WILLIAM H. MILLER, WHO STRUCK GEORGE NAGLE.

CASE IS IN COURT AT NELIGH

It is Alleged That Miller Struck Nagle and Then, When Nagle Fell, Stamped Upon His Victim Violently—Injuries Very Serious.

Neligh, Neb., Dec. 8.—William H. Miller, who assaulted George Nagle at Brunswick so badly that it was feared Nagle was either dead or dying, was bound over in the district court here yesterday by County Judge Finch.

Miller and Nagle were business competitors at Brunswick. The two were at the stock yards, Nagle with his back to Miller. As Nagle started away Miller is said to have struck Nagle at the base of the brain and, after Nagle fell, to have stamped upon the prostrate man violently. Miller is a large and powerful man and has the reputation of a bully. When Nagle was carried into the house, he was thought to be dead or dying and his injuries since have been considered very dangerous.

When Miller learned of the serious result of his blow he is said to have fled and Sheriff Frisbie pursued, finally capturing Miller.

ALL WANT A UNION DEPOT

TRAVELING PUBLIC OF NORTH NEBRASKA ENDORSES.

WOULD BE LESS INCONVENIENT

The Clearwater Record Says That All of the People in This Part of the State Ought to Do All in Their Power to Help.

Clearwater Record: The uptown depot of the Chicago & Northwestern at Norfolk has been destroyed by fire, and now the people of that place are asking for a union station. Every person who ever has occasion to travel through Norfolk is interested in this movement and should do whatever lies in their power to help it along.

The old system of having a separate depot for each railroad is too inconvenient for the present time. The Junction at Norfolk has long been the cause of unnecessary delays to the traveling public, but it could easily be abandoned if a union station was built in some central location.

To be up-to-date, the druggist must read advertisements, he must keep up with the new preparations that are being made, and in so doing, must read the manufacturers' ads.

Don't expect every ad to bring in cash returns. It's the sum total that counts.

Don't expect every person you mail a booklet to to patronize you.

To sum it all up, the ad is a business bulletin; the chief idea you wish to express in condensed form; a paragraph boiled down in a few strong, terse words.

A catch phrase that may be read at a glance is sufficient; coin it yourself, let it be original.

Give your advertisements your personal attention, make them a personal appeal.

See that your advertisements are properly displayed.

Be brief and concise in your statements.

Use clean-cut illustrations, if any, and use the space your business justifies.

Be a continuous and persistent advertiser, selecting the medium best adapted to your business.

Study the advertising problem continually.

Advertising creates many a new business, revives many a dull business, rescues many a lost business, saves many a failing business, enlarges many an old business, and secures success in any business.

JUST HIGHER EDUCATION.

Medical Students Gouge Out Each Others' Eyes at Class Fight.

Blacked eyes, swollen noses, torn scalps and wrecked clothing are signs of glory at the Northwestern university medical school since a gory fight that took place between the two lower classes at the South Side branch of the Methodist institution, says a Chicago dispatch.

The young scientists gouged, swung, uppercut, kicked and chewed in the anatomical amphitheater until the invading army, consisting of 100 sophomores, had been reduced to a mass of blood and bruises, and at the finish the 85 freshmen defenders, though they won the battle, were in little better plight.

Four sophomores were injured severely. The faculty has begun an investigation.

THE RANGE EXPLODED.

Close Call for the Family of A. Cross at Pierce.

The range in the kitchen of A. Cross blew up last Wednesday morning and nearly wrecked the interior of the room, besides injuring Mrs. Cross, Celia and the baby. The former was quite badly cut, while Celia was struck over the right eye by a piece of the stove and her forehead and face bruised and cut badly.

She was preparing breakfast over the stove at the time of the explosion. The baby was also near the stove and its little hands and arms were badly burned. Dr. L. R. Pheasant was called at once to attend the injuries. It is thought that the explosion was caused by frozen water pipes running to the tank in the bath room above. The kitchen is not furnished with a radiator from the heating plant that warms the other rooms of the house and consequently the severe cold of that night froze up the pipes in the pantry and kitchen.

The range was a complete wreck and the ceiling and walls of the room badly damaged from the flying iron and soot. It seems miraculous that the members of the family were not seriously injured.—Pierce Call, Dec. 7.

Lynch For Baseball.

Pierce Leader: Chas. Viterna, who will be remembered as cashier in the Pierce County bank at this place a couple years ago, visited Friday afternoon with old friends in our city, and the next morning went on to Plainview to attend to business matters. He is now residing at Lynch where he has been employed in a bank ever since leaving here. He is a great lover of the national game of baseball and was a member of the invincible Lynch team which did so effective and successful playing in the Bonesteel league during the past baseball season. Lynch is the town that hired the crack Western league battery, Goding and Pfister, to play with them against Fairfax last summer in the final game of the season and lost out, the opposing club pounding Pfister whenever they took the notion, and you just bet Lynch hasn't any love for Jack Pfister. It is Charlie's opinion that another league will be formed in that part of the country again next season.

YOUTH IS FAST ADDER.

Eighteen-year-old Defeats the Speed Champion in Machine Addition.

E. D. McCullough, the American Trust and Savings bank clerk who won the championship for speed and accuracy of work on the adding machine at New York three weeks ago, was defeated last night by a mere boy, Harry Reynolds, employed at the First National bank, says a Chicago dispatch.

The winner, who is 18 years old, made a record of eleven minutes thirty-one and one-fifth seconds for five hundred checks, while McCullough's time was 11:35:04 for the same number of checks. Charles Novak, of the Commercial Exchange National bank, was third, with a record of 14:46.

The contests took place before the Chicago chapter of the American Institute of Bank Clerks. The prizes were $25, $15 and $10.

In a special contest for the electrical machine, in distinction from the hand lever machine, McCullough won with a record of 10 minutes and 52 seconds.

The envelope addressing contest was won by Fred Thulin, of the Continental National bank, with E. J. Schumacher, of the First National bank, second.

CREIGHTON LIGHT PLANT

CITIZENS FORM STOCK COMPANY TO BUILD.

WILL BE READY WITHIN WEEK

The Lights for the Town of Creighton Were Formerly Obtained from Verdigre but the Citizens Organized a Stock Company, $25,000 Capital.

Creighton, Neb., Dec. 12.—Special to The News: The citizens of Creighton have organized a stock company, capitalized at $25,000, for the installation of an electric lighting plant.

The power will be secured from the lower Brooks mill and it is claimed that there will be lights turned on by the 20th of this month. Poles arrived today.

The electricity for lights in this city was formerly obtained from Verdigre but the citizens decided to start a plant of their own.

Dr. Stewart, a dentist, and J. Jackson, former owner of the Creighton Courier, left last night with their families for Colorado Springs, Col., where they will make their homes.

NOW IN MEXICO.

Eighty Americans, Including D. Mathewson of Norfolk.

Advices from Mexico seem to indicate that the party of pilgrims which left Kansas City December 2 are having a most delightful time and that D. Mathewson, one of this party, is well. There are eighty invited guests composing this excursion, and the travelers come from ten different states, extending as far east as Maine and as far west as Wyoming. Ohio furnishes the greatest number. Those from Nebraska number seven.

The train is made up of five Pullman stateroom cars, two persons occupying each stateroom, which, with the observation car and dining car, constitute as fine a train as has ever run out of Kansas City. President Stillwell and a number of other officers of the K. C. M. & O. railroad are of the party and the dining car and train service is such as might be looked for under these conditions.

The News correspondent reports that great disappointment is manifested by some of the people of Mexico when informed that the two gentlemen from Norfolk, who visited Mexico last month, are not with the present party and it is said that tears are discovered on countenances which otherwise show no traces of care, when the announcement is made.

WANTED—By manufacturing corporation, energetic, honest man to manage branch office. Salary $185.00 monthly and commission minimum investment of $500 in stock of company required. Secretary, Box 401, Madison, Wis.

WEST POINT'S MISTAKE.

Norfolk is Still the Operating Center for Northwestern Road.

The West Point Republican says: "Operating headquarters for this railroad division have been changed from Norfolk to Fremont."

For the correction of an erroneous idea which seems to exist in the Republican's mind, as well no doubt as in a lot of others in this part of the country because of the fictitious reports sent out of Fremont, The News wishes to state that this is not the case. Not yet!

All the operating that Fremont does is over a few branch lines that run into that point from South Platte territory. Norfolk is still the headquarters of the Northwestern road in the state of Nebraska, and all operating on lines out of here, including West Point, is done in the Norfolk office. The general superintendent, division superintendent, chief dispatcher, general roadmaster and train master are all stationed at Norfolk.

KILLED BY FANCY.

New York Physician Imagines a Pain That Ends Life.

Dr. Kate L. S. Sterling, one of New York's ablest women physicians, widely known and beloved, died last night at the New York hospital after a month's fight against the keenest mental and physical torture, says a New York dispatch.

Suffering from affection of the nerves of the left arm, long endured in silence, the doctor finally decided to go to the hospital for treatment. There on the advice of surgeons, she consented to amputation. The operation was performed successfully and the patient seemed to rally.

But the severed arm came back to haunt the victim. The throbbing nerves, lost in substance, still were present in spirit. The former agony, augmented tenfold, returned to rack the unfortunate woman. She felt the arm contract until the muscles seemed strained to the bursting point. She screamed with pain, although no actual torment had been able to wring a murmur from her lips.

Her physical suffering was so great that the doctors kept her under the influence of opiates. Two weeks ago it was seen that her general health was failing. Nothing remained real to her, but the throbbing of her lost arm. She gradually wasted away until at 6:30 p. m. last night the end came.

EXPECTED TO KILL HIMSELF.

Hoboken Police Will Have to Watch Korean Diplomat.

Interest in the arrival of the Kaiser Wilhelm II., is increased because of the fact that the steamer has on board Min Yong Tchan, until recently minister from Korea to France, and who will not know, until he reaches New York, of the death of Prince Min Yong Whan, who committed suicide, as a result of the establishment by the Japanese government of a protectorate over Korea, says a New York dispatch.

A Korean custom is that if a person's brother commit suicide he must also do so. Friends here hope that Mr. Min will not follow the national custom.

The Kaiser Wilhelm II. docks are at Hoboken. Sergeant Slattery, in charge of Hoboken police headquarters, last night said he did not believe Chief of Police Hayes had heard of Minister Min's coming, and did not much think the chief was acquainted with the Korean custom of suicide out of fraternal sympathy. Nevertheless the sergeant added, Chief Hayes would undoubtedly take every precaution to prevent suicide.

Glen Jenkins, a brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen, and Miss Rose Krivanek, a sister of the groom, acted as bride's maid. The newly married couple are very well known in our vicinity. Mr. Krivanek is the oldest son of Mrs. R. Krivanek of Meadow Grove and the bride is second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Jenkins. ### UNIQUE JAP LETTER.

St. Paul Hotel Bell Boy Sends Queer Note to Landlord.

A unique letter, written by a Japanese boy, was obtained by C. E. Greene this week in St. Paul. The little Jap had worked as a waiter in the Merchants hotel of St. Paul, and left that city for New York, where he has gone on a farm. He writes this queer note to the St. Paul landlord, who formerly employed him:

"Glencove, Long Island, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Dear Mr. Kibbe:

Please excuse that I have been so long while without writing. But I never meant to do so. We have had pretty good trip since we left there, and stayed at Pittsburgh about two weeks, then we came over here. I have nothing to say but great about the city seeing around. We stopped at Japanese Mission a while and I commenced to work a few days ago in care of Mr. H. W. Warner, Glen Cove.

"The place is in country of the Long Island, hearing the wild bird and the murmurs of the autumn breeze at the top of the trees, and see the whole sight changing its color into brown and red, day by day. At the midst of silence in sloped season to cold, how pitifully I hear the worm singing in the bush. Leaves which will soon the way in the wind, shades of spreading trees which will soon be woven by snow. Changeable it is as quick and slow as peoples prosper goes on.

"I am working among these and sometimes am forced to tears recalling the memories of my mothers' land and of you all. Please be glad I am quite well and hope you will be so healthy long ever. Fortunately, if you remember that there lived such a boy once in yours, how delighted I should be.

"Respectfully yours,
"(Henry) K. Ohata."

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects. We are never without it in the house." For sale by all druggists.
