

GAVE MESSAGE TO MEXICO

NEBRASKANS PREDICTED THOMPSON'S APPOINTMENT.

TOLD MEXICO ALL ABOUT HIM

Secretary of State Galusha and W. N. Huse of Norfolk are credited in an interview in Mexico City with telling about Thompson.

A copy of the Daily Record of Mexico City, an American newspaper published in that foreign country, of the issue of Thursday, January 18, has been received by The News from the editor of the Record. A column story on the front page tells how two Nebraskaans—Secretary of State A. Galusha of Lincoln and W. N. Huse of Norfolk—gave to Mexico the news that Mr. Thompson would without doubt be appointed as ambassador to that country from the United States.

Efforts are being made now to induce H. G. Leavitt to invest here—Some local capital will be placed into the concern.

There will be another beet sugar factory operating in the old buildings within two years, according to the plans now maturing among members of the Norfolk Industrial company.

Since the removal of the sugar factory the acreage of beets grown in the vicinity has increased steadily. Last year 860 acres were planted and, although the results were discouraging, owing to heavy rains and worms, the acreage for this year promises to be larger than last.

Mr. Galusha and Mr. Huse are personal friends of David E. Thompson, whose appointment as ambassador to Mexico has presumably been held up for some reason by the senate, and up to date has not been confirmed.

Mr. Thompson is a man of great will and broad principles, but neither wealth nor position has marred the finest sensibilities of the distinguished Nebraskan.

Mr. Thompson is a man of great will and broad principles, but neither wealth nor position has marred the finest sensibilities of the distinguished Nebraskan.

Mr. Huse corroborated all that had been said by Mr. Galusha, and declared that a better combination of heart and brains could not be found in the length and breadth of the United States than David Thompson, and that Americans in Mexico would be favored by such an appointment.

From the above, it is to be presumed that Mr. Thompson is likely to be appointed yet. If his friends have not overestimated him, Mexico will get a man made of the right sort of stuff who will bind the republics together with bands of steel and an alliance that the world will envy.

DRUMMER BARROW DIES

DENVER COMMERCIAL TRAVELER SUCCUMBS IN HOTEL.

HIS WIFE ARRIVES TOO LATE

Compelled to Wait in Denver for a Train All Day Saturday, While Her Husband Lay Dying, She Left Home Just an Hour Before the End Came.

With no one but a trained nurse at his bedside and in the heart of a country where he had worked for some twenty years, Samuel J. Barrow, a commercial traveler from Denver, died late Saturday afternoon in his room at the Pacific hotel. His wife left Denver an hour before his death in the futile hope that she might reach his bedside in time to see him alive.

Mr. Barrow was first taken ill about ten days ago at Oakdale and was under the doctor's care there for erysipelas for a week. On Thursday he left his bed and came to Norfolk against the advice of the physician.

Miss Cleveland was then called to nurse him and did not leave his bedside until his death late the next afternoon. To her in his half-conscious moments he turned for relief from his incessant pain and suffering.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Barrow, of whom he spoke continually, waited impatiently from early Saturday morning until 4 in the afternoon for a train to bring her to Norfolk.

Mr. Barrow was also a member of the Royal Arcanum. He was fifty-four years old and leaves a widow and seven children, one of whom is married. They all live in Denver.

Mrs. Barrow returned to Denver with the body this morning. No services were held in Norfolk.

"Called in." We, the traveling men present in Norfolk, Nebraska, at the time of the death of our fellow traveler, Samuel J. Barrow, hereby express our sincere condolence to the bereaved family in the following resolutions:

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to remove from his field of labor and "call him in" for his eternal rest our fellow traveler, Samuel J. Barrow.

Be it further resolved, That owing to his long and faithful service, the traveling fraternity has lost in his death an earnest brother traveler, and his wife and children a kind and loving husband and father.

Committee: Alonzo Long, E. E. Miller, J. N. Skaggs.

Thanks Traveling Men. Mrs. Barrow wishes to thank the traveling men assembled in Norfolk, Neb., for their kind expressions of sympathy and resolutions of condolence in her great bereavement and also wishes to thank them most heartily for their handsome floral tribute.

It is very doubtful if the new depot will be of much use as it is not the custom of the Northwestern to build any but frame depots.

Regarding additional passenger service on the main line of the Northwestern it is impossible to secure any information beyond the fact that new trains will be put in operation over the line about May 1.

This means that there will undoubtedly be additional train service from Omaha, and probably Chicago, to the Wyoming terminals of the Northwestern for all time after May of this year.
