

A FAIRFAX SUICIDE

PEARL PORTER, ASSISTANT POSTMASTER, TAKES HIS LIFE.

HE WAS AT AN OMAHA RESORT

PROMINENT NORTHWEST MAN SENDS BULLET INTO HEAD.

FINANCIAL WORRY WAS CAUSE

Starting for Norfolk, Apparently, Pearl Porter of Fairfax, S. D., Went to Omaha, Entered a Resort in Good Spirits, and Died.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 17.—Special to The News: Pearl Porter, assistant postmaster at Fairfax, S. D., suicided at a resort in this city last evening by shooting himself through the head. The shooting occurred at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and Mr. Porter died at about 6:15 in Clarkson hospital where he had been taken.

The self-slain man arrived in Omaha from Fairfax and was apparently in good spirits. He is a man between thirty-six and forty years of age. He went to a resort early in the afternoon. He seemed to be in a cheerful mood. He listened to the music and there was nothing to indicate an intended tragedy. He spent some money and, left alone in a room, was later found to have a bullet through his head.

He was taken to Clarkson hospital, where he lingered until about 6:15 o'clock, when he succumbed to the self-inflicted bullet. The bullet was removed by the surgeons.

Identity Uncertain Early.

For a time it was thought that it was Orion Porter, the well known postmaster at Fairfax, from the reason that a number of receipts in the dead man's pockets were made out to Orion Porter. There was nothing else to indicate the identity. A fine gold watch gave no clue. He was very well dressed.

Telegrams back and forth, however, soon revealed the fact that it was not Orion Porter, as he was in Fairfax. The Omaha Bee stated this morning that the dead man was thought to be Carl Porter, while the World-Herald said that it was Pearl Porter. Carl Porter is in a Fairfax bank.

Orion Porter arrived at noon today, to take the remains back home.

Financial Troubles Blamed.

Fairfax, S. D., Dec. 17.—Special to The News: Pearl Porter who suicided in Omaha last evening, was assistant postmaster in Fairfax. The news of his sudden tragic death came as a severe shock to his many friends in Fairfax and throughout Gregory county. The only reason that can be assigned for the deed is that financial worry, perhaps, made him despondent, and caused him to take his life.

Started to Norfolk.

When Pearl Porter left Fairfax, he was headed for Norfolk. His friends here presumed that he was going only that far and the news that he was in Omaha at all came as a surprise.

The remains will be brought back here today and the funeral will be held from the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday afternoon.

Pearl Porter was well known in Norfolk. He had many friends in this city, having frequently visited here in a business way, for short intervals. He was well known in Madison county, having relatives at the county seat, and in other towns. He was active at Fairfax during the rush to the reservation last summer, and had made many acquaintances on that account.

The news of his death came as a severe shock, and his family at Fairfax, who are all well known throughout the northwest, and who are leading citizens, have the sincerest sympathy of this whole territory.

Nothing was known here of Mr. Porter's intended visit to Norfolk.

TUESDAY TOPICS.

W. I. Walling of Leigh was in the city yesterday.

Clara Nelson of Plainview was in the city yesterday.

Hon. Frank Nelson of Niobrara was in Norfolk yesterday.

Editor F. E. Martin of the Battle Creek Enterprise was in the city yesterday.

Dr. P. H. Salter, who returned last night from Omaha, says that W. N. Huse, in Clarkson hospital, is doing splendidly, was able to sit up for a time yesterday, and may be able to be brought home next week.

E. A. Bullock transacted business in Sioux City Monday.

Thos. Jordan of the Verdigre Citizen and Frank Maly, also of Verdigre, were in the city on their way home from a trip to Emerson and Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Powers of Pierce were in the city, Mr. Powers having accompanied another party of home-seekers this far on their way to Pierre, S. Dak.

The Eagles have issued invitations for their second annual ball, to be given at Marquardt hall Friday evening, December 30.

The brotherhood of Railroad Train-men will give their annual dancing party at Marquardt hall on Friday evening of this week, and a large crowd is anticipated.

Mrs. E. L. Bleakney has returned from Glenwood, Iowa, where she has been visiting her sick mother.

On the night of the ball of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Friday evening, December 23, arrangements have been made for serving supper at the Pacific hotel.

The Knox County bank at Verdigre is erecting a fine brick building which is being hurried to completion this fine weather. It will, when completed, make a very suitable home for a prosperous financial institution of Knox county.

The funeral of George Gruenberg, the popular young Verdigre man who died of typhoid fever Saturday morning, was held at Verdigre Sunday, the services being under the auspices of the Bohemian society, of which he was a member.

The frame of the new Union Pacific round house is looming up in the air at the site where the old building stood. The work of erecting the timbers will soon be followed by the enclosing and the laying of the roof and if the fair weather continues the engines of the company may be provided with shelter before the worst weather of the early spring time arrives.

Holiday travel is beginning to assume some proportions on the railroads and people are hurrying to the homes of relatives and friends to spend a short vacation. The real rush, however, will not come until later in the week, when the low rates are in effect and when the people having but a short distance to travel, will be journeying to a scene of holiday festivity.

Chief of Police Larkin has made his arrest. In fact he has made more than one. Last night a drunk, ambling along Norfolk avenue between Third and Fourth streets, was taken in. A stranger from Bancroft arrived on the evening train from Sioux City, was chucked off the cars and fell asleep in the station waiting room. The fellow forgot where he was at. A bunk brought him to in the city jail.

John Tannehill has received the appointment as additional clerk at the postoffice, for which an examination was held some time ago. He will begin work immediately. Mr. Tannehill won the place over a number of other applicants in competitive examination.

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES.

J. S. Bassenman is in the city from Lincoln.

J. P. Dawson of Boone, was in the city this morning.

John T. Love was a Norfolk visitor yesterday from Schuyler.

W. E. Van Pelt of Bloomfield transacted business in Norfolk yesterday.

President T. M. Memminger of the Citizens National bank, returned last night from Elgin, where he had been on business connected with the bank there in which he holds an interest.

I. W. Alter, of Wayne, passed through Norfolk today enroute to Grand Island, to attend a meeting tomorrow of the finance committee of the A. O. U. W. grand lodge in Nebraska.

Martin Kane has not yet become thoroughly accustomed to the indoor work at the postoffice, and the change from police life to that of janitor-fireman is but slowly making an impression upon him.

Ed Waggoner, formerly of Norfolk and of late years farming south of the city, left Sunday for Garfield county, this state, where he has taken one of the Kinkaid section homesteads. Ed drove hacks in Norfolk two years ago, and had long been a citizen of the city.

One drunk who was arrested Monday night is breaking rocks at the city jail yard. He was fined the usual assessment, couldn't pay and was put to work. He was employed on a farm near Norfolk and refused to go home when told to do so by the police. He was very drunk.

Mr. Fred Lombard, blacksmith for Gustav Nitz, and Miss Alice Eble were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on North First street by Rev. J. H. Clay of the Baptist church. Only the immediate family was present, but they enjoyed a wedding supper after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lombard will soon begin housekeeping in a cottage on South Fifth street.

Today John Tannehill, newly appointed clerk at the postoffice, began his duties behind the window at the government building. He won the position over half a dozen others in competitive examination. It is the first time in his life that Mr. Tannehill has been separated from his favorite farm animals, and the change from the life in the country with freedom abounding, to one within federal walls, was a decided one.

If this is not Indian summer weather a new name will need to be coined to describe it. It is no ordinary winter weather, and it is not, cannot be, spring; nor is it mid-summer, but is about as near an ideal mixture of all as it is possible to make, and even those who are used to "taking their straight" are finding comfort in the concoction. It is not exactly the popular conception for the Christmas season, but a most agreeable substitute for the snow and frigidities.

The furniture, show cases and other fixtures for H. R. Ward's "smoke house" have arrived and his place of business has assumed an air of completeness and comfort such as he intended it should from the start. Mr. Ward intends to devote a good deal of attention to the wholesale tobacco trade, but for local and transient users of the weed he has, in a retail way, provided a convenient and comfortable resort. He expects to cover north-east Nebraska and contingent territory very effectually with a number of his special offerings in the tobacco.

Mrs. J. N. Bundick will leave Norfolk one week from today for a visit of four weeks in the east, at Washington and other cities. Meanwhile Mr. Bundick will begin tearing up preparatory to moving from Norfolk to Lamar, Col., where he goes to assume management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

ROOSEVELT PUTS BAKER BACK

New Mexico Supreme Judge Restored By Roosevelt to Office.

Washington, Dec. 19.—President Roosevelt today revoked the recent order removing Judge Baker of the supreme court of New Mexico, after a full hearing had been given him.

Mrs. Livermore's Birthday.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, the celebrated author and lecturer, entered upon her eighty-fifth year today and was the recipient of congratulations from friends and admirers in many parts of the country. She spent the day quietly at her home in Melrose, surrounded by her daughters and grandchildren.

TWO MORE 'PHONE LINES

WILL BE RUN WEST FROM NORFOLK IMMEDIATELY.

THREE OTHERS WILL FOLLOW

Rural Districts About This City are Fast Becoming so Well Equipped With Modern Conveniences, That They are Paradises on Earth.

The Nebraska Telephone company has completed plans for branching out of Norfolk. One new line will be extended west on the Battle Creek lead, two will run to Warnerville, one will run six miles west on Norfolk avenue and another will likely run to Hadar, by way of First street, curving west five miles north of the city.

The two lines that have been approved by the management of the company will run west, one on Norfolk avenue and the other extending west on the Battle Creek line, from the Sam Kent farm.

One line will take in George Smith, Martin Bruobaker, Obed Raasch, Otto Born, Mr. Fenske, Mr. Maasman, John Ray, Lew Ray and D. A. Ommerman.

Another will include Jo Vlazney, Adrian Craig, August Rigert, H. B. Thomas, W. J. Gibbs and Sam Kent. The lines will be begun immediately, gangs of linemen arriving soon.

John Tannehill Wins Clerkship. John Tannehill has received the appointment as additional clerk at the postoffice, for which an examination was held some time ago. He will begin work immediately. Mr. Tannehill won the place over a number of other applicants in competitive examination.

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES.

J. S. Bassenman is in the city from Lincoln.

J. P. Dawson of Boone, was in the city this morning.

John T. Love was a Norfolk visitor yesterday from Schuyler.

W. E. Van Pelt of Bloomfield transacted business in Norfolk yesterday.

President T. M. Memminger of the Citizens National bank, returned last night from Elgin, where he had been on business connected with the bank there in which he holds an interest.

I. W. Alter, of Wayne, passed through Norfolk today enroute to Grand Island, to attend a meeting tomorrow of the finance committee of the A. O. U. W. grand lodge in Nebraska.

Martin Kane has not yet become thoroughly accustomed to the indoor work at the postoffice, and the change from police life to that of janitor-fireman is but slowly making an impression upon him.

Ed Waggoner, formerly of Norfolk and of late years farming south of the city, left Sunday for Garfield county, this state, where he has taken one of the Kinkaid section homesteads. Ed drove hacks in Norfolk two years ago, and had long been a citizen of the city.

One drunk who was arrested Monday night is breaking rocks at the city jail yard. He was fined the usual assessment, couldn't pay and was put to work. He was employed on a farm near Norfolk and refused to go home when told to do so by the police. He was very drunk.

Mr. Fred Lombard, blacksmith for Gustav Nitz, and Miss Alice Eble were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on North First street by Rev. J. H. Clay of the Baptist church. Only the immediate family was present, but they enjoyed a wedding supper after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lombard will soon begin housekeeping in a cottage on South Fifth street.

Today John Tannehill, newly appointed clerk at the postoffice, began his duties behind the window at the government building. He won the position over half a dozen others in competitive examination. It is the first time in his life that Mr. Tannehill has been separated from his favorite farm animals, and the change from the life in the country with freedom abounding, to one within federal walls, was a decided one.

If this is not Indian summer weather a new name will need to be coined to describe it. It is no ordinary winter weather, and it is not, cannot be, spring; nor is it mid-summer, but is about as near an ideal mixture of all as it is possible to make, and even those who are used to "taking their straight" are finding comfort in the concoction. It is not exactly the popular conception for the Christmas season, but a most agreeable substitute for the snow and frigidities.

The furniture, show cases and other fixtures for H. R. Ward's "smoke house" have arrived and his place of business has assumed an air of completeness and comfort such as he intended it should from the start. Mr. Ward intends to devote a good deal of attention to the wholesale tobacco trade, but for local and transient users of the weed he has, in a retail way, provided a convenient and comfortable resort. He expects to cover north-east Nebraska and contingent territory very effectually with a number of his special offerings in the tobacco.

Mrs. J. N. Bundick will leave Norfolk one week from today for a visit of four weeks in the east, at Washington and other cities. Meanwhile Mr. Bundick will begin tearing up preparatory to moving from Norfolk to Lamar, Col., where he goes to assume

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

APART TWENTY-TWO YEARS

FAMILY REUNION OF MANY CHILDREN IN NORFOLK.

FATHER'S EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY

All of the Living Children of James Thomas, Living Two Miles Northwest of Norfolk, Assembled to Celebrate His Four Score Years.

A most delightful reunion has taken place at the home of James Thomas, two miles northwest of Norfolk, during the week. For the first time in twenty-two years all of the children of Mr. Thomas were assembled together under the parental roof, and this, being the eightieth birthday of the father, proved to be an unusually pleasant family reunion. Those present, who include all of the children living, were: J. C. Thomas, editor of the Journal at Cuba, Ill., Rev. John W. Thomas, editor of "Good Will and Tidings," Omaha; E. A. Thomas, Avon, Ill.; H. B. Thomas, Norfolk; Mrs. J. B. Beeler, North Platte; Mrs. Mary T. Gold, Norfolk.

Today the family all sat for photographs at a Norfolk studio. Many were the reminiscence stories told among the crowd of children, all grown now to manhood and womanhood, and who had not played together for nearly a quarter of a century.

NEBRASKA WINS THE CASE

SUPREME COURT HOLDS THAT LAND BELONGS HERE.

RIVER CHANGE DOES NOT ALTER

The Shifting of the Course of the Missouri River Can Not Change Land Over to the Jurisdiction of Missouri, the State.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The supreme court of the United States today decided the boundary cases between Missouri and Nebraska, in favor of Nebraska.

The case involved a question as to whether a change in the course of the Missouri river had the effect of changing the land which had been heretofore on the west side of the river, to the east side of the river, from the jurisdiction of Nebraska to the jurisdiction of Missouri. But the court held it did not.

Justice Harlan, who made the decision, says the boundary must remain in the middle of the old channel as before the change.

MRS. CHADWICK TOO ILL.

She Couldn't Appear in Court Today on Account of Sickness.

Cleveland, Dec. 19.—Mrs. Chadwick was too ill to appear in court today in the bankruptcy case against her.

The examination of Emil Hoover, Mrs. Chadwick's son, and Freda Swanstrom, her maid, was then taken up.

SENSATION MAY FOLLOW

ALLEGED THAT PROMINENT CITIZENS OF O'NEILL ARE IN.

M'GREEVY'S CAPTURE OPENS

Persons Who Are Said to Have Done Things They Ought Not to Have Done, May be Shown up in the Lime Light of Publicity Shortly.

A report from O'Neill says that Sheriff Hall, who received word of the capture of Bernard McGreevy in Phoenix, Ariz., and who was president of the bank which failed at O'Neill, has left for the south, to bring back the ex-financler. He carries the necessary requisition papers for bringing back McGreevy.

It is said, also, that sensational developments are expected when the trial comes off. It is alleged by some that there are prominent citizens in O'Neill who knew the condition of the bank, and who were permitted to do things they ought not to have done, because the cloak was thrown over it all.

When these things are brought to light, it is said there will be some interesting moments.

LONG TIME BETWEEN DRINKS

Billy Holden, Bank Robber, Takes His Last for Fourteen Years.

Lincoln, Dec. 21.—"Well, boys, this is the last for fourteen years," declared Billy Holden in a South Tenth street saloon to others drinking at the bar. Then William, who is a desperate looking man, raised a glassful of whisky to his lips with his manacled hands and downed it with great relish.

Holden was being brought from Platte county to serve fourteen years for robbery and attempted murder of Cashier Bernard Schroeder, of the Platte county bank located at Platte Center, on November 22.

The prisoner who was in charge of Sheriff Craig, was so impudent in his desire to have a last sweet taste of fire water that the big jolly officer could not resist his pleadings and led him to a booze joint for a last finger.

It was as Holden drained the last drop of liquid and had stopped a moment to look over the morning paper that he made the remark that it would be a long time between drinks.

The crime for which Holden is to do such long time at hard labor was committed as has been said on November 22. Each year during his confinement the prisoner must, when that date arrives, be placed in solitary confinement to refresh his memory.

The story of the robbery and shooting is dramatic. Holden confronted the cashier of the banking institution and excitedly demanded the cash, and was refused. In a second there was a report of a gun and blinding smoke and Schroeder lay on the floor of the institution with a bullet in his breast. The robber then went behind the counter in search of coin but was frightened away by another man in the bank before he was able to secure any booty.

He then mounted a horse and fled. He was pursued and caught later but not till he had made a fight and nearly winged a man named Charles C. Englehorn.

The wound of the cashier which was supposed to be fatal at the time proved not to be of a very serious nature and he has since practically recovered. After the capture of Holden by the pursuing party he was taken before the wounded bank official and identified by him though he had taken out his glass eye and changed his clothes.

The prisoner asserted that he had been employed in the beet fields near Oconee for a couple of months prior to his attempting the Jesse James act and that his former home was in Michigan. He is about 35 years of age and has the tough mug of the desperado.

THREE TO PAY DEATH PENALTY

In Twenty-Four Hours a Trio Will be Hung at Rome, Georgia.

Rome, Ga., Dec. 19.—The execution today of Jack Bone is the first of three hangings which are slated to take place in the county jail here during the next twenty-four hours. Bone will be followed to the gallows tomorrow morning by two negro murders, Courtney Baker, who killed his wife, and Bob Sutherland, who killed three negroes at a dance.

NAN CONFIDENT OF ACQUITTAL

Says She Will Tell the Jury Much and Will be Set Free.

New York, Dec. 19.—Nan Patterson is so confident of acquittal that before entering the court room today she remarked that she had spent her last Sunday in the Tombs prison.

She was not only willing but anxious to tell her story to the jury, and is quoted as saying:

"There is much I can tell the jury. When they hear what I have to say every one of them will vote to set me free."

Special Bargain in Land.

80-acre tract, improved land; fine location, close in, near town, price and terms right.

G. R. Soller

A VISIT FROM OFFICIALS

CARLOAD OF UNION PACIFIC MEN HERE EARLY TODAY.

SEE THEIR NEW ROUNDHOUSE

And Are Well Pleased With the Progress That is Being Made—Also Visited the City Commercial Agency and Were Delighted With It.

Union Pacific railroad officials, about a dozen in number, arrived in Norfolk last night in their special car, early today inspected the new roundhouse that is being constructed here, and left at 11 o'clock for Beatrice and Columbus. The officials all expressed themselves as being very well pleased with the work that has been done on the new engine home in Norfolk, and on the progress that is now being effected. They also paid a visit, while here, to their new commercial agency office, which has just lately been established, and which is the only one of the sort in the state outside Omaha or Lincoln, and they said that they were delighted with the establishment.

Among those who were on the car were General Superintendent Gruber, Superintendent of Water Power Thompson, Division Superintendent Duell, Assistant Superintendent Ware, Trainmaster Cahill, Chief Engineer Berry, Resident Engineer Schermerhorn, Superintendent of Bridges and Buildings Howe.

They were accompanied by J. C. Thomas, editor of the Journal at Cuba, Ill., Rev. John W. Thomas, editor of "Good Will and Tidings," Omaha; E. A. Thomas, Avon, Ill.; H. B. Thomas, Norfolk; Mrs. J. B. Beeler, North Platte; Mrs. Mary T. Gold, Norfolk.

Today the family all sat for photographs at a Norfolk studio. Many were the reminiscence stories told among the crowd of children, all grown now to manhood and womanhood, and who had not played together for nearly a quarter of a century.

The furniture, show cases and other fixtures for H. R. Ward's "smoke house" have arrived and his place of business has assumed an air of completeness and comfort such as he intended it should from the start. Mr. Ward intends to devote a good deal of attention to the wholesale tobacco trade, but for local and transient users of the weed he has, in a retail way, provided a convenient and comfortable resort. He expects to cover north-east Nebraska and contingent territory very effectually with a number of his special offerings in the tobacco.

Mrs. J. N. Bundick will leave Norfolk one week from today for a visit of four weeks in the east, at Washington and other cities. Meanwhile Mr. Bundick will begin tearing up preparatory to moving from Norfolk to Lamar, Col., where he goes to assume

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from the machinery of the old Norfolk plant. Within a couple of months Mr. Bundick will have completed Norfolk business and will leave the city. The new factory at Lamar has just been begun by the Oxnard Construction company, of which W. S. Pardonner, formerly of Norfolk, is president. The building is to be made of steel and will be erected simultaneously with the installing of the machinery.

management of the old new factory there that is to be made from