

BROWN COUNTY BOOMING

AINSWORTH LOOKS BETTER THAN EVER IN ITS HISTORY.

THE FARMERS ARE PROSPEROUS

Price of Lands Has Advanced $5.00 an Acre Within the Past Two Weeks. A Big Corn Crop Is Assured—Heavy Shipments of Live Stock.

Ainsworth, Neb., July 22.—From a staff correspondent: The past year has done many things for this progressive and prosperous county seat, and the town looks better today than it ever has in its life. The new store building being put up by Munson & Howe, a one-story cement block structure which will cost $10,000, is a hummer.

Farmers are Happy.

Ainsworth, Neb., July 22.—Special to The News: Farmers are coming into town now feeling good over the prospects for a big crop of all kinds, more especially corn. They say they have never seen such a change as there has been in the last week. They have been holding their old corn as an emergency, but now that a new crop is assured they are bringing in many thousand bushels of that which was on hand. Stock of all kinds never looked better, and there are hundreds of hogs and cattle shipped from here every week to the eastern butchers.

The price on land here has advanced during the past week $5.00 an acre and at the present prices purchasers can double their money inside of the next five years. Come to Brown county and see for yourselves.

The rough floor of the Krug block has been laid and the wall of the first story is rapidly rearing itself under the deft fingers of the masons employed. Something of a race will soon be on between it and the new addition to the Citizens National bank. The latter had a much later start but does not cover quite as much ground and a race for the finishing touches is quite likely to develop. A large portion of the foundation of the Citizens bank addition is already in and the balance of the work is speeding along rapidly.

Members of the Tribe of Ben Hur and the Highland Nobles, with their families will picnic tomorrow at Taff's grove on the Elkhorn, south of the city and a time of abundant pleasure is expected by all who will participate. Carry-alls will be at the lodge room to convey the guests to the meeting ground and full baskets of provisions will be provided by the individuals, with other seasonable dainties. The grove is at its best this season and nothing will be left undone to contribute to a few hours of enjoyment in the wilds on the banks of the Elkhorn.

There was a shower during last night that was timely and productive of much good. While the crops have not been suffering for moisture, a wetting of the surface will not hurt them in the least, but will contribute to much toward a larger and better development, and the laying of the dust is a considerable performance on the part of the weather man that will be appreciated by the housewife and the merchants who like clean shelves and neat looking goods. Haying and harvesting have been slightly interfered with, but the prospects are that it will clear up immediately and no material damage will result from the shower in those particulars.

Lincoln, Nebraska's capital city, may not have bats in its belfry, but it has recently had a spell of bugs that was the limit. They came in droves. Trillions of the insects settled down upon the town in the night time, swarmed about the electric lamps and drove the stores out of business. A plague of bugs, strong enough to close the business houses is seldom experienced, but must be a nuisance while it lasts. One merchant thought to get rid of the pest by saturating a broom with oil, lighting it and holding it in the glare of the light in front of his store. Millions of victims fell, but millions of others took their places and the nuisance went on. Saturday night was the time that the horde of bugs took for their raid and numbers of merchants were placed out of business for several hours.

Dug Up Old Culvert.

The workmen digging the trench for the sewer at the corner of Fifth and Main street dug into an old culvert about six or seven feet below the surface of the present highway, showing the filling that has been done since Norfolk was a village. Some of the old timers recall riding in a boat during a spring freshet over the old culvert.

On Saturday evening a party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Simms at their handsome new residence on South Eighth street, in honor of Mrs. Simms' sister, Mrs. W. C. Johnson of Boulder, Col. The evening was very much enjoyed throughout.

The Norfolk friends of Conductor T. J. Hanrahan, formerly of this city, will be sorry to learn of his death in a railroad accident at Nevada, Mo., last Wednesday. The body was taken to Omaha for interment. Conductor Hanrahan formerly had a run on the Northwestern between Norfolk and Long Pine and many people here, particularly among the railroad people, remember him and his family. They lived in Norfolk for years. He was making his last run on the Missouri Pacific railway when killed. For the past three years he has lived at Pittsburg, Kansas. Mr. Hanrahan leaves a widow and four children to mourn his death.

The Fullerton chautauqua will be held at the park of that place on August 11 to 29. This is the sixth annual session of the assembly and in the extent and power of the program it surpasses any that have been held. Ideal grounds along the Cedar river, with delightful walks and picturesque nooks, afford a pleasure all their own to the people who attend. With Eugene May, Dr. C. A. Vincent, Sidney London, E. A. Barth, J. Lorenzo Zwickey, Lucian Edgar Follansbee, G. A. Gearhart, Wm. J. Nolan, and numerous other prominent lecturers and entertainers, jubilee singers, concert companies and other attractions, the ten days of the chautauqua are certain to afford an ideal summer entertainment, and thousands of people will undoubtedly attend.

This has been a remarkable year for extremes in the weather line in this section of the country and it is quite apparent that not all varieties have yet been drawn out, as new quirks are put forward every day or every few days. Last winter for a few days there was excessive cold and with it was a snowfall with sleighing conditions, the like of which the oldest inhabitant could not remember. With the opening of spring, which began to warm unusually late, came an excessive amount of rainfall, and all during May the clouds and an over-soaked soil gave floods and wetness and the like of which was never before known. This continued through June and with it the temperature was far below the average. After the Fourth conditions took another change, and for excessive cool and surplus moisture, for a few weeks have been known excessive heat, with scarcely a shower, during which crops have made up for lost time and are today fully as far advanced as is usual for the season. Within the last few days, with showers, has come another lowering of the temperature to below the normal, and this morning the point of frosting was almost reached. Through it all, however, crops have been growing and developing and the people have cheerfully withstood the excesses, constantly expecting something better and more perfect, and the people have seldom been disappointed for long at a time, and conditions will be right, beyond all doubt.

COUNTRY IS THRIVING

THE NORTHWEST IS IN GOOD CONDITION.

IS PROMISE OF A GOOD CROP

The Wet Weather in the Spring Is Being Overcome Now by the Hot Sunshine—Rosebud Country Is in Excellent Shape—Fall Fairs.

A trip through the northwest—north on the Bonesteel line to that thriving terminal of the Northwestern's branch, and west to Valentine—gives a picture just now which is encouraging to the eye interested in the welfare and the advancement of this section of the country. Everywhere the crops—and after all, the welfare of this whole estate reverts in the end to the man behind the hoe—are booming, with promise of one of the greatest yields ever known.

The Rosebud reservation—and everybody is still more or less interested in that vast tract of prairie which was allotted out by the United States government a year ago to lucky ticket-holders—is smiling for the ladies and the men, too, who have gone out there and taken claims. And to tell the truth, there are a whole lot of ladies among them. While the situation is not quite so strong as has been represented in some of the Chicago yellow journals, yet there are really and truly girls and girls and girls on the Rosebud reservation, holding down choice claims and all of them finding life a happy holiday on the reservation.

Queer Notes to Rosebud Girls.

A great bunch of queer notes to girls on the Rosebud has been received from all over the country as a result of the free advertising that they have gained. For example, in one feature story there was a picture of "Miss Violet Brown, Charming." Miss Brown was represented to be turning a huge butter churn. Of course Miss Brown never lived, except as some Chicago ballet dancer, but there have been hundreds of letters for her in all sorts of shape. Some have come, "Miss Violet B. Charming," and many other curious addresses have come. The postoffice at Bonesteel is besieged with letters of this kind from would-be love makers from all over the country.

The crops on the Rosebud are promising, and the settlers are hopeful. The first strawberries grown on the reservation were produced on the land of Dr. P. G. Salter, formerly of Norfolk and now of Dallas, S. D. There is activity at Bonesteel on account of the freighting being done across to the reservation.

Fairfax, the county seat, always has been a good town, and always will be. The crop conditions in the surrounding country make things look good for Fairfax.

Butte, the county seat of Boyd county, Neb., is settling down to a calm, steady gait and is doing better today than ever before. The fact that Butte is a permanent fixture, with a rattling good country around it, has been established and the prospects are getting better all of the time.

All of the other towns in Boyd county, including Anoka, Spencer, Lynch, Bristow, Monowi and Verdel are thriving, with good crops booming. Although there has been a great deal of rain in the county, the drainage is excellent and the crops have only been benefited by it.

The same conditions prevail in Knox and Pierce counties and the business men of Nebraska—Verdara, Winnetoon, Creighton, Plainview and Pierce are all expecting good seasons this fall.

The water of the spring and summer has helped the soil in all of the country between Norfolk and Chadron, and the towns all along the line show a spirit of progress and improvement. Battle Creek, Meadow Grove and Tilden in Madison county, Oakdale, Neligh, Clearwater, Ewing, O'Neill and the towns in the hay belt—Atkinson, Newport, Bassett, Stuart, Long Pine, Ainsworth and Valentine all look well. In spite of the wet weather in the Elkhorn valley about Stanton and below, that city—always a thriving town—together with Wisner and West Point, looks well. Madison is in prime condition as is also Humphrey. The Albion branch, too, including Albion, Elgin, Petersburg, Newman Grove and Lindsay, are expecting a good harvest.

Something Doing in Fall.

Some of the towns are anticipating race meetings and fall fairs. There will be races and fairs at Creighton, Stanton, Battle Creek, Madison and Neligh. There will be a carnival at Tilden and at Neligh. Madison will have the Sengerfest August 17, 18 and 19 and Wisner will have a fall stock show for two days.

Neligh Notes.

Judge J. F. Boyd has been enjoying a visit from his brother who resides at Galva, Ill.

W. F. Olmstead has been on the sick list this week. Several persons report feeling "poorly" during the warm weather.

District Court Clerk R. H. Rice will begin the erection of a modern cottage on his lots at the corner of Elm and Main street shortly.

Vera, the youngest daughter of W. L. McAllister, had her arm dislocated at the elbow Saturday while playing. Prompt medical attention rendered by Dr. Conery made her at ease and no serious results are anticipated. This is the second time the little girl has suffered this accident.

C. J. Allison is erecting a very fine residence on the O. D. Smith place which joins the corporation on the north. Mr. Allison recently purchased this land consisting of some 60 acres. M. R. Huffman returned home Saturday from Chicago, where he had taken a train load of cattle. The may, or seemed to feel that he had made a good shipment and was enjoying the fresh air and water Antelope county affords immensely in contrast to the water and wind of Chicago.

A. H. Phillips, who lost an eye a few days before the Fourth of July, is again able to attend to his duties. At present he is superintending the erection of a comfortable residence on his quarter block at the southeast corner of Chestnut and Hopkins streets. This will be one of the finest residences in the city.

Considerable preparations are being made for the three days old anti-diers picnic to be held in Riverside Park July 25, 26 and 27. Senator Allen and Congressman Burdick will be present and speak Wednesday and Thursday respectively. A good program has been prepared and the condition of the park warrants a fine outing for those who attend.

A drive of over fifty miles recently across the country assures the fact that Antelope county is going to harvest one of the largest crops of small grain ever produced in its history. A great deal of land has been newly broken and fences built until a traveler is compelled to keep to the section lines almost entirely. Corn, though late, looks well and if the frost should not come early, will yield a very good crop.

S. F. Gihnan had put in about eighty feet of concrete on the south side of the river and extending west from the dam. This was done to prevent the water washing away that portion of the dam again as it came near doing this spring. Each day now men are employed in closing the breaks in the dike and the channel is hoped to be again diverted to its old course before long. The new foundation for the engine is ready and as soon as the machinery is installed the city will be again lighted.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar he saves. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the home often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by the Klean Drug Co.

AT THE EAGES' PICNIC

LARGE NUMBER ATTENDED THE AFFAIR YESTERDAY.

LIVELY SPORTING CONTESTS

Junction Team Won in the Tug-of-War, Fred Karo Took the Fat Men's Race, and "Billie" Wetzel Won Out in the Swimming Contest.

Hundreds of people attended the picnic of the Eagles yesterday afternoon in Edgewater park, and from the time of the first arrival until quitting time at night there was something doing that was of interest to the throng. Soon after dinner the Norfolk band turned up on the streets and gave inspiration for the assembling of the crowd which marched to the picnic grounds and there entertained by the music and sporting program. Orchestra music was a leading feature of the afternoon in a musical way and it is seldom that better has been heard in Norfolk. The shady nooks, the opportunities for boating, fishing, swimming and other outing entertainment were just right while the refreshment stands did a good business.

In the sporting events there were some interesting results and the program that the committee put on was very lively. Fifteen boys and about the same number of girls entered the foot racing contests and did a lively stunt. In the fat men's race Fred Karo was the winner, 100 yards being run in something more than 8½ seconds. Billie Wetzel took first money and—Smiley second in the swimming contest. In the tug-of-war the Junction heavies dragged the up-town squad over the line after a sharp contest, and the sports throughout were worth seeing.

With one or two exceptions the crowd was very orderly and along toward night they came striding back, tired but with the satisfaction of a pleasant afternoon well spent.
