VITAL TO FORT NIORARA

TO REMOVE OR NOT TO REMOVE, IS NOW THE QUESTION.

IT INTERESTS NORTH NEBRASKA

There are Three Military Posts in Nebraska and Economists are Making an Effort to Discontinue One, and the One Marked is Fort Niobrara.

FORT NIORARA, Aug. 26.—From a staff correspondent: Whether or not this military post, one of three in the state of Nebraska, shall remain and be made a permanent fort, or be removed, is just now an undecided problem, and one of vital interest to all of this section of Nebraska.

Because there are three posts in this state and none in some other states, the war department has of late taken half a notion to eliminate Fort Niobrara.

Congressman M. P. Kinkaid has just begun action by which it is hoped to rebuild the old fort here, and to put it, like old Fort Robinson and Fort Crook, on a permanent basis.

General Chaffee, head of the affairs, was here in person a few days ago and a definite announcement on his return to Washington is eagerly awaited here.

As a matter of state pride, it is hoped that the post will remain. This post adjoins a reservation which has no comparison in the United States. It originally comprised 64,000 acres and to this 33,000 acres were afterward added.

This reservation is so large that two bodies of soldiers, playing the role of enemies, can be camped twelve miles apart and still be on government land. This is the only post in the United States where this can take place.

The officers are well pleased with this post. It is argued in regard to the proposition that there are three posts in Nebraska, that where other states have no posts, still those same states have had dollars spent by Uncle Sam in fixing up the waterways where this state has had pennies.

Fort Niobrara has a baseball team open to all comers. It is anxious to meet Neligh, Tilden, Oakdale, or Plainview.

Colonel Hoyt, the prince in command here, is just back from Manila.

Married Man of Bassett Must Await the Recovery of His Alleged Victim.

BASSETT, Neb., Aug. 22.—Special to The News: Mr. Knoetzel had a warrant issued for Will Neiter, charging him with raping his youngest daughter Bertha, who is now confined to her bed with typhoid fever. Neiter, whose wife is an older sister of Bertha, is now in the county jail awaiting such time as the girl will be well enough to give evidence for his preliminary hearing.

TUESDAY TOPICS. Miss Ethel Hartley is on the sick list. Fred Karo went to Omaha on business.

Dr. A. H. Corbett of Madison had business in Norfolk. Miss Anna Shaw of Neligh visited Norfolk friends yesterday.

Leona Morey returned to Pierce today after a visit with Lucile Tracy. Jack Wells returned yesterday from West Point, where he had been visiting.

Messrs. John, Guy and Kimball Barnes and Charles Gerecke left this morning for the Yellow Banks on a camping outing.

B. F. Wood, editor of the Bonesteel Pilot, is in town today on his way to Hot Springs, S. D., where he will rest up from the fatiguing strenuousness of the past two months in Bonesteel. By comparison with what it was a month ago, he says Bonesteel is quiet, but he insists that it is still the leading town of that section of country and that it will always remain so.

Mrs. A. N. McGinnis was still alive this morning at her home on North Tenth street, but little hope for her recovery is expressed.

Miss Lucile Tracy entertained a number of friends last evening at her home on South Tenth street, in honor of Miss Leona Morey of Pierce, who has been visiting here the past week.

Miss Nina Walker was the victim of a very pleasant surprise party at her home on North Ninth street last night. A number of young folk planned and executed the affair and a jolly evening resulted.

Stanton lodge, M. B. A., elected A. A. Kearney and W. S. Bordner as delegates to the district convention which meets in this city September 6. Stanton is the home of Frank H. Scott, at present one of the directors of the national organization. His friends there and in Norfolk hope to see him reelected at the national convention.

A flurry of excitement was created in Wisner Saturday morning when a covered wagon, containing hunters and bird dogs, arrived in town and remained for a short time. A telephone message had preceded the wagon and the sports of the town were "dead next." The apparent hunters were merely game wardens, working a pe-

VALENTINE HANDLES CASH

SOLDIERS AND INDIANS ARE BOTH PAID THERE.

MONEY FOR ROSEBUD LANDS

Will be Received in a Few Days and Turned Over to the Indians—How Federal Money is Received and Taken Care of at That Place.

VALENTINE, Neb., Aug. 26.—From a staff correspondent: Valentine will get a good share of the money which the United States government is soon to pay the Rosebud tribe of Sioux, for the reservation which has just been ceded by the redmen to the whites. Within a few days it is expected that a little package of currency, in payment for that same, will be received from the federal authorities.

As the Indians of the Rosebud who live just a few miles from here, spend a great deal of their money in Valentine, it is anticipated that the Rosebud land will flow into this city.

Only Thursday of this week, a regular payment was made to the Indians. The money, amounting to between $35,000 and $60,000, was received here by American express, was guarded in the depot until morning by a squad of Indians with guns and very early in the day it was taken, in a lumber wagon, surrounded by armed, uniformed Indians, out to the reservation.

It is a picturesque scene—the arrival of this money from the government. When the train pulls in at 1:16 a. m., a few of the Indians who have been sent for it, with their loaded guns ever in readiness, sit there in the station eyeing that package of money every instant until sunrise. Then the guards line up and with a whoop the redskins, their cash in hand, drive through the streets to their home.

It is a singular fact that the Indian prefers a silver dollar to a paper dollar, and prefers 20 nickels to a silver dollar. The glitter and ring of the metal sounds good to his ears, even though he well knows that the value is the same.

Valentine gets more government money than that of the Sioux. Fort Niobrara, a federal post five miles northeast of here, with nearly a thousand officers and men, is a prosperous little community which is the source of perhaps $20,000 a month in trade for Valentine. This money comes to the post as regularly as the leaf is torn off the calendar, and within a few days much of it is in circulation right here at the county seat of Cherry county.

This money for the post comes by express, also. On the day when it arrives, the local depot agent receives a telegram when the train reaches Norfolk, which says simply "Meet the train tonight." The agent knows what that means and at midnight he is up to meet that train. He locks the money inside the company safe, a squad of soldiers, detailed from the post, guard it with guns till daylight, and then it is tossed into a wagon and driven to the fort.

All it comes in paper bills in values of $1, $2, $5, $10. At the post is the paymaster, who travels from one post to another and arrives here from Crawford. Every man calls for his money and his pay is counted out, while guards point loaded guns at him.

All of this money comes in brand new bills and shortly there is an abundance of it flying in all directions.

Valentine would miss materially either the Indians or the soldiers.

COMPLETING CELLS. Warden Beemer Able to Place Jail Birds Under Lock and Key.

LINCOLN, Aug. 23.—The last work on the new steel cells which have been installed at the state penitentiary is being completed. The painters are hard at work covering the bare steel rods and bars with paint. Warden Beemer denies that it is his intention to have a grand opening. He said that he would reverse the usual order and have a grand closing.

Since the completion of the cells, the warden for the first time in the history of his administration has been able to place all the convicts in his charge under lock and key. The delay in placing contracts for the cells and the dilatoriness of the cell manufacturers led to a prolonged wait for the cages and gave rise to discussion of the possibilities of a mutiny. With the new cells the desperate men who in many cases have been permitted to sleep in the vacant cell house, will be kept closely locked in during the nights.

SOME DELAY. Work of Construction of New Western Normal Making Slow Progress.

LINCOLN, Aug. 23.—The work on the Kearney normal school is making slow progress. According to the statement of an official who has just returned from that city, the footings for the walls have not yet been completed, although it is more than three months since the contract was let. The contractors are at work preparing the cement blocks which are to enter into the construction of the building. Some delay was experienced

FUSIONISTS IN BOONE COUNTY

Democrats and Populists Place Hon. James T. Brady in the Field for Senator.

ALBION, Neb., Aug. 23.—Special to The News: The democrats and pops held their convention here Saturday for the purpose of nominating their senatorial candidates for this district. The democrats endorsed the county ticket put in the field by the pops a few weeks ago and Senator James T. Brady was chosen by the two conventions to be the nominee for the race this fall.

Brady was elected last term by a good majority and it is conceded that he will make the strongest race of any man that could be put upon the ticket.

A good crowd attended the conventions and representative delegates were here from all parts of the district. Senator Brady gave an elaborate address at the close of the meeting.

TOWNS OF THE ROSEBUD

JUST NOW HERRICK IS GREATLY IN THE LEAD.

GREGORY IS THE COMING TOWN. Situated in a Rich Agricultural Country, Gregory Will in Time Outstrip the Others and Will be County Seat When the County is Divided.

BONESTEEL, S. D., Aug. 22.—Special to The News: Of the new towns on the Rosebud reservation, the first one out from Bonesteel is Herrick, just now greatly in the lead. It has three fine wells of water at a depth of about forty feet, affording plenty of good clear cold water. This town now has six lumber yards, a hardware store, several general stores, restaurants, a bank, and seems to be doing a lively business.

The second town of Burk is handicapped in two ways—small territory to draw from and a friction among the boomers of the town.

The third town of Gregory is located in the best farming district on the reservation, peace prevailing among its organizers, good water at a depth of twenty feet, a black loam with a clay subsoil. This is certain in time to become the leading town on the reservation, especially if the county is divided, when it will become a county seat.

The fourth town of Eden is situated on a beautiful table of land at the head of Bull creek, surrounded by many fine farms.

The last town of Dixon has just been heard from. It is planted on the northwest school quarter of section 16, town 99, range 73. This town is fathered by Mr. Wilcox of the White river district, who claims this will be the terminal of the Northwestern.
