Features of the morning session were two short talks by Dr. Condra of the state university, one on "Reclamation of Arid Lands," and the other on "Corn Growing as it Can be Dealt With by Teachers."

Superintendent Doremus of Madison gave an interesting paper on the life of the teacher as to its entrance into the life of the pupils outside the school room.

Mrs. Frances E. Carter gave an address on "Reading."

Excellent music was furnished in solos by Miss Mabel Bruner and Miss Florence Yalchik.

A few of the teachers left for their homes at noon, and others planned to leave later in the day and Saturday morning.

BAPTISTS CALL A PASTOR

REV. MR. BENJAMIN HAS BEEN CHOSEN HERE.

TRIAL SERMONS YESTERDAY

Mr. Benjamin is From Palestine, Neb., and is a Very Worthy Pastor—Congregation is Fortunate in Securing Him for Norfolk.

[From Monday's Daily.]

The Baptist church of Norfolk has issued a call to Rev. Mr. Benjamin, formerly of Palestine, Neb., and the call has been accepted. Mr. Benjamin preached a trial sermon at the church here yesterday, both morning and evening, and the congregation were so well pleased with him as a pulpit orator and as a man, that they immediately held a meeting and unanimously determined to invite him to take the charge here.

Mr. Benjamin had been in the city some time before, so that he was not a total stranger to members of the congregation. He comes with excellent recommendations from former congregations, and will, the members here believe, make a splendid pastor. The members here feel that they are most fortunate in securing so worthy a minister as Mr. Benjamin.

Mail Order Baby.

Atchison (Kan.) Journal: A Nebraska exchange has won the palm for humor at the expense of the catalogue houses. The editor saw a chance for a funny write-up in a story told him by one of the callers at his office and printed it as follows:

"One of my friends on rural route No. 3, east of town, called last Saturday and said he had a good story on the catalogue houses. If we would not use names. He then went on to relate that a neighbor living over in Wayne county has been quite a patron of mail order houses in the past, and allows the children to play with the catalogues for amusement during the day. One morning the nurse came out and told him there was a new baby in the house. 'Who brought it?' asked the children. 'Oh, I know,' said one little tot; it's a mail order baby, and I bet it's adulterated just like the pepper and the strawberry jam was, and papa will have to keep it because he sent in the money!"

CAB RUNS OVER CHILD

LEANING ON DOOR INSIDE, LOCK SUDDENLY GIVES WAY.

LAD FALLS UNDER THE WHEEL

Yale Wright, 7-Year-Old Son of Sheriff From Brown County, is Victim of Unusual Accident Here—Long, Wide Gash in Lad's Forehead.

[From Friday's Daily.]

Riding inside of a cab with his parents, and resting his weight on the door, little 7-year-old Yale Wright, son of Sheriff M. A. Wright of Alnsworth, dropped out of the carriage when the door suddenly swung open, tumbled down between the wheels and was run over by the heavy vehicle yesterday, enroute from the insane hospital to the city. The little fellow's forehead was plowed open to the skull by the rubber-tired wheel, though it is thought by the surgeons that the skull was not injured. He was picked up and hurried with all haste into the city, a drive of two miles, and was carried into the office of Drs. Bear & Pilger, where Dr. Pilger examined the wound and placed the little injured fellow under the influence of chloroform, after which the doctors took many stitches in the wide gash. It was thought that he would recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright, with their little boy and a baby, arrived in Norfolk from the west. They brought along a woman patient for the insane hospital here and took her out during the morning. After noon they started back to the city in cab No. 5.

H. Sunderlin, one of the most reliable and careful cab drivers in Norfolk, was on the box. After the family had all been seated in the cab, Mr. Sunderlin slammed the cab door shut. It failed the first time to lock and he banged it to again. This time the door apparently locked and the horses were started toward the city.

After leaving the hospital driveway, the cab struck the section road leading south toward Norfolk avenue, and the wheels were rolling along at a pretty good rate. Mr. Wright noticed some object of interest along the way, called the attention of his little son to the object and helped him to his feet so that the child might look out of the window. The little boy leaned his weight against the door and a moment later, while his sight was fixed off in the fields, he plunged down and out of the cab and between the wheels. Before the driver could be notified the back had passed over the lad's forehead, laying open the scalp in a path many inches long and the width of the cab wheel's tire.

On examination, it was believed his skull was not broken. This fact was accounted for by the rubber tires on the cab wheels.

Mr. Sunderlin, the driver, said that he had never before had any trouble with the lock on the door, and he was perfectly confident, before he started on the drive, that the door was securely locked. Mr. Wright says that after the accident, and while he held the wounded child in his arms, enroute into the city, the door swung open repeatedly and could not be fastened shut.

Mr. Sunderlin deplored the accident and felt as badly over it as any one concerned.

REGRET TO SEE HIM LEAVE.

Pierce People Feel Their Loss in Departure of Mr. Barnhart.

Pierce Leader: It is with a deep sense of regret that the Leader announces the contemplated removal from our midst of a good and worthy citizen, a citizen who for the past sixteen years has assisted materially by word and act in the betterment and uplifting of our county, of a man who has occupied the position of county attorney for three consecutive terms, and who while acting in this official capacity, unflinchingly and admirably prosecuted the guilty in a vigorous manner and protected the innocent in a way that endeared him to all lovers of justice. This man is Lawyer H. F. Barnhart.

He has formed a law partnership with Judge Isaac Powers of Norfolk, and will move to that city just as soon as possible, probably next week. The new firm will occupy a handsome suite of three rooms on the second floor of the Bishop block, all of the rooms having fronts overlooking the street. One of the rooms will be entirely taken up with the law library of the firm. The library of Mr. Barnhart's alone is an elaborate one and this combined with that of Mr. Powers will make their library composed of the best and as many of the law books as any one office in the state. Mr. Powers is a very capable man, having lived in Norfolk for many years and worked up a practice of which he can be proud. At one time he was attorney general for the state of Nebraska which in itself is a distinguished honor for any man. He was also a law partner of John R. Hays until a couple years ago when Mr. Hays became postmaster of that city.

Mr. Barnhart has been a resident of Pierce county since 1890 and has lived in Pierce for the last ten years. During all these years he has proven beyond question of doubt that he is a number one lawyer of great ability, always throwing his whole soul into the case in which he is employed as counsel, and doing his utmost to win for his client. As a criminal lawyer he has very few equals in this part of the state, and this fact can be attested to by those who have had the pleasure of listening to his eloquence in this judicial district for many years passed. As a lover of justice he stands alongside those who believe in what is right and fair. He is respected as an able and broad-minded man in this county more particularly than elsewhere, because of the fact that he is far better and more intimately known by his fellow citizens. They honored him by electing him county attorney for three consecutive terms and no man ever served the county more faithfully and judiciously. If ever the time comes when they can scratch his name on the ballot for any office to which he aspires, they will do so most willingly.

Powers and Barnhart, two strong men and for whom we predict a large practice, because of their great ability. When we say that we regret to see "Barney" leave our midst, it comes from the bottom of our heart, but his increasing law practice calls him forth, and his new location will put him in a better position to handle his business. Farewell, old citizen, we hate to lose you, but all of us wish you success and prosperity in your new home.

SHERIFF AFTER THIEVES

IS REPORTED THAT KNOXVILLE BURGLARS ARE CAUGHT.

TWELVE MILES FROM VERDIGRE

It is Reported at Verdigre That the Burglars Who Robbed the Store of George Hodson Have Been Apprehended by the Sheriff.

It is said that the goods have been found. If this is true, and the men arrested are proven guilty, it will mean terms in the penitentiary.

It is said here that the sheriff suspected two brothers who live in the vicinity and who will find no sympathy here.

Croup Quickly Cured.

A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy bring surprising results when a child shows symptoms of croup. There is no cause for alarm when this medicine is in the house as it rarely takes more than three or four doses to bring about a complete cure. It has never failed even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no home where there are small children can afford to be without it. For sale by Leonard the druggist.

DIED AFTER CARD GAME.

Fight Among Insane Patients Was One Ground of Charges.

On his return to Lincoln, after investigating the insane hospital here, Governor Mickey told of his trip and the hospital here. Among other things, according to the Omaha Bee correspondent at Lincoln, the following was evolved:

Some time ago, the governor said, inmates of the asylum were playing cards and got into a fight. The guard who was looking after them was unable to separate them and called for assistance. It took four or five men to overpower the mad men and within ten days one of the insane persons engaged in the fight died. Wolf wrote the governor his death was due to injuries received from the guards who tried to separate the men in the fight. The man who died was subject to epilepsy and the governor was unable to discover whether his treatment had anything to do with his death.

"The medical department, under charge of Dr. Nicholson," said the governor, "was well handled and he found no complaints about the management of this part of the institution. The employees were all cautioned against using violence in handling patients and will be given another trial before drastic measures are taken."
