians and lost to the state of South Dakota for indemnity school lands "the governor, with the approval of the secretary of the interior, is hereby authorized, in the tract hereinafter ceded, to locate other lands not occupied, not exceeding two sections in any one township, which shall be paid for by the United States as herein provided in quantity equal to the loss."

Get Half Less From State.

That act of congress provides on all such lands selected by the state of South Dakota, the Indians shall be paid at the rate of $2.50 an acre, but if the lands are offered for homestead, they will get $1 per acre.

In some townships, the state has selected from three to four sections and now has several of these sections advertised for sale for townsite purposes. The Indians insist that these lands be entered for homestead instead of being so sold by the state. It promises a fierce fight and indications are the Indians may defeat the purpose of the state.

The state has apparently interpreted the law as saying that if the sections 16 and 36 are not allotted the state is still entitled to select the additional lands. The state has thus selected four sections, in township 96, 70, it has three sections in township 96, 32, the state has selected 560 acres more than it is entitled to; in 97, 72 it has selected additional land where sections 16 and 36 are unallotted; in 95, 69 it has 320 acres in excess of its right, etc., making a total excess of 6,600 acres.

Upset Townsite Plans.

If the protest of the Indians should result in the defeat of the state of South Dakota, it will upset all the plans that have already been made by townsite companies to take up these school lands for town site purposes. It will also increase the chances of the homesteader to draw land, in an amount equal to the number of acres which the Indians claim the state would possess of itself in excess of its right.

The pill that will, will fill the bill.

Without a gripe.

To cleanse the liver without a quiver.

Take one at night.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small, easy to take, easy and gentle in effect, yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. For quick relief from biliousness, sick headache, torpid liver, Early Risers are unequalled. Sold by Asa K. Leonard.

No False Claims.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes.

BRYAN DECLARES POSITION

GIVES REASONS FOR SUPPORTING PARKER AND DAVIS.

HE HAS NOTHING TO RETRACT

Has Censure for Parker and His Leaders and Says They are Tied up With Wall Street and That a Victory Will Not Mean Much.

Lincoln, Neb., July 13.—William Jennings Bryan, home from St. Louis has issued a statement giving his position regarding the democratic ticket. He says that he will vote for Parker and Davis and gives the following reasons:

1. Because the democratic ticket stands for opposition to imperialism, while the republican ticket stands for an imperialistic policy. On this question, which was the paramount issue in 1900, and which must remain an important issue so long as an attempt is made to hold colonies under the American flag—on this issue the convention was unanimous. The platform is emphatic, and I have no doubt that the candidate will carry out the platform.

2. Mr. Roosevelt is injecting the race issue into American politics and this, if it becomes national, will make it impossible to consider economic questions that demand solution. The election of the democratic ticket will put a quietus upon this attempt and permit the race question to work itself out without the bitterness which Mr. Roosevelt's conduct has engendered.

3. Mr. Roosevelt stands for the spirit of war. His friends present him as a man of blood and iron. He believes in strenuousness and incites a love for warlike things. The democratic ticket stands for peace, for reason and for arbitration, rather than for force, conquest and bluster.

4. The democratic platform declares in favor of the reduction of the standing army, and as this plank was unanimously adopted there is reason to believe that a democratic success on this subject would bring some advantage to the people.

For these reasons Mr. Bryan feels justified in voting the democratic ticket, but that his support will not be cordial is evidenced by the qualifications he gives his statement. "A democratic victory will mean very little, if any, progress on economic questions," says Mr. Bryan, "so long as the party is under the control of the Wall Street." He says he shall not misrepresent, or appeal for votes for the ticket on false grounds.

"I have nothing to take back," says the late leader, "I have nothing to withdraw of things that have been said against the methods pursued to advance his (Parker's) candidacy. It was a plain and deliberate attempt to deceive the party. The New York platform was vague and meaningless. If he had sent to the Albany convention the telegram he sent St. Louis he would have had very few instructed delegates and no possible chance for the nomination."

THURSDAY TIDINGS.

The York orchestra is billed to give a dance in the Marquardt hall tomorrow night.

G. F. McCormick has returned from Bonesteel where he has been assisting in the restaurant conducted by his son and Joe Phillips.

Under the influence of the warm weather of the past few days the corn crop has been fairly jumping to the front and some of it is beginning to tassel out.

A new permanent walk will soon be laid in front of the Asmus block at the corner of Third street and Norfolk avenue, the old plank affair having been torn up with that intention.

Mrs. S. R. Roberts left at noon yesterday after a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends, to join her husband at Blackfoot, Idaho, where he has accepted a position in a new sugar factory just being finished. He visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Roberts, last week.

Chas. Sundell is too old a carpenter to get tangled up with a buzz saw, and yet that is just what he did yesterday afternoon, and the result was that he nearly lost three fingers. It was necessary for Dr. F. G. Salter to set several stitches before his hand was sewed together in its original shape.

The obstructions that have been put up on Norfolk avenue to keep the teams from crossing the new cement walks will have to be maintained for about ten days in order to give the cement a chance to harden and season satisfactorily. After that it is hoped that the walks will prove an improvement that will endure for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Chapman and son of Eureka, Cal., arrived in Norfolk yesterday to visit with old friends, having come up from Fremont where they had been since Sunday. After a residence of more than a year in California Mr. Chapman expressed himself on the fact that Norfolk and Nebraska look pretty good to him.

The furniture and fixtures of the Nebraska National bank are rapidly being placed in position and it is announced that the institution will be opened for business Saturday morning. This is fifteen days later than it had been planned to commence operations, but the late delivery of the furniture caused the delay, which demonstrates that bankers have their troubles as well as other people.

The meeting of the executive committee of the Commercial club failed to materialize last evening, on account of the absence from the city of several of the members. It was arranged that another meeting would be held early next week on call of Vice President Pasewalk. President Robertson will be away from town at that time, as he will be in Cincinnati representing Norfolk lodge of Elks at the grand lodge.

The old Stapenhorst stock of shoes that was sold to the Bee Hive firm was yesterday transferred from the Estabrook block to the store room across the street occupied by the Bee Hive. It is not yet known what business will go into the store room vacated, but it is too good a building and too well located to long be permitted to stand idle when there is such good demand for store rooms and business in the city is of extra quality.

During the past few nights the sleeping accommodations of Norfolk have been more than taxed to accommodate the strangers who have been in the city on their way to and from the Rosebud reservation. Some of the visitors have been unable to find beds at all and were either compelled to sit up all night or bunk under any shelter that is convenient. One traveler, Charles Riley, of Omaha, slept in the jail the other night and was thankful to the officers for the accommodation.

This seems to be Norfolk day at Bonesteel, the town being represented there by a car load of people who want a chance to draw a farm on the reservation. They went up on the early train this morning and if they have good luck they will be home at midnight tonight. Those composing the delegation are A. Buchholz, J. C. Stitt, M. C. Hazen, Al Degner, F. Davenport, D. Baum, E. Mueller, C. Richey, Dr. Bleik, O. J. Johnson, J. W. Ransom, J. Koenigstein, L. Koenigstein, Dr. Parker, H. L. Spaulding, Dr. Bear, Dr. Cole, M. L. Ogden, Dr. Vallier, H. G. Brueggeman, H. A. Pasewalk, L. P. Pasewalk, S. G. Dean, L. M. Beeler, Father Walsh, Mr. Clark, Dr. Williams, L. M. Gaylord, John Davenport, F. L. Estabrook, Miss Flora Richardson, Miss Mattie Davenport, and others. If one good farm is captured by any one of the whole bunch, the aggregation may feel in luck.

The running team of the Norfolk fire department left this morning for Pierce to take a try at the purses of Pierce in the firemen's races. A large number of members of the department accompanied the team, and ordinary citizens helped to swell the crowd into very respectable proportions. This is firemen's day at the reunion and the sports of the day will be very generally firemen's races in a number of which the Norfolk team are entered. The afternoon opens with a parade and following it are wet and dry hose races, a hook and ladder race, and foot races. At the meeting of the fire department held last night it was decided to pay the railroad fare of the running team to and from Pierce, and the members of the team will be permitted to keep whatever purses they may win as their compensation. A number of the Norfolk firemen carried banners advertising the tournament at this place on August 2, 3 and 4. A special car was attached to the train for the accommodation of the Norfolk crowd.

Madison.

Miss Anna Lang of Humphrey visited with Madison friends last Thursday.

Chas. Well's little 9-year-old son was shot in the leg the Fourth. A physician was called and he is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Nixon and son John from Lincoln, arrived Tuesday for a visit with the families of Wm. Nixon and Joe Elliott.

Miss Minnie Myers left for Wayne Saturday to visit her sister, Miss Louise, who is attending school at that place.

C. H. Reed was in the northwestern part of the county last week looking after business for the firm of Allen & Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stibley and daughter returned Monday from Lyons where they have been visiting for several days.

Mrs. Will Wagner and little daughter, Neva, went to Grand Island Saturday to spend the Fourth with her husband.

Jacob Heangaerten was in town Saturday on business. While here Mr. Heangaerten found time to make this office a pleasant call.

Ed Spratt, Will Whirley and Guy Webb, who have been working in Lincoln, returned home Saturday to visit home folks for a few days.

Mrs. Plueler came up from Omaha Saturday evening to assist in taking care of her sister, Mrs. Heckstein, who had her limb broken last week.

MEDICAL MEN CONFER

MID-SUMMER MEETING OF ELKS HORN VALLEY SOCIETY.

SOCIAL EVENING AT ELKS CLUB

Adoption of Amendments to Constitution, Interesting Papers, Discussions and Talks Fill in Agreeable Meeting for the Medics.

The Elkhorn Valley Medical society held a very interesting and successful meeting in Norfolk Tuesday afternoon and evening, a large number of out of town doctors being in for the session. The regular business of the session was disposed of early in the afternoon, the principal matter receiving attention being the adoption of some amendments to the constitution. An amendment to article 4 was adopted providing that meetings of the society shall be held semi-annually as near the first Tuesdays of January and July as shall be found practicable. The annual mid-winter meeting shall be at Norfolk and the mid-summer meeting at any place in north Nebraska to be designated by a majority vote. Another amendment provides that the secretary shall act as financial secretary and collect the dues.

The regulation regarding membership was amended to read: "Every legally registered physician who is of good moral and professional standing, and who does not support or practice, or claim to practice, any exclusive system of medicine, shall be eligible for membership in this society."

Reports of committees and officers and the election of new members was disposed of, after which a number of very interesting papers were read and discussed.

Dr. J. J. Williams of Wayne presented a very interesting paper regarding "Some Points of Difference between Eterine Inertia and Tonic Contractions."

"What Constitutes Criminal Abortion?" was the subject treated by Dr. F. L. Frink of Newman Grove, whose ideas on the subject proved very entertaining to his fellow practitioners.

Dr. J. H. Mackay of this city had a paper on "Indican—A Clinical Semaphore," from which the following is a quotation:

"There is another phase of this subject that deserves investigation, and that is the cause and correlation of human delinquencies may depend on cell metabolism, which forms the physical origin or basis of our good or evil deeds. The cells of the higher order in the brain undergo retrograde changes, which in turn is reflected in the conduct and character. The cortical neurons of the cerebrum represent man's moral sense and are the centers of the manifestations of aspiration, hope and the will-power as well as our likes and dislikes. The changes that take place in them consist in the deviation of the nucleus of the cells, disappearance of the granular masses and shrinking of the protoplasm of the cell body. Time forbids the amplification of this subject, otherwise it would prove attractive to pursue it further with reference to the medical jurisprudence of that large class of offenders against society, who are on the borderland of insanity, the kleptomaniac, the victims of ungovernable or depraved passions and appetites and the hobo. The law holds if a person knows that it is wrong to commit a specified act he is responsible for the consequences of that act, while in fact the knowledge that it is wrong to commit a crime has nothing to do with a person's responsibility. In every asylum there are patients with homicidal or suicidal impulses, who, if given an opportunity, would immediately avail themselves of it to commit a crime, notwithstanding that they are conscious of the fact that it is wrong. The intention, forethought and scheming of the insane with criminal propensities to accomplish their ends is well known, and it is because of the derangement or enfeeblement of the will or aberration of the reason, judgment and the likes and dislikes and the irritation of normal passions that leads to crime. There is a lack of harmony, for the normal man does not commit crime. The imbeciles and those afflicted with senile dementia, who have neither the strength, inclination nor sense to commit a crime are the only class in our asylums who could escape the implication of the statute of responsibility. Justice reached after a great truth when this statute was enacted but signally missed it. In the light of present day scientific and psychological knowledge it must be regarded as a burlesque on our civilization."

Dr. H. L. Kindred of Meadow Grove reported on a case of a pitchfork handle perforation of the rectum, with the recovery of the patient, which was a rare accomplishment of modern surgery.

Dr. A. C. Stokes of Omaha presented a paper on "The Diagnosis and Treatment of Stricture of the Urethra."

"Cerebral Palsies in Childhood," was the title of a paper by Dr. J. M. Aikin of Omaha.

The program was concluded by a report on surgical cases that had come under his observation, by Dr. J. P. Lord of Omaha.

In the evening there was a social session of the society at the Elks' club rooms in the Marquardt block that was the most pleasant feature of the meeting. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, lemonade and cigars were served, and with short talks, music and other entertainment the evening was very agreeably passed. Hon. P. E. McKillop of Humphrey and Hon. W. M. Robertson of this city divided time with the doctors in making entertaining remarks.

Officers are elected annually at the mid-winter meeting and there was nothing on this line done at the present session.

Those attending the meeting were Drs. Aikin, Lord, Gifford and Stokes of Omaha; Williams of Wayne; McMahon, Frink and Kennedy of Newman Grove; Ireland of St. Edwards; Westfall of Lindsay; Murdock of Preston; Summers of West Point; Long and Davis of Madison; Hauser of Hooper; Kindred of Meadow Grove; Minton of Oskdale; Conwell and Beattie of Neligh; Beard and Bowman of Stanton; Lingenfelter, Hagey, Bleick, Bear, Salter and Walters of Norfolk.

His Only Wish.

Nothing so touches the heart strings as the loss of a favorite child. Anyone who has experienced such a misfortune will sympathize with Mr. N. J. Lewis of Newberry, Florida, who writes: "I am so thankful that I have found a cure for dysentery. For three years I have been troubled with this disease. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me and has effected a cure. When it comes back one dose is all that is necessary to set me right. I only wish I had known about this remedy a year ago when my dear little baby, one and a half years old, took dysentery and died in three days. The doctors tried to stop it but failed, and I buried my very heart strings with my child. No household should be without this valuable remedy." For sale by Leonard the druggist.
