Commodity Rate Bill May Not Pass the Senate-Speed Limit on Freight Trains is on the Third Reading Now.

Lincoln, March 25 .- If the house consents, the legislature will quit on ent. Mr. Springer and Miss Ethel Thursday of next week. The joint Warwick acted as best man and committee on adjournment agreed on that date this morning, and the senate voted to concur after some little opposition had been squelched.

In the house the friends of the commodity rate bill say that this early date is taken to head off any prospect. of the senate passing that measure. The house has taken no action. In the senate several members who favored adjournment declared the sooner the legislature quit the better the people would like it.

The house passed the Fishback telephone bill, 52 to 33. A number of members strolled out before the bill came up, and it was necessary to have a call of the house before the required number was secured. The Bell lobby Mrs. Fishback has been sick since was active on the floor, rounding up opposition.

Gould's senate bill requiring stock. trains to be run at a minimum of 18 miles on hour on main lines and 12 miles while on branch lines was advanced to third reading.
