SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hight died this morning. The Gregory county fair, which has been in progress at Homestead for two days, closes tonight. There have been a large number of excellent events on the schedule, including pony races, dances, and other frontier sports.

Where is the good roads committee? asked a Norfolk man this morning who drove down town. The slow drizzling rain of the past few days has placed the streets in an exceedingly sticky condition and heavy vehicles today required four horse teams to draw them.

Mrs. H. T. Holden entertained a company of friends yesterday in honor of Dr. Holden's mother, who has been spending the summer here and expects to leave soon for her home in Omaha. The ladies brought their work and enjoyed a social visit until 5:30, when they were seated at small tables and served with a dainty supper.

The Elks last night held an informal farewell social session for G. K. Williams, who left the city today for Chicago, after which he goes to New Orleans. Mr. Williams has superintended the work on the government building here for more than a year and has made many warm friends in Norfolk during that time. A number of speeches were made, to which Mr. Williams responded.

WEDDED AT BASSETT.

Popular Young People Joined in Holy Wedlock.

Bassett, Neb., Oct. 14.—Special to The News: Mr. Penrose Romig and Miss Ollie Cobler were married in the parlors of the Hotel Whiton in this city.

Mr. Romig, assistant agent in the C. & N. W. depot, is one of Bassett's most popular and highly respected young men. He is likewise town marshal, and his parents live at West Point.

Miss Cobler is the daughter of J. M. Cobler, living south of town, but has made her home in Bassett for the last two years. She is respected and highly esteemed by her large circle of acquaintances.

About sixty-five invited guests assembled at the place before mentioned at 8:30 to witness the ceremony performed by the Rev. C. C. Lueb.

TO BUILD ROSEBUD HOUSES

Norfolk Men Who Drew Claims Will Begin Next Week.

Now that the days have arrived when relinquishment of the Rosebud farms is possible under the law, there is beginning to be an influx into the new country of those who want to settle upon it. The land office at Chamberlain is now busy with those who have purchased relinquishments, and very soon the reservation will begin to look like a world's fair, with hundreds of new houses dotting it from one end to the other.

Fred Salter has just returned from Chamberlain, where he went on business connected with land. He will accompany his brother, C. B. Salter, who drew a claim, to Homestead next Monday. From there they will journey by wagon to Dallas, where they will erect a new house upon the lucky quarter. Robert Utter will also leave for his farm, near Gregory, where he will prepare this fall in such a way that next winter, when the six months' limit is up, he can move in. City Clerk McFarland has been gone for some time.

George Davenport, of this city, was another of the lucky ones, having drawn claim No. 1060. In all there were sixteen Norfolk people who drew.

THE Y. W. C. A.

Two National Secretaries are Expected at State Convention.

It will be recalled that a recent issue announced that the annual state convention of the Young Woman's Christian association would be held at University Place, October 21-23. Many excellent speakers will appear on the program, the most important being two secretaries of the American (national) committee, who will make two addresses each, besides some short talks. These secretaries come with broad experience and are always a source of great inspiration both to an audience and to individuals. There will be three Bible hours, probably in charge of a popular professor from the state university, whose work has been widely and favorably known in the state. It will be a particular pleasure to hear also Mrs. Anna F. Byers, general secretary of the large city association in Omaha, who besides making an important address on Saturday will occupy the pulpit on Sunday morning. Mrs. Byers is well known in Nebraska through the splendid work at the head of which she stands in Omaha. Miss Goudey, the state secretary, needs no introduction to the young women of the college and cities where she has visited. She will travel over the southern part of the state before convention, organizing and visiting associations, and working up as large delegations as possible. Miss Florence N. Hanson, general secretary of the Lincoln city association, will make an important address, touching the world's work, which she has had opportunity of studying during her travel abroad. Miss Myra Withers, the successful secretary of the state university association, will assist in many ways to make the convention enthusiastic and helpful. At this time Miss Abbie Burns, who has the chair of modern languages at Nebraska Wesleyan university, will formally take her place as chairman of the state committee to which position she was elected while studying abroad, several months ago. Miss Burns is well known as an efficient worker and popular professor and comes to this place with experience in both local and foreign work. Perhaps the best known of all is Mrs. Naomi Easterday of Lincoln, a member of the American committee and one of the founders of the association movement. There will be a score or more of prominent women of the state, members of faculties, state and advisory committees and city boards, as well as large numbers of local workers and alumnae.

A further announcement of the program will follow.

Hope for the Dyspeptic.

Everyone who has realized the discomfort and distress which accompany a disarrangement of the digestive organs will rejoice with Mrs. S. Maey, of Port Arthur, Ontario, in the relief she has obtained after having suffered for so long a time. She says: "I have suffered for the last four or five years from stomach trouble and dyspepsia, experiencing great pain. I took Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and can truthfully say they have done me a great deal of good. I feel like a different woman as a result of using them, and the after-effect is never unpleasant. These tablets are for sale by Leonard the druggist.

WISNER BEAT WEST POINT

HARD FUGHT FOOTBALL GAME YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

THE FINAL SCORE WAS 11 TO 6

Game Was Especially Interesting Because the Two Evidens Had Played a Draw Only the Week Before, the Score Being 0 to 0.

West Point, Neb., Oct. 17. Special to The News: In a hard fought football game here yesterday afternoon, Wisner's crack team defeated the local eleven by a score of 11 to 6. The game was very close throughout. Wisner sent a large delegation of players, who made the woods ring with their exclamations. The game was played on the new park. It was an especially interesting contest because of the fact that the two teams had played a tie game only a week ago at Wisner. The game at that time was 0 to 0.

A Bill for a Joint Resolution recommending to the electors of the state to vote at the next election of members of the legislature for or against a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska in accordance with Section 2, Article 15, of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Be it resolved by the legislature of the State of Nebraska:

1. That it is deemed necessary to call a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

3. That at such next election of members of the legislature on the ballot of each elector voting at such election, shall be printed or written in such manner that the elector can indicate his preference under the law the words: "FOR calling a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska," and "AGAINST calling a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska," and if a majority voting, at said election shall vote for a convention, the legislature shall, at its next session, provide by law for calling the same.

J. Geo. W. Marsh, secretary of state of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, and providing for a convention for the revision of said Constitution of the State of Nebraska, is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled bill passed by the Twenty-eighth session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as it appears from said original bill, on file in my office, and that said proposed amendment and revision of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Nebraska, for their adoption or rejection, at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the 8th day of November, A. D. 1904.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska.

Done at Lincoln this 5th day of July, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Four, and the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Twenty-Ninth and of this state the Thirty-eighth.

(Great Seal) Geo. W. Marsh, Secretary of State.

TUESDAY TOPICS.

The new Baptist church was dedicated at Anoka on Sunday.

Millard Green, the drayman, is quite seriously sick, the result of having strained himself in doing some heavy lifting.

Mrs. Henry Piller, who has been suffering from a serious attack of rheumatism at her home on Braasch avenue, is now considerably improved.

R. A. Haskins, formerly of Spencer, has moved to Anoka and taken charge of the Anoka Herald. Mr. Haskins has newspaper ability and will no doubt give the people of Anoka a good service.

Sam Goon is up and about today, after a severe attack of rheumatism. He is walking with a cane. Yesterday he was unable to get out of bed. "It was the first time in seven years that I missed work," said Sam.

The meeting of Norfolk citizens at the city hall last night was attended by about fifty business men and discussion continued for an hour. It was finally determined to adjourn until such time as Mr. Pardonner, of New York, who is now in Omaha, can be procured. That meeting will take place tomorrow.

The I. O. O. F. grand lodge opens its annual session in Lincoln today. The following will represent Norfolk lodge No. 46: H. L. Spaulding, S. R. McFarland, and Sidney Robertson, delegates, and George N. Bees, past grand master of the state. Mrs. Anna Weitz represents the Rebekah lodge at the state gathering of that organization, auxiliary to the Odd Fellows.

The October specialty in the weather line last night was a regular June thunder storm which, besides making a brilliant electric display, settled something over an inch of moisture on an already over-saturated country. This brings the total rain for the month to more than an inch and a half, which is unusual for the first half of October. This morning the wind has blown to the north and the temperature was quite materially reduced.

V. M. Robertson is suffering from a badly bruised finger on his right hand, which prevents him from shaking hands with the hand that ought to be shaken. Three weeks ago he fell striking this finger. The bruise still continues, and the pain today extends as far as his shoulder. Nothing serious, however, is anticipated by his physicians. Mr. Robertson is shaking hands with himself today because of the fact that he isn't running for governor. In that event he realizes that he would be forced to shake hands continually with a lot of people, which would send sharp aches through his system each time. If he had been running for governor, though, he would not have fallen down.

Today from Grand Island.

Ed. Hunter, who has been quite sick, is very much improved today.

ANOTHER HORSE STOLEN

THREE MILES NORTH OF NORFOLK, FROM A PASTURE.

NO TRACK FOR HOUNDS TO TAKE

Missing Animal Was Taken, It is Thought, Before the Rain—Was First Noticed Yesterday—Second Horse Within a Week.

Another horse stolen has occurred within the last few days in the vicinity of Norfolk. The animal was taken from a pasture three miles north of the city, two miles south of Appleton, and so far as is known, the first notice that he was gone was brought to the city yesterday, when police headquarters were notified. There was no definite track, however, and the case was quite a puzzle.

Sherriff Clements of Madison was in the city and went out to the spot, but could find nothing to give a clue. The wire fence had been cut, although the gate could have walked out the gate. It is thought the animal was taken before the rain, as it has not been seen for three or four days.

Mr. Stein did not recall the name of the owner.

This is the second horse stolen within a week.

The Practice of Medicine Becoming Specialized

The Physicians of the Large Cities the First to Adopt it and There are Now Many Throughout the Country.

Specialism is the idea of the day. Not that every physician can be a specialist, nor would it be justifiable in every doctor becoming one, but there are advantages that can be derived only by a special practice which is applicable to certain communities even though the physician himself is not a bona fide resident of that immediate vicinity. Small towns and the country are the principal communities in which a specialist could scarcely prosper, but as practiced by some specialists, that of going from one city to another, making his visits and seeing his patients at regular appointed intervals, one can derive advantages far superior to those received in many instances by a visit to the cities.

We cite, for instance, that of Dr. Caldwell, a specialist of Chicago, who is and has been making regular visits to our community for the last two years. Dr. Caldwell came well recommended and has succeeded in establishing a practice far beyond her expectations. She has made many cures and has succeeded in building up a reputation and practice among those whom she has cured that would be hard to get away from her. Dr. Caldwell is a lady from the new school. Her experience and training have been gained by many years of practice and the treatment of a vast number of cases. She confines herself to the treatment of chronic, lingering and deep seated ailments. She pretends to cure only such diseases as she has had sufficient experience in handling, and does not go into that class of incurable diseases which in many cases are useless to bother with.

As a result of long experience, Dr. Caldwell is thoroughly familiar with her specialties. In the treatment of cancer, consumption, heart disease, nervousness and female diseases, there are very few specialists better qualified than Dr. Caldwell. Some of her cures seem almost like miracles. People from far and near consult her as she makes these regular visits and she is always busy from the time she arrives until the time of her departure. It is claimed by Dr. Caldwell's friends that she can diagnose a disease without a question. This being

SUGGESTS CONCRETE GUTTER

Little Town of Randolph Has One Costing More Than Here.

It is supposed that the town of Randolph, during his visit to that little city, which is a new village, Mr. Doyland was very much impressed with the remarkably clean streets, the excellent drainage arrangements and the neat appearance of the town in general. The cause of this impression was a concrete gutter, two inches long, which was built for the express purpose of carrying off the surplus water.

Investigating the cost of the gutter, Mr. Doyland found that it was about twice as much as it would be in Norfolk for the reason that sand, gravel, and other material needed in making the gutter here to be dumped into Randolph, whereas there is a large quantity of all these things in Norfolk. Thus, the gutter cost fourteen cents per square foot, while here it could be built for a half cent, without a doubt.

At the rate of eight cents per square foot, it would cost property owners not more than $7 or $8 to construct the gutter, along each lot. Citizens and business men who have spoken of the matter would be glad to see something of this sort done in Norfolk. While the ditch at present carries off the water well, it is thought that with its improved appearance, permanency and increased capacity, without the necessity of cleaning it out every little while, would make the cement gutter a profitable investment.
