The city clerk said that he believed there will be no local bidders on the contract, though it had been thought up until today that two or three local contractors might enter bids on the work.

The bonds have not been issued as vet, and no bids for the bonds have been received, according to City Treasurer Haase. The law requires that the bonds draw not more than 4 per cent interest, and be sold at par. As the amount of the bonds is sald to be not large enough for heavy investors to buy at this figure, it is probable that the bonds will be turned over to the contractors in payment for the work and the contractor, bidding his work in at a higher figure on this account, will sell the bonds at more than 4 per cent.

The bidders on deck this morning were: Rackliff & Gibson, St. Jo, Mo.; Construction Co., Kansas City, Mo.; J. J. Dunnigan, Shenandoah, Iowa; J. W. Turner, Des Moines, Iowa; O. P. Herrick, Des Moines.

The contract, according to the bonds voted by the city in the amount of $40,000, must be completed by Novem-
