NIGHT OF WILDEST TERROR

MOBS KILL AND WOUND PEOPLE BY THE THOUSANDS.

BOMBS ARE FLYING AT ODESSA

Anti-Jewish Uprisings Are Occurring in the South Part of the Empire. Anarchy Rules in Many Cities—Wild Scenes in the Streets.

Warsaw, Nov. 2.—Thirty persons were killed and over 100 wounded in conflicts during the night in this city. Night of Wild Terror.

Odessa, Nov. 2.—Anarchy, rampage, killing and plundering by bands called loyalists, assisted by the police, continues in this city today.

Last night was one of the wildest terror.

London, Nov. 2.—Special dispatches to today's London newspapers represent the condition of affairs in Russia as being extremely grave, especially in the provinces. According to the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail the revolutionaries demand the establishment of a republic, and as the result of this demand the strong arm of General Trepoft has again been invoked. Thus, says the correspondent, brute force and popular sedition are again facing each other. Even the appointment of Grand Duke Michael as military dictator, with General Trepoft as his right hand man, is discussed in official circles, according to the correspondent, who adds that the revolutionary leaders advised the populace to refrain at present from precipitating a conflict.

A dispatch to a news agency from Odessa describes that city as having experienced a dreadful day, the defenseless populace being at the mercy of a howling and armed mob of 50,000 men, calling themselves loyalists and led by disguised policemen and their wretched dupes. The Jews made a stout resistance and their successful bravery entailed lamentable sacrifices. It is impossible to ascertain the casualties, but rumor puts the number of killed and wounded as high as 2,000, many by bombs which the mobs used wholesale.

The Odessa correspondent of the Standard tells a similar tale. He says: "It is reported that the casualties will reach 1,000, but it is impossible to verify this report. The last bomb thrown in Deribass street killed fifteen and wounded forty. Within ten minutes ten others were killed nearly on the same spot. The Jews are said to be the only persons who have resorted to the throwing of bombs, but the extremity of their peril must be remembered."

The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Kiev says: "The governor general has resigned because he was not permitted to take strong measures to prevent the riots. Indescribable scenes occurred when the mob invaded the town hall and tore down the portrait of the emperor. The troops fired ten volleys into the mob, killing forty persons. Three hundred of the rioters were arrested. During the conflict the rioters were dismounted, thrown to the ground and many of them shot. It was a lawyer named Rattner who cut the emperor's portrait from its frame, hacked out the face, put his head through the opening and harangued the mob from the balcony of the town hall. A band of workmen invaded Rattner's house and tore him to pieces. Jew-baiting started at midnight. Strong patrols passed frequently, but they looked smilingly on and gave no help. Some hours later Cossacks arrived, but they did nothing to protect the property of the shopkeepers. I saw some police and Cossacks pocketing part of the plunder."

COSSACKS FIRE ON CROWDS

Russian Citizens Shot Down While Celebrating Their Freedom.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 2.—Though the day passed in comparative quiet in St. Petersburg and Moscow, a flood of dispatches from all parts of the empire report disorders in many cities, with a heavy total of dead and wounded. The people while celebrating their new-found freedom were, in many instances, set upon by Cossacks and police, while some times the spirit of mob violence broke forth and the lower elements of the people gave themselves to pillage and destruction. The most serious disorders apparently occurred at Odessa, where hundreds of persons are reported to have been killed or wounded and where the rioting is momentarily expected to flare out into a repetition of the slaughter of last July, and at Kazan, where a three days' reign of terror was ended only by the retirement of all Cossacks to their barracks.

A deplorable feature of the news from the interior is that anti-Jewish uprisings have occurred in many places, especially in south Russia, where the populace vented its hatred of the Jews by sacking their stores and clubbing the members of the race, in some cases resorting to the torch. The attacks on the crowds are reported to be in most cases the work of Cossacks who many times were apparently let loose upon the people without direction or authority. Count Witte's task in securing a fair trial for the new experiment in constitutionalism is a most difficult one. He is disappointed at not securing the support of the liberals, on whose cooperation he counted. Many of these are holding aloof and seem rather to enjoy the predicament in which the new premier finds himself.

SAYS ALL PAY

LEADS TESTIFIES BEFORE INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

UNABLE TO BREAK UP PRACTICE

General Manager of Santa Fe Refrigerator Dispatch Thinks Rate War Would Result—Railroad Company Owes Dispatch.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Admitting that rebates are given to shippers in the California fruit service by practically all private car lines, G. S. Leads, general manager of the Santa Fe Refrigerator Dispatch, entered the inquiry being conducted here by the interstate commerce commission to show the relations between railroads and companies engaged in the business of refrigerating freight in transit. Mr. Leads said these rebates were necessary to his company, because all his competitors were granting them. He asserted that he could not break up the practice without precipitating a rate war.

The testimony was confined to the business of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad and the Santa Fe Refrigerator Dispatch, which corporations, according to officials of both, who were on the stand, are owned by the same interests.

Mr. Leads occupied the witness stand the greater part of the day and was followed by Edward Chambers, freight traffic manager of the Santa Fe railroad, who prefaced a mass of important testimony with the statement that the stock of both corporations is owned by the same interests and they have the same president. The commission ordered the taking of the deposition of Edwin T. Earl of Los Angeles, Nov. 10. Attorney Urion, for the Armour car lines, again endeavored to have a date fixed for closing the inquiry, but his motion was denied.

KANSAS JOINTISTS SENTENCED

Carload of Whisky and Beer Stored in Court House at Independence.

Independence, Kan., Nov. 2.—Seventeen jointists of this county were fined and sentenced to the county jail for violating the state prohibitory law. Ten of them operated in Coffeyville and seven in Caney. All of the Coffeyville jointists and two of the Caney offenders were each fined $300 and sentenced to jail until Dec. 24. The other men were fined $100 each and sentenced to thirty days in jail. The jointists will also have to pay the cost of court proceedings. The prohibitory law is being strongly enforced in this county now. Bar fixtures, valued at $10,000, are stored away here and notice has been served on the owners to show cause why the property should not be destroyed. A carload of whisky and beer, the result of recent raids in Caney and Coffeyville, is stored in the basement of the court house. This will also be destroyed on a court order.

Nathan Taken to Hospital.

Boston, Nov. 2.—Morris Nathan, the young man who for several days has been the central figure in the investigation of the death of Susan A. Geary, the dress suit case victim, arrived here from Pittsburgh, but he was so weak that the police decided to take him to the city hospital. The officers had planned to have Nathan arraigned in the municipal court today on the charge of procuring an illegal operation. His counsel, Jesse M. Gove and Henry M. Sissland, said no attempt would be made to procure bail until after Nathan has been arraigned.

WHALEERS CAUGHT IN ICE

ELEVEN VESSELS MUST SPEND WINTER IN ARCTIC OCEAN.

ARE SHORT OF PROVISIONS

Their Crews of 440 Men Must Face Hardships of Far North—Will Not Be Able to Get Out Until Next July or August.

San Francisco, Nov. 2.—Eleven whaling vessels, comprising almost the entire fleet which sailed from this city, have been caught in the Arctic ocean. They will not be able to get out until next July or August and in the meantime their crews of 440 men must face the hardships of a winter in the north. This startling news is conveyed in a telegram to Lewis Anderson and Ford & Co. of this city.

The telegram comes from Captain H. H. Rodfish of the steamer William Baylies and states that only this vessel, and the schooner Monterey were able to escape.

The eleven vessels which were caught are the steamers Alexander, Captain James A. Tilton; steamer Beluga, Captain R. J. Cumisky; schooner Bonanza, Captain William Mogg; steamer Bowhead, Captain John A. Cook; schooner Charles Hanson, Captain James McKenna; steamer Herman, Captain W. S. Evarum; steamer Jeanette, Captain E. W. Newth; steamer Karluck, Captain A. H. McGregor; steamer Narwhal, Captain George B. Leavitt; schooner Olga and steamer Thresher, Captain William E. Macomber.

Most of the vessels now in the ice left here early last spring and are not provisioned for a stay in the Arctic. Unless the boats are heard from within a short time it will be concluded there is no hope for their escape and the government will be asked to forward supplies to the imprisoned men.

CLARK BLAMES ANDREWS

Leaves Note to His Wife Saying He Was Shamefully Robbed.

Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—The following statement of T. Lee Clark, cashier of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny, written a few hours before he committed suicide, was made public: "Dearest Wife and Children: In ten hours or less I will be dead to the world. You have been a dear, good wife to me. Andrews has worked my ruin. Dear wife, keep all the insurance for yourself and babies. How hard it is to leave all I have made a desperate effort to keep things going until I could get the road financed, but it has been too slow. The examiner is here and I am ruined. Do forgive me, it is not my fault. I have been shamefully robbed. The bank will get everything but the life insurance."

T. Lee Clark, the deceased cashier, was treasurer of the Santa Fe Central railroad, of which W. H. Andrews was president. This road is in New Mexico and is about 117 miles long, running from Santa Fe to Torrance, with a branch now projected to Albuquerque.

SUMMARY OF CROP CONDITIONS

Rains Interfere With Cutting and Husking of Corn.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The following summary of the crop conditions is given in the monthly crop bulletin issued by the weather bureau: Over the south-central and southwestern portions of the corn belt wet weather proved unfavorable for cutting and husking corn and caused considerable mold and decay. Good progress was made, however, gathering corn in other portions of the corn belt, the crop having fully matured before the occurrence of injurious frost. Favorable weather for gathering and husking corn prevailed throughout the Atlantic coast districts. Heavy rains in portions of the Ohio, central Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys hindered plowing and fall seeding to a considerable extent, but as a whole this work was prosecuted under favorable conditions and at the close of the month was largely completed and good stands of fall sown wheat were generally indicated throughout the central valleys, lake region and middle Atlantic coast states.

Cattlemen who have anticipated the movement of the federal authorities have removed most of the fences around government land.

Couple Found Dead in Hotel Room.

New York, Nov. 2.—A man and a woman whose identity the police are endeavoring to establish, were found dead in a hotel here. The room was full of gas and all the crevices of the doors and windows were stuffed with paper. From the fact that the woman's jaw was broken and her body covered with recently inflicted bruises, the police are disposed to believe that she was killed by the man, who afterward committed suicide by turning on the gas. The couple registered at the hotel as "Mr. and Mrs. Johnson."

SON NOT TIED TO TRACK

FATHER OF FRESHMAN DEFENDS HIS FRATERNITY.

CORONER'S VERDICT UNFAIR

The Freshman Killed by a Train at Gambier, Ohio, While Awaiting Initiation Into a College Fraternity, Was Not Tied to the Rails.

Cincinnati, Nov. 2.—N. L. Pierson, whose son was killed by a train at Gambier, Ohio, while awaiting initiation into a Greek letter fraternity Saturday night, was at Gambier at the time, and today declared his disbelief in the suggestion of the coroner that his son may have been tied to the track. He had gone to Gambier to attend the initiation, being an alumnus of Kenyon college and a member of the fraternity which his son was about to join. "There is no cause for believing my boy was tied. He was to go out on the bridge and wait until they came for him. It was his business to wait whether it was a quarter of an hour or an hour. He had been up all night waiting for me and was sleepy. When the train came around the curve near the football field the light must have blinded him and he sprang to his feet and was caught before he fully waked."

Crippled Son Kills Father.

Alton, Ill., Nov. 2.—During a quarrel, which involved all the members of the family, Leon Aller was killed by his son, Frank, eighteen years of age, the boy beating his father's skull into a jelly with a rolling pin. The trouble arose over the appointment, at the boy's request, of an attorney to act as his guardian and the custodian of an $5,500 judgment, affirmed three days ago by the supreme court. The boy had lost his left foot in an accident on an interurban car line and the judgment was the result of a suit for damages. His father objected to the appointment of a guardian. Mrs. Aller declares that her husband threatened to kill Frank, his brother, Roy, and herself and that she had been knocked down by a blow in the face before Frank and his father engaged in their struggle.

THE CLERKS CAN'T FLIRT

NEW ORDER OF THINGS IN WASHINGTON PENSION OFFICE.

NO MORE EYES AT LUNCHEON

Men and Women Clerks in the Pension Office Can Not Eat Lunch Together Hereafter—No More Letter Writing—Other Needed Reforms.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Flirtatious clerks in the pension office will no longer be permitted to eat their luncheon together. Major Lockwood, superintendent of the building, has issued an order that the men and women must not sit together while they eat, and the order went into effect immediately. The clerks can no longer whisper sweet nothings to each other while they eat ham sandwiches, frankfurters and kraut and mince pie.

The clerks resent the order. The average age of the clerks, male and female, in the pension office, is considerably over 40 years, and they think they are old enough to take care of themselves.

Still, there are some really pretty girls in the office and the male clerks have found it great fun chatting with them while at luncheon.

That Major Lockwood is thoroughly in earnest about the order he issued is shown by the presence of a grizzled old veteran of the civil war at the tables during the luncheon hour. Beauty is nothing to him, and he sternly enforces the order.

Not so very many months ago Major Lockwood married one of the clerks in the pension office. His wife did not resign from the office, and under his order even they cannot eat their luncheon together.

And Letter-Writing Reform.

Reforms in the government departments and the practice of economy are already effective as the result of the investigation being conducted by the Keop commission. Upon the recommendation of the commissioner, Vespasian Warner, the commissioner of pensions, has issued an order which will save the government several thousand dollars in this bureau alone. He has directed that the employees of the bureau cease using government stationery and writing letters during office hours; that they receive no visitors while on duty; that the clerks take but half an hour for luncheon, instead of forty-five minutes; that they remain at their desks until 4:30 in the afternoon, and not prepare to leave the building until they have performed a full day's work.

There are about 2,500 clerks in the pension office and the saving in time will be considerable, much more work will be performed, and the government will be able to dispense with the services of a number of clerks.

A crowd gathered before the town hall and demanded the release of political prisoners. The chief of police liberated 200 who had been arrested during the last few days, but refused to release twelve who were arrested by order of the central government. The crowd then commenced to smash the doors and windows of the town hall, whereupon the chief of police telephoned to the barracks for assistance, and a force of hussars and Cossacks, with a battery of artillery, galloped to the scene. The hussars charged the mobs, killing sixteen persons and wounding seventy-three. Later there was an encounter between infantry and a mob in the bank square, when the troops fired into the crowd, killing four and wounding thirty.

PUT TO ROUT BY INSECTS

SALT LAKE PROFESSOR DID NOT KEEP HIS WORD.

HAD OFFERED A PENNY A BUG

Amusing Revenge of the Boys When the Professor Tried to Scale the Debt—Tried to Settle for $3 but That ..Wouldn't Do.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 2.—Dr. Charles W. Ballard, professor of science in the high school, has fled from the state, but has left behind him in his apartment a collection of insects that will keep professional exterminators busy for a week.

The insects were forced on Dr. Ballard. In a recent biology recitation he offered his pupils a penny for each and every bug they brought him. He wanted a collection of insects for experiments. All the pupils in the set to work gathering bugs. He has taken the professor's $100 a year to pay the pennies to fifty youngsters between them. He offered a penny a bug for a large section of the state.

Dr. Ballard tried to settle for $3. This angered the boys. They ripped open boxes and bags. The inundation of bugs left no room for Ballard in his apartments. He has gone to visit his former home, in Logansport, Ind., until the exterminators report the last death.

CHARLES J. DEVLIN IS DEAD

Former Kansas Coal King Passes Away in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Charles J. Devlin, the widely known coal mine operator, who recently underwent bankruptcy, with liabilities of $1,000,000, died at St. Elizabeth's hospital as the result of a stroke of paralysis. He had suffered a previous stroke last summer. Devlin had been at the hospital several days with his wife and children. He was in ill health on his arrival in Chicago from New York and went direct to the St. Elizabeth's. He was attacked by a rush of blood to his head, and despite the efforts of surgeons succumbed to brain hemorrhage. Mr. Devlin was fifty-two years old and leaves a widow and five children. His body will be taken to LaSalle, Ill.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 2.—Receiver L. T. Bradley of the defunct First National bank said: "I believe that the creditors of this bank will be paid in full. The death of C. J. Devlin leaves $177,000 life insurance, as good as cash, in the bank's possession."

Stand by President.

Detroit, Nov. 2.—The Michigan members of the National Manufacturers' association, at a meeting at which about two-thirds of the members of the Michigan branch were represented in person, or by proxy, unanimously adopted resolutions emphatically endorsing President Roosevelt's position on the freight rate legislation question, and criticizing the action of the delegates of the interstate commerce law convention in Chicago last week, who, by their split, are declared to have sacrificed the main object to differences of opinion as to non-essentials, thereby creating the erroneous inference that there is a lack of unanimity of opinion among the business men as to the need of federal control of freight rates.

Kansas After Pullman Company.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 2.—Because the Pullman Car company, a corporation of Illinois, with a capital stock of $74,000,000, has not paid to the treasurer of the state of Kansas a charter fee of $14,800 for the permanent school fund, Attorney General Coleman has brought quo warranto proceedings against the company, asking them by what authority they have a right to do business in the state.
