CONVENTION AT BATTLE CREEK

County Nominations-Jack Koenigstein for Attorney, Alderson for Representative and Burr Taft for County Commissioner.

[From - - mesday's Daily.] Jack Koenigstein for county attor ney, T. E. Alderson for representative in the legislature and Burr Taft for county commissioner wera the candidates placed in the field by the repub-Creek yesterday afternoon.

Resolutions were passed endorsing Judge Boyd for congress, that the members of the legislature vote for form was adopted.

The delegates began to arrive early and soon the streets of the town were crowded with interested and anxious politicians from all over the county.

Not only was the convention of interest to Madison county, but it proved a magnet which drew Hon. E. Rose-Brown from Lincoln, Judge Boyd from Stanton, all candidates before the people, and all interested in what would be done in Battle Creek today.

The Convention.

The convention was called to order shortly after 1 o'clock by Burt Mapes, chairman of the county central com mittee.

The reading of the call was distemporary secretary.

which would attract the presence of igstein. four of the most prominent politicians of the state and congratulating the resplendid representation of the various precincts of the county.

The appointment of a committee on credentials was dispensed with and the chairmen of the various precincts' delegations passed their credentials to sued for that convention. the secretary and the names as read were adopted as delegates entitled to seats in the convention.

The temporary organization was then made permanent.

M. D. Putney of Tilden introduced a a resolution endorsing Judge Boyd for congress as follows:

"We, the republicans of Madison county, in convention assembled, endorse Judge J. F. Boyd of Antelope county for congress and we instruct our delegates to the congressional convention to vote for and use all honorable means to secure his nomination."

An amendment was offered by Mr. Miller of Shell Creek that "ao instruction be given on congressman.
