DEATH OF NORFOLK SALVATIONIST

Lieutenant Clark of Hot Springs, S. D., Writes to the War Cry on the Death of Robert Allen.

The following from the War Cry, the publication of the Salvation Army, will be of interest to Norfolk readers, as Mr. Allen was well known here both before and after his conversion: "Early Friday morning, May 27, our beloved comrade, 'Daddy' Allen, was promoted to glory. He was a real blood-and-fire soldier, always at his post, a comrade who was beloved and respected by all. Seven years ago the third of December, the Army picked him up at Norfolk, Neb. He had come into town that evening from Plainview, Neb., expecting to take in the show and have a good time, as he then called it, when he heard the Army drum—bless God for the drum! He listened to the songs and testimonies of those he knew were once as deep in sin as he. He followed to the hall and heard of the Savior, who could save whosoever would seek Him, whose blood could cleanse the vilest. He sought the Lord that night. Many said that when he received his pay Bob Allen would be as drunk and mean as ever, but, bless God, he touched it no more. He was our drummer and always on duty willing to speak, sing or pray for his Master. He was a true, loyal soldier in his old corps, Norfolk, Neb., also in Charles City, Ia., Beatrice, Neb., in Boone, Ia., and in Omaha, Neb., and a soldier for six months in this corps, Hot Springs, S. D. He died very peacefully. His death was sudden and unexpected, but he was ready. He left a beautiful influence for good behind him, and although he is missed by us, yet we know he is living with Jesus. He had fought a good fight; he had finished his course; he had kept the faith. The funeral services were held here by the Army and the burial by the G. A.

Magnificent Crop Prospects.

G. A. Kuhl and family are home from a three-days visit in the country south of Meadow Grove and Tilden, near the point where the three counties of Madison, Antelope and Boone come together. Mr. Kuhl says that the crops in that section are magnificent. One farmer has a 240-acre field of wheat that is developing marvelously and it is believed that it will yield at least thirty-five bushels to the acre. Corn is as high as the horses backs in some fields and the fields are as level as the floor over the tops of the stalks. The crops look much better on the hills or table lands this year than in the valleys, the latter having been too wet during a portion of the season.

MAY BE A SPLIT IN IOWA

HAWKEYE DEMOCRATS LIKELY TO HAVE BITTER FIGHT.

GOLD MEN LIKELY TO CONTROL.

Old Leaders are Striving for Harmony at the Convention Which Meets in Iowa City Tomorrow—Feeling Bitter Over Hearst Instructions.

Iowa City, Ia., July 18.—Unless some of the old politicians succeed in their efforts to bring about harmony there will be a bitter fight between the rival factions for the control of the democratic state convention which meets here tomorrow. The purpose of the convention is to name candidates for secretary of state and the other minor state offices to be filled at the November election. The nominations are lost sight of, however, in the struggle of the two factions for supremacy. The early arrival of the most of the delegates and party leaders is evidence of the intense interest which is manifested in the contest for control.

There are two names mentioned as chairman of the convention, those of T. J. Stiger of Toledo and Martin J. Wade of Davenport. The latter, who is congressman from the second district, represents the gold wing of the democratic party in Iowa, and it seems probable that he will be chosen. It is not improbable that there may be a bolt when an attempt is made to organize the convention. It looks as though Chairman Maxwell will not be allowed to organize his committee, which is called to meet here tonight. The division in the ranks of the party arose from the action of the state convention last spring to elect delegates to the national convention. The convention instructed its delegates for William R. Hearst as a presidential candidate. It has since been made apparent that the instructions were due chiefly to shrewd political scheming on the part of the Hearst managers and that the action of the convention was not in accord with the views of the rank and file of the party in Iowa. The revulsion of feeling against those responsible for the instructions has been intensified by the defeat of Hearst at the St. Louis convention. The success of the conservative element in St. Louis has given courage and strength to the gold democrats of Iowa and they are determined to crush the opposition unless the latter gives in. Despite the strenuous efforts of the harmonizers the chances of conciliating the two factions appear exceedingly slim and unless all signs fall tomorrow's convention will witness a hopeless split in the party.

MAKING A FOREST RESERVE.

The Planting of Trees in Western Nebraska is Progressing.

In the last few weeks since the planting of trees on the government forest reserve in the Diamond river valley in Nebraska began, 300,000 trees have been planted. This number covers an area of 300 acres. The planting is being done in the sand hills adjoining the nursery grounds and extending one and a half miles back from the river. In preparing the ground for planting furrows are plowed eight feet apart in the grass sod and the trees are planted six feet apart in the furrow. The operation of tree planting is simple, but there are certain steps that must be carefully observed. When digging the trees from the seed beds it is necessary to handle them with great care, to prevent injuring the roots more than is necessary. The roots must never be allowed to dry. As soon as dry the trees are set in a bucket of water and

ROOSEVELTIAN FAMILY DON'T APPLY.

Ezekiel Rowlett says he enjoys a joke, but he thinks The News rather overworked the thing on him the other day, when it was stated that he is nearly one hundred years old and the father of twenty-seven children. Mr. Rowlett says that as a matter of fact he will be seventy years old in August and the total of his family amounted to nine children, seven of whom are living. He was a volunteer and served three years in the civil war. He thinks it probable that the informant of The News confused Mr. Rowlett with James Powell, who is 89 years old.

FAIRFAX HAS GRIEVANCE

HAS NOT BEEN ADVERTISED FOR ITS SHARE.

HARD TO GET RATES UP THERE

The Business Men of the City Think They Have Not Been Treated Equally Right by the Railroad Company—Registration Quickly Done.

Fairfax, S. D., July 18.—From a staff correspondent: For the expense that they have gone to, Fairfax people are making as much money out of the Rosebud rush as Bonesteel. There the concessions cost so much that the people are not getting rich, and here the rates for space were not so much that the notaries and others are not making good. About one out of five thus far have got off and registered at Fairfax. Fairfax business men have a grievance, however. They feel that they have not been treated right by the railroad. They say that they have been let out of the advertising for the excursion rates and that agents on the Northwestern system in many instances have refused to sell excursion tickets to Fairfax. The business men here have taken a number of affidavits of strangers which show that at various stations rates were obtainable merely from Hooper said they couldn't get tickets for Fairfax at rates. The people here feel that as one of the registration points, they are entitled to as much of a rate and as much of the advertising as Bonesteel. All ads read for Bonesteel and Fairfax is not mentioned. The railroad gets $20 per 100 persons carried to Bonesteel for the additional ride. Those who do register here are well cared for. Accommodations are good and service is quick. There have been no cases of pickpockets or any lawlessness whatever. Everything moves along quietly and smoothly. The streets are never jammed and there is nothing of roughness in the city. There is no jamming into crowds. A carload of people from Pilger, Neb., arrived this morning to register here. Policeman Ault, who shot young English at Bonesteel, and who was brought here for safe keeping, has been removed to Wheeler, this county, and his trial will probably be held September 7.

THOSE 640 ACRE FARMS

THERE IS QUIET, STEADY MOVEMENT TO THE WEST.

TAKE UP KINKAID PROPOSITION

The Substantial Settlement of that Entire Section Must Mean Much in the End to all of the Towns Throughout that Territory.

While the Rosebud rush has been holding the center of the stage for the past few weeks because of the excitement attendant upon it and because, also, of the fact that hundreds and thousands of persons have arrived in that section and gone away again for the purpose of registering, yet there is another bunch of settlement going on in this section of the world which, though not creating any great amount of intense excitement, is nevertheless doing business in a steady, permanent manner and one which promises to be of vast importance to the country in years to come. Over the prairies are dozens of schooners headed for the west where they are going to take advantage of the lands offered in great farms under the Kinkaid proposition. From the east are coming steadily a stream of people who will make their future homes in this country—with farms a section large upon which to place their cattle and the cattle that shall be theirs. From every town are going a few. From Norfolk several dozen in all have gone west into Holt, Rock and Wheeler counties. From towns all along the Northwestern railroad wagons are driving daily. There is no hubbub about the rush. It is just a slow, deliberate, serious, business like movement and those who go are going because they are in earnest. "Yes, I am going out into the Kinkaid government land," said a store keeper at Lynch the other day. "I have picked out a good ranch—one that had been enclosed by a cattle owner for pasture, and right in the heart of a rich section. A widow living near told me that it was government land—it was supposed to be a secret. And so I am going out there with a brother and together, we will raise cattle and make a good living."

MISS NETTIE ALLBERY MARRIED

Ceremony Took Place at the Home of the Bride's Parents at 10 O'Clock.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Albery, at 10 o'clock this morning, Rev. J. F. Poucher pronounced the words which united for life, Miss Nettie Albery and Mr. J. A. Sohlinger of Clyde, Kansas. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present to witness the ceremony. Miss Sohlinger, sister of the groom, was the only one present from out of town. The new Albery home was beautifully decorated for the event, sweet peas being the prevailing flower. The bride wore a gown of champagne pongee and being a beautiful young woman, she looked particularly attractive in her wedding dress. After a wedding breakfast of four courses, the happy couple were driven to the Northwestern station, where they took the train for Clyde, Kansas, and there they will immediately go to housekeeping. Mr. Sohlinger is a substantial business man of his home town. Among the enterprises in which he is interested is the telephone exchange and a grocery store. He is also a traveling man, representing a Kansas City house. Miss Albery has been one of the most popular young ladies in Norfolk, numbering every acquaintance as a friend. For a number of years she has been cashier in the Fair store, in which position she has been unusually expert. The couple were the recipients of a large number of beautiful gifts from their friends, who will wish them health, happiness and success in their new life.

Norfolk is pretty near deserted today, there being almost as many strangers as home people noticed on the streets. With a crowd of about eighty gone to Bonesteel on the excursion and almost as many attending the G. A. R. reunion at Pierce quite a hole has been made in the population that is more or less in evidence on the streets. The train that carried the Norfolk excursion to the Rosebud country was one of the heaviest that has yet gone through Norfolk, consisting of thirteen coaches and requiring two locomotives to draw it north. It was a couple of hours late and did not leave Norfolk until after 6 o'clock. At the Pierce reunion there are said to be thirty-five Norfolk firemen in uniform, besides a large delegation of Norfolk people who do not belong to the department. Another thing that adds to the deserted appearance of the streets is
