

PRINTING THE BALLOTS

PRINTERS SUFFER HARDSHIP ON ACCOUNT OF THE LAW. MUST PASTE EVERY BALLOT

The Ballots in Some Counties Will be Over Six Feet in Length—There is no Press in Nebraska Big Enough to do the Work—Girls Wanted.

Fifty thousand ballots, for five counties, will be turned out next week in The News office, and to do the pasting on them, it is estimated that ten persons will be required for two days.

The matter of making the ballots all in one column was taken to the supreme court for a decision. The court determined that the law on the matter was very plain and that it would be illegal to allow any other kind of a ballot.

"This is too important an election to run chances of the ballots being contested and thrown out on a technicality. It was represented to us that there is not a printing press in the state big enough to do the work, but if that is the case they ought to change the law. They can not expect the courts to overlook the law on that point."

FRIDAY FACTS.

The South Dakota state fair will be moved from Yankton to Huron. Ferdinand Haase is reported to be seriously sick with rheumatism. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wachter are joyous over the advent of a son and heir at their home, the firstborn.

visit at Sterling, Ill., and has accepted a position with the Watkins Remedy company, to travel in this territory under James Gildea. John F. Newhall of Tilden, the fusion candidate for representative to the legislature from Madison county, was in the city making the acquaintance of the men with the votes.

TO DEDICATE NEW CHURCH

New German Evangelical Structure at Hoskins October 30. The new German Lutheran Evangelical church in Hoskins will be dedicated on October 30. A dinner will be held in the old church and a fine time is anticipated.

Battle Creek.

W. A. Sunderland is fixing up Henry Borchers' residence, four miles south of town, in elegant shape by applying a new coat of paint on the outside and inside. The inside also will be decorated with modern wall paper.

Somehow we are really orphans in Battle Creek. The republicans have no paper to defend their cause and our only home paper, the Enterprise, doesn't get hot enough to make us mad. The only honey we taste, we have to sip from 'The Norfolk News'.

Harry Overecker returned Monday from Rock Rapids, Iowa, where he was at the bedside of his father for nearly a week. Mr. Overecker states that his father, who is quite an old gentleman, is getting better.

John Rector and family went to look over their old home in Grayson county, Virginia, Tuesday.

Charles Rice of Norfolk was in Battle Creek on business. It is reported that C. D. Livingston sold his barber shop business to Doy Curas.

Mr. Charles Hansen and Miss Queen Eggleston were married Saturday at 4 o'clock at the Madison house in Madison, by the bride's father, Rev. O. Eggleston, minister of the M. E. church of this place. The young man is the oldest son of our pioneer blacksmith, C. E. Hansen, and a partner with his father. The bride—a real queen—is the youngest daughter.

Joseph Brozcek is moving his house on his farm in Highland precinct a couple of rods further east and will build a large addition onto it. William Lowe is engineering the moving.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Cossairt of Tilden were visiting here Sunday and Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cossairt's sister, Mrs. William Maher.

Otto Eucker and sister, Miss Louisa of Lindsay, were visiting here Sunday at the home of their brother, Herman Eucker, four miles west of town.

Rev. J. Hoffman will leave Tuesday for Concord, this state, to attend the sessions of the German Lutheran ministers' conference of north Nebraska. Rev. Hoffman is president of this conference.

W. H. Welsh, one of our colored gentlemen and for awhile chief cook and bottle washer in the Battle Creek house, left Tuesday for Des Moines, where he got a higher 'situation'.

J. M. Giltner left Tuesday for his old home in Kentucky. He will travel over all the eastern states and also will see the wonders of the world's fair.

Rural Route No. 4.

The heavy rain has been very hard on the farmers who have been in the ground, as it robs the roots of their sweetness. Farmers on this route have been fortunate in securing an early date to have their beets received.

Miss Maude Tannehill, who is teaching in Stanton, spent Sunday with her parents. School in district No. 49 commenced Monday with an attendance of sixteen. Miss Ethel Long of Norfolk is the teacher.

N. L. Taylor is pushing the work on his new house as rapidly as possible. He expects to move in about January 1.

G. W. Evans was home with his family over Sunday. Henry Clark of Erina, this state, who has been visiting Frank Kilmer, returned home Monday.

Ed. Wagner is home from his claim in Garfield county. He has been putting up hay and making a sod house and pastures. He expects to move soon. F. Z. McGinnis, road supervisor of district No. 16, has been doing some grading along a few of the low places on this route.

WORLD'S FAIR AWARDS

NEBRASKA FARES VERY WELL IN AGRICULTURAL PRIZES. TAKES SEVERAL GRAND AWARDS

A Number of North Nebraska Exhibitors Win Recognition—Gold, Silver and Bronze Medals are Given Out. Norfolk Got One.

Nebraska appears to have fared well and North Nebraska made a good showing in the capture of prizes and awards at the world's fair at St. Louis, a list of the exhibitors winning prizes and medals on agricultural products having just been received from H. G. Shoeld, secretary of the state commission.

In grand prizes Nebraska was ahead on a number of important agricultural awards. It received grand prizes as follows: State of Nebraska, Nebraska pavilion, Agricultural palace, State of Nebraska, general agricultural installation.

State of Nebraska, moving picture exhibition of Nebraska resources and industries, State of Nebraska, collective exhibit of corn, all varieties, State of Nebraska, collective exhibit of about and threshed grains, State of Nebraska, collective exhibit of wild and tame grasses and forage crops, State of Nebraska, collective exhibit of seeds, all varieties.

State of Nebraska, collective exhibit of twenty-six products from corn. In gold medals Nebraska won, the state, county and associated exhibits receiving the following, while there was a long string of individual collectors, receiving awards:

State of Nebraska, general exhibit of four pyramids of corn, State of Nebraska, thirty-seven jars of shelled field sugar corn, Nebraska State university, collective exhibit of one hundred jars of threshed grains and seeds, Nebraska State university, Deed's yellow corn, Johnson county, collective exhibit of corn.

Kearney, Business Men's association, alfalfa. Among the individual exhibitors to receive gold medals was C. Halchin of Albion who got the high award for his rye.

In the silver medals Nebraska received an award on its exhibit of butter and one on its exhibit of honey. The following individual exhibitors received silver medals:

J. M. Buckmaster of Creighton, on oats, C. Hutchin, Albion, rye, W. Hainers, Albion, speltz, S. Keen, Creighton, barley, R. Jewell, Creighton, wheat, C. McLean, Atkinson, wheat, D. Marcel, Albion, wheat.

On bronze medals the following were awarded to North Nebraska people: John Munnich, Hooper, corn, G. B. Nicks, Creighton, Russian oats, C. Ord, Albion, oats, A. Fishback, Norfolk, corn, G. Goodwin, Creighton, speltz.

In the department of education the school for the deaf at Omaha took the grand prize, and the state took the gold prize on the general educational installation and on the exhibit of the state federation of woman's clubs.

A number of gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded on the educational exhibit, and in the department of mining one silver and two bronze medals were given Nebraska.

The awards in the departments of live stock and horticulture are to be announced later.

IN LOVE WITH MARRIED WOMAN

Acts as Escort of Prominent Norfolk Lady in Husband's Absence. Fritz is devoted. He is in love with a prominent married woman who lives in a cozy home on the west side.

He claims that he is not altogether to blame for trying to alienate her affections, for it was she who made the first move toward their becoming acquainted. Since that time—and she met him on the street—he has grown to care for her in a really earnest manner; has come to be really quite as devoted to her as could possibly be.

He acts as her escort at parties during the absence of her husband—for her husband is a traveling man and is away a great deal of the time. Yesterday he created something of a sensation by going with her to a party to which ladies alone had been invited.

When he found that the affair was exclusive, he stood around on the front porch and waited. Strangest of all, the little woman seemed in no way embarrassed when she was questioned as to her divided attention. Instead, she merely patted Fritz on the head and told him he was a good dog. Fritz wagged his tail.

Sold too Soon.

E. T. Stringer, an uncle of the senior, was a Butte visitor Wednesday. He has been a traveling salesman for over forty years and gets around as lively as any of them. He invested in some 1700 acres of Nebraska land some years ago, but let go of it when the price reached $10 per acre, and now feels "sore" over the let-go as the same land is worth today from $60 to $80 per acre.—Butte Gazette.

Best Treatment of a Cold.

Hunt the world over and you will not find anything better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold. When you take it you do not have to remain indoors but can go about your duties as usual. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by Leonard the druggist.

Fly Nets.

A discount of from 15 to 20 per cent on all flynets the next thirty days. Now is the time to buy them. Paul Nordwig.

Battle Creek.

Mrs. Lizzie Carrabine is building a new brick foundation under the north addition to her residence on Depot street.

John A. Wright went to Keya Paha county and returned Friday with two carloads of elegant steers, which he is going to dispose of to stock feeders. James Conley of Norfolk, accompanied by his brothers, John of Alliance, and Pat of Deadwood, were visiting here Thursday.

Miss Martha Hengstler was visiting here Friday with her brother, Andrew Hengstler. Hon. F. W. Richardson was a business visitor in the southern part of the county the latter part of the week.

After about a week's visit, Uncle Joe Tiedgen left again Friday for his old home in Pleasant View, Mo. Mr. Tiedgen, who has four sons and two daughters living in this vicinity said if good health stays with him he will come again for another visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Buscobel, Wis., are visiting here with relatives, George Brechler, Fred Brechler and Mrs. L. E. Metz. Miss Kate Koenig accompanied them for a visit with her uncle, Fred Miller.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eyle, Jr., was christened in the Lutheran church Sunday morning.

A. G. Moyer lost his gold spectacles between here and Grove precinct eight miles west. Martin Dinkel of Blakely was visiting here Friday with relatives.

A fine $250 piano arrived here Friday for use in the high school. Miss Gertrude Wade, assistant principal, is the expert on the instrument.

William J. Newman, one of James McMichael's stepsons, living four miles northwest, has moved to town and occupies a house in east Battle Creek.

Henry Burch, who went to Portland, Ore., last spring to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Hansel, returned Thursday. Mr. Burch is ill at the Best hotel as a result of injuries to his hip, received while he was traveling. He is said to be in a critical condition.

Miss Margaret Lund, who went to an Omaha hospital for an operation for appendicitis about three weeks ago, is home again and enjoying good health and it is presumed that she will be seen soon again on the street.

William Crowell died here of old age disability. He was about seventy-five years of age and came to Battle Creek ten years ago. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Bert Crowell of this place and Sam Crowell of Omaha. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. O. Eggleston of the M. E. church and the remains were laid to rest in the Union cemetery. Mr. Crowell was a native of New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Musser arrived here Friday from Rule Retreat, Va., and intend to make this their future home. Mr. Musser was out here three years ago.

LOANS AGAIN IN NORFOLK.

Durland Trust Company Re-enters the Field Here After Ten Years. After a period of ten years during which they have made no loans in Norfolk, the Durland Trust company has again entered that field of commercial activity. Today the firm announces that it is again ready to make loans on Norfolk property, both business property and residence. They offer to loan 40 per cent of the value of the property at low rates.

A. J. Durland has loaned more money in Norfolk than any other person. Perhaps his loans have amounted to two or three times as much as any other firm's. He has long held the confidence of the community on account of his firm, substantial business methods. The company now desires to loan money and Norfolk parties who can make use of cash at this time will find it to advantage to consult the Durland Trust company.

Hope for the Dyspeptic.

Everyone who has realized the discomfort and distress which accompany a disarrangement of the digestive organs will rejoice with Mrs. S. Maey, of Port Arthur, Ontario, in the relief she has obtained after having suffered for so long a time. She says: "I have suffered for the last four or five years from stomach trouble and dyspepsia, experiencing great pain. I took Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and can truthfully say they have done me a great deal of good. I feel like a different woman as a result of using them, and the after-effect is never unpleasant. These tablets are for sale by Leonard the druggist."

Fly Net Sale.

I will sell flynets for the next thirty days at a discount of from 15 to 20 per cent. I am overstocked with them and they must go. Paul Nordwig.

WM. ERNST & SON.

F. C. CALLAHAN, Auctioneers. Graf, Johnson Co., Neb.

Again We want to call your attention to the fact that we want to send you samples of the cloths, that we make our Men's and Boys' clothing of. We want to send these samples to you so that you can sit down at home and pick them to pieces, burn them, "chew the rag" as it were, to see if you can find any cotton in them. Or better still, carry them to your home merchant and compare them with his goods and let him try and find any CHEAT or SHODDY in them.

TO WORLD'S FAIR NO CHANGE OF CARS VIA UNION PACIFIC AND WABASH LINES Through Electric Lighted Sleepers to St. Louis and return

Every One Should Know the great advantages offered by through car service on a journey east. If you can board a car at your home town and not leave it until you reach Chicago, it is an advantage worth considering. This can be done from any point on the main line of the Union Pacific Railroad by asking for tickets via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry.
