The new management of the Fremont Herald will make a decided improvement in the appearance and in the business of the paper. Both Mr. Howard and Mr. Perkins are well known in Nebraska.

Edgar Howard is one of the most prominent fusionists in the state, having at one time been private secretary to Congressman William J. Bryan and at another time candidate for congress. He was formerly president of the Nebraska Press association.

Mr. Perkins was for many years manager of the American Press association in Omaha and is well known through the state.

Messrs Howard and Perkins have been publishing the Columbus Telegram.

ART DISPLAY.

Many Attractive Bits of Painting at Weatherby Exhibit.

The display of handpainted china which is about to be placed before the eyes of the public in the home of Mrs. E. P. Weatherby is even more attractive this year than ever before and lovers of that art will be delighted with the work to be found.

Among the choice array are nut bowls in mushroom and pine cones; mayonaise bowls and creamers and sugars in the rich oriental colorings.

Something entirely new is to be seen in the steins of old Holland patterns and the steins are found, too, in several other handsome styles. There are bonbon dishes in dainty patterns and in a great variety of shapes and styles.

There are chop plates in elegant patterns which are very attractive.

Something new and decidedly handsome and striking is a very beautiful orange bowl done in wild grapes. Then there are salt cups, fancy trays, candle sticks in various patterns, fruit plates in roses with rich colorings of many shades.

Unique little water colors and plate cards add materially to the effectiveness of the display. Many of the colorings and styles are new this year.

Dr. J. C. Meyers is suffering from appendicitis. He has been bedfast during several days of the past week. He has been a sufferer from this ailment since he arrived in Norfolk last June.

H. E. Owen is home from Omaha for a few days visiting his family. Mr. Owen is a railroad contractor doing heavy work, and the past has been one of his busiest seasons. He now has a contract for twelve miles of grading on the Union Pacific in the North Platte valley, where the Union Pacific and Burlington are racing for position. He also has a big piece of the new Union Pacific cut-off between Omaha and Valley, which it is expected will take two years to complete. The plan of the cut off is to extend the road directly west from Omaha to Valley, cutting through the hills in Douglas county, saving the long detour to the south from that city, and shortening the line between Omaha and Valley some twelve miles.

L. Schenzel is erecting the new barn back of his meat market, for which the council granted permit some time ago.

A meeting of the directors and officers of the commercial club will be held tonight at the office of the secretary.

Chas. Beiersdorf, sr., fell on a slippery pavement yesterday morning and sprained his ankle. He will be laid up for three or four days.

W. J. Bryan is to receive $1,000 per letter for those epistles that he has promised to send back to a syndicate of American newspapers, and he is to write about fifty of them. The Nebraska knows how to make political capital.

A surprise party was held last evening at the home of Mrs. E. F. Stearns in honor of Miss Rogers. There was a good crowd of friends present and the evening was spent in games, with dainty refreshments at the close. All had a most enjoyable time.

Pierce Leader: Theo. Beltz and family came up from Norfolk on Monday and have gone to housekeeping in the Neuman house on the east side and which they will occupy until next spring when they will move to a farm northeast of Pierce that Mr. Beltz rented when he was here last week.

It is not at all improbable that, following the story of revolutionary ancestry printed this week, Norfolk will secure a chapter of "The Daughters of the Revolution." A number of eligible persons have come to light within the past day or two and it is evident that there are quite enough of them in Norfolk for such an organization.

Lieutenant Kirkman, the army officer mentioned in the cable dispatches of this paper yesterday, under Manila date line, is supposed to be a brother of the degenerate Captain Kirkman from Fort Niobrara who is now serving time behind the walls at Fort Leavenworth. The entire family is said to be of a poor type. This one in Manila is alleged to have forged to the extent of about $500.

Mrs. D. S. Bullock and Mrs. E. A. Bullock very delightfully entertained about forty of their friends at an afternoon party in the home of the former on Norfolk avenue yesterday afternoon. The clouds and storm without but added to the cheer and pleasure within, which was kept at a high pitch by means of fitch and six-handred eucure. Mrs. A. Bear won both the shouting and the eucure prize. Delicous refreshments were served.

Carl Liesner, the aged farmer from Pierce county who stabbed and dangerously wounded City Marshal S. H. Crippen at Plainview some time ago, has been brought to the insane hospital here and placed in the men's cottage. Liesner is behaving himself pretty quietly since his arrival here, though the deputy who brought him down experienced considerable difficulty with the old fellow. Liesner, in talking of his stabbing, insists that he did right and believes it was his duty to pierce the frame of Marshal Crippen with his long saber. Dr. Alden anticipates no trouble with the patient but the man will be closely guarded. It is not probable that he will ever again be allowed his liberty as his mind is so affected that he will, it is thought, never recover.

The News is obliged to announce that it can take no more machine composition where the type is to be shipped to some other office. The amount of machine composition has increased to such an extent that it is practically impossible to keep up with the orders, and the drain on the supply of metal, having portions distributed through half a dozen or more offices is so great that it has been decided to ship no more out. The News will still be glad to have the orders of country printers for work they find they cannot do themselves, but the press work must be done in this office. It will also continue to fill orders for outside printers where the metal is to be sold outright, for in this case the metal can at once be ordered to take the place of that shipped out.

Paul Nordwig, one of the genial business men of Norfolk who is well known for the harness he makes, has had a harness made for himself of a kind that he can not sew—a double harness of the sort that county judges and ministers of the gospel know how to create. County Judge William Bates of Madison did it and Miss Lena Claus of Battle Creek is the bride. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William Uecker, Wednesday afternoon and Mr. and Mrs. Nordwig are now visiting with his parents on North Tenth street. A little later they intend to go to housekeeping in a cozy home of their own. Miss Claus has been living with Mr. and Mrs. Uecker here. Mr. Nordwig stole a march on many of his friends in the procedure.

While the dogs had made a number of long runs in and around Norfolk, it is not known that they ever really caught the criminals or caused a conviction. Perhaps the unique bit of trailing was done in connection with the stealing of Dr. P. H. Salter's horse from Taft's grove some time ago. The dogs were set on the trail and ran up toward Pierce. The next day, while the dogs were still tracing the thief, the horse was found in a barn to which it had wandered.

The dogs were recently taken to Wakefield to act in the safe blowing incident there but the thieves were caught before the animals arrived.

They were several times put on trails out of here, hunting horses, but the thieves generally escaped. Not long ago one team was stolen in the west end of town. The dogs were taken south of the river and the buggy was found near the insane hospital.

The selling of the dogs became a good move for Mr. Stein when he moved recently from Norfolk to accept a position in railway employ by way of promotion.

RAILWAY BOYS TO DANCE

WILL BE AT MARQUARDT HALL

The Eighteenth Annual Ball of the Elkhorn Valley Lodge, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Will be Held on December 25.

Norfolk railroad men are going to dance in Norfolk Christmas night. It will be the eighteenth annual ball of Elkhorn Valley lodge, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and the party will be held at Marquardt hall. People who live in Norfolk know what this means—for they know that the annual ball of the railroad boys is one of the most attractive social functions of the twelvemonth, and, like a lot of other good things, they grow better with each added year of age.

BLOODHOUNDS ARE SOLD

WELL KNOWN NORFOLK ANIMALS GO TO BLACK HILLS.

WERE BOUGHT BY A SHERIFF

Caesar and Betsy, Hounds Which Were Owned Here by William Stein, Have Been Sold to a South Dakota Officer to Trace Criminals for $200.

Norfolk has lost its bloodhounds. No more will telegraph or telephone calls from territory tributary to this city, summon the brutes with sharp noses and appetites for human blood, into service of trailing the fugitive criminals. The two dogs, Caesar and Betsy, owned by William Stein, have been sold to the sheriff of Lawrence county, South Dakota, up in the Black Hills, and have already arrived at that point. The dogs were sold for something over $200.

Dispatches from Deadwood state that the two famous Norfolk dogs have arrived and that it is now hoped the campaign of crime which has been carried on in that territory for some time, may be ended. The report says that the Black Hills sheriff has great faith in the dogs and he tells of their long run of 200 miles between Wakefield and Winnetoon, trailing horsethieves. The impression prevails in the Black Hills that the dogs captured these thieves but this, of course, is untrue, although it was said that the thieves were caught sight of four times before they disappeared into the hills.

While the dogs had made a number of long runs in and around Norfolk, it is not known that they ever really caught the criminals or caused a conviction. Perhaps the unique bit of trailing was done in connection with the stealing of Dr. P. H. Salter's horse from Taft's grove some time ago. The dogs were set on the trail and ran up toward Pierce. The next day, while the dogs were still tracing the thief, the horse was found in a barn to which it had wandered.

They were several times put on trails out of here, hunting horses, but the thieves generally escaped. Not long ago one team was stolen in the west end of town. The dogs were taken south of the river and the buggy was found near the insane hospital.

The selling of the dogs became a good move for Mr. Stein when he moved recently from Norfolk to accept a position in railway employ by way of promotion.

Resolutions.

Resolutions upon the resignation of Superintendent D. C. O'Connor passed at a meeting of the board of education held on the 25th day of November, 1905:

Whereas, Mr. D. C. O'Connor having resigned as superintendent of the Norfolk city schools which he has so ably filled for the past nine years to accept the appointment by the United States government as superintendent of public instruction for the Isthmus of Panama;

Therefore, be it resolved, That we congratulate him upon this deserved recognition of his services in the cause of education whereby he will have a broader field and more extended opportunities for the exercise of those abilities which have contributed to his success as a teacher and educational leader.

Resolved, That Mr. O'Connor has been a most faithful, energetic and progressive superintendent, untiring in his efforts to build up and improve our schools, and as a result of his labors we are able to say that our Norfolk city schools will compare favorably with any similar schools in the state.

Resolved, That we regret very much the severing of the pleasant relations of superintendent and board of education, and the loss to our schools and the community by the removal of Mr. O'Connor to a far distant field of labor, and our best wishes go with him for happiness and continued success in his chosen vocation.

Resolved, That these resolutions shall be spread upon the minutes of this board, and the secretary instructed to present a copy of the same to Mr. O'Connor, and furnish them to our local newspapers for publication.

DETECTIVES VISIT RAY.

Crazy Suspect is Still Engaged in Blowing Safes.

Sloux City Journal: Robert Ray, alias Elmer Russell, whom the police suspect of being the third of the trio which blew the safe in a saloon at Wakefield, Neb., is still in a demented condition at the county jail.

Detectives J. B. Richard and Mike Follis visited the jail yesterday morning.

"George Parker wants to know if you got hurt over there a few weeks ago," remarked one of them.

"Oh, you mean in that Springfield affair," replied Ray. "I'm all right again."

Then his mind wandered again to safe blowing and an attempt to escape from a posse with shotguns.

While Parker and Lynch, who are in jail at Ponca, charged with committing the Wakefield job, have been suspected of having been implicated in the Springfield robbery, Ray's confession strongly confirms the theory of the police.

The police are at a loss how to account for Ray's mental aberration. At times he is in mortal fear that the other members of the gang are going to "get him" for being a "stool pigeon." Again he craves for morphine, or any kind of dope.

"Just give me a little dope, any kind," he pleads. "I can snuff it, or eat it, or take it any way."

When he gets an opiate he becomes quiet for a while.

The prisoner's description tallies precisely with that of the fugitive in the Wakefield affair.

Ray will be brought before the board of insanity commissioners this morning.

COURT WILL BE HELD ANYWAY

Despite Tucker Law, Now Void, Jury Will Act as Special Jury.

A peculiar situation has resulted in Madison county as a result of the declaration that the Tucker jury law is void. The old law provided that the jury should be selected by the county commissioners not later than fifteen days in advance of court. The new law provided that the jurors should be selected by the county canvassers, and the jurors for the coming session of district court were chosen in that manner.

Now that the Tucker law has been declared void, Jack Koenigstein has written to Judge Boyd as to what will be done, it being too late to select jurors in the old way. Judge Boyd replied that he will ask Sheriff Clements to request the jurors selected to act as a special jury if this is satisfactory to Madison county attorneys.

TERRIBLY SHOT; MAY LIVE

AUGUST SCHULTZ OF LINCOLN HAS ARM TORN OFF.

VEINS SEEM TO BE EMPTIED

But in Spite of That, and the Fact That He Walked Four Miles to Town, the Man is Said to Have a Rare Chance to Recover.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 27.—While hunting August Schultz of this city yesterday suffered an accident in which his arm was blown off by a shotgun. The bone was torn away clean from the shoulder and every artery was severed. He walked four miles to town and his veins were apparently emptied of blood but the doctor says he has a bare chance of recovery.

Little Hildreth Gamble Dead.

Little Hildreth Gamble, the beautiful child from Kansas City who will be remembered in Norfolk as having acted as ring bearer at the Riddle-Sisson wedding here June 3, 1903, died a week ago at the home of her parents in Kansas City, of malignant diphtheria.

Another Express Driver.

Gus Bley has accepted a position as driver for the American and Pacific express companies. This will make three drivers in Norfolk, and will give improved service.

Creighton, Neb., Nov. 28.—Special to The News: Tom Young, formerly of a boarding house man at Pierce, who became entangled in some sort of trouble over femininity, and who has been in hot water for some time past because both he and his wife claimed his children, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary at Center, the county seat of Knox county, yesterday afternoon, and was taken to Lincoln by Sheriff Burns this morning. Court was held by Judge Boyd, who sentenced Young. Young had recently been at Bloomfield.

Mrs. Robert Howe and son, Harry, are in the city from Randolph, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Law.

R. B. Hall was in the city yesterday for a short time, visiting his mother and his brother, W. F. Hall. He was enroute to Omaha from Neligh.

I. W. Alter of Wayne was in the city over night on his way home from Grand Island, where he had been attending the monthly meeting of the finance committee of the A. O. U. W. At the meeting held yesterday the grand lodge settled in full all claims of the supreme lodge against Nebraska, amounting to $59,000, the payment of which was authorized by the grand lodge at its session in South Omaha last May.

Miss Ryan and Miss Grace Ryan of Neligh are guests of Miss Kathryn Shaw. They came down for the dancing party given by the Trinity Social guild last evening.

Henry Hollyfield is quite ill at his home.

A very valuable Jersey cow belonging to W. H. Shippee died last night.

The Trinity social guild gave a pleasant dancing party in Marquardt hall last evening.

A surprise party was perpetrated upon Harold Oxnam last night by a number of his young friends in The Heights.

Neligh Leader: The first of the week a trained nurse was summoned from Norfolk to Wayne to attend A. G. Bohnert, who is dangerously sick.

The four classes in the high school will tonight tender a farewell reception to Superintendent O'Connor and a welcoming reception to Superintendent Bodwell in Marquardt hall. Elaborate preparations have been made for the affair.

Plainview News: Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Engler entertained a number of their friends Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in dancing. The Italian orchestra of Norfolk furnished excellent music for the occasion and all present report a fine time.

M. C. Walker, who was in Stanton yesterday, says that it is feared there that the young man named Glaser, who fell from a church steeple a couple of weeks ago, will not recover. His skull is fractured and it is feared by his father that the young man will die.

Neligh Leader: Henry Kryger returned Saturday evening from Omaha, where he has been under treatment in St. Joseph's hospital. Unless perhaps he is somewhat weaker from the exertion of the trip, his condition shows no material change, either for better or worse.

Verdigré Citizen: Monday the three-year-old daughter of T. A. Tikalsky, one of the proprietors of the Progress, while playing with Jos. Kotrous' children, received a severe injury from an ax in the hands of one of her playmates. The little finger on the right hand was almost severed, hanging by but a small piece of skin. Her parents brought her to Dr. Bates, who dressed the wound and has hopes that he may save the finger.

Neligh Leader: Mrs. Jane Brown of Clearwater was taken to the Norfolk asylum on the 18th. She has been a frequent inmate of the state institutions of this class, was discharged last April, and according to the general tenor of events it was just about time for her to take another trip at the expense of the county. She has been showing vicious tendencies for some time, and recently visited a school house and scared the children, making them sing for her amusement.

Winside Tribune: As Fred Millemeier, a German farmer living six miles southwest of Winside, was going home from town last Thursday afternoon his horses became unmanageable when he got out by Charlie Nydahl's, and ran away. He was thrown out of the wagon, striking on his head and it was thought by Wm. Prince, who found him, that his neck was broken. Mr. Prince came to town and secured Dr. Isaacs and a livery team and the man was brought to town, but later was taken home. He remained unconscious for some time but was all right the next day for he came back and fixed the fences he tore down.

Yesterday was an exceptional day for Damascus Commandery, No. 20, in Norfolk. In the afternoon Surgeon J. C. Brown of Fort Niobrara, Neb., who arrived at noon, received the order of the Red Cross and in the evening was given the Knights Templar degree. Aside from this, however, was an important feature in a farewell for D. C. O'Connor, who is about to leave for Panama. The members of the order presented to Mr. O'Connor, as a token of their esteem, a very handsome Knights Templar charm, the presentation speech being made by E. J. Rix, eminent commander. Mr. O'Connor responded in able manner. After the ceremonies the members of the order enjoyed a delightful supper at the Zirfas restaurant.

M'KILLIP TO OPPOSE M'CARTHY?

Lincoln Democrats Believe Mr. McKillip Can Win Next Year.

Lincoln News: The talk of Patrick McKillip's aspirations for the democratic governorship nomination next year is discounted by prominent democrats who are in close touch with the wealthy and oratorical young follower of Bryan. McKillip is more apt to be a candidate against J. J. McCarthy for congress in the Third district, they say. McKillip has ability and is anxious to begin his congressional career early, as a stepping stone to higher honor. He made the race against McCarthy last time and demonstrated his prowess by making considerable gains over his ticket. It is alleged that he can defeat the republican candidate when the latter is without the aid of Roosevelt's popularity. Those who are close to the Humphrey banker say that he also counts on some slight sentiment against the third term proposition to aid him.

Politicians believe that there is no question that McCarthy will be the third term nominee if nothing untoward occurs before the convention, the doctrine of permanent employment in congress having obtained a strong hold on the members of the party in that district. Last year McKillip lost the district to McCarthy by 2,941 votes in the face of the Roosevelt popular wave. In 1902 Robinson, the fusion candidate, backed by a united organization of the democrats and populists, lost the district by 650 votes against McCarthy. It is on such a statistical showing that the democratic friends of McKillip base their hope that he can land himself in congress.

Recent interviews have quoted the Humphrey man as saying that he would prefer the governorship to a place in congress on account of the smaller handicap under which he would labor at the start. Why he takes such an attitude is not known, in view of the fact that he is seeking an opportunity to run against McCarthy. The fact that some who know better are industriously circulating the story that he wants the governorship nomination is regarded in some quarters as confirmation of the theory that it is a ruse to lull McCarthy into inactivity.
