

TEN MEN WILL OWN US ALL

THAT IS THOMAS LAWSON'S THEORY THIS MONTH.

"SYSTEM" GETTING THE MONEY

The Standard Oil Combination is Said to be a Mere Baby Beside the Beef Trust—People are to be Slaves, Says Lawson, to Ten Rich Men.

Thomas W. Lawson's "Frenzied Finance" article in Everybody's magazine for February, is the story of the scare he "threw into" the "system" last month, and a lesson in the financial system of the nation.

It is only a matter of simple mathematics to ascertain the day, and that only a few years away, when ten men will be as absolutely and completely the legal owners of the entire United States and all there is of value in it.

Running the Machine. He says as a preliminary to this prediction:

"In fact, the 'system' has cunningly possessed itself of the financial mechanism of the country and is running it, not for the object for which the machine was devised, but for the benefit and personal profit of its votaries, and so the vast correlated organization of banks, trust companies and insurance corporations which were brought into being for the safe handling of the people's savings has become an agency for transferring these savings to the control of unscrupulous manipulators, who take liberal toll of every dollar that passes through their hands.

Mr. Lawson makes an interesting comparison between the old Louisiana lottery and the "system," quite in favor of the former. "In the height of its prosperity," he says, "the Louisiana lottery only took from the people a paltry $10,000,000 or $20,000,000 a year, while today there are single groups of banks, trust companies, corporations and trusts which take from the people, by might, by trick and by theft, hundreds of millions each year, and there are scores of such groups."

The Boston broken promises the true inwardness of the Amalgamated deal in the next issue, the lesson on finance in general given in the February Everybody's being by way of preparation for startling revelations to come.

WEDDING AT NELIGH.

Kemp-Hewitt Nuptials Attract Interest in Antelope County.

Neligh, Neb., Jan. 20.—Special to The News: William D. Kemp of Clearwater and Miss Fannie Hewitt of this city were married here last evening in the Trinity church at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. C. S. Wells of Norfolk officiating. A reception was held later at the home of Mrs. Romig and an elaborate banquet followed in the hall.

Decorations were of white and green. The bride was gowned in white crepe silk and the groom was dressed in conventional black. The bride's brother was best man and Miss Grace Jackson was bridesmaid. The young couple will make their home in Clearwater where the groom has established himself in business.

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

Mr. Kieff left yesterday for Chicago. Dr. F. M. Slison has gone to Dakota City.

B. M. Kinnee left yesterday for Lincoln.

A. B. Terwilliger was in the city from Wayne.

Mrs. R. Hooksta was in the city from Spaulding.

F. J. Wiesner was up from West Point yesterday.

John Schroer of North Bend was in the city yesterday.

John W. Jonas was in the city from Schuyler yesterday.

L. S. Worley was a city visitor from Hoskins yesterday.

Dr. Munson was in the city yesterday from Battle Creek.

August Walters was a Norfolk visitor yesterday from Plainview.

E. L. Brooks came down from Winneton on the early train today.

Miss Lee Hale of Battle Creek was shopping in the city yesterday.

Leland Spaulding is home from Philadelphia where he went last fall.

W. A. Witzgman of Meadow Grove was in the city yesterday on business.

Geo. C. Stevenson and Carl Kroble were in the city yesterday from Madison.

Harry Howe and Clarence Clark left yesterday for Omaha where they will work.

Dr. and Mrs. Pringle returned to their home in Pierce yesterday after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blakeman.

Dr. C. A. McKinley returned last evening from the state veterinary medical association at Lincoln.

Ira Hull came down from Butte this morning to spend several days at home recuperating from the effects of his recent fall on the ice. This is the second day he has been able to be out. He states that he was unconscious for seven hours after the fall.

There will be a social session of the Ladies guild of Trinity church at the home of Mrs. C. E. Burnham on Friday afternoon of next week. Mrs. Burnham and Mrs. H. T. Holden will be hostesses.

The "Uncle Si Haskins" company is in the city to entertain the theater-going public at an afternoon and night performance today. The novel street parade of the farmers' band today attracted a great amount of attention and the people will undoubtedly prove liberal patrons of the entertainments to be given.

N. W. Smalls, who has been for years connected with the Fremont Herald as editor and manager, has retired and is succeeded by H. W. Risley, and the Dodge County Publishing company, owners of the plant, has undergone a complete reorganization. Mr. Risley is said to be a newspaper man of large experience. He was a delegate to the last democratic national convention and for several years was located in Washington as private secretary to Congressman Shallenberger.

The Elks will give their annual ball at the club rooms next Thursday night, January 25. This is the party commemorating the installation of the lodge in Norfolk and arrangements are being made to make it equal to other annual affairs that have been given by the lodge in years past. Dancing will take place on the third floor of Marquardt hall while those who desire cards shall have the use of the lodge room on the second floor. The Elks and their families will be welcome at the party.

Boys Form a Club.

The Trinity choir boys met Thursday evening at the home of Otto Tappert and formed a club called the I. O. S. Harold Morrison is president of the new club, Graham Humphrey vice president, Earl Lynde secretary and Herman Tappert treasurer. The club will meet every Thursday night. The boys will buy books, games, etc., for their amusement and benefit.

Very Low Excursion Rates to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, via the Northwestern line, will be in effect from all stations January 7, 8 and 9, 1915, with favorable return limits, on account of annual conventions, National Live Stock and Wool Growers' associations. Two fast trains through to Colorado daily, only one night. For full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern R'y.

We sell flour, oil meal, mill feed, stock and poultry supplies. Flour and Feed store, Pacific block.

Hans Albert.

A replevin suit has been commenced in the district court here by E. M. Nichols, a music dealer of Des Moines, Iowa, to recover the violin which had been held by Turner Bros., proprietors of Hotel Boyd, for the board bill of $11.50 of Hans Albert, who was taken to the insane asylum last week. Mr. Nichols represents that he owns the violin and had merely loaned it to Albert. The appraised value of the instrument is $500, an amount too great for the jurisdiction of the justice court, and accordingly the case will be heard at the session of district court next month. Nichols was a former manager of the unfortunate musician. Albert's misfortune would be much less severe if he could have a first class violin with which to while away his time. It is hoped he will be provided with one. It would not only mitigate his mental suffering, but his musical power would entertain and delight the other unfortunate inmates of the institution.—Wayne Herald.

PRIVATE PARK FOR NORFOLK

John Freythalers Purchases the Ruhl Grove and Will Fit it Up.

John Freythalers has purchased the Ruhl grove, half mile east of the Main street bridge, and in the spring he proposes to fit it up for a model little park. The underbrush will be cleared away, rustic seats and tables erected, swings and other picnic appurtenances put up and the grove will be equipped for out door gatherings. It is Mr. Freythalers' plan to have the premises used for picnic and park purposes and he will serve ice cream and similar refreshments there, but no beer or other liquors will be sold. The grove is filled with large trees affording ample shade, is a convenient distance from the business part of town, and maintained along the lines planned, it will make a place of public resort at once popular with the public and profitable to its owner.

Funeral of Augusta Paeter.

Miss Augusta Paeter, sister of Wm. Paeter and Mrs. Albert Viergut, was buried yesterday from the home of the latter, Rev. J. P. Mueller of Christ Lutheran church officiating. Interment was in the new Lutheran cemetery on North Eleventh street.

Miss Paeter died in the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha from blood poisoning, following an operation. Her brother accompanied her to the hospital, remaining until her death and brought the body to Norfolk Saturday evening.

Mrs. Alex. Coshier, another sister, from Orchard, was here to attend the funeral.

IT COSTS LAWSON $50,000

BOSTON AUTHOR SENDS UNIQUE MESSAGE TO THE NEWS.

SAYS AMERICANS WILL REVOLT

When the People Understand Trusts They Will Peaceably and Legally Revolt, Says Lawson—He Gives it in Everybody's in "Magic Jimmy."

(From Saturday's Daily.) The following telegram received by The News from Thomas W. Lawson, the "Frenzied Finance" author, tells its own unique story.

"Boston, Mass., Jan. 21.—Daily News, Norfolk: An exact knowledge of 'trusts' will cause the American people to peaceably and legally revolt. I give it in February Everybody's magazine. It costs me $40,000 to $50,000. Won't you add your mite by calling attention to 'The Magic Jimmy'?"

"Thomas W. Lawson."

William Wachter will take notice, that on the 16th day of January, 1915, S. W. Hayes, a justice of the peace of Norfolk precinct, Madison county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $50.00 in an action pending before him, wherein James H. Conley is plaintiff, and William Wachter is defendant, that property of the defendant, consisting of money has been attached under said order. Said cause was continued to the 4th day of March, 1915, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Norfolk, Neb., Jan. 20, 1915. James H. Conley, Plaintiff.

Bender Will Make Good.

Omaha, Jan. 21.—Johnny Goding, the Western league catcher, was asked yesterday what he thought of Bender's engagement by Little Rock in the Southern league and if he thought Bender would make good.

"Bender is a ball player, a natural ball player," said Goding, "and my prediction is that he will make good behind the bat for Little Rock. He is about as fast a man on his feet as I ever saw."

Warnerville.

Verne Copeland has gone to Brunswick to visit relatives.

Mrs. Jane Davis of Fontenelle, Iowa, is the guest of her brother, Alex Sailer.

Mrs. H. Warner has moved onto their homestead in Wheeler county. Mont. Wheeler of Madison has bought H. E. Wood's farm a mile east of town and will take possession soon.

Miss Olive Munson returned Tuesday from a two-weeks' visit with her sister at Holdrege.

Guy Peterson will sell his personal property at auction next Monday and remove to Wayne county to live.

Ralph Cuplin, who enlisted in the regular army about a year ago, and has been at Fort Riley, Kansas, since, was here Thursday greeting his old neighbors. He expects to go to the Philippine islands with his regiment about the first of March.

MONDAY MENTION.

C. E. Burnham is in Omaha.

Frank Davis went to Omaha and returned, yesterday.

C. W. Cotterman of Albion was in the city Sunday.

Louis Sommer was a Norfolk visitor from Randolph.

August Benzel was in Norfolk Sunday from Wisner.

Martin Lichty was in the city Saturday from Hoskins.

M. J. Dederig of Wayne was a Norfolk visitor Saturday.

Chas. McLeod of Stanton was a Norfolk visitor over Sunday.

Gust. A. Haman of Plainview was a Sunday visitor in Norfolk.

August Walters was a Norfolk visitor Saturday from Plainview.

J. R. M. Bonslaugh was a Saturday visitor in Norfolk from Bonesteel, S. D.

Miss Stella Lulkart has gone to Hastings, Neb., to visit her sister, Mrs. J. R. Fain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Butterfield left at noon for Columbus, Wis., where a brother-in-law of Mr. Butterfield is dead.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lulkart at Tilden are the proud parents of a new son who arrived at their home on Sunday.

Rome Miller, the big hotel man of Omaha and numerous other places, was a city visitor. He was looking after his hotel, farm and other interests here.

Ed Biersdorf came home from Wakefield Saturday night for a visit.

E. M. Owens and James Jones of Plainview and Walter Miller of Pierce were Norfolk visitors Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Correll came down from Plainview Saturday evening to attend the Corwin-Mapes wedding.

Mrs. P. J. Stafford went to Omaha yesterday morning to visit her daughter, who is in school there, for two days.

Mrs. James McKinsey of Albion is a guest at the home of Norfolk relatives, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Sprecher and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hardy.

Deputy F. F. Miller of the A. O. U.

W. visited at home over Sunday. He leaves for McCook for a few weeks work for the order in that part of the state.

Clarence C. Saunders, a cigar traveling salesman, is in the city. He is now with a Kansas City firm, with this territory. He formerly lived in Norfolk.

W. T. Taylor, a brakeman on the Northwestern who has been visiting his old home in Oakland, Ia., for a month, returned last night and has resumed work out of Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Weatherly will entertain members of the West Side whist club tonight at a six-hand euchre party.

Center Register: The Norfolk Daily News proved its superiority as a daily paper for the people west of Norfolk by giving the news of the fall of Port Arthur twenty-four hours ahead of the Omaha dailies.

The weather of yesterday added several inches to the snowfall for January all of which had not yet been removed from the earth by a benevolent sun. The accretion has renewed the sledding possibilities and many cutters were in use during yesterday and the small boy and his sled was again a manifest quantity. The lowering clouds early today promised an additional snowfall.

In the redistricting bills that have been offered in the state legislature is one introduced by Senator Bressee, making a judicial apportionment of several counties in north Nebraska but making no change in other districts. Under the bill the Ninth and the Fifteenth judicial districts would be the only ones affected. The Fifteenth district, which now has a large number of counties and two judges is given one judge. The counties of Holt, Boyd, Rock, Brown and Keya Paha are transferred to the Ninth judicial district and that district is given two judges instead of one judge. It provides that the two districts shall be as follows: Ninth: Wayne, Madison, Antelope, Pierce, Knox, Holt, Boyd, Rock, Brown, Keya Paha, two judges; Fifteenth—Cherry, Sheridan, Dawes, Sioux, Box Butte, one judge.

The bill complies with the constitutional provision by declaring that the terms of the incumbent judges shall not be disturbed.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

The case of Dr. P. H. Salter against the Nebraska Telephone company, tried before the county court at Madison, has not yet been decided. Judge Bates has taken the case under advisement and promises to render his decision February 6. The suit is for professional services given Bert Crum, a lineman in the employ of the defendant company, who fell from a pole and shattered his elbow, while working at Hubbard. The foreman telephoned to the superintendent for instructions regarding the disposal of the injured man and on his order Crum was given to the Drs. Salter and Salter, remaining in their sanitarium for a period of thirty weeks. The defense claims that under this the company is liable only for the first treatment, but the evidence appeared to be quite conclusively in support of the full claim of the physicians. The plaintiff presented a strong array of evidence in support of his contention and it would seem that the testimony of the defense could not overcome the showing made.

NORFOLK STEWARD NAMED

ALEXANDER PETERS OF CHADRON NAMED FOR THE PLACE.

DECISION GIVEN YESTERDAY

Governor Mickey Selects the Chadron Man From a List of Seven or Eight Applicants—Will Assume His Duties When the Hospital Opens.

Governor Mickey yesterday announced the appointment of Alexander Peters of Chadron to the stewardship of the Norfolk hospital for the insane. Mr. Peters will begin the duties of his office as soon as the hospital is open for applicants. The salary is $1,200 a year.

There were seven or eight applicants for the position and it was considered by a number of Norfolk politicians that a man from Columbus stood the best chance for the appointment.

A MATRIMONIAL SURPRISE

Event at the Home of C. B. Durland Saturday Evening.

A pleasant wedding took place at the home of Mr. Chas. Durland Saturday evening, January 21, when Mr. Spencer W. Corwin was married to Miss Myra Mapes, Rev. J. C. S. Wells officiating. The ceremony at half past seven was witnessed only by members of Mr. Durland's family and a few intimate friends.

The informal reception which followed at 8 o'clock, was intended to surprise the guests. Very few of the thirty-five, who were invited, expected to come face to face with a real bride and groom, but the "stolen march" and the dispelling of the mystery only added to the merriment of the occasion.

The rooms were fragrant with flowers. Delicious refreshments were daintily served. Beautiful gifts be-tokened the esteem of friends.

The bride has often been in Norfolk as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Durland, and has kept in touch with a large circle of acquaintances, with whom she is a great favorite. Mr. Corwin, a prominent citizen of Middletown, N. Y., spent the summer months of last year in this city and by his genial ways won many friends.

A host of good wishes will follow Mr. and Mrs. Corwin to Middletown, where they will go, after staying for a short time at the Pacific.