

THIRTY MILES FROM 'END'

NORTHWESTERN TO REACH SHOSHONI BY JUNE 1.

BEN WALKER PREDICTS THAT

Deep Railroad Well Out There is Now Flowing Oil and is Not Fit for Water—It is Expected 500,000 People Will Visit in August.

Speaking of conditions in the Shoshoni country Mr. O. B. Walker stated that the railroad is now completed to Richards, thirty miles from Shoshoni. The grade is practically finished and track laying is going on at the rate of one and one-fourth miles each day and will be finished to Shoshoni by June 1. Grading is progressing on the Lander branch beyond Shoshoni. The 1,300 foot railroad well at Powder river is flowing oil now and is useless for water, and 7,000 acres in oil claims have already been filed upon in its vicinity. The railroad company will have to pipe water from the mountains. The company's large tank to supply the town of Shoshoni with water is now being erected. The material was freighted overland from the end of the road. Shoshoni has now a population of 600 and people are coming in every day. It is expected that fully 500,000 people will view the country this summer. 250,000 attended the Rosebud opening and in the Shoshoni reservation there will be ten claims for every one allotted in the Rosebud. The Rosebud was all agricultural land while the Shoshoni has minerals, oil, soda, asphalt, timber and quarries of valuable stone. One person can file on five different claims. He can file on agricultural land and in addition can take a mineral claim, an oil claim of 160 acres, and timber land and stone or soda or coal land. There are other attractive features to draw a crowd. The National park with its wonders is close to the reservation, there is good fishing two and one-half miles from Shoshoni, the climate is delightful for invalids and the mineral springs are not excelled by those of Carlsbad. An accurate map of the lands to be opened is being now printed by The Daily News for the Shoshoni Pioneer Locating agency at Shoshoni, which has been compiled from the government records and shows all streams, irrigating canals, mineral and oil lands and gives in detail the topography of each section of agricultural land. This will prove a great aid to those who desire reliable information regarding this much exploited country.

Farmers bring in your repair work for spring. I will save you 20% as I have the time and am prepared to do the work. Paul Nordwig.

Articles of Incorporation.
Know all men by these presents, That we, W. N. Huse, Norris A. Huse and Mary E. Huse do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the state of Nebraska, and do adopt the following articles of incorporation:

Article I.
The name and title of this corporation shall be The Huse Publishing Company.

Article II.
The principal place of business of this corporation shall be at Norfolk in the county of Madison and state of Nebraska.

Article III.
The capital stock of this corporation shall be the sum of $30,000.00 to be divided into shares of $100 each, said capital stock to consist of the business of W. N. Huse, printer and publisher at Norfolk, Nebraska, together with all the machinery, type and supplies owned by him in the transacting of his printing and publishing business at Norfolk, together with the following described real estate, to-wit: the west 40 feet of the south 22 feet of lot 7, block 4, and the south 22 feet of lot 8, block 4, all in the Original Town of Norfolk, Nebraska, being the real estate upon which is situated the building and plant now owned and operated by W. N. Huse for printing and publishing, subject to all incumbrances now against said premises which the said corporation hereby assumes and agrees to pay, upon a bill of sale being executed by the said W. N. Huse to The Huse Publishing Company for all machinery, stock, supplies and material used by him in the publishing and printing business in which he is now engaged, together with the good will of said business and upon his transferring to the said The Huse Publishing Company the fee title to the said premises, to-wit: the west 40 feet of the south 22 feet of lot 7, block 4, and the south 22 feet of lot 8, block 4, all in the Original Town of Norfolk, Nebraska, subject to present incumbrances. There shall be issued by the said The Huse Publishing Company to the said W. N. Huse 200 shares of capital stock of the said corporation and to Norris A. Huse 75 shares of the capital stock of said corporation, and to Mary E. Huse 25 shares of the capital stock of said corporation, said shares to be fully paid up and non-assessable. No transfer of the stock of this corporation shall be operative until entered upon the books of the corporation.

Article IV.
The object for which this corporation is formed is to carry on the publishing of newspapers, periodicals and other publications, do all kinds of job work, composition, book binding, book making, blank printing, blank book manufacturing and to carry on a wholesale business in the furnishing of all class of paper stock, "ready printing," blank books and office supplies, and to engage in the manufacturing and selling of anything belonging to a general printing establishment.

Article V.
This corporation shall commence business as soon as its articles of incorporation are filed in the office of the county clerk of Madison county, Nebraska, and continue for a period of fifty (50) years thereafter, unless sooner dissolved by the consent of the stock holders.

Article VI.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time subject itself shall not exceed the sum of $15,000.00.

Article VII.
The officers of this corporation shall consist of a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer and one person may hold two offices. These officers are to be selected by the board of directors of said corporation who shall have full power to prescribe the salaries and duties of each officer.

Article VIII.
The board of directors shall consist of three share holders, and the following persons, W. N. Huse, Norris A. Huse and Mary E. Huse are hereby appointed directors of this corporation to hold their offices as such until the regular annual election takes place pursuant to article II. of these articles of incorporation and until their successors are chosen and qualified.

Article IX.
The regular annual meeting of the stock holders of this corporation for the election of directors and for the transacting of such business as would regularly come before it, shall be held at the office of the corporation on the 1st day of April of each year. The directors elected at such annual meeting shall hold their office for the term of one year and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Article X.
The said board of directors at their first meeting shall enact by-laws for the government of said corporation not inconsistent with the articles of incorporation and not inconsistent with the law for the regulation of business of the corporation and the management and administration of the affairs, and shall have the power to do and perform all acts which may be legal for a board of directors to do under the laws of the state of Nebraska.

Article XI.
Each share holder shall at all regular or special meetings be entitled to one vote either in person or proxy for each share of stock held.

Article XII.
The articles of incorporation may be amended or changed at any regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose by a two-thirds vote of all the stock of the corporation.

Croup Quickly Cured.
A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy bring surprising results when a child shows symptoms of croup. There is no cause for alarm when this medicine is in the house as it rarely takes more than three or four doses to bring about a complete cure. It has never failed even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no home where there are small children can afford to be without it. For sale by Leonard the druggist.

EIGHTY SNAKES IN A HOLE

Mammoth Colony of Reptiles at Ed Wagner's Farm.

Eighty garter snakes were found in one spot of his farm by Ed Wagner, living three miles southeast of town, one day during the latter part of last week, fifty-two of them coiled up together in one hole. The entire four score of the reptiles were killed by Mr. Wagner.

Twenty-eight of the garter serpents were killed by Mr. Wagner Thursday afternoon. He determined that there must be a colony of them somewhere near abouts, and the next day investigated. With a spade he dug down into the earth at a point where he found a little hole in the ground. When the spade turned its earth away from the hole, Mr. Wagner was amazed and startled to see, all coiled up in several little groups, a squirming mass of striped creatures, sticking out seemingly a thousand tongues at him.

His spade began the slaughter, which continued for fifteen minutes. It was found after the killing that there were just fifty-two different snakes in the batch. Some of them were big and some of them little. Mr. Wagner declares that he had not had anything stronger than water.

CUT HAGERTY REWARD

HOLT COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TAKE DOWN $1,000.

AFRAID HE WOULD COME BACK

WAS FEARED FRIENDS MIGHT CLAIM PRIZE MONEY.

SOME KNOW WHERE OLD MAN IS

Hagerty's Signature Was Secured at One Time to Property Transfer, Showing That His Whereabouts is Known—McGreevy Has Gone.

O'Neill, Neb., April 30.—Special to The News: One of the first results of the dismissal of the McGreevy cases in the district court of Rock county on April 21 has been the withdrawal of the reward for the apprehension of Patrick Hagerty, former partner of McGreevy and cashier of the defunct Elkhorn Valley bank.

A standing reward of $300 was offered by the county for Hagerty soon after his departure from O'Neill in November, 1904. A few weeks ago this reward was raised to $1,000 by the board of supervisors, and last Saturday the reward was withdrawn by the board and the funds turned back into the county treasury.

Afraid He Would Return.
The supervisors feel that the county can not afford to pay out $1,000 and run the risk of having Hagerty turned loose if caught as McGreevy was. They entertained the suspicion, too, now that McGreevy is out, that some of Hagerty's friends would have him brought back to this county for the purpose of claiming the reward.

A good deal of speculation is indulged in as to how Hagerty keeps himself hid as he does. There is not a man in the state more easily identified than he. It is confidently believed by many here that he had aid from this end in keeping covered up. The fact that about a year ago his signature was secured for the transfer of some real estate included in the new hotel property lends color to the belief and shows that some persons here know his hiding place.

That the affairs of the old Elkhorn Valley bank were in a bad way was clearly shown both in the trial of the bank examiner case here and the trial of the suit against the bank's bondsmen for the county deposits, and how its officers can escape prosecution under the criminal laws is not clear to the people of this community. In the trial of the bank examiner case notes found among the assets of the institution aggregating about $30,000 were introduced in evidence by the prosecution and shown to be forgeries. In the trial of the case against the bondsmen each of them swore on the witness stand that they had not signed the bond, though the signatures on the bond if not genuine were perfectly imitated. The notary witnessing the signatures testified that the bondsmen had not appeared before him in person. The attorney for the bondsmen showed how the signatures might have been secured on the bond. He had each one of the men whose name was attached to the bond sign his name in ink on a slip of paper. These were taken into a dark room and placed, one slip at a time, on an ordinary pane of glass, with a lighted lamp directly under the glass. A blank slip of paper was then laid over each slip bearing the signatures and the light from below plainly revealed the writing through the upper sheet. Then the signatures were traced with pen and ink, the result being perfect reproductions of the originals.

McGreevy Has Gone.
As a result of these two trials forgery was legally established with reference to the notes and bond.

Bernard McGreevy, who was released from prosecution in the district court of Rock county April 21, has left O'Neill. He has gone west, presumably to Montana or Washington, where he has mining interests.

FIND $160 OF BUTTE MONEY.

Hidden in Heap of Cobs, Part of Stolen Funds is Recovered.

Floyd Hull of Norfolk received a letter yesterday from Butte stating that $160 of the money which was taken from the postoffice there Saturday morning, had been found hidden in a heap of cobs in a coal shed behind the postoffice. A warrant was sworn out against one man but investigation failed to reveal any of the stamps. The letter states that there is still no trace of the robber.

WORKED FOR C. B. DURLAND

Easy Method He Adopted for Selling Two Houses, Renting One.

Norfolk, May 1.—Daily News: Three weeks ago I inserted two want ads. In The News columns, one advertising a house on North Tenth street for sale or for rent, and the other advertising a house at the Junction for sale. I am pleased to say that the two little ads. have rented the house on North Tenth street, then sold it and that they have brought replies which will, in all probability, lead to the sale of the other.

The very next day after the ad. offering to sell or rent the North Tenth street house, appeared, it was rented as a result. Then we dropped the "for rent" feature, still advertising it for sale. Several inquiries were received, and the house was sold to E. M. Clement.

We have received a number of replies to the ad. offering the Junction house for sale and have, I believe, practically sold that as a result of your ad.

Yours truly,
C. B. Durland, Secretary.
P. S.—During the month I had another occasion to test the want ads. I found a feather boa, and advertised it. The same day of the ad. an answer came, William Sporn calling by phone and claiming the boa a few hours after the paper was issued. It has demonstrated to me that people who want things, do read the want ads. very closely. C. B. Durland.

RAILROAD HITS GREGORY

IT IS SELECTED THAT EXTENSION PASSES THROUGH.

THEY GIVE LAND AND DEPOT

The Citizens of Gregory, a Town Out on the Rosebud, Have Pledged Right of Way to Burke and Will Build a Station for Northwestern.

Gregory, S. D., April 30.—Special to The News: Right of Way Man Vallette, for the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company, came to town and met with the citizens of Gregory and made a proposition that if the citizens would procure the right of way to Burke and give depot grounds, they would build the line from Bonesteel to Gregory.

A committee was appointed and the right of way pledged. This insures Gregory the railroad.

Great enthusiasm was manifested on the part of the citizens and all lots in town have been taken. Gregory with a railroad will be the best town west of the Missouri river. Many new enterprises are now coming in and we are on the verge of a big boom. The road passes through the south part of town and stops here, making this the terminus, which means a big thing for Gregory. It is surrounded by the best land on the Rosebud and settled by a fine class of people.

FORGETTING, GOT IN HOT WATER

Norfolk Jewelry Salesman Wrongly Accused Girls in Store.

Absent-mindedness yesterday brought serious results to a Norfolk jewelry salesman who forgot what he had done with a number of gold rings and, forgetting, accused a couple of innocent young women of having taken them. When he discovered that he had merely placed the gold bands in a display window and that the two young women were perfectly blameless, he became for the time being almost a nervous wreck and could not in any way, though he apologized profusely and sincerely, forgive himself for the error.

The young man had on the day before taken out several handsome rings from their case and had placed them in a display window. Then he forgot all about it. Yesterday afternoon two young ladies entered the store, asked to see the gold rings and were shown the samples.

They looked at the rings, finished, and left the store. The salesman began replacing his wares in good order in their case and found that the case was not filled by the rings. Some were missing. He searched everywhere, but there was no sign of the rings. And so he jumped to the conclusion that the two young women had taken them. The young woman passed the window before long, and the young jeweler tapped on the window. They came into the store to be charged with the offense.

"I find some of my rings gone," said the salesman, "and, since no one has been in but you, you must have taken the rings. The cheapest thing to do will be to return them."

The two astounded young women were horror stricken at the accusation and their feelings were deeply hurt in the matter. They of course denied the charge and left the store. A little later the young man began racking his brain and then there flashed through his mind the memory of having placed the rings in the window. He looked, and there lay the little circles of yellow metal.

Of course he went immediately to the innocent young women whom he had accused wrongly, and apologized. He blamed himself in an extreme degree and would have done anything in the world that could be done to square the matter and to show how deeply he deplored the unfortunate accident. He says that he never will forgive himself and that he can not tell how much he regrets having falsely charged so serious an offense to the two entirely innocent victims of the affair.

South Dakota The Land of Plenty
Rich soil, a mild climate, and abundance of water have made South Dakota one of the best agricultural states in the Union. The soil of Lyman County is unusually rich. It is a black loam with a yellow clay subsoil. The extension through Lyman County recently built by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway has opened up a part of that state hitherto sparsely settled. Land is now selling at the rate of from $8 to $15 an acre, and it is altogether probable that valuations will increase 100 to 200 per cent within a year. South Dakota offers great opportunities for the small investor. A book on South Dakota for two cents postage.

RESULTS
The word results means a whole lot to the farmer of to-day and it is especially attractive to the homeseeker or those seeking new locations. If we tell you of a country where you are sure of success, will you believe us? It is only necessary for you to farm the land and the best results will follow—a State which the government reports will show leads in the production of wheat. It also ranks among the first in the raising of corn, alfalfa, timothy and other products, together with stock raising. We speak of
KANSAS
The great State of the West, where lands can be purchased from $5 to $30 per acre which equals the returns of the $50 to $150 per acre lands of other States. EASTERN COLORADO is identical in most respects and the same opportunities are offered there. Buy quick while the lands are cheap and secure the benefit of an excellent investment. THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILWAY touches the heart of this rich agricultural region and extremely low rates are offered, allowing stop-over at pleasure in certain territory for inspection of lands, etc. Write us and we will send you free descriptive literature and full information.
