| to maintals. The Australiun baliot was the first restriction on fraudulent voting and the direct primary is another step. Machine voting will be a still greater safeguard. Real reforms move slowly but surely.  In this age when men are seeking perhaps more strennously than ever before to amass wealth, when the only question which the majority ask when any proposition is made to them is, "What is in it for me?" the words of President Roosevelt, spoken in a recent nddress, come with special significance: "I hope more and more to see the sentiment of the country as a whole become such that each man shall feel borne in on him, whether he is in public life or in private life. that the chance to do good work is the greatest chance that can come to any man or woman in our generation and to feel that if such work can be well done it is in itself ample reward and ample prize."  Gov. Hoch of Kansas, commenting on the many expressions of sorrow and offerings of flowers that were poured in after the death of Jerry Simpson, says: "What cheer and brightness might have illuminated this man's last days had some of these sweet flowers been sent to his bedside, Instead of being kept to waste their sweetness on the desert air." Had the same appreciation of Jerry's real worth and kindly obliteration of his shortcomings been expressed while he was alive, think what faith in his fellow men and hope for the future it would bave insplred." This instance is but another needed reminder that post mortem kindness, while it may be valued by the friends of the departed, can never atone for slights and unkind or unjust critticism which his earthly carcer. |

| SAYS RECORD IS PRETTY GOOD  Incidentally, However, He is Around Looking After His Fences-Some Norfolk Republicans are Not on the Map-Was Here Yesterday. Congressman J. J, McCarthy of Ponca, representative from this district at the national legislature, was in Norfolk yesterday enroute to his home from a trip to Lincoln. Mr. McCarthy is understood to be with President Roosevelt and to favor embodying in the interstate commerce commission the power to hear complaints on rates and to have the further authority of changing a rate Immediately if they see fit.  Mr. Mcuarthy arrived In Norfolk night before last and left at noon yesterday for his home in Ponca. Although here over night and half a day he was so pressed for time that many of his friends and supporters escaped a call. He spent a large portion of yesterday morning at the postoffice with John R. Hays and there were many republicans who were not aware of their representative's presence in town until after he had gone away.  In Fremont day before yesterday Mr. McCarthy announced that he wants to return to congress for a third term. He said he supposed that if the republicans of this district want him they will see to it that he gets there, but he added, "however, I am seeing a few of the republicans of the district and talking with them about crops and things."  It is thus evident to some of the |
