So President Roosevelt did not fancy "Fads and Feathers?"

When you are in a crowd, keep cool; when you are home, do the same thing.

Unused talents are valueless alike to their possessor and to those around them.

There seems to be about as much discord over reforming football as there is over rate regulation.

If you must run people down, use an auto. It is a great improvement over the scandal machine.

It is reported that only 2,300 invitations have been issued for the Alice Roosevelt wedding.

On a sewer bond proposition, the corner lot does not pay for the entire distance of both fronts.

The cold wave was predicted more than twenty-four hours by the weather department.

Has anyone a new story of Abraham Lincoln? February 12 is near at hand and a new crop of stories and anecdotes should be coming forth.

It is said that the summer resorts on the planet Mars are situated near the poles.

The man who is not attracting much attention considers himself the fortunate one since the era of investigations and accusations has set in.

Ruts are fatal to progress. Make use of every new idea that will advance your own business or will help in the improvement of your own town.

Furs will not be worn at the reception given by Vice President Fairbanks.

The statement was made seriously by a New York woman that one could live quietly on $1,000 per year.

The fines in Norfolk's police court for January amounted to $10.

"Why girls leave home," may not always be understood.

The Denver Woman's club has voted to wear gymnasium suits while doing housework.

MATTER OF EDUCATION. If the election on the sewer bond proposition were held tomorrow, it is not at all improbable that the bonds would be defeated.

Be of so much value that your sewer tax will amount to more than your neighbor's.

To know under the sewer bonds, now that they have gone this far, would give the town something of a black eye.

A great lawyer always presents his case to a jury in just as many different ways, from just as many different directions and viewpoints, as it is possible for him to construct.

The people will not vote for the bonds on pure sentiment.

One of the penalties of greatness is that you can't even send a wedding invitation through the mail with assurance that the precious document will arrive.

ed in getting the proposition before the people, to start in with more energy than ever in arguing for the bonds.

A campaign of speechmaking would be no bad plan.

The simplicity displayed in the Roosevelt wedding invitation is commendable, even though the recipients are making fools of themselves.

The robbers who attempt to steal the engagement ring of the future Mrs. Longworth will be shot away by the solid gold rifle that will adorn the new Longworth home.

Wouldn't it be a commendable thing in Mr. Roosevelt if he were to insist upon as much simplicity in his daughter's wedding gifts as he is reported to insist upon in many other things?

Among the things suggested the other night by Secretary Hanson of the Fremont Commercial club as objects worthy the effort on Norfolk's part, were state conventions of various organizations of business men.

NORFOLK CAN GET IT. A careful investigation at the banks, the postoffice and the express offices, shows that about $2,700 in cash went out of Norfolk during the month of January this year to catalogue merchants in the cities.

NEVER HAD SEEN BROTHER

PAUL RENNER OF MADISON COUNTY HAS QUEER VISIT.

UNKNOWN BROTHER NOW HERE

Robert Renner Was Born After Paul Renner Left the Old Country and Consequently He Had Never Set Eyes on This Frater Till This Week.

Madison, Neb., Feb. 6.—Special to The News: Paul Renner, out in Fairview, is entertaining two guests from abroad this week.

One is his brother Robert Renner who was born after Paul left the "Vaterland" and whom he saw for the first time, the other is Mr. Froehlich, a young merchant, also a German, but who has for several years been in the employ of an importing firm in southern France.

Both young men are on their way to the French possessions in Australia, and leave here next Friday. They go via San Francisco and Hawaii.

NOW IN JAIL AT MADISON

QUEER STRANGER WHO CALLED ON ATTORNEY KOENIGSTEIN.

DECLARES THAT HE IS INSANE

Dick McKay, the Laboring Man Who Was Sent Down to Madison, is in Jail Waiting for Action of the County Board on His Sanity.

Madison, Neb., Feb. 6.—Special to The News: It is not often that subjects of crime or infamy present themselves before the authorities to have meted out to them their dues or deserts. Yet such a case occurred here Saturday when one, giving his name as Dick Mackay came to the courthouse and stated that he was insane and wished to be sent to the asylum.

Mr. Field, the clerk of the district court, who is ex-officio secretary of the board called in Attorney James Nichols who happened to be in the building at the time. An examination of the candidate for non compos mentes honors disclosed the fact that the latter had come over from Norfolk in the afternoon on the advice of County Attorney Koenigstein to whom he had first stated his desires in the matter.

He said further that he was a laboring man and had come to Norfolk from Rapid City, South Dakota. When asked if that place was his home he answered in the negative, stating that he had come there from Omaha, where he had stayed off and on a number of years.

Dr. Long, who is the third member of the board, was out of the city, so the man was turned over to Sheriff Clements and placed in the county jail. At this writing he is still in custody and under surveillance, the board not having taken any action as yet.
