

SHOT AT BONESTEEL

TWO POLICEMEN RECEIVE BULLETS DURING ROW.

BALCON DOORS ARE BOLTED

REPORT OF ROW IN WHICH THIRTY SHOTS WERE FIRED.

REQUEST FOR STATE TROOPS

Clerk McPhaul Reports to Governor That Complete Lawlessness Prevails—Wounded Policeman is Resting Easier—More Trouble.

Bonesteel, July 23.—Special to The News: Policeman Eli Schoenbrough and Harris were shot last night in an effort to preserve order and prevent the gamblers and tough element from absolutely controlling the town.

Instantly the citizens, headed by Patsy Wagner, gambling concessionaire, started to round up the grafters. The shooting occurred at 4 o'clock this morning.

Magner, in his nervous excitement shot himself through the foot. Schoenbrough was shot in the head, making a scalp wound.

Harris was shot through the leg. The shooting took place in front of the Pike saloon.

The toughs were rounded up by Magner's friends and were made to run in front of the bullets.

The citizens organized to round up all of the toughs, some of them buying sixty feet of rope.

It was a wild night in Bonesteel, and there was all kinds of shooting. About sixty gamblers are in the toils.

A special Sioux City surgeon is coming to attend the wounds. Patsy Magner is the hero of the hour.

Troops have been asked for by Clerk McPhaul.

Bonesteel, July 23.—Two policemen, named Harrison and Standbrough, were shot at 4 o'clock this morning.

Harrison is perhaps fatally wounded.

Several arrests followed. At noon Harrison was resting easily.

The men who did the shooting ran around the rear of a saloon and escaped in the darkness.

A vigilance committee was at once formed, and arrests are being made every minute.

Reports have been received of a pitched battle at a sod shanty a mile from town, in which thirty shots were fired. No details have been secured.

The saloon near which the shooting occurred was the scene of another affray a night or so ago, and has been closed by the officers.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning John McPhaul, clerk in charge, sent a telegram to Werner at Pierre, secretary to Governor Herried who is out of the state, saying that the lawless element had gained complete control of Bonesteel.

"Last night," wired Clerk McPhaul, "a vigilance committee of citizens was organized and they are making splendid efforts to keep order. Two policemen were shot last night. The situation is quiet just at present but much uneasiness still exists. The citizen believe that troops are absolutely essential for the preservation of order, and believe that federal soldiers should be sent at once. In this I concur. You understand that as a federal officer I must request troops through the governor of the state."

The message of John McPhaul, clerk in charge, asks for troops until after the entry period, August 8.

Forty men were arrested and the ones who are convicted will be deported.

The vigilance committee sent about thirty of the grafters out of town on the Northwestern railroad.

The day's events are not done. C. H. Perry, of the Orin Porter Locating agency, the man who was notified he was marked, was shot at through his window. He saw the gun and dodged just in time to escape the two bullets that made neat holes through the glass.

Rev. Messrs. Kroons and Kelly, of Clay Center, Neb., were held up on the principal business street. Rev. Mr. Kroons proved a militant clergyman and drew a revolver and fired. Several shots were exchanged.

A telegram from Commissioner Richards was read, in which he said he was greatly of a mind to remove the office under any circumstances.

Sylvester C. Harrison, one of the wounded men, is from Wichita, Kansas. The address of Standbrough was not learned.

They were serving as special policemen when shot by a gang of thugs in front of one of the saloons. After the shooting the thugs escaped and have not yet been apprehended.

After the shooting a vigilance committee was organized and began rounding up the hoodlums.

The station house was soon full of suspects.

Last Day at Fairfax. Fairfax, S. D., July 23.—The last day of registration at this point, the county seat of Gregory county, opened with a clear sky and good sized crowd in the city to get their names into the box. The registration yesterday was heavy and will total well today. The announcement that the office at Bonesteel might be closed and removed to this point was received with excitement.

At Chamberlain.
Chamberlain, S. D., July 23.—The registration for the Rosebud drawing will be fully as heavy today as yesterday. An immense crowd was gathered at the points of registration as early as 4 o'clock, all anxious to have their names enrolled. The eagerness of some almost caused a period of strenuousness. An attempt was made to break into the line that had been waiting patiently for hours and only the prompt and fair action of the police averted trouble.

His Only Wish.
Nothing so touches the heart strings as the loss of a favorite child. Anyone who has experienced such a misfortune will sympathize with Mr. N. J. Lewis of Newberry, Florida, who writes: "I am so thankful that I have found a cure for dysentery. For three years I have been troubled with this disease. Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me and has effected a cure. When it comes back one dose is all that is necessary to set me right. I only wish I had known about this remedy a year ago when my dear little baby, one and a half years old, took dysentery and died in three days. The doctors tried to stop it but failed, and I buried my very heart strings with my child. No household should be without this valuable remedy." For sale by Leonard the druggist.

INSANITY CASE.
County Board Met at Madison to Act on Mrs. Poole's Case.

The county board of insanity met today at Madison to consider the case of Mrs. Poole, taken there from this city on the charge of insanity. The charge was filed by Dr. J. H. Mackay of this city. Mrs. Poole arrived in Norfolk from Council Bluffs and she is said to be suffering from an unbalanced mind. Dr. Mackay was consulted in regard to her case and filed the charge. He expected today that the board would release her because her home is not in this country. The board which met on the case were James Nichols, president; Dr. F. A. Long, medical examiner, and W. H. Field, clerk.

A telephone message received in the city today announces that Mrs. Poole has been discharged by the authorities at Madison.

GOT IN SWIFT CURRENT AT DAM

Walter McFarland Rescued From a Perilous Position by His Older Brother, Clarence.

Walter McFarland, while in swimming below the dam yesterday, took a dive from the apron and got in the current so that he could not get back to the starting point and was frightened for a moment and called out that he would need help. James Lindsay was at the dam and prepared at once to go in after the little fellow, but before he got in, Clarence McFarland, the older brother of the boy in danger was in the water.

Both boys had quite a time fighting the current for awhile, but finally the younger secured a hold on the suspenders that held up the bathing pants of his brother and was towed ashore at a shallow point and where the current was less swift. Both boys were pretty well exhausted when they reached land. Both boys have been in the water a great deal and are good swimmers.

"When I saw I couldn't make it against the current," said Walter, "I just commenced treading water and waited for assistance."

Both boys were considerably frightened by the occurrence and some of those on the bank were fearful that there would be a drowning for a time, but Mr. Lindsay, who watched the progress of the little fellow, said that he did not consider him in grave danger at any time and thought he would have got out by himself had no assistance been near.

ROSEBUD RUSH IS OVER

THIS SECTION HAS SEEN A BIT OF HISTORY MAKING.

BONESTEEL IS VERY PEACEFUL.

Forty-five of the Thugs Who Had Been Imprisoned are Deported into Nebraska Territory—Towns Along the Line Will Do Well to Provide.
[From Monday's Daily.]

The Rosebud rush is over. The mad influx of humanity, arriving from every quarter of the continent, for the purpose of getting a chance in the biggest land lottery that has ever been pulled off, has subsided. With the ending of the registration at the four points, Bonesteel, Fairfax, Yankton and Chamberlain, comes a finish to the scenes which will never be witnessed again in this or any other country. Those persons of the new northwest, who have been so close that they could watch the rushing and the heterogeneous mass of men and women assembled in Bonesteel, are fortunate in having seen an incident in the history of the United States.

At 3 o'clock Saturday night the registration for Rosebud lands came to an end. The offices at the four points were locked up and the books were closed. At 6 o'clock this morning John McPhaul, clerk of the registration at Bonesteel, passed through Norfolk enroute to Chamberlain, where the drawing will begin next Thursday and continue through four days. There will be 1,000 names drawn out each day for the first three days. After that the remaining names, which will have no chance at land, will be drawn just as fast as possible, for the purpose of proving to the persons who registered that each name was in the box and that each person had an equal chance.

The filing will begin August 8, at Bonesteel. The land office will be temporarily transferred from Chamberlain to Fairfax for this entry. Each person who files will be required to pay $160 down. The filing will be done at the rate of 100 per day. The ending of the week in Bonesteel, amid scenes of dramatic intensity, brought to a close a period of activity which has been seldom, and perhaps never known before and which will never occur again. The people of Bonesteel, after having seen their police force ruled and reigned with no let-up by the lawless gang that had gathered there, deserve great credit for having finally taken a firm stand, formed a vigilance committee and gave after the mob as it needed.

The respectable element of the town, together with the "square" gamblers of Bonesteel, at no time contemplated the outside graft which prevailed and which, growing bolder every day, finally threatened to tear up the whole town. After the crowd of grafters had been driven out, fearing that those remaining might burn up Bonesteel, the town trustees stationed 150 armed guards around the place for Saturday night.

One man was shot during the night. E. E. Moore, giving his home as Missouri, while entering a barber shop, received a bullet through the leg.

The forty-five thugs who were arrested Saturday, were tried before Judge Gaughen. One was held for shooting with intent to kill, and has been bound over to the grand jury. He gives his name as F. L. Harper of Nashville, Tenn. He was found to have a bullet in his shoulder. The police who were shot Saturday morning claimed that they winged a man they claimed they identified the fellow in Harper.

Deported into Nebraska.

The rest of the half hundred thugs were shut into a box car, according to reports, and were shipped out of the state into Nebraska. Towns along the Bonesteel branch of the Northwestern will do well to look to their protection for the next ten days on this account.

Among the fellows captured was a gang who had in their possession, it is said, a complete outfit of burglar's tools. They will also be held.

Butte Man Last to Register.

A man from Butte was the last to register. Monroe Clark came into the office just in the nick of time. He was No. 24,034 for the Bonesteel bunch.

Among the people whose pockets were picked during the last of the rush was H. W. Starlin of this city, who was touched for $50. The purse was in his inside pocket and the cloth of the garment was cut with shears so that the purse was easily taken in the crush.

Railroad Did Well.

The Northwestern railroad did well in handling the crowds of 40,000 people who passed between this city and Bonesteel. Not an accident occurred not a sign of a wreck, not a hold-up of a train nor any delays in moving the trains.

Superintendent Reynolds has cause to feel relieved after so long and severe a strain. With dozens of extra trains plying on the line, several in each direction all of the time, it was no easy matter at the dispatcher's office to keep the thing going as it ought.

There were few people in either Fairfax or Bonesteel yesterday who observed the Sabbath day by going to church. The hundred notaries who have led so strenuous a life for the past three weeks, making every train, night or day, always anxious to "make out" the papers for the incoming throng, after having yelled their lungs out during all of that period, were dead to the world immediately after 6 o'clock Saturday night and aren't moving about much even today.

The gamblers and grafters have begun to leave Bonesteel and there are few left in the town. Today saloons can be bought for much less than the original cost of purchase. Seventy-four of the Sioux City gamblers, who left at midnight Saturday night, arrived in Norfolk Sunday morning, laid over until noon and left for home. With them were many of the women who had flocked to Bonesteel. All night Saturday night these women grafters passed through the city, enroute to their homes, having "done" the Rosebud rush.

Among the "square" gamblers at Bonesteel, and there were some of the cleverest of the country, were Patsy Magner, of Sioux City; Tony Stanton, well known throughout the whole northwest as one of the best in the bunch; Red Cameron of Texas; Grasshopper Sam, and many others.

Today, according to all reports, Bonesteel is as quiet as a silent city on a Sunday afternoon.

The extra trains which have been necessary during the week, will be immediately discontinued. A new time card will probably be issued shortly.

Machinery for Copper Mine.

H. E. Owen returned Sunday evening from Holmes, Wyo., where he had been installing a plant of machinery for the Blanche Copper Mining company, of which he is president. The machinery just put in weighs 24 tons, and as it had to be transported by wagon to a height of 10,000 feet up the mountain, the difficulties of the situation may be understood. It consists of boiler, engine, hoist and pump. The company immediately commenced work with most encouraging prospects for a rich vein of ore. When Mr. Owen left Holmes Sunday morning, there was a heavy frost on the ground.

TOURNAMENT NEXT WEEK

NEBRASKA VOLUNTEER FIREMEN WILL BE IN NORFOLK.

LARGE NUMBER OF CONCESSIONS

Preliminaries to the Event are About Finished and Work Has Commenced on the Grounds—Many Running Teams are Expected.

The state volunteer firemen's tournament will be held in Norfolk Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, at which time there will be thousands of strangers in the city and business of all kinds will be more or less on the strenuous order.

With the near approach of the event the preliminary work is practically out of the way, but the immediate work of the tournament is only being commenced. Today workmen commenced on the erection of the grand stand at the grounds north of the tracks, which will be a large and commodious structure. The canvas fence will likewise be erected as soon as possible. The track is being placed in first class shape. It proved the fastest track in the state last year and a number of records were broken. It is hoped to further lower the records this year and some of the teams not in the winning last year are bracing up for a try at the high prizes with the determination to give the champions of last year a hard run for the honors. A number of teams are expected here this week to make a few practice runs on the track where the contests will be held and many of them will be on hand early next week.

Concessionaires will also begin coming in soon and establishing themselves for the increased crowds. The merry-go-round will soon be here, and the baby racks, and the side shows and shooting galleries, and next week the lemonade and ice cream stands will be erected and the men with the novelties will be on hand to get a share of the money that the crowd will have to spend.

The executive committee and some of the sub-committees having the tournament in charge met at the city hall Sunday afternoon and advanced the work in preparation for the tourney. The printing committee reported that the tickets were in press and would soon be ready for delivery. The committee was instructed to finish up its work this week.

The music committee reported that they had hired the Grand Island band and the Norfolk ladies' band for the entire three days of the tournament. The concerts will be given at a different location on Norfolk avenue each evening. In addition to these bands to remain for the entire three days there will be several delegations with their own bands to take part in the parade and perhaps to take in other events of the tourney.

The concessions committee reported that they had huge stacks of applications from people who wish to operate during the tournament, but that the majority of them will not be closed until the concessionaires arrive on the grounds. Nearly everything imaginable in the way of concessions has been spoken for and there will be a good income to the department from these sources.

V. A. Nenow has been chosen as one of the ticket sellers and the other has not yet been named. W. H. Widaman will have charge of the policing at the grounds and will be assisted by Ed. Brueggemann, Lew Bruce and S. L. Murphy. Tickets takers will be W. J. Ronse and Wm. Klug.

The committee will meet again Tuesday night for further work.
