Republican Candidate for the United States Senate Will Make a Speech in the Auditorium—His Eloquence is Entertaining. [From Wednesday's Daily.] Congressman E. J. Burkett of Lincoln, republican candidate for United States senator, will speak in Norfolk on Monday evening, October 24, and those who know of Mr. Burkett's eloquence will need no second invitation to attend the meeting and hear his presentation of the issues of the campaign...

George B. Christoph in it. He was Riding in the Third Coach of the Train That Wrecked. George B. Christoph returned to Norfolk after an extended trip to St. Louis, Chicago and other points, Mr. Christoph was on the Northwestern train which was wrecked at Bennington. He was riding in the third coach when the accident occurred. He was not hurt at all, and says that he thought the train was merely making a regular stop.

How's This? We offer one hundred dollars reward for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

Can You Eat? J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chriesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health."

Suppose it is true, as the fusionists assert, that the revenue law is not popular with the majority of the voters; suppose it is true that the law is not desirable from any viewpoint, does the average voter suppose that it will be changed any more quickly and emphatically by a fusion legislature than by a legislature of the republican choice?

President Roosevelt has been painted by the democrats as a bloody son of Mars, ready and eager for war on every occasion because it happened that he was able to be of service to his country and an oppressed people, by participating in the fight for the freedom of Cuba...

The promptness with which some men comply with the command of robbers to "hold up hand" is sometimes taken as evidence that they rather expected the visit of the highwaymen. The ordinary man commanded to hold up his hands might comply as promptly as possible, but a brief hesitancy would not be unexpected while the command was working its way to the hands that are ordered up.

A Pennsylvania judge holds that when a railroad employe falls asleep from physical weakness from illness, or from weariness from long hours of steady employment, he is still responsible for any wreck or accident that may occur by reason of his sleep. It looks like a cruel decision, but perhaps, after all, it is not more cruel to punish the man in control of the train than it is for the same man to punish hundreds of those in his charge because of his weariness.

The World-Herald is as busily engaged as usual, during state and national campaigns, in making votes for

PRESIDENT COMMERCIAL CLUB, OF LOUISIANA, SAYS:

"THERE IS NO FINER MEDICINE THAN PE-RU-NA."

Suffered With Kidney and Liver Trouble for Twelve Years—Pe-ru-na Cured Him—Feels Better Than for Twenty Years. Hon. William Washburn, President of the Louisiana Commercial Club, and a very well known man of New Orleans, La., writes from 637 Canal Street: "I am satisfied that there is not a finer medicine placed before the public to-day than Pe-ru-na. I have been troubled for nearly twelve years with kidney and liver trouble, and at times I have been a pretty sick man, unable to attend to my duties. I had about made up my mind that no medicine could help me, when one of your booklets was brought to my attention...

IN JAIL IN OLD MEXICO

FORMER NORFOLK CONDUCTOR STILL LANGUISES THERE. HE WAS ON A WRECKED TRAIN

And Was Arrested For it—The Witnesses Disappeared and He is Unable to Get Out—Scott Holbrook is Going Down to Investigate.

Scott Holbrook is planning to go to Old Mexico within the next few months, where he will investigate conditions generally and locate if the place suits him. A number of Mr. Holbrook's former railroad friends are in that country now, working on Mexican railroads, and it is through them that he has become interested in the nation south of Texas.
